The Office and Authority of SHERIFFS, gathered out of the Law-Books and Statutes of this R E A L M.

C A P. I.

The Name, Antiquity, and Charge, &c.

Co. 9. 49. &
57.

The most eminent and supreme dignity from the Conquest until the 11 year of Edward the Third, was the Earl or Countee, being anciently of the blood-Royal, and taking their names Comites à Comitatu, or (as some have it,) Comes.

Comites nomen acceperunt à comitando, quia principem comitarentur ad bella publicaque negotia, ejus lateri semper hærentes: As another saith, Kings vouchsafed to call them Comites, Companions; for that both out of their love they will, and out of knowledge can, and out of courage (the true ground of ancient Nobility) dare to advise boldly and truly upon every occasion: And these were of ancient time Præfecti seu Præpositi comitatus, the Rulers or Governours of the Counties or Shires under the King, for so imports the Saxon words, scil. Shire Reve, id est, Reve del Shire, which is as much as Præpositus comitatus. And these Earls had anciently committed to them from the King the charge and custody of the County during his Majesties pleasure, but afterwards when Estates for Life and Inheritance were granted of the Office, then the Vicecomites were made, who have the same Authority that the ancient Comites had, and at this day there are some Reliques of that Dignity, for he hath album baculum, and the Grant of the Office is Commissus Vobis: and also he takes place of every Noble man during the time that he is in Office, and is a grand Conservator of the peace. Smith de Repub. Anglor. pag. 59.

And another ancient Writer says, That Ælfred first dividing this Kingdom into several Counties, (or Shires) instituted a Prefect or Lieutenant in every of those Counties, which then were called Custodes, Keepers, and afterwards Comites, Earls, who were to keep the County in Obedience to the King, and to suppress the Outrages of notorious Robbers. Speed 4.

Sir Edw. Cook, lib. 5. telleth us, that County is fetched from the French, and Shire from the Saxon, and in Latin it is called, Comitatus à comitando, for accompanying together; for men of one County do accompany together at their County Courts, Tournes, Leets, and other Courts. And that there be in England 40 Counties, and in Wales twelve. (Ibid. 109. b.) Mr. Camden, pag. 159. numb'reth 30 Shires and in Wales 13. So in all there here 52 Shires at this day.

Chune ver.
Pyot. Rolls
1 R. 237.

So then County, Comitatus, signifieth as much as Shire; the one coming from the French, the other from the Saxons: Both containing a circuit, or portion of the Realm, into which the whole Land is divided, for the better Government thereof, and the more easie administration of Justice.

There is no part of the Kingdom that lieth not within some County.

Of these Counties there be four of special mark, and are termed County Palatines, as the County Palatine of Lancaster, of Chester, of Durham, and of Ely. And the chief Governours of these County Palatines, by especial Charter from the King, did heretofore all things touching Justice, absolutely, and in their own Name: But by the Stat. 27 H. 8. c. 24. this power of theirs is much abridged. Vaughan 418.

There be also Counties Corporate; and these be certain Cities, or ancient Boroughs, upon which Kings formerly have bestowed such extraordinary Liberties; as the Cities of London, York, and Chester, Canterbury, Kingston upon Hull, Lichfield, and Haverford, &c. Minsh. See Co. Littl. 109.

Every County is now Governed by a yearly Officer, whom we call a Sheriff.

But the three honourable names, titles, and dignities of Dukes, Marquesses, and Viscounts, they came in long after the Conquest: the name or title of Duke being no name of dignity in England, until the time of King Edward the Third, who first created his eldest Son Prince Edward (called the Black Prince, Duke of Cornwall, and after also created his other sons Dukes. Co. 9. 124. & Co. 1. 69. Cambden 165.

And Marquesses, their title or name was not before the time of King Richard the Second; Robert Earl of Oxford being then made the first Marquess, as appeareth by Passer Cambden in his Britannia, & Co. 9. 124.

And Dominus de Bello Monte, was the first Viscount, and Created by King Henry the VI. Co. 1. 69.

Viccomes.

The Sheriff, Viccomes, est vicem gerens, or the Carls Deputy, following and doing that service in the executing all matters of Justice, as the Carl should do. And ancient Kings ordained in every County these Sheriffs, to keep the Peace &c. when the Carls were absent from their charges: and for the administration of Justice to every man within each County; and to be attendant to the King, and his Justices for the executing of their Commands. Co. 7. 33. & 9. Preface. Il est un grand Confrvator del' Peace. Rolls 1 R. 237.

It seemeth that Carls, by reason of their high employments, and attendance upon the King, being not able to follow also the business of the County, were delivered of all that burthen, and only enjoyed the honour as now they do: and that labour was laid upon the Sheriff; so that now the Sheriff doth all the Kings business in the County: And the Sheriff though he be still called Viccomes, yet all he doth, and all his Authority is immediately from and under the King, and not from or under the Carl. So then at this day the Sheriff hath all the Authority, for the Administration and the Execution of Justice, which the Countee or Carl had, the King by his Letters Patents now committing to the Sheriff Custodiam Comitatus. Co. 9. 49. See the Patent of his Office hic postea. Rolls 1 Rep. 237.

Passer

Master Cambden, pag. 160. thus describeth them; Every year some one of the Gentlemen Inhabitants, is made Ruler of the County wherein he dwelleth, whom we call in Latin Vicecomes, as one would say, the Deputy of the Comes or Earl, and in our Tongue, Sheriff, that is, the Reeve of the Shire.

And although the King by his Letters Patents granteth to the Sheriff Custodiam Comitatus, without any expresse words to make a Deputy, yet the Sheriff (qui gerit vicem Comitatus) who cometh now in place of the Countee, may make his Deputy, his Subvicecomes, or Under-Sheriff. But this Deputy hath not, or ought not to have interest or estate in the Office; but is only as a shadow of the Officer, and doth all things in the name of the Officer himself, and for whom his Grants must answer, Co. 9. 48. B.

And so the Under-Sheriff hath not, or ought not to have any Estate or Interest in the Office it self; neither may he do any thing in his own Name, but only in the Name of the High Sheriff, who is answerable for him.

Laicocks Case,
Larch. 187.
Co. 9. 49.

And agreeable hereunto is the Resolution in Laicocks Case in Latch 187. where a Writ was directed to the Sheriff, and delivered to the Under-Sheriff, who was brought into the presence of the party which was to be arrested; and yet notwithstanding at the return of the Writ he returned Non est inventus. Whereupon an action was brought against the Under-Sheriff for this false Return, and adjudged that it did not lie for the High-Sheriff only, who is the Officer of the Court is chargeable, and not the Under-Sheriff; and that for every default of the Under-Sheriff the High-Sheriff shall be amerced, but the High-Sheriff shall not be imprisoned for the act of the Under-Sheriff, nor indicted for any misdemeanour committed by him, but for other matters he shall answer for him.

In ancient time this Officer was called Seneschallus Vicecomitis; and in the Statute of Westminster 2. cap. 39. (made Anno 13 Ed. 1. & Anno Dom. 1285.) he is called Subvicecomes, and in the Statute made 11 Hen. 7. cap. 15. he is called the Shire Clerk, Co. 9. 49. & the Clerk of the County, Dyer 355. See Mittons Case, Co. part. 4. & hic Cap. 118.

Note, that by the Common Law, he which hath an Office of trust cannot make a Deputy without expresse words in his Patent (or Grant) so to do, as appeareth in divers of our Books, Plow. 37. Littl. 379. Dyer 278. Br. Deputy 7. 9. 11 E. 4. fol. 1. &c. Now the Office of the High-Sheriff is an Office of great trust and confidence, and therefore he cannot make any Deputy in such things as concerns his Judicial power; nor may Let, or Assign over his Office in any manner. And as for matters concerning his Ministerial Office, he may make and appoint under him his Under-Sheriff, and other his Bayliffs and Deputies, who may occupy their places in the Right of the High-Sheriff, and as his Servants only, as it seemeth.

Also the High-Sheriff, as he is an Officer or Minister only, may make a Deputy concerning his Office, scil. He may make his Precept to another to arrest the party; or he may serve a Capias, or other Process by his Bayliff or servant, &c. But where the Sheriff is made a Judge of the cause (as well as an Officer) there he cannot make a Deputy, but there he must sit and execute the same in his own person, and not by his Under-Sheriff, or other Deputy, otherwise the proceedings will be erroneous, 21 H. 6. 37. & 9 E. 4. 31. Br. Deputy 19. 20. See plus hic. Cap. 3, 4, 81, 93, 113. & 122.

And see hic, cap. 2. fol. God advise to High-Sheriffs, to keep their Office in their house.

*Their Anti-

Sheriffs were great Officers, and Ministers of Justice (as now they are) long time before the Conquest, Co. lib. 3. Preface, & 4. fol. 33. And by Doderidge Justice inter Graunge and Denny, Rolls 1. Rep. 364. that Sheriffs and Coroners are a Principio Regis.

Yet Master Cambden sheweth out of Ingulphus, that Sheriffs were first ordained of King Ælfred (or Alfred, otherwise called Alured in our English Chronicles) who Reigned about Anno Dom. 872. And that he first divided England into several Counties, and after caused the Counties (or Shires) to be parted into Centuries, which they now call Hundreds, and into Decimes, which they call Tythings, and that every English man living under Law as a Liege Subject, should be within one Hundred and Tything or another; and if a man were accused of any transgression, he should bring in straightways some one out of the same Hundred and Tything, that would be bound for his appearance to answer the Law; but he that could not find such a surety, should abide the severity of the Laws: and in case any man standing thus accused (either before, or after Suretiship) fled, then all that Hundred and Tything incurred a Mulct or Fine to be imposed by the King. He also divided the Governours of the Provinces (which before were called Vice Domini, that is, Vice Lords) into two Offices, to wit, Judges, now Justices, and Vicecomites, that is, Sheriffs, which still retain the same name: hæc Cambden, out of Ingulphus, and Malmshury.

A Town is a Precinct, anciently containing ten Families, whereupon in some Counties they are still called Tythings. Finch 80.

Those Tythings contained each of them ten households, or ten persons, whereof every one was Pledge for anothers good Abearing (or Behaviour) who had one Chief called the Tythingman: And each Hundred had under their Merge ten such Tythings; and when any was chosen the chief of the Hundred, at the usual place of their meeting (after some reverence) every one with their Lances touched a Spear, which the Chief held upright in his hand, and by that Sign bowed to be peaceably Ordered, whence such a Society was called a Wapentake, (scil. a touching of Weapons.)

Besides in these Wapentakes (or Hundreds) many affairs were handled, and what could not be there decided, was referred to a meeting of greater Jurisdiction, containing usually three Hundreds, called in some places a Lath; and what could not be there decided, was referred to the whole Shire: for dispatch of which greater affairs, King Alfred appointed both Judges, and Sheriffs (as aforesaid) in every County. Speed 4.

And yet Minsh. verbo Wapentake, saith; that Wapentake is all one with that which we call an Hundred: shewing the same out of Bracton, and Mr. Lambard, and the Laws of King Edward: And he further sheweth the reason of the Denomination, to be their touching of Lances or weapons as aforesaid: And that this word is at this day used, especially in the North Countries by the River Trent.

Facta etiam Ministrorum suorum diligenter investigavit, adeo ut quos ex avaritia, aut imperitia errare cognosceret, ab officio removebat. This King Alfred did also diligently search out the doings of his Officers, so that if he knew any of them to erre, either through covetousness, or unskillfulness, then he removed from their office. Fox 129.

Also this word Sheriff, or Shireve, is derived of two Saxon words, viz. of Scyre, that is, the Shire or County, and Reve, that is, Keeper or Guardian, and so Scyre Reve is the Keeper or Guardian of the Shire. Co. 4. 33. St. 9. 97. Co. L. 168.

But albeit the Saxons in their time gave this Officer the vulgar name used to this day, yet it is manifest that the Office was of ancient time, and before the Saxons set any foot in England. Co. 9. Preface. ^{Their name proves not their Antiquity} So also before the time of the Saxons coming into England, and long before the time of King Alfred, this Kingdom was divided into Shires or Counties, but King Alfred in his time made the most certain division of them; for where during the time of the Heptarchy, there were many incroachments one upon another, and many ancient bounds obscured, all these he reformed by his exact partition. Co. 9. Preface. Co. L. 168.

And Sir Edward Cook sup Littl. fol. 168. sheweth that Sheriffs, Shires, and Counties were long before, sc. in the time of the Romans, and before; and that by the Romans this Officer was called Vice Consul; the Romans calling that Consulatam, which we call Comitatum.

Rolls 1. R. 237. The Sheriff then, as his name purports him to be the keeper of ^{their charge.} Governour of the County, so to this day his Patent is, Commisimus tibi custodiam Comitatus; And thereby he hath not only the charge of keeping of the Kings Rights of his Crown within his County, but also the keeping of the Peace; And hath power to levy Posse Comitatus, sc. so many men as he shall think meet to go with him to apprehend Traytors, Felons, Riotors, and the like offenders against the peace; And for to execute the Kings Writs or Process, or the Precepts or Warrants of the Kings Justices, &c. And also he hath the custody of all the common Gaols in the County now committed unto him: Besides he hath the Administration of Justice committed to him within his County, sc. within his Tourne to enquire of, and deal with matters touching the King himself, and with matters concerning the Commonwealth, as also in their County Courts to hear and determine particular suits, and matters between party and party: for all which see hic postea. Cap. 106, 109. & 3. See Co. L. 168. saith, that the Sheriff hath triplicem Custodiam, viz. vitæ Justitiæ, vitæ Legis, & vitæ Reipublicæ, &c. vitæ Justitiæ, to serve process, and to return indifferent Juries for the trial of men lives, liberties, lands and goods: vitæ Legis, to execute process and make execution, which is the life of the Law: & vitæ Reipublicæ, to keep the Peace, &c.

12 H. 7. fol. 17. So then at the first all administration of Justice was in one hand, scil. in the Crown, but afterwards (by reason of the multitude of people) the administration of justice was divided into Counties, and the power was committed to one deputy within every County, scil. first to the Earl, and after (in his absence, and now still) to the Sheriff as is aforesaid, who was, and now also is appointed to be the Kings deputy to keep the peace; and that all the people should be obedient to him, and ready at his command in defence of the Realm, when any of the Kings Enemies should come; he was and is appointed to be Conservator of the peace, and to suppress and punish malefactors within his County, and to defend the Realm when Enemies should come, and to be attendant upon the King in time of War, and to cause all the people within his County to go with the King for to defend the land against the Kings Enemies, &c.

Chune & Pyot
Rolls 1. R. 237.

Co. 4. 33.

So that the High-Sheriff (Vicecomes) is an Officer of great Antiquity, and of great trust and authority, having from the King the custody custody, keeping, command, and government (in some sort) of the whole County committed to his charge and care.

That manner of persons.

And because this Office is of so great trust and confidence, it is meet that such persons as shall be chosen thereunto, be men of good sufficiency, and such as may attend it, lest otherwise the King be much indammaged, and his people disinherited, and oppressed; and to this purpose the Statutes made 9 Edw. 2. de Vicecomitibus. 2 Edw. 3. c. 4. 4 Edw. 3. c. 9. & 5 Edw. 3. c. 4. have ordained, that no man shall be Sheriff in any County, except he have sufficient lands within the same County (or Shire) where he shall be Sheriff, whereof to answer the King, and his people, in case that any man shall complain against them.

Neither shall any Steward, or Bayliff to any great Lord, be made Sheriff (except he be put forth of service) but such persons only shall be appointed, as may wholly attend to serve the King, and his people. Statute 9 Ed. 2. Lincoln.

Their Election.

The High Sheriffs are to be chosen or assigned yearly by the Lord Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, the Lord Treasurer of England, the President of the Kings Council, the Keeper of the Kings Privy Seal, and the chief Baron of the Exchequer, taking to them the chief Justices of the one Bench and of the other, as appeareth by the Statutes of 14 Ed. 3. cap. 7. & 21 Hen. 8. cap. 20. and afterwards are appointed by the King, whereas in former times they were chosen in the full Counties, by the Commons of the Country, as it appeareth by the Statute made 28 Ed. 1. c. 8. & 13. Stat. 9 E. 2.

And this Election or Nomination of the Sheriff shall be done yearly on the morrow after All Souls, at the Exchequer by the Statutes 9 Ed. 2. & 14 Ed. 3. c. 7.

And the Kings Letters Patents whereby the new Sheriffs are made, do commonly bear date the sixth day of November. 12 Ed. 4. c. 1.

And yet the King by his Prerogative may make and appoint the Sheriffs, without this usual Assembly, and Election, or Nomination in the Exchequer, as it happened, Anno 5 Eliz. vide Dyer 225. and is the daily practice at this day upon the death of any Sheriff.

Also the Sheriffs in every of the Shires of Wales, shall be nominated yearly, by the Lord President, Council, and Justices of Wales, and shall be certified up by them, and after appointed and elected by the King, as other Sheriffs be, 34 H. 8. c. 26.

cannot be divided.

The Office of a Sheriff cannot be apportioned or divided; and therefore when the King maketh or appointeth one to be Sheriff durante bene placito, although the King may determine this his Office at his pleasure, yet he cannot determine it in part, as for one Town or one Hundred, or any other part: neither can he abridge the Sheriff of any thing incident or belonging to his Office, for the Office is entire, and so it must continue in that intierity for the whole County, without any fraction or diminution (except it be by Act of Parliament, or that the King shall make some Town, &c. a County of it self, and shall appoint there a Sheriff, and all things belonging to a Sheriff within the same Town, &c.) Neither can the Office of a Sheriff be determined, determined, nor any part thereof, without and until a new Sheriff be made for the execution and administration of Justice (except it be by the death of the King, or of the Sheriff) Co. 4. 33. Finch. 12. See here postea tit. County Court, & hic c. 2.

2 & 3 Edw. 6.
cap. 34.

When the first thing that every new elected Sheriff must do at the entrance into his Office, is, that forthwith before he receives his Patent, and before he doth exercise any part of the said Office, he must put in sufficient sureties by himself, or by his sufficient Deputy or Deputies, into the Kings Exchequer (sc. in the Kings Remembrancers Office there) and there must enter into Recognisance in such sum, and upon such conditions (as it seemeth) as the Lord Treasurer, and Barons of the Exchequer shall think meet, upon pain of every Sheriff making default therein, to forfeit to the King an hundred pounds to be levied of his lands and goods wheresoever, &c. by process to be made out by the said Barons, see the Statute of 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 34.

He must enter Recognisance.

And yet it seemeth, that the condition of such Recognisance is usually for the payment of the Sheriffs proffers, or for the making of his account in the Exchequer, which is twice in the year; that is to say, at or before mensé Pasche, and mensé Michaelis. See the form of his Recogn. hic c. 124.

The High-Sheriff (or some other for him) having entered into Recognisance with sureties in the Exchequer as aforesaid, his Attorney there will write him a note, thereby signifying that he is Sheriff of such a County, and that he hath entered Recognisance as aforesaid, The which note must be delivered to one of the six Clerks in the Chancery for his warrant to make the Sheriffs Patents by (sc. the Patent of his Office, with his writ of assistance:) And besides, a writ of discharge, to be delivered to his Predecessor, to discharge him out of his Office, the which would be delivered with all speed, for his own benefit or his Under-Sheriffs; for until it be delivered to his Predecessor, the precedent Sheriff may do execution of all process.

He must procure his Patents.

The High-Sheriff hath this authority given him by two Patents; by the one the King commits to him the custody of the County, by the other the King commands all other his subjects within that County to be aiding and assisting to the Sheriff, in all things belonging to his said Office.

The forms of the said Patents are as followeth.

The

Also every Sheriff before he shall take upon him to use or exercise his said Office, must take and pronounce the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and the Oath for the due execution of his Office. 3.
He must take the Oaths.

The Oath of Supremacy the Sheriff is to take by force of the Statutes made 1 Eliz. c. 1. & 5 Eliz. c. 1. and also by the Statute made in 25 Car. Secundi Ca. 11. Entituled, An Act for preventing dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants.

The form of which Oath followeth.

I *A. By a Statute made in 25 Car. 2. ca. 2. he must receive the Sacrament, take the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and subscribe this following Declaration:

I A. B. do declare that I believe that there is not any Transubstantiation in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper, or in the Elements of Bread and Wine, at or after the Consecration thereof by any person whatsoever.

The parts of this Oath, as Sheriffs are shortly these.

The Kings Right.

1. Truly to keep the Kings Rights of his Crown, (scz. his Lands, Rents, Franchises, Suits, and all other things within that County, belonging to the Crown) without loosening or concealment of them; or else to certify the King, or some of his Council thereof.

The Kings debts

2. That he shall not respite the Kings Debts, where they may be raised without great grievance of the Debtor.

Right to all.

3. To do Right to all, as well poor as rich, in all things belonging to his Office.

The Kings debtors.

4. Truly to acquit at the Exchequer (upon his Account) all such of the Kings Debtors of whom he hath received any of the Kings Debts.

Writs. Under-sheriff.

5. Truly to serve and return all the Kings Writs.

6. Not to have to his Under-sheriff, any of the Sheriffs Clerks of the year last past.

Nota, & quare how Sheriffs perform these two parts of their Oath.

7. To

7. To take no Bayliff, but such as he will answer for; and such as Bayliffs. be true and sufficient men in that County.

8. To make each of his Bayliffs to take an Oath, for the true exercise of his Office.

9. To receive no Writ unsealed: Nor any sealed, except by Justices having authority to make Writs unto him, by the Law of the Land.

10. To suppress Heresies (called Lollaries) and therein to assist the Ordinary, being required. See hic Cap. 101. Some reasons why this Oath herein is fit to be amended, scil. the word Lollaries to be left out at the least.

See the Stat.
4 H. 4. cap. 5.

11. To be dwelling in persons within his Bayliwick (or County) To be resident. for the time he shall be in this Office, except he be otherwise licensed by the King.

12. That he shall not let to Farm his Sherifswick, nor any Bayliwick thereof. 4 H. 4. c. 5. & 23 H. 6. c. 10.

Note, that by this Letting to Farm, is understood the assigning or granting of the Profits of his Sherifswick, or Bayliwicks, so as the Grantee by such Grant taketh (or may take) the profits to his own use. Vide hic cap. 3. & 117.

13. Truly to set, and return reasonable and due issues, after the issues estate of the persons.

* Or by his Under sheriff which is a sufficient person.
For qui per alium facit per se facit Cr. Car. 19.

14. To make the Pannels * himself; and of such persons as be Justices next neighbours, most sufficient and not suspect, nor procured.

15. Truly and effectually, with all diligence to execute the Statutes of Winchester and of Vagabonds.

Concerning this last part of this Oath, the Statute of Winchester (made 13 Edw. 1.) commandeth that fresh suit be made, from Town to Town, and from County to County, after Felons (scil. upon Robberies, Murders, Burning of Houses, and other Felonies committed:) And that Night-watches be duly kept, for the arresting of suspected persons, (who are to be delivered to the Sheriff;) and that High-ways be enlarged, that Felons and evil Doers may not lurk therein to do hurt, &c. and of all these things the Sheriff is to Enquire in his Tozne: see hic postea tit. Torne.

Now what else the Sheriff may or ought to do in these Cases; It seemeth by the Statute of Winchester, c. 1. 2, & 4. and by the Statute made 5 Ed. 3. cap. 14. That if any person suspected for Felony shall be apprehended by the Country, upon such fresh Suit or Cry and Cry; or that any suspected person shall be arrested by the Constables or Townsmen upon their Watches by day or by night, and that such persons shall be delivered to the Sheriff, he then ought to inroll the same (F. C. 345.) And the Sheriff may receive them without damage, and shall keep them safely (and may commit them to the Gaol) until they shall be acquitted in due manner, scil. until the coming down of the Justices assigned to deliver the Gaol; (otherwise it shall be adjudged an Escape in the Sheriff:) and in the mean time the Sheriff shall inquire of such Arrests, and at the coming of the Justices they must Return such Enquests before the Judges of Gaol-delivery, which they have found, and the cause of the taking, with the bodies of such Offenders; but Quære whether the Sheriffs shall enquire of such Arrests &c. in their Town, or where else; for if it be in their Town, then by the Statute, 1 Ed. 4. cap. 2. they must deliver their Indictments to the Justices of Peace at their Sessions: see hic, tit. Tonic. Again, the Justices of Peace do now usually deal with such Offenders, so as the Sheriffs are not * now troubled with them; either to Zuroll, or Commit, or to Enquire of these Offenders, otherwise then in the Sheriffs Towne, as it seemeth.

* Nota.

Also by the Statute of Winchester, cap. 6. Sheriffs are commanded to follow the Hup and Cry with the Country, and to keep Hoxles, and Armour so to do, quod nota.

Note further, that by this Statute of Winchester, cap. 1. It was commanded that Cries should be solemnly made in all Counties, Hundreds, Markets, and Fairs, &c. The meaning whereof was, that Proclamation should be made in all Counties. and in all places where great assemblies of people should be, to warn them of this Statute of Winchester, and of the pain therein contained, so as none might excuse themselves of ignorance, &c. But by the Letter of this Statute Proclamation was appointed to be made but once, which was executed presently after the making of this Statute: so that by force of this Statute, no such Proclamation is to be made at this day. But for that this Statute is one of the most beneficial that ever was made for the suppressing of Robberies and Felonies; therefore by another statute made not long after, scil. 28 Ed. 1. cap. 17. It was Ordained, that the said Statute of Winchester should be sent again into every County to be read and published four times in the year, &c. Afterwards, for that these Malefactors and mischiefs did still more and more increase, King Richard the Second sent the same Statute of Winchester again to be proclaimed in every County: And besides, by a Statute made in the seventh year of his Reign (being now still in force) he further Ordained, that every Sheriff of England should in person four times in the year, proclaim the Statute of Winchester in every Hundred of his County, and in every Market-Town, by his Bayliffs, as well within 7 R. 2. c. 6. Liberties, as without: and this Statute of 7 R. 2. doth further ratifie and confirm the said Statute of Winchester in all points: Quære for the use.

But what the Sheriffs stand bound to do by this last Article of their Oath concerning Vagabonds: (Or by their Office, by vertue of any Statute now in force) save only to arrest and commit them as suspected persons. See hic cap. 4. Quære, Considering that by the Statute of 39 Eliz. cap. 4. All former Statutes made for the punishing of Vagabonds, are now repealed: And by that Statute of Repeal (nor by any other since) Sheriffs have no Authority, nor any thing now to do concerning them.

Before whom the Sheriff shall take his Oaths.

Wilk. 4.

The High-Sheriff ought to take these Oaths (to the Supremacy, and for the due execution of his Office) before one of the Judges of the Assizes of that Shire whereof he is Sheriff, or before one of the Masters of the Chancery; and this should be done (scil. these Oaths should be taken by the Sheriff) so soon as his Patents be made (if the Sheriff be then in London,) for until he be sworn he may not intermeddle, nor take upon him to use or exercise his said Office: or else the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England may make and direct a special Commission (viz. a Writ of Dedimus potestatem) under the Great Seal of England to any two Justices of Peace of the same County, whereof one must be of the Quorum, giving them Authority thereby to tender and administer the said Oaths to the new Sheriff in the County, and this now is usual.

And yet it seemeth such a Dedimus potestatem may be directed to any other person or persons: See Dy. 168 Bronkers Case, where a Dedimus (for this purpose) was directed to one Hide only; and so it is used in all the Shires of Wales, as may appear by the Statute made Anno 34 Hen. 8. cap. 26.

This Dedimus potestatem they may have from the Clerk of the Chancery which made the Patents.

But such Commissions to whom such a Dedimus potestatem shall be directed to take these Oaths, must certify the same into the Chancery, at such day as the Writ commandeth them.

And the Certificate or Return of such Dedimus potestatem may be in this sort following.

These Oaths of the High-Sheriff may be taken before one of the Masters of the Chancery (without any Dedimus potestatem:) For a Master of the Chancery may ex officio (as it seemeth) take any Oath which is Returnable into the Chancery. As (in common experience) if a Bill put into the Chancery against J. S. he may either have a Dedimus potestatem, directed to any person to take his answer in the Country: or else he may go before any Master of the Chancery, who, ex officio, may, and usually do take the Defendants answer, and Return the same, &c.

I have also known a Master of the Chancery take these Oaths of the Sheriff; and then the Return thereof may be made as followeth.

And if such Commissioners shall return the Commission (or Writ) and the Oaths to be taken, when they were not taken, this is fixable in the Star-Chamber, Dyer 168.

Anno 1 Eliz. Bronker Sheriff of Wilts was sued for perjury in the Dyer 167. Star-Chamber (by information at the Queens suit) for a false return by him made of Sir John Thinne to be Knight of the Parliament for the said County, whereas in truth one Penruddoke was chosen by the greater number of Freeholders in the said County (in deceit of the Country, and whole Realm) and it did appear upon examinations taken, that (the Sheriff) Bronker was never sworn to execute his Office, although there were a Dedimus potestatem directed to one Hide to give Bronker his Oath, but Hide had dissuaded him from taking his Oath in regard of the difficulty of the Articles or matters therein contained; and this matter by grave resolution and in the honourable and great assembly of the Star-Chamber was decreed against Bronker in manner following, that is to say, first for the contempt of the ancient Law (sc. that every Sheriff was to take such an Oath, in incepto officii, in the beginning of his Office, or before he should execute his Office) Bronker was adjudged to pay for his fine to the Queen an hundred pounds, besides the imprisonment of five weeks: and also he was adjudged to pay another hundred pounds to the Queen according ing to the Statute for his false return and to be imprisoned for one year without bail; and Hide was fined at twenty Marks besides imprisonment: And also Bronker and Penuddoke were bound by Recognisance, to stand to the Arbitrement of four of the Noble men for the hundred pounds due to Penuddoke.

So if the Sheriff shall exercise, use, supply, or occupy, his said Office, before he hath taken both these Oaths (i.e. to the Supremacy, and concerning his Office) he is liable in the Star-Chamber, Dyer 168.

Also if the Sheriff shall not perform his Oath concerning his Office in every behalf, he shall not only be in danger of perjury, but also to be fined &c. in the Star-Chamber, see Dyer 61. & 168.

Per ser Co. 11. 98. That a man shall not be charged in any Court Judicial, for the breach of a general Oath, which he taketh when he is made an Officer or Minister.

There is a third Oath tending to the declaration of that duty, The Oath of loyalty and obedience, which every well affected Subject, by the Allegiance. Law of God, and bond of allegiance, ought to bear to his Sovereign, which Oath is by force of the Statute 3 Jacobi Regis cap. 4. And is to be taken by all Sheriffs (and other Officers and Ministers of Justice) whensoever it shall be lawfully tendered to them; and this is to be taken (by the Sheriff) before one of the Chief Justices (of the Kings Bench or Common Pleas) or before one of the Justices of Assize of the same County, whereof he is Sheriff, or before such other person as the Lord Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal shall thereto authorize, by Commission or Writ of Dedimus potestatem.

The form of Oath of Allegiance you may see at large, in the Stat. 3 Jac. c. 4.

After that the Sheriff hath taken the said Oaths to the Supremacy, and for the due execution of his Office, then upon the Writ of discharge delivered to (his predecessor) the old Sheriff, (or at or before the first County Court to be kept by the new Sheriff) the new Sheriff must take over from the old Sheriff, all his prisoners, (which are in the Gaol by their names,) and all his Writs, precisely, by view and by Indenture to be made between the old Sheriff and the new Sheriff; in which Indenture all the causes which the old Sheriff hath against every prisoner, must be set forth and delivered, at the peril of the old Sheriff, or else the new Sheriff needs not to take notice of any that is omitted and left out of the Indenture; for he is not chargeable with it, but the old Sheriff, only as it appeareth in Wellby's Case (Co. 3. fol. 72.) against the Sheriffs of London where the case was this: one Buston was in execution under the custody of (Skinner and Hatcher) the Sheriffs of London, as well at the suit of one Dighton, as at the suit of Wellby the plaintiff, and the said Skinner and Hatcher the defendants, at the end of their year, delivered over the body of Buston (amongst other prisoners) to the new Sheriffs by Indenture, in which Indenture the execution at the suit of Dighton was mentioned, but the execution at the suit of Wellby the plaintiff was omitted, and after Buston escaped, and it was adjudged that the old Sheriffs (Skinner and Catcher)

Catcher) should be charged with this escape: for when the body of Bulton was delivered to the new Sheriffs as to execution at the suit of Dighton only, Bulton was thereby out of custody of the new Sheriffs for the execution of Westby, for that the prisoner was not delivered to the new Sheriffs (nor they charged with him) for the execution of Westby, the plaintiff; and although Bulton were still within the Gaol (at the suit of Dighton) yet this was adjudged an escape, in Law, as to Westby, for that Westby (in whom there was no default) ought not to be without remedy in this case.

Also in this former case of Westbies, it was resolved, that until the prisoners be delivered to the new Sheriff, they remain in the custody of the old Sheriff, notwithstanding the new Letters Patents made Co. 3. 72. Vide Dyer 335. to the new Sheriff, and the writ of discharge, and the writ of deliver very directed to the old Sheriff. Yet see hic infra, that the old Sheriff is punishable for detainour of his prisoners, after his writ of discharge delivered to him.

Notice.

Also it was there resolved that the old Sheriff ought to give notice to the new Sheriff of all and every the executions, which are against any prisoner in their custody, although the executions be of Record; and that the new Sheriff is not to take notice of them at his peril, but shall be charged only with such whereof the old Sheriff gives to the new Sheriff notice.

If the old Sheriff shall give notice to the new Sheriff, of the executions which are against any prisoner by word only, or by some note in writing under the old Sheriffs hand, or under the hand of his Under-Sheriff, and not by Indenture, and the new Sheriff be content to accept of such notice, it saimeth sufficient, for volenti non fit injuria; And yet the new Sheriff may compel the old Sheriff to make such delivery by Indenture; and so run all the Writs, de Brevibus & Rotulis liberandis, in the Register, see hic fol. Co. 3. 72. Regist. 295.

The Sheriff hath one in execution for debt, in another mans house (and not in the Gaol) and the new Sheriff will not receive the prisoner at that house, but in the Gaol, and after the old Sheriff hath a Writ of discharge delivered to him, there the prisoner is presently out of execution, and this is an escape in the old Sheriff, and if he shall detain him after that he hath his Writ of discharge, the prisoner may have his action of false imprisonment against the old Sheriff. Crompt. 204.

And so note, that the new Sheriff is not bound to receive the prisoners from the old Sheriff but only at the Gaol, and in no other place; And yet if the old Sheriff shall deliver his prisoners to his Successor when he is chosen, who receiveth the prisoners out of the Gaol, the old Sheriff shall be discharged by this delivery. See 11 R. 2. fitz. Atturney 61. where the old Sheriff had taken a prisoner upon a Capias utlagatum, and had delivered him to his Successor when he was chosen, (who received him, and was possessed of his body) but he had not the body at the day, &c. Here the old Sheriff was discharged. Crompt. 214.

But

But it was in Welbies Case resolved, that if a Sheriff hath in his custody divers persons in execution, and dieth in the time of his office, and after a new Sheriff is made, here the new Sheriff at his peril ought to take notice of all the executions which are against any person which he finds in the Gaol: but this is by reason of the necessity, for that there is no person to make delivery to him of them, or to give him notice, and besides the new Sheriff may take notice himself of all executions, they being upon record.

Also in the former case the Sheriff (it seemeth) is to take notice of all other prisoners in the Gaol, and of the causes of their commitment; and so the new Sheriff (upon the death of the old Sheriff during the time of his Office) is chargeable without either delivery of the Prisoners, or notice of the causes of their commitment.

And so it seemeth for the delivery of the Writs, upon the death of the old Sheriff during the time of his Office, the new Sheriff is to take notice of all other Writs, (and of the contents thereof) which shall be in the hands of his Predecessor, or of his Under-Sheriff.

Also in the afove recited Case, it was resolved, that if a Sheriff die in the time of his Office, and before that another is made Sheriff, there if a prisoner who is in execution shall break the Gaol, and escape, and go his way, yet this is no escape, for that by the death of the Sheriff, all his prisoners were in the custody of the Law, until a new Sheriff be made; and the prisoner may be taken again in execution at any time after, wheresoever he shall be found. Escap.

But if such prisoners shall be in the Gaol at such time as the new Sheriff is made, there the new Sheriff (so soon as he is appointed by the King, or at least so soon as he hath received his Patent) seemeth to be chargeable presently with them, without any delivery, or notice, made or given to him, of the said prisoners, or of the causes of their commitment; and if such prisoners shall after get out of the Gaol, this is an escape; yet if it be without the consent of the new Sheriff, or his Gaoler, then they also may be taken again at any time after. See his postea, cap. 29.

Note also, that by the death or Resignation of the King, the authority of the Sheriff (and of all his Officers) doth determine and cease, Co. 7. 30. Dyer 165. And therefore it is used presently (in the next Kings time) to sue out new Patents of this Office, and of assistance, Br. Office 25. Co. 7. 30. But if in the interim between the death or Resignation of the King, and the time that the Sheriff shall sue out his new Patent, a prisoner shall break the Gaol and escape, yet it seemeth that the Sheriff is chargeable for this escape; for he having the prisoner once in his Gaol, although by the death or Resignation of the King, the Sheriff can execute no Process, &c. until he hath sued out his new Patent, yet he is safely to keep all the Kings Rights of the Crown which shall then be in his custody, and also all prisoners; and as he may justifie the detaining and keeping of all prisoners committed to him before, and then in his custody, so he may, nay ought at his peril to make his Gaol safe, so that his prisoners escape not.

The form of an Indenture for setting over of prisoners, and Writs between two Sheriffs.

THIS Indenture, &c. Between R. S. Esquire, late Sheriff of the County of Cambridge of the one part, and A. B. Knight, now Sheriff of the said County on the other part, witnesseth, that the said R. S. by virtue of His Majesties Writ of discharge of his late Office to him directed, hath delivered and set over unto the said A. B. these Writs following, that is to say, A Capias versus W. F. return. Octab. Hillarii ad scētum Johannis Smith &c. Together with the bodies of Jo. N. in execution at the suit of G. H. for a debt of twenty and two pounds, and J. H. at the suit of C. D. in execution for ten pounds, and R. G. in execution as well at the suit of Jo. Dighton for a debt of one hundred pound, as also at the suit of N. West for a debt of forty pound, &c. In witness whereof, &c.

All the Writs which are set over in the Indenture between the Sheriffs, if they have been executed by the old Sheriff, then they must be turned by him or in his name, and indorsed, or subscribed under by the new Sheriff thus :

If the Writ of discharge of the old Sheriff be brought into the County and delivered to the Clerk of the County (or High-Sheriff) sitting in the County Court in the absence of the High-Sheriff, Quære whether the old Sheriff be thereby discharged of his Office ipso facto, or not : it seemed to Manwood and Dyer, that the High-Sheriffs Authority ceased by such publick delivery, of the Writ of discharge in the County Court, where every man is bound by Law to take notice, but yet if by such delivery of the Writ the old Sheriff be discharged, then there shall be an escape in the old Sheriff of his prisoners, against his will, for the old Sheriff by intendment was ready to deliver them, &c. Ideo quære Crompt. 203.

Also by the words of the Statute of 12 Edw. cap. 1. it seemeth that the old Sheriff may execute his Office, until his Writ of discharge be delivered to him : see also the Statute of 17 Edw. 6. hic postea, cap. 3.

But if the old Sheriff after he is discharged, &c. shall make his Warrant or Precept to any of his (late) Wapstiffs, or Officers to Arrest another, and the Officer by force thereof shall Arrest the party, an action of false imprisonment will lie against both the Sheriff and Officer for such an Arrest. Crompt. 205.

The old Sheriff Returned the Proclamation upon an Exigent, after Dyer 41. that he was discharged of his Office, and by the Judgment of the Court the Outlawry was void, and the party was discharged.

What Return or other act, the old Sheriff may do, after that the new Sheriff is chosen.

A Habeas Corpus was delivered to the Sheriff of N. before the day of the Return, whereof the new Sheriff took the Office upon him, and the old Sheriff having before served the Writ, brought it into the Court, and there shewed that the new Sheriff would have embezzelled the Writ to have caused the old Sheriff to have been amerced: whereupon the new Sheriff was called, and the Writ so served was delivered to him in Court, and a special entry thereof made in discharge of the old Sheriff, &c. 22 E. 4. t. Return. 33. But now all Writs are by view and by Indenture precisely to be let over by the old Sheriff to the new. Ut patet hic antea.

If the Return of the old Sheriff happen to be Erronious, and that a new Sheriff be chosen, yet the Court may cause the old Sheriff, or his Under-Sheriff, Clerk, or Deputy, to amend the same. 33 H. 6. t. Amendment 40. See hic c. 41.

I have seen a Report of a Case adjudged in Anno 44 Eliz. Rot. 368. between Ayer and Aden, M. Ayer being possessed of certain Dade, and Judgment given against him at the suit of one Hopper, who had sued a Fieri fac. against Ayer, by virtue whereof the Sheriff seized the Dade, and paid parcel of money recovered, but returned not the Writ; and then the Sheriff was removed and another Sheriff chosen; and after the Writ of discharge directed and delivered to the old Sheriff, he sold the Dade to Aden the defendant, who justified thereby in an Action of Trover and Conversion; and whether this sale by the old Sheriff after he was removed should alter the property, was the question: and it was adjudged, that the old Sheriff might sell the Dade although he were out of his Office, for that he was chargeable to the party Plaintiff. And they grounded the judgment much upon the book of 32 H. 6. 36. t. Proce. 99. where they said that the Writ de Dist. imper vic. gave him no authority, but was only to compel him to do that which he had power by the Law to do, and thereupon judgment was given that Ayer the Plaintiff should be barred.

5. The Sheriff is to read his Patents and to name his Officers.

The new High-Sheriff at the first County Court which shall happen to be after his Election and the discharge of the old Sheriff, must read (or cause to be read) his Patent and his Writ of assistance, and must also nominate his Under-Sheriff (or County Clerk) and depu-^{5. require: and this appointing of Deputies is by force of the Stat. 1 & 2 Phil. & Mary c. 12. And these Deputies shall in the Sheriffs name make Keepings, as the Sheriff himself may do.

And the Sheriff for every month that he shall lack such Deputies shall forfeit five pounds, &c. And yet such Deputies, the Sheriff may appoint at any time within two months next after he hath received his Patent.

But rather then the High-Sheriffs (being Gentlemen of worth) should hazard their oaths, or credit in their Country, they had better (in regard thereof, and for their better discharge of their duties both to God, and to their Prince in the execution of their Office) to keep their Office, and their Under-Sheriff in their houses, so as they may take a continual survey themselves, as well of their Office, as of their Under-Sheriff, and other Officers, rather than to trust their Officers, especially their Under-Sheriff being a stranger, with the whole execution of their Office, and upon bond and covenants, which by the Statute of 23 Hen. 6. c. 10. are thought by many opinions to be void, or voidable at least, (but see more concerning such bonds, &c. hic postea, cap. 96, 97.) And if those bonds prove not good, then a lewd, or an ignorant Under-Sheriff may hazard the undoing of his High-Sheriff.

*Good advice

And therefore if the High-Sheriff will sleep quietly, and take his repose in safety (whether he shall keep his Office and his Under-Sheriff in his house, or no) he shall do well and wisely to look for, and to take good security from his Under-Sheriff, before he do trust him with his Office; which security is commonly by bonds and covenants taken by the High-Sheriff, of the Under-Sheriff and his friends; the form of such bonds and covenants, see hic postea, cap. 96, 97.

Also the Sheriff before he shall return any Writ into the Chancery, 23 H. 6. c. 10. the Kings Bench, the Court of Common Pleas, or the Exchequer, ought to make and have an Attorney, or Deputy of Record, in every one of those Courts of Record, there to receive all manner of Writs and Warrants to be delivered to them, viz. all such Writs and Warrants as shall be directed to the Sheriff for whom such Deputy is appointed; and if any Sheriff shall do to the contrary, he shall forfeit forty pound (to the King and Informer) for every such default, and treble damages to the party grieved or endamaged: and this making of Deputies is by force of the Stat. of 23 H. 6. c. 10.

And it seemeth such Deputies must be made by Warrant of Attorney from the High-Sheriff: And yet the Sheriff may make his Deputy without writing, by the opinion of Brudnell 21 H. 7. fol. 37. a.

But Sir Edward Coke lib. 9. fol. 51. sheweth, that it was resolved by the Judges, that he which maketh a Deputy, must make him by writing.

And these Deputies must give their attendance in convenient and due manner, in, and upon all and every of the said Courts.

P. Exigt. 7.

Also every Sheriff of every of the twelve Counties of Wales, and of the Counties Palatine of Lancaster, Chetter, and the City of Chester, ^{Wales and Counties Palatine.} shall have in every of the Courts of the Kings Bench, and Common Pleas, one sufficient Deputy at the least, to receive all Writs directed to such Sheriff, for whom the same Deputy or Deputies shall be appointed, in like manner and form, and upon like pains as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm other Sheriffs of other Shires within this Realm of England be bound to have in either of the same Courts: And all Writs of Proclamation shall be delivered unto every Deputy of Record in the same Courts: And also like fees shall be paid for making every such Writ of Proclamation, and for the inrolling of the Record, as is limited in the Statutes of 6 H. 8. 1 E. 6. 10. 5 E. 6. 26. 23 H. 6. 10.

CAP. 3.

For that in former times the Sheriffs in divers of Counties of England, having their Offices, some for term of years of the Kings grant, and others trusting of longer continuance in their said Offices, were greatly encouraged, and did take upon them to do many and divers oppressions to the Kings people, and evil service to the King: Therefore it was ordained and established by divers Acts of Parliament as followeth.

* Pardon to such offenders granted 28 Hen. 6. c. 3. & 8 E. 4. c. 4. by Act of Parliament.

First, That no Sheriff, * Under-Sheriff, nor Sheriffs Clerk, shall tarry or abide in his Office (or shall occupy the said Office) above ^{Not above one year.} one year, upon pain to forfeit two hundred pounds yearly as long as he occupieth the Office: And every * pardon made for such offence or forfeiture shall be void, and all Letters Patents made to occupy such office above one year shall be void, any words or clause of non obstante put into such Patent notwithstanding. And whosoever shall presume to take upon him to occupy the office of a Sheriff above one year, by force of such Letters Patents, shall be disabled for ever after to be Sheriff within any County of England: And every man which will, may sue for the said sum of two hundred pounds so forfeited against such Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or Sheriffs Clerk, in any action action of Debt in his own name, and the King shall have the moiety of all that which is recovered, and he that such shall have the other moiety, 23 H. 6. c. 8. & 6 H. 8. c. 18.

And yet the King by his Prerogative may dispense with these Statutes, and may grant the office of a Sheriff for years, life, or in fee; see 2 H. 7. l. 6. Br. patents, 109. Co. 7. l. 4. & Co. 9. 97. Br. prerog. 37. & Fitz. Gnt. 33. & Plow 502. b. & Sir Fr. Bacon, page 75. saith, That it is an inseparable Prerogative of the Crown to dispense with politic Statutes, &c.

Also persons inheritable to the office of Sheriff, and Under-sheriff, 6 H. 7. c. 18. and other Officers in London and Britlow, are excepted out of these Statutes. S. c. hic politica.

But for that the High-sheriffs being chosen yearly the morrow after All Souls, divers of them sometimes have not their Patents, nor take their Oath: a long time after; Therefore it was enacted by other Statutes (made in the time of Edw. 4.) that every old Sheriff of every County shall have full power, and may occupy his office (sc. may execute and return any Writ, Precept, or Warrant, from or out of any the Kings Courts of Record at Westminster delivered to him) as also to do and execute every other thing to his office of a Sheriff appertaining, during the Terms of Saint Michael, and Hillary, (after the year that their office is ended) unless before the same time he be lawfully discharged, sc. unless he hath a Writ of discharge delivered him of his office Sheriffwick: And they shall not be thereof damnified by force of the aforesaid Statute of 23 H. 6. c. 8. 12 E. 4. c. 1.

Also it is ordained, That no man which hath been Sheriff (or Under-sheriff) of any County by one whole year, shall be chosen Sheriff (or Under-sheriff) of that County again within three years next ensuing, (except there been none other sufficient of possessions and goods to answer the King and his people within the said County,) upon pain of forfeiture of two hundred pounds by him that shall occupy his office contrary to the effect and intent of any of the Statutes aforesaid recited. 1 R. 2. c. 11.
23 H. 6. c. 8.

But the Sheriffs and Under-sheriffs within the City of London, and of such Counties in which they be inheritable to the office of Sheriff, are excepted out of these former Statutes. 23 H. 6. c. 8.

Must be resident.

Every Sheriff shall dwell and continue in his own person within his Bailiwick or County, for and during the time he shall be Sheriff, (except he be otherwise licensed by the King) and this the Sheriff is bound to do as well by his Oath, as by the Statute of 4 H. 4. c. 5.

And yet if the Sheriff being out of his County shall make a pannel, or make any return, &c. it is good. S. c. 9 H. 4. l. 1.

But if the Sheriff be beyond the Sea (sc. at Calice, or elsewhere) and maketh a pannel, or any return there, and sends it into England, that is not good, for that he is no Officer but only in England. 9 H. 4. l. 1.

And this the Sheriff is restrained to do as well by his Oath, as by Statute, upon pain to forfeit forty pounds: See the Statutes 9 Ed. 2. And the Justices of Assize may enquire thereof, and punish the same. 4 E. 3. c. 15. Abr. d'Ass. 136. Or they may be punished in the Star-Chamber. And yet the Sheriff may make and appoint under him his Under-Sheriff, and his Waplistts, and Deputies, for all these do use their place in the right of the Sheriff, and as the Sheriffs servants: See hic cap. 1. But a Nelsie or Farmer occupieth the place, or things demised in his own right. See Fineux 20 H. 7. fol. 12. b. & Dr. & Stud. 136. And there fore the form of the Indenture made at this day, or heretofore made between the High-Sheriff and his Under-Sheriff, are not warrantable by these statutes: for by the former Wok, if the Sheriff letteth his County to his Under-Sheriff, or covenants with him that he shall have the profits of the County, or part thereof, for a certain time, though there be no Rent received, &c. Yet this is against the statute: for the intent of the statute is, that Sheriffs shall keep their Counties (i. e. the profits thereof) in their own hands, and every part thereof. Fineux

Now the Revenues or issues and profits of the County pertaining to the Office of a Sheriff, seem to be Fees, Annuities, Rents, Farms, Issues, Fines, Amerciaments, Eleheats, Estrays, &c. the Goods of Felons, and Fugitives, and other like Casual profits. But quærit whether the Sheriff be but to gather up these, and is to be accountable for these profits to the King, or that he Farmerth these of the King under the name of Vicontieis, and payeth Rent for them, 20 H. 7. 12. See hic c. 9.

Note, Where the King maketh a Sheriff, sine Compoto, there the Sheriff shall have the Revenues which belong to his Office to gather to his own use, Co. 11. 82. Otherwise he shall be accomptable for them: But it seemeth he is not accomptable for them, saving in a gross sum for the Farm of the profits of the County, Keilw. 173. And yet see the form of the Sheriffs Dath for passing of his Account (hic cap. 125.) by which they seem to be accomptable for others of these things particularly.

Now whether a Lease made by the Sheriff of his Office or County, or only by parol, be contrary to these Statutes or no, see the Book 20 Hen. 7. fol. 12. & 21 H. 7. fol. 36. pro & contra. But however, such a Lease or agreement by parol, seemeth neither safe for the Sheriff, nor warrantable by his Dath.

Also for that this Statute of 23 H. 6. is penal, and every penal Statute shall be taken strictly, therefore by some opinions, where the Sheriff shall let parcel of his County, or parcel of the profits thereof, and shall reserve part of the profits to himself, there he is not within the danger of the Statute, except he let the whole: but others hold the contrary, for that otherwise he might let parcel to one, and parcel to another, and so the Statute should be of little or no effect.

Penal Statutes. And accordingly it is observed by the Right Honourable, and late Reverend Judge Sir Edward Coke, in his eleventh Book, fol. 34. That it is frequent in our Law Books, that penal Statutes have been taken by intendment, to the end that they should not be illusory, but should take effect according to the express intention of the makers of the act, for the advancement of Justice, and in suppression of crimes and heinous offences.

C A P. 4.

The Authority and Power of the High-Sheriff.

Vicecomes est Regis Officialis qui ad Comitatus gubernationem quotannis constituitur. Et partim Judex est, ad causas scilicet minores quæ ejus jurisdictioni subsumt: partim Minister & Mandatarius Regis. Cow. See plus hic cap. 1.

The authority and power of the Sheriff is in some Cases Absolute or Judicial, and in some other Cases Ministerial.

And first concerning their Absolute power.

Absolute or Judicial. No Sheriff shall hold Pleas of any thing pertaining to the Kings Crown (by the Statute of Magna Charta, 17.) i. e. they shall not hold Plea of any Felony, or Trespass, vi & armis; nor of any Freehold, or Land; nor any Plea of any thing touching the Crown, nor of any thing which is against the Peace of our Sovereign Lord the King, his Crown or Dignity: which notwithstanding must be understood to this purpose, i. e. That Sheriffs

Magna Charta,

Magna Charta,
ca. 17.

Sheriffs cannot hear and determine the Pleas of the Crown, &c. or plea of Land or Trespals, Vi & armis: But in his Tozne, he may enquire of divers things touching the Crown, and of matters against the Peace, &c. See hic cap. 107. 108, & 109.

For by the same Statute cap. 35. the Sheriffs of every County may hold their Tozne (or Court Leet) in which Court, the Sheriff hath a Judicial power, and therein they may enquire of Treasons, Homicides, and other Felonies, and common Trespasses, whereof see hic postea tit. Sheriffs Torne, & Stat. 52 H. 3. cap. 24. But they shall take no Indictments (by Commission procured at their own Suit) but only in their Toznes, Stat. 28 Ed. 3. cap. 9.

Appeals of Robbery, or other Felonies, and of Raphe, and Rape, may by Bill, be sued in the County Court, at this day, as it seemeth. See hic cap. 11.

By the ancient Common Law (before the making of the Statute of Magna Charta) the Sheriff, and Coroners were Judges, and in their Tozne, Sheriffs, and in the County Court, the Sheriff and Coroners together, did hold Plea of Felonies, and other things pertaining to the Crown. See Abr. d'Ass. fol. 68. Finch. 115. 125. & Stamford. 55. 64. plus hic, cap. 111.

The Sheriff also at this day, may hold Plea of Lands in his County Court by a Jusfices, but otherwise he cannot. See hic tit. County Court.

The Sheriff by Plaint also may hold Plea without any Writ in his County Court, de averiis, Captis & Detentis, &c. Which Plea properly belongeth to the Crown. See hic postea, cap. 3. & 114.

See more hic tit. Sheriffs Tozn, how Sheriffs may there Imprison, Fine, Bind over, and otherwise punish Offenders. And this Office of a Sheriff one calleth it Judiciaria Dignitas, Co. L. 168.

Also the Sheriff in his County Court may take a Recognizance between party and party, &c. See hic tit. County Courts.

And by the ancient Laws of this Realm, the Sheriff might let to Mainprise by Recognizance, such as were in prison for the Peace.

By an old Statute, he which hath a Pardon for any manner of Felony, must within three moneths, next after the making of the same pardon, come before the Sheriff and the Coroners of the County where the Felony was done, and shall find six good and sufficient Mainperners (or Sureties) for whom the said Sheriff and Coroners will answer, that he from thenceforth shall bear himself well and lawfully (or be of good behaviour.) And the Mainprisers shall be Sealed and Return'd (by the Sheriff and Coroners) into the Chancery within three Weeks after the end of the said three moneths; otherwise such pardon shall be void, Stat. 10 E. 3. cap. 3. vide 3 H. 7. fol. 7. a. Br. Cor. 134. Quere del use a cco jour.

Again every Sheriff is by the Common Laws a principal and special Conservator of the Peace in every place within his County, and hath committed unto him the custody of his County for the time that he is Sheriff, and is to see the Peace thereof kept and maintained; And upon request to him made, he may command and cause another to find sureties for the peace, and may take the same surety by Recognizance (to the use of the King) and that ex officio, Fitz. 81. d. Pea all obligations that he takes for the preserving of peace, or to that end, are as Recognizances in Law, Termes del Ley, tit. Vic. Kitch. Retorne 44.

Again the authority of the Sheriff is by commission of Record, by which the King commits to him Custodiam Comitatus (and so the keeping of the peace, and Administration of Justice is committed to him, as is here before shewed, &c.) And all Commissioners who have authority to keep the Peace, or to sit or deal in matters of Justice for the Commonwealth, may take Recognizances. Vide Br. Recog. 5. & 18.

Upon a special supplicavit directed to the Sheriff, he may take a Recognizance by the opinion of Danby, 9 E. 4. 31. and Mr. Broke abridging the Case, giving this reason thereof, for that the supplicavit is a Commission to the Sheriff, and Commissioners may take Recognizances. Br. Recog. 5.

Such persons as shall be apprehended upon suspicion of felony, either by the Countrey upon fresh suit, or hue and cry, or by watchmen, shall be delivered to the Sheriff, who may commit them to the Gaol, &c. hic cap. 2.

Pea the Sheriff may apprehend, arrest, and commit to prison all Affrayors, and all such as within his jurisdiction (i. e. within his County) and in his presence, shall in any sort break, or attempt to break the Kings Peace; and may command the aid and force of others, to arrest such Offendoers, and may cause them to find sureties for the Peace.

Also if one shall threaten me of life, or member, and that I shall complain to the Sheriff thereof, the Sheriff may cause him to find sureties for the peace, and may set him in the stocks, quousque he shall find sureties, &c. 44 E. 3. F. Barr. 202. 12 H. 7. 17.

So if the Sheriff shall see one assault another, &c.

So if any man shall make an assault upon the Sheriff himself. See 5 H. 7. 6.

Also when any of the Kings enemies shall come into the land, the Sheriff in defence of the Realm, may command all the people of his County to attend him; and he and they are to attend the King to defend the land.

And when any Rebellion, Insurrection, or riotous assembly of people shall be within land, the Sheriff may raise the power of his County to apprehend such Malefactorers. See hic postea.

1 Ed. 6.

But yet a Sheriff ought not (in other things) to execute the Office of a Justice of Peace in the same County where he is Sheriff during the time that he is Sheriff: and all and every acts to be done by any Sheriff by authority of any Commission of the Peace during the time of his Sherifftwick shall be void and of none effect; but if he be put into the Commission of the Peace before he be Sheriff, and then he is chosen Sheriff, and that Commission of the Peace continueth after that he is discharged of his office of a Sheriff, Quare if he may not then sit or execute the office of a Justice of Peace by force of that commission, without taking a new oath? It seemeth he may; for first by the Statute of 1 Ed. 6. 7. it was ordained and enacted in these words following, sc. That albeit any person or persons being Justice of Peace, &c. shall fortune to be made Sheriff, that yet notwithstanding he and they should remain Justice and Commissioner, and have full power and authority to execute the same in like manner and form as he or they might and ought to have done before the same Statute.

1 Maria.

After the making of which Act, divers persons being in the commission of the Peace were also made Sheriffs of the same County, and did exercise either of the said offices, which seemed not to be convenient, and therefore it was after enacted by the Statute made 1 M. cap. 8. That no manner of person having, using, or exercising the office of the Sheriff of any County, shall use or execute the office of the Justice of Peace by force of any commission, or otherwise, in any County where he or they shall be Sheriff during the time only that he or they shall use or exercise the said office of Sherifftwick, any thing in the said former Act (made 1 Ed. 6.) notwithstanding.

So now the making of a Justice of Peace to be Sheriff of the same County doth not determine the Commission of the Peace, for then the authority of all other the Justices of the Peace of the same County should be thereby determined, but this seemeth only to disable the person being Sheriff to meddle as a Justice of Peace during such time only that he shall be Sheriff of the same County; and that the commission of the Peace need neither to be renewed, nor the late Sheriff newly sworn for the execution of the Office of a Justice of Peace, but he may again as before execute that Office by virtue of the former commission of the Peace.

But every Sheriff (by the common Law of this Realm) may do, Arrest Felon and is bound to do his best endeavour for the conservation of the Kings Peace, and may and ought to pursue, apprehend, arrest, and imprison all Traitors, Murderers, Robbers, and other Felons, and all such others as do break, or go about to break or disturb the Kings Peace within his County (as is before shewed) and to that purpose the Sheriff may take (of that County where he is Sheriff) any number that he shall think meet to aid and assist him: and every man being required ought to be aiding therein to him, and if any man (being required) shall refuse to aid the Sheriff therein, they shall be fined to the King: Et. fines 37.

3 E. 1. c. 9.

And by the Statute of 3 Ed. 1. cap. 9. upon any felony committed, all men generally shall be ready at the commandment of the Sheriff (and at the cry of the County) to pursue and arrest all Felons (when any need is) as well within Franchises, as without; and they which make default and thereof be attainted shall make a grievous fine to the King:

King : and it seemeth the Sheriff may attache all such persons making such default, to appear before the Justices of Gaol-delivery, there to answer their said default : Officium Coronat^r 3 Ed. 1.

And yet a man cannot justifie to arrest another for Felony, by the commandment of the Sheriff, for in such case every man hath equal power with the Sheriff, and so his commandment is not material : And it is not like where the Sheriff hath the Kings Writ or Proces to execute, for there upon the Sheriffs Precept in writing, (and in some cases, upon his command by word only) a man may justifie, &c.

Also the Sheriff may and ought to arrest (or attach) and take into his custody such felons so apprehended or taken, and ought to imprison them in the Gaol till the coming of the Judges. or Justices of Gaol-delivery. 3 E. 1. c. 9. & 4 E. 1. Officium Coronat^r.

If a Felon taken upon hue and cry. shall be delivered to the Sheriff, he is to enroll the same : and upon a presentment thereof before the Justices, if it shall be found that the Felon is out of the custody of the Sheriff, contrary to Law, it shall be adjudged an escape in the Sheriff. 3 E. 3. Fitz. Cono. 345. See hinc.

But if the Sheriff (of his own authority) shall arrest any man upon suspicion of Felony, first there must be some felony committed in deed and next the Sheriff himself must have a suspicion of him, and for the same felony. Liber Intiac. tit. lx. inquis. div. 5 & 5 Hen. 7. fol. 4. for the Sheriffs authority therein, is but such as every man hath. in supra.

Suspected persons.

Also Sheriffs (ex officio) may arrest within their County all persons by them suspected which be vagrant, or which shall walk by night or day, and which are of evil name or fame, and they shall commit such offenders to the Gaol, there to remain until the coming down of the Justices assigned to deliver the Gaol : 5 E. 3. cap. 14. Crompt. 203.

Quere, If the Sheriff may not put such suspected persons under common mainprize, binding them with two sufficient sureties by recognizance to appear before the Justices at their next Sessions or Gaol-delivery, and to certify the same recognizance before the said Justices accordingly, every Sheriff in Wales may do this by the Statute 34 H. 8. c. 26. & 27 H. 8. c. 26.

Also if any other person shall have any suspicion of such Night-walkers, or other persons of evil fame, they may arrest them, or cause the Constable to arrest them, who shall deliver them to the Sheriff, and the Sheriff ought to receive them, and shall enquire of such offenders, and shall return their Enquests before the said Justices of Gaol-delivery, with that which they have found, and the cause of their said arrests, together with their bodies : and in case that the said Sheriff hath not enquired of such arrests, they shall be amerced : See Hic antea cap. 2.7

See my Country Justice, tit. Armour & Bailment.

And yet they themselves (R. the Sheriff and his Officers) may lawfully bear armour and weapons: See his possible continuance.

The Sheriffs in Wale, may put every mistrusted and suspect person within their Sherifftwick, under common Mainprise and Surety of their personal appearance, and that by Recognizance with two sufficient Sureties, to appear before the Justices within the limits of their Jurisdiction, at the next General Sessions to be holden next after the taking of such bonds, and shall certify the names of them that be bound before the Justices at the said Sessions, without concealment thereof. See the Stat. of 21 H. 8. c. 12. & 34 H. 8. c. 10.

Sheriffs may and ought to take from servants (to his bandry, and from servants to any Artificer, or Tradesman) as also from Laborers, their Swords Daggers, and other weapons, if they shall find them bearing any: except it be in time of War for the defence of the Realm: or when they be travelling with their Master, or in their Masters mistage: and the Sheriff may and ought to arrest such Offenders, and it seemeth he may commit them to prison, there to remain until the next sitting, or Sessions of the Peace, or Court deliver: See before the Stat. 2 E. 3. cap. 3.

Also the Sheriff shall keep their said Weapons until the next sitting or Sessions of the Justices, and shall then and there present the said Weapons, together with the names of those persons which did so bear the same Weapons. But this Stat. of 1 R. 2. c. 6. seems to be wholly now repealed by 21 Jac. cap. 28.

Cres will, upon notice thereof, and request made to the Sheriff (or other Officer) they shall presently arrest all such Carters and Hivers so offending, and shall send them to the Kings next prison, there to remain without Bail, until they have redelivered the said goods, carriages, and things so taken, or the very value of the same: And if the said Sheriff (or other Officer) shall do the contrary (R. shall not assist the party oppressed in such case) they shall forfeit twenty pounds, the one half to the King, and the other half to the party from whom such things be so taken (if he will sue for the same, and if he will not sue, any other may sue for the King and himself, &c.) And besides if any such Carters or Hivers be duly convicted of such unlawful taking, they shall yield to the party grieved, the treble value of the things so taken, and doable Costs of Suit, and withall shall make Fine and Ransom to the King.

Rioters. By the Statute made 17 R. 2. cap. 8. Sheriffs (and all other the Kings Officers) when they have notice of any unlawful Assembly or Riot, or other offence against the Peace, they ought to raise the power of the County (if need be) and with all their power to apprehend such Malefactors, and to commit them to prison, where to remain until due execution of the Law be done upon them: And all Lords (of Seignories) and all other the Kings Liege people, ought to be attendant to the Sheriff, and other Officers with all their power and force herein. 17 R. 2. c. 8.

Justices. And by a later Statute made 13 Hen. 4. If any Riot or unlawful Assembly shall be made in any part of the Realm, the Justices of Peace (or two of them at the least) and the Sheriff, or Under-Sheriff (of the County where such Riot or Assembly shall be made) shall come with the power of the County (if need be) and shall Arrest all such Persons, as they shall find there present (and all such as come in the Company with such Rioters,) And shall take away their Weapons and Armour, and shall cause the same to be prized, and to be answered to the King as forfeited. See the Stat. of Northampton, made Anno 2 E. 3. cap. 3. 13 H. 4. 7. 2 E. 3. c. 3.

And in the execution of this Arrest of Rioters the Sheriff, &c. may suffice the beating, wounding, or killing of any of the Rioters, if they shall resist, or will not yield themselves.

Record. After the Arrest made of such Rioters, the said Justices and Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall make a Record in writing of the said Riot, &c. of all that which they shall find or see done in their presence against the said Law (without any enquiry thereof by a Jury) and such a Record shall be a sufficient conviction of the Offenders. 13 H. 4. c. 7.

Imprison. After such Record made of the Riot, the said Justices and Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall presently commit the Offenders to prison: And also may Assess their Fines (or else they may leave that to the Assizes or Sessions, &c.) And the power of the County ought to be aiding to the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff for the conveying of the Offenders to the Gaol. Crom. 61. b.

And if this Statute of 13 Hen. 4. be not executed fully in all and every part thereof by the Justices of Peace, and by the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff, &c. If they shall not arrest all such offenders as they shall find there present: Or if they shall not make a Record in writing of all that which they shall see done in their presence against the Law; Or if they shall not commit the Offenders to the Gaol (presently:) Then as well the two next Justices of Peace, as also the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall forfeit each of them one hundred pounds, Cromp. 61. b.

Inquiry. If the Rioters be gone before the coming of the Justices and Sheriff, then the same Justices, or two of them, ought diligently to enquire thereof (by a Jury to be returned by the Sheriff) within one month after such Riot or unlawful Assembly made; and if the truth cannot be found out, then within one month next ensuing after the enquiry, the same Justices (or two of them) and the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall certify the King and his Council thereof, which Certify 13 H. 4. Crompt. 63. Certificate shall be made into the Star-Chamber, or to the body and board of the Privy-Council, or into the Kings Bench of the whole Fact,¹ and all the circumstances thereof, with the certainty of the names of the principal Offenders) which Certificate shall be of the force of an Judgment of twelve men against the Offenders: See 13 H. 4. cap. 7.

13 H. 4. c. 7. And for default of the Justices of Peace, and Sheriff or Under-Sheriff, in not making such Certificate, as well the two next Justices of Peace, as also the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall forfeit each of them one hundred pounds to the King.

10 H. 4. c. 1. And if the said Riot or unlawful Assembly be not found by reason of any imbracery or maintenances of the Jury, then the said Justices of Peace, and the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff (ever and besides such Certificate which they must make, according to the aforesaid Statute of 13 H. 4.) shall in the same Certificate also certify the names of such maintainers and imbracers, with their misdemeanors that they know, upon pain of every of the said Justices and Sheriff or Under-Sheriff to forfeit twenty pounds, if they have not reasonable excuse for their not certifying of the same.

Pub. 325. If after the enquiry, and before the Certificate made, the Sheriff happen to die, or one of the Justices be put out of the Commission then no Certificate can be made by the opinion of Quarter-Magistrate.

But Quere thereof in regard of the penalties inflicted by the Statute aforesaid. See more in my Country Justice, titulo Riots.

Poulton. No Sheriff shall suffer any Warrentors, or Maintainers of Quarrels in their Shires: This Statute seemeth to be here falsly translated, for the last word (Shires) for County Courts, for the old French Statute Book, is in these words, Parcein est que nul Vis-counte ne souffre Barreter maintenir parols en Courtes: And the title over the Statute is thus, Quaux devent fire les Judgements en Courtes ou Court de Bailli: And theretore this Statute seemeth to be only a prohibition to the Sheriff not to suffer any Warrentors to maintain any Actions, Suits or Quarrels in their County Courts: for that Sheriffs in their County Courts shall not suffer any person by fraud or malice to maintain multiplicity of unjust and feigned suits there, nor to stir up others thereunto. See hi. postea titulo County Courts.

13 F. 1. c. 39. If the Sheriffs Waplift shall retaine a disturbance of the execution of the Kings Process, the Sheriff shall forthwith go in person (taking with him the power of the Shire) to do execution, and if he finds his Waplifts false he shall imprison them; and if he finds them true, he shall punish the resistors by imprisonment, from whence they shall not be delivered without the Kings special Commandment: And if the Sheriff do find such resistance when he cometh (but cannot attach them) he shall certify to the Court the names of the resistors, their Aiders, Consenters, Commanders, and Favourers, and they shall be Attached by a Writ out of the Court to appear there, &c. But the Sheriff shall not punish (otherwise than by Imprisonment) such Resistors, as he findeth himself: For the Disturbance of the Sheriff.

*Amerced.

sendoys may Traverss the Sheriffs Certificate oꝝ Return: And besides, the words of the Statute are further thus, Neither shall any Officer of the Kings meddle in Assigning the punishment, for our Lord the King hath specially reserved it to himself, because that Resisters been reputed disturbers of his Peace, and of this Realm. But yet the Sheriff may Arrest and Imprison such Offendoys oꝝ Resisters (as he shall find himself) as breakers of the Kings Peace, and so to have their bodies forth coming and ready to appear in the Kings Court at the coming of the Justices; Again, the words of the Statute are further, that if the Sheriff shall return (into the Court) that he could not execute the Kings Process for resistance, he shall be amerced, for Rolls 2. part. he should have taken the power of the County to have aided him there 57. 58. in, and that such returns of the Sheriff redounds much to the dishonour of the King.

Mr. Bracton, lib. 3. cap. 37. saith, Officium vic. est, si quis Conqueratur de injusta Captione averiorum, &c. (soit ceo per brief ou Plaint) accedat vic. ad locum, &c. Et petat visum de averiis, &c. Et si sit aliquis qui velit contradicere, vel propter hoc in eum manus violentas injecerit, Capiat delinquentes, & in Caolam projiciat, quousq; Dom. Rex inde præcepit voluntatem suam, &c.

And note, wheresoever the Sheriff (or any other of the Kings Officers) may take Possse Comitatus, or have authority either to execute the Kings Process, or to apprehend Felons, Riotoys, or other breakers of the Kings Peace, if the Sheriff, or other Officers, shall find resistance therein, it seemeth they may Arrest and Imprison all such resisters, and other such offendoys, which they shall find there present: See my Country Justice, titulo Arrest and Imprisonment.

And wheresoever the Sheriff shall take Possse Comitatus with him, although it be without sufficient Cause, yet his servant, or any other person, may justifie the same by the Sheriffs Commandment, for that such their doing was by Authority. 5 H. 7. 4. 5.

Also wheresoever the party against whom any lawful Process, Writ, or Warrant is granted, shall after he is Arrested, or other execution of such Warrant done, make resistance, or shall make an assault upon the Officer, there the Officer may justifie the beating and hurting of him, and of all other that shall disturb the Officer in the execution of such Process, Writ, or Warrant; and may also imprison him and them (in the Stocks) for the same as it seemeth. See Br. Trespas 218. & 296. For the beating of such as resist, or assault the Officer.

And if the Sheriff, or his Bayliff, or other Officer cometh by virtue of the Kings Process, or other lawful Warrant to Arrest another for Debt, or Trespas, &c. who maketh resistance, and thereupon is slain by such Officer, or by any of his Company, this hath been taken to be no Felony, but justifiable. See Fitz. Coron. 261. Doctor & Student 133. b. Crompt. 24. a. 30. b. Tamen quære what the Law is at this day, in this last Case.

Sheriffs also may bail their prisoners in divers cases. See hic postea Bail prison. res. tit. Bailment.

13 R. 2. c. 8. Sheriffs have the keeping and the cognisance and correction of the Assise of bread, assises of Bread and Ale, and also of false weights and measures, &c. (which things do appertain to the Crown, Bract. li. 3. c. 35.) And they may in their Tōrne inquire of the assise thereof broken, &c. But if they upon inquiry shall find any to be defective, they shall take no amercement or fine for any default touching the assise (of Bread and Ale) for the which such an offender ought to have bodily punishment by the Law; but (by the Statute made Anno 13 R. 2. c. 8.) they shall adjudge them to that bodily punishment which the offence requireth, and shall do due execution thereof. Vide hic cap. 109.

Stat. 51 H. 3. And by the old Statutes and customs used in this behalf, the Baker and Brewer for their first offence in breaking their assise, shall be amerced; for the second offence likewise amerced, (according to the offence;) for the third offence they shall be more grievously amerced and warned; but if they shall offend in breaking of the assise the fourth time (being thereof convicted by order of Law,) then they shall receive corporal punishment upon the pillory, or some other bodily correction, without any redemption either by gold or silver: And if the Baker doth exceed (in breaking the assise of his Bread) the full weight of two shillings six pence (which is one ounce and an half) in his farthing white loaf, then he shall suffer the judgment and punishment of the Pillory without any fine or admonition given to him; vide the Statute of the Pillory and Tumbrel made Anno 15 Hen. 3. and another Statute incerti temporis cap. 2. & 6. Poulton Statutes at large, page 17. 111, & 112.

Sheriffs also in their Tōrne, sometimes upon their own view of the offence, and sometimes upon presentment thereof, may commit the offenders to Ward or Prison (in some cases) and in other cases may impose a fine upon them, or may amerce them, &c. See more hereof hic postea tit. Tōrne.

1 E. 4. c. 2. But now by the Statute made Anno 1 Ed. 4. cap. 2. the Sheriff (of himself, without Process, or Cōtreas, to him delivered from the Justices of Peace) hath no power to levy any Amerciaments upon any presentment, or Inditement, taken before him in his Tōrne, but all such presentments, and Inditements, are first to be delivered by the Sheriff to the Justices of Peace of the same County, and the offenders to be proceeded against by the said Justices, and then the Justices are to make out process for the attaching of such offenders, and for the levying of such amerciaments, &c. and to deliver cōtreas to the Sheriff to levy the same thereby. See hic postea titulo Sheriffs Tōrne.

And now upon presentment in the Sheriffs Tōrne, of any Inholder or Hostler, for not making their Hostle-bread of due Assise, the Sheriff may fine the offenders, and may make out process against them; and they being taken the Sheriff may commit them to prison until they have paid the fine. 32 H. 8. c. 41. & 21 Jac. c. 21.

Note also that in some cases the Sheriff hath two powers, or a double and two-fold Authority, sc. the one as a Judge, and the other as an Officer, in one and the same business: As in a Writ of Redisseisin, in a Writ to enquire of Waste, in a Nativo habendo, and in a Writ of Admeasurement of Pasture, &c. In these Cases the Writ is as a Commission to the Sheriff, and by vertue thereof the Sheriff is Judge of the Cause (as the Justices of Nisi Prius are) Fitz. Attaint. 13. 2 H. 4. 3.

And therefore in in a Writ of Redisseisin, the Sheriff, as a Judge, taketh and holdeth Plea of the matter, and goeth to the Tenements to see them, and to hear the matter, and after he giveth judgment, and committeth the Disseisor to prison: And as an Officer he executeth the Process, &c. 7 H. 7. fol. 4.

So upon a Writ of Admeasurement of Pasture (which is Wiscounstiel) the Sheriff, as a Judge, holdeth Plea, granteth or maketh out Process, and examineth the matter: Otherwise the Suitors be Judges. Co. 6. 12.

To enquire of wast.

And in a Writ to enquire of Waste, as also in a Writ of Redisseisin, &c. the Sheriff being both a Judge, and an Officer of Record, if therefore he shall make a false Return therein, the party cannot contradiet it; and if the Land lie in a Franchise, the Sheriff cannot make his Warrant to the Bayliff of the Franchise, or Return Mandavi Balivo, &c. For he cannot grant over the Judicial power, but he must enter the Liberty, and execute the Writ himself, otherwise it is Error. 11 H. 4. 7 H. 4. fol. 4. Er. Offic. 4. 9. 34-37-42. & Rediss. 6.

Redisseisin.

And upon a Writ of Redisseisin directed to the Sheriff, if the Sheriff by Inquisition thereof taken before him, shall find the Disseisor to be disseised again, &c. then the Sheriff shall presently take such Disseisors, and commit them to prison, there to remain at the Kings pleasure, &c. and not to be delivered without special Commandment: For in case of Redisseisin, the Sheriff is made and appointed to be a Judge (by this Statute of Merton) and all his proceedings by force of the said Statute of Record, &c. Co. 6. fol. 12. 20 H. 3. cap. 3.

Nativo habendo

Also in a Writ de Nativo habendo, if it goeth to the Sheriff to hold Plea of the Matter, there he is both a Judge and Officer, &c. But where it is directed to the Sheriff Returnable in Banco, there is he but an Officer, and not Judge. See hic postea tit. County Court. Fitz. 78. k. & Fitz. Retor. 52. Br. Offic. 36.

Note that in a Writ to inquire of Waste, as also in a Writ of Redisseisin, &c. directed to the Sheriff, whereby he is made a Judge of the Cause, the Sheriff must sit and execute the same in proper person, and not by his Under-Sheriff, or other Deputy, neither ought he to Write, &c. To the Bayliff of a Franchise, although it be within a Franchise, but the Sheriff must enter the Franchise, and must do it himself. And the Process in such Cases shall be served by the Sheriffs Bayliff. Fitz. Returne 52. 53. 92. So likewise in a Writ of Dower, Noy 21.

Also in Case of Replevin, the Sheriff by the Stat. (of Marl. cap. 21. & Westm. 2. c. 2.) hath been holden to be a Judge of the Cause, and the Statutes to be to him a Commission, as a Justices, &c. 21 H.

21 H. 6. Fitz. Rector. 17. See more hereof hic postea tit. County Court.

Pea in every Case where a Justices was directed to the Sheriff, he was holden to be a Judge of the Cause, and not the Sutors, ibid. But the Law is now holden otherwise. See Co. 6. 11, 12.

Mr. Bracton, lib. 3. c. 35. wrote thus, Potest quidem Vicecomes tenere plura placita, quæ non sunt ex Officio Vicecom. sed vice ipsius Regis, Non sicut Vicecomes, sed sicut Justiciarius Regis: Si hoc ei specialiter demandetur quod Juratam Capiat, & Inquisitiones faciat, Extensiones, & Partitiones, licet in quibusdam Judicium reddere non possit: Item habet ex speciali mandato Regis, non ex Officio Vicecomitis, ubi mandatum habet quod Justitiet aliquem, & quo Casu videtur quod omnia habere debeat ut Justitarius, sine quibus placitum illud terminari non possit. Habet etiam ut Justitarius, & non ex Officio vicecomitis, quod cognoscere potest de Averiiis captis & detentis, contra vadium & plegium, quod quidem placitum pertinet ad Coronam, & quod ei ex Necessitate conceditur ad terminandum, &c. Item pertinet ad ipsum cognoscere de Assisis in Regno Statutis, & juratis per Regnum, si fuerint servata, vel non, sicut panis & Cervisie, & de falsis mensuris, que pertinent ad Coronam, & de quibus Attachiamenta facere potest simul cum Coronatore, usque ad adventum Justitiariorum: Item pertinent ad Vicecomitem visis Franciplegiis in Turnis suis duobus, singulis Annis per Hundreda, Wapentakia faciendis, &c.

Also in choosing Knights for the Parliament, the Sheriff by the Statute (to some purposes) is made a Judge, sc. to examine, and to judge of the ability of such as be choosers of these Knights: See tit. Knights of Parliament.

Thus much concerning the Sheriffs absolute authority, and now it followeth to Treat of his Ministerial duty, &c.

And note that both these his Authorities (or duties) seem to be implied in the Saxon word Schire Reeve, id est, le Reeve del Shire, which is as much as Præpositus Comitatus, the Ruler or Governor of the County (See Co. 9. 49. & Co. L. 168.) importing his absolute power, Or Ballivus, or Thesaurarius Comitatus, the Kings Wapstiff, or Treasurer of the County or Shire, importing his Ministerial Duty, it being part of his Duty to gather up the common monies and profits, &c. of the King within his County. And so the Sheriff is called Ballivus, and the County is called Balliva sua. Co. L. 61. b. 168.

Besides that the County is many times called Balliva, a Waplitwick, as appeareth also by the forms of the Sheriffs Returns, Non est inventus in Balliva mea, &c.

This Ministerial duty of the Sheriff, Mr. Camden, pag. 160. setteth down thus. The Sheriff may well be termed the Treasurer of the Shire or Province: For it is his Duty to gather the Common Monies and Profits of the Prince in his County; to collect and bring into the Exchequer all Fines imposed, even by distraining; to be attendant upon the Judges, and to execute their Commandments; to assemble and impanel the twelve men, which in causes do enquire of the fact, &c. to see condemned Persons executed; and to examine and determine certain smaller actions. Hæc ille. And therewith for the most part, agreeth that which followeth here.

The word Reeve is a Saxon word, and signifieth as much as a Wayliff: And as a Wayliff of a Mannor is one which hath authority to gather up Rents, Amerciaments, and other Duties, &c. due to his Land, and to do other business belonging to a Mannor, so the Sheriff hath authority to do for the King in his County as aforesaid, sc. to gather up, and accompt for, the common monies, and profits of the County which come to the Exchequer, and to do and execute other common businesses.

The word Wayliff came in with the Normans, and here it signifieth an Officer concerning the administration of Justice of a certain Province. See the Terms of the Law, & Co. L. 168.

C A P. 5.

The Ministerial Authority, Duty, or Office of the Sheriff, consisteth principally in these things following.

Truly to keep the Kings Rights of his Crown, within his County: sc. the Kings Lands, Franchises, Suits, Rents, and all other things that belongeth to the Crown: See his Oath; & his cap. 19. 6, 7, 8. His Oath.

2. Truly to gather (and bring into the Exchequer) the profits and monies due to the King within his County or Wayliff: sc. the Kings Rents, Farms, Debts, Issues, Amerciaments, Fines and Forfeitures, his cap. 9. 10, &c.

3. To seize to the Kings use the goods of Felons attainted, and of Fugitives, and of persons outlawed, Treasure trove, Wapfed goods, &c. Decodands, Estrays, Wreck of the Sea, Whales, Elcheats, Wards, and Lands of Ideots, his cap. 14, &c.

4. Truly to accomplish and put in execution all manner of Writs, Process, Judgments, Executions, Commandments, and Precepts directed to him from any of the Kings Courts, which are to be executed within his County, cap. 20. Truly to return all such Writs, &c. cap. 36. To Impannel Juries, and to Return them, cap. 85. &c.

5. To be attendant upon the Judges in their Circuits, &c. And to execute all their lawful Commandments, &c. his cap. 98.

6. To assist the Justices of Peace in his County: sc.

In some Cases	{	To join with them,	{	See his cap. 99.

		To execute their Precepts, &c. ibid.

7. To execute the Precepts of Commissioners of Sewers, and other Commissioners, cap. 100.

8. To

County, or Shire Court; which in some Cases also is a Court of Record. See hic cap. 105. &c.

12. To make Purveyances for the King in some Cases, cap. 103.

Of all these see more fully hereafter in this Book.

CAP. 6.

Lands.

It is parcel of the Sheriff's Oath, truly to keep the Kings Rights of his Crown, sc. his Lands, &c. Now the Kings lands, be either the ancient Demefne lands belonging to the Crown; or else such lands wherein the King hath right, as descended to him from his Ancestors, or of his own leisin, purchase, or getting, or which come to him by elcheat or forfeiture.

Land:

Fitz. 16. d.
Vide Minsh.
verbo Domesday book.

Mr. Fitz. saith, that the Book which is called Domesday (being the survey of England) was made in the time of Saint Edward the Confessor, and all the Manors and Lands which were in the leisin and hands of the said Saint Edward, at the time of the making of the said Book, are ancient Demefne, and were anciently belonging to the Crown.

Ancient Demefne, Antiquum Dominicum continet omnes illas terras que ad Regem spectabant tempore Edwardi Confessoris. Vide Dr. Cowell 88.

And yet, vide 49 E. 3. 22. Br. Aunc. Demefne 9. (and Mr. Lambard and Mr. Camden) that the Book called Domesday was made in the time of King William the Conqueror, and that the lands in that Book, which are under the title, Terre Regis Edwardi, or under the title, Terre Regis, only (which is intended William the Conqueror) are ancient Demefne; And so that the lands which were in the hands of the Conqueror, are also ancient Demefne; And that by that Book only (or chiefly) shall ancient Demefne lands be tried.

For the reason of the name of the Book, John Speed in his Chronicle, page 5. saies thus: King William the Conqueror caused a description to be made of all England, how much land every one of his Barons possessed, how many Knights fees, how many plow-lands, how many many in villenage, how many head of beasts, yea how much ready money every man did possess, and what Rents might be made of every mans possessions: The Book of which Inquisition (yet in the Exchequer) was called Domesday, for the generality of that judgment on all the land.

And so it may seem that Edward the Confessor caused such a Book to be made (in his time) of all such Mannors and Lands which were then in his own hands; And that William the Conqueror made an addition to the former Book, and caused to be entered therein, and added, such Lands as were then in the hands of the Conqueror himself; as also such lands as were in the hands of every of his Barons, and other Subjects.

Now it is to be considered what the Sheriffs Office or Duty is in this particular; or what the Sheriff by vertue of his Oath stands bound to do, if he knoweth of any of the Kings lands within his Wapentick, to be concealed or withhelden, by any Subject having nothing to shew for them.

And yet where any man shall encroach upon the Kings Lands, or upon the Kings High-way, or shall levy or make any house, or building, wall or hedge, &c. upon the Kings land, &c. or shall make any enclosure thereof, these are Purprestures, and to be enquired of, and reformed, by the Sheriff in his Torne, and may be seized into the Kings hands by the Sheriff, &c. See hic cap. 107. See postea.

Where any lands, &c. shall come to the King by Descent, Reversion, Rolls 1. part. Remainder, or Elcheat (in which cases, without any Office found, 183. or other matter of Record, there is a possession in Law vested in the King, sc. the Freehold is cast upon him in Law) there it seemeth that the Sheriff ex officio, may seize or take the profits of the same lands to the Kings use (making account for the same) and so may the Elcheator. Stamf. de Prerog. folio 54. Co. 4. 58. Vide plus Stamf. & Co. 5. 52.

In ancient times the Sheriffs in their Tournes did enquire of Alienations in mortmaine; and of Alienations (by the Kings tenants) without licence. Lectura Mr. Littleton super Stat. Westm. 2. And in such Cases the Sheriff might have seized the lands to the Kings use, as lands forfeited, or elcheated.

But the Elcheator is now a more special Officer for finding out the Kings title to lands, and other things. 4 Ed. 4. 24. Fi. 227. Co. l. 13.

CAP. 7.

Franchises.

A Franchise is a Royal privilege in the hands of a Subject, Finch. 38. And such are every liberty, or commodity, which having their creation at the first, by the special grant of the King, or of their own natures appertaining to the King, are given or granted to a common person, to have thereof some estate of inheritance, or for life, &c. And of these some are more Royal than others, of all which see more fully in Mr. Finch. 38.

But of such as are less Royal (being almost infinite) some few of them, whereof our Law Books do most make mention, and wherewith the Sheriff hath any thing to do, are here mostly treated of: And if any man do hold any of these last Franchises without or contrary to the Kings grant or lawful prescription, it seemeth to be enquirable in the Sheriffs Tozne, as a Purpresture, or as an usurpation upon the King. Co. L. 277. See Fitz. forfeiture 26.

For it is parcel of the Sheriffs Oath to keep the Kings Franchises; and therefore the Sheriff may enquire of, and seise for, and to the Kings use divers of those things, as Franchises and Royalties belonging to the King by his Prerogative. Franchises.

The mean profits of Lands for Intrusion, and Alienation without licence.

The profits of the Lands, &c. of Aliens. Within their Bayliwick or County.

The profits of such Attainder, lands as come to the King by Escheate.

He is to seise to the Kings use.

But in most Cases, for the profits of Lands there must be first an Office found for the King (which properly belongeth to the Escheator) scz. to enquire and find the certainty what Lands they be, and the yearly value thereof, &c. before the Officer may seise them. Vide Co. 8. 169. & 9. 95.

The profits of the Lands of persons outlawed in personal actions, these the Sheriff may seise without any Office, &c. 21 H. 7. 7. 2.

And so it is concerning the goods of	{	Felons attainted. Fit. Coro. 285. 308. 368.
		Fugitives. Fit. Coro. 287. Stamf. 192. 193.
		Outlaws.
		Egyptians.
		Waived goods, and goods confiscate, &c.

But by some opinions the Excheator is always accountable for the goods of Felons and Fugitives, and the like; and not the Sheriff, save in a gross sum for the form of the profits of the County. Keil. 173. per see the Sheriffs Duty, hic cap. 124.

Note that to lands and hereditaments, the King is intitled only or chiefly, by matter of Record. But for personal and transitory things, as Catalla Felonum, & Fugitivorum, Wreck of the Sea, Treasure trove, and the profits of the lands of persons outlawed in personal actions, and of Clerks convict of felony, the King shall be intitled thereto without any Office, or other matter of Record, 21 H. 7. 7. a. Perk. 5. 6. Stamf. de Prerog. 56. Co. 2. 52. 17. 12. & 11. 77.

And therefore for seizing of Lands, the Sheriff must be well advised that he hath the Kings Writ, or other lawful Warrant or Commandment from the Kings Courts or Justices, or other lawful Authority, so to do, lest otherwise he prove a disseisor: See 3 E. 1. cap. 24. 17 E. 2. F. ass. 373. 2. ass. pl. 9. & Co. 8. 169. 170. Br. And so in all Cases where a possession in law of a Freehold is cast upon the King, the King by his Officer may enter upon or seise the Land it self, and take the profits thereof, without any Office found, &c.

Suit.

Suit.

Also it is parcel of the Sheriffs Dath truly to keep the Kings Suits: and if they have been concealed, or withdrawn, the Sheriff upon knowledge thereof, must cause them to be done, or restored again to the King.

Now Suit it is a service which a man ought to do, by reason of his person, or by reason of his land and tenure; and to performe this, he ought to go to the Court of the King (or of some other) there to do that which appertaineth to the nature of his Suit (be it to be a Judge, Juror, Cryer, Waylist, or to serve the Process of the Court, and such like) And in such Cases the party ought to attend in the Court, and to do that which appertaineth to his said Suit. Vide 2 E. 4. 3.

And yet where a man by his Tenure is to come to a Leet, or Hundred, and to do there some special service, as to be Cryer, or Waylist, &c. they are no Suit services. Finch. 145.

And

And this seemeth to be meant here of suit done, or due to be done, to the Kings Courts (i. e. to the Torne, County Court, and other the Kings Courts:) and to this purpose there are two sorts of suits, i. e. Suit real and Suit service.

Fitz. Ear.
c. 211.

Suit Real (or Royal) is a suit which by the Common Law is due to the Sheriffs Torne, or Leet, &c. (which are Courts Royals, viz. the Kings Courts, And to these Courts all men of the age of twelve years or above, shall be compelled to come in person to learn and know the Laws, so that they may not be ignorant of things that shall be there declared and given in charge, and whereby they shall be governed. And it is called Real or Royal Suit because of their allegiance, and this appeareth by common experience, when one is sworn (in those Courts to the King, and as in those Courts all men ought to be) his oath is, that he shall be loyal and faithful Subject to the King. And this Suit is not due for their land which they have or hold, but it is due only ratione del resiance del person, by reason of their dwelling and abroad within the Hundred or Leet. Vide Finch. 125. & Termes del Ley, & Co. L. 100.

Royal.

So that these Courts (the Sheriffs Torne or Leet) are principally to cause every man to do their allegiance to the King, and there to be sworn to the King to be his leige-man: And besides in these Courts they are to enquire of such things as pertain to the King, and Common-wealth.

But no man shall be compelled to do this Suit, but only where he is resiant or dwelling, and that but twice in a year. Vide Br. Leet. 39. 42. 12 H. 7. 18. & 25 E. 3. 23. Fitz. 161.

Suit to the County Court, is also a Suit Royal, and due by reason of resiance within the County. Finch. 115. See hic tit. County Court.

And so it may seem thereby that both the Sheriffs Torne, and the County Court, are both the Kings Courts, And as the Sheriff by his Oath here standeth bound duely to keep the Kings Suits, so inclusive he standeth bound duely to keep his laid two Courts (the Torne, and the County Court) and to see that all Suitors belonging to the same Courts, give their attendance, and do their Suit and service there.

Ibid.

Suit Service, is a Suit which by the Common Law properly is due to the Kings Court (as to the Sheriffs Torne or Leet twice a year) or to the Lords Court (from three weeks to three weeks, by the whole year:) And this Suit service is due by reason of the tenure of a mans land, and ought to be done at every Court of every Lord, where he holdeth any lands or tenements of them.

Service.

That a man may hold lands by Suit service to the Sheriffs Torne, or to the Leet. Vide Fitz. 158. a. Fitz. Barr. 211. & Termes del Ley tit. Suit.

Also a man may hold lands to do Suit service to the County Court, or Hundred Court, &c. Fitz. 158. a.

Auxi ceo est lou Coppibolders ou auter Customers tenants &c. (que Estate il ad) ont use de faire Custome service; & pur default del ceo Suite Custome, la terre serra seisie, &c.

And by the word Suits may be understood the Kings Suits in Law, sc. that the Kings Suits in Law shall be preferred, &c. wherein the Sheriff is for the Kings profit to do his best endeavour according to his Office, sc. that the Kings debt be first levied. Vide hic cap. 10. 19. 25. & 58.

CAP. 9.

Rents.

The Sheriffs also by his Oath is bound not to assent to the decrease, to the lessing, ne concealment of the Kings rents, and whensoever he shall have knowledge that any of them been concealed or withdrawn, he shall do his true power to make them to be restored to the King again; and if he cannot do it, he shall certifie the King, or some of his Council thereof, &c.

Note that the Sheriff is Ballivus Comitatus (as I said before) and his County is also called his Wapliwick; and as a Wapliiff of Mannor is to gather up his Lords Rents, and other duties, so the Sheriff his office is to gather up not only the common monies and profits of the Shire which be due to the King within his County, but also to gather up the Kings Rents within his Wapliwick (as it seemeth and for which he may distrain. See Fitz. 234. b. But at this day this rather belongeth to the Office of the Kings Receivers, &c. As to the Checheator to enquire thereof. Finch. 127

For there be now particular Collectors and Receivers of the ordinary rents of the Kings lands, &c. which do answer the same into the Exchequer. And the Sheriff meddeth not now with the gathering or levying thereof, except it be by Process out of the Exchequer; But the Checheator is the Officer to whom Process is usually directed concerning the Kings Revenues, &c. Co. 4. 57. Fitz. 78.

And yet at this day if the Sheriff shall distrain the Kings Farms or Tenant, for Rent due to the King, &c. and shall account for the same Rent in the Exchequer, this seemeth to be a good justification for the Sheriff, in an action of Trespas brought against him for taking the Tenants Cattel, &c. Liber Intrac. tit. Trespas.

Also for the Kings ordinary Rents, upon Process directed to the Sheriff for the levying thereof, the Sheriff may levy the same, upon the body or goods of the Kings Tenants, or of his Sureties (for default of the Tenant) or upon his land, or of his Heirs, or upon the Crecutors, &c. of the Kings Tenant, or upon other the possessors of his lands or goods.

By the word Rents, seems to be meant not only Rent services and Rent charges, &c. (due to the King) but also Farmes or Farm Rents due to the King: sc. Rents reserved in fee Farm, or upon Leases.

You shall find by the Statute made Anno 51 H. 3. de Scaccario, that Sheriffs might let to Farm the Kings Warbs and Checats, and were answerable for the Rent, &c.

Also

Also by the Statute made 10 Ed. 1. de Scaccario, it appeareth that ^{10 Ed. 1.} Sheriffs are accountable yearly in the Exchequer for the Farms of Serjeants and Knights, the Farms of Cities, Boroughs, and Towns, and other Farms, &c.

Also by the Statute of 34 H. 8. c. 16. it appeareth that Sheriffs were charged with one Farm demanded in one whole sum, growing of the issues and profits of certain of the ancient Demesnes of the Crown; As also of certain Rents thereto belonging: And with one other Farm growing of the perquisites and profits of their Courts: And with one other Farm of Purprestures, Knights, Serjeancies, and minute Rents, &c.

These words Purprestures, and Knights, seem here to be trespasses or offences done in Forests, hurtful to the Vert and Venison of the same: This Purpresture of the Forest, is by building and new erecting of houses, and other Inclosures within a Forest, without the special licence of the King, or of his Justice in Eyre. Manwood 54.

And the word Assart is an ancient English word signifying to make plain, &c. Assartum est quod redactum est ad culturam: and an Assart of the Forest, is the destroying of a covert, by cutting and stubbing up, or plucking up by the roots those Woods that are thickets or coverts of the Forest, to make the same a plain, or arable land; this is fineable to the King, if it were not done by the Kings licence: And if any man would have the same to continue, he must compound with the King, or with his Justice in Eyre. Now upon composition for the continuance of such Assarts, or for the toleration or suffering of such new erected buildings, or inclosures within the Forest, there was a yearly Rent reserved to the King, which was at the judgment and discretion of the Lord Chief Justice in Eyre of the Forest, and entered of record at the time of the arrenting thereof. And in the times of King Edward the First, Second, and Third, when the Justices of the Forest did usually hold their Iters, great benefit did yearly grow to the King by these fines and Rents. But of later times, there hath been seldom any Justice seat at all kept for Forests: and when kept, very slenderly performed: the records not kept, or not returned into the Exchequer; and so the said Rents are now unknown, &c. See Manwood & Minsh.

Also by the Statute of 14 Ed. 3. c. 9. it appeareth that the Sheriffs ^{14 Ed. 3.} did Farme of the King the Hundreds and Mapentakes.

Also by the Statute of 1 H. 4. c. 11. it appeareth that the Sheriffs ^{1 H. 4.} were charged with the ancient Farmes of the Counties; and that they Farmed the Counties of the King. Quære what these Farmes of the Counties and of the Hundreds are.

And by the Statute of 4 H. 5. c. 2. Sheriffs shall be charged to the King for all such things as be or run in yearly Farms or demands.

See also the Statute of 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 4. of Farms, and Ricountiells, &c. due to the King and withhelden from him.

Note that there be certain Farms called Ricountiells, which the Sheriff for his time payeth a certain Rent for to the King, and maketh what

what profit he can of them: And these Vicountiels seem to be the Farms mentioned in the former Statutes of 10 Ed. 1. 14 Ed. 3. 9. 1 H. 4. 11. 4 H. 5. 2. 34 H. 8. & 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 4. here before mentioned.

But more particularly these Vicountiels are said to be certain duties of ancient time, due to the King, &c. As for Castle Guard; for the Sheriff's aid; for the Læt Fee, &c.

And these are commonly called certainities, which are gathered up by the Sheriff, or their Bayliffs. And see Cro. 47. b. where a Sheriff prescribed, pro Auxilio Vicecomitis.

And for the Farms called Vicountiels, for which the Sheriff for his time payeth a certain Rent to the King, and may make what profit he can of them. See the Statute, Anno 4 H. 5. 2. All Sheriffs shall have allowance upon their accounts, by their oaths, of things casual, that be not in yearly Farms or demands.

2 H. 7. 5.

W^hy Brian and Ratcliffe, the Sheriff so soon as he is made Sheriff, is accountable to the King, of all Farms, Rents, Issues and Profits of the County, which run in account under the name of Vicountiels: But for the Extreats of the Green Wax (i. e. out of the Exchequer) and such others (as for the fines and amerciaments set in any Court upon Offendors, issues lost for default of appearance, the Kings debts, &c.) the Sheriff is not chargeable as Sheriff at the first, nor at any times after, nor to levy the same, except that the summs, i. e. le'treats del sommes come to him out of the Exchequer, and then when he hath them, he is chargeable and accountable.

And by Blage Anno 6 H. 8. the Sheriff is accomptable for the profits of the County, but (saith he) that must be understood in a summ in gross for the Farm of the profits of the County. Keil. 173. hic c. 122.

What the Revenues, Issues and Profits of the County be: See 20 H. 7. fo. 12. hic antea cap. 3.

In an action of trespass brought against the Sheriff, for breaking the Plaintiffs close, and taking his Cattel, &c. the Sheriff justified for distraining for Rent due to the King, in jure Corone, by prescription as parcel of the Farm and profits of his County of N. to the use of the King, &c. and that he had accounted for the same in the Exchequer. Libro Intrac. tit. Trespass, in Rent div. 6.

Note that in the former case, the servant of the Sheriff justified by the commandment of his Master, &c. Et quod in clausum prædictum portis inde tunc apertis intravit, &c. So as it seemeth the Officer cannot justify to break open a door, or gate, to distrain for the Kings Rents, &c.

CAP. II.

Issues.

Issues.

The Sheriff so soon as he is made Sheriff is accountable to the King in the Exchequer for all manner of Issues and Profits of the County, which run under the name of Vicountiells, 2 Hen. 7. fol. 6. yet he is accountable for these in a Summ in gross. See Keil. 173. hic cap. 9.

But for other Issues the Sheriff is not accountable, nor shall be charged therewith, until they shall be Estreated under the Seal of the Exchequer, and the same Estreats delivered to the Sheriff: Neither shall the Sheriff levy any such Issues, without such warrant. Vide Stat. 27 Ed. 1. c. 2.

And then by his Office he is (upon such Process out of the Exchequer, &c.) to gather up, and to bring into the Exchequer such Issues and Profits, &c. Stat. de finibus. 27 E. 1. cap. 2. 42 E. 3. c. 9. 2 H. 7. fol. 6. & Br. Patent. 105.

Exitus (Issues) pluraliter usurpatur, & Redditus annuos, vel alia terrarum commoda significat. Com. Index. •

The word Issues (in our Law) is sometimes used for the profits growing to the King, &c. as an Amerciament, Fine, Forfeiture or Punishment; assessed upon Jurozs, &c. for default of appearance, &c. And sometimes for the profits of Lands or Tenements themselves.

And so the word Issues (in our Law) seemeth to be taken three ways, or in three manners.

First, for such Issues and Profits of the County, which go under the name of Vicountiells, of which see hic antea cap. 3.

Secondly, for the Issues and Profits of the Lands themselves: as where the King is entitled to have the Lands or profits of Lands of persons Attainted, or Outlawed, or for Alienation without Licence, for Alienation in Mortmain, for a condition broken, or the like; Of this also see hic antea, cap. 6. & 7.

Thirdly, for Issues to be lost for default of appearance (sc. by Jurozs, or by the Tenant, or Defendant, &c.) of which here: but these last the Sheriff may not levy, until they be Estreated to him, &c. for without warrant he may not levy the same.

Issues perde per default.

Issues set and returned by the Sheriff, upon the Defendants, or Jurozs, shall be forfeit to the King, by reason of the default of appearance, and shall be levied by the Sheriff, and of these, See hic postea Return of Issues. Cap. 89. 90. & 91.

Issues forfeited by witnesses for default of appearance. See the Stat. 12 E. 2. cap. 1. But this seemeth to have been in Cases where the Deed was denied, and then Process went out for them, and that they were to be joined with the Jury, &c. Vide Fitz. Process 17. 126. 141. 181, & 5 H. 7. fol. 8. & Co. 1. 6.

And if such Issues Returned upon any man be never so great, the Party hath no Remedy.

Finch. 86.

Sur Grand Cape, le terre serra prise en mains le Roy, & le Vic' serra Accomptable par les Issues del dit terre vide Fitz. Amerc. 1. & Disceit. 33. Starnf. de Prerog. 84. b. Co. 7. 38. Auxi quant ascun action Real (sc. de plee de terre) est port, & le tenant appear & apres fait default, un petit Cape issuer de seiser les terres en mains le Roy, &c.

Et q. chescun cape est al use del Roy termes del Ley, tit. Cape.

Et semble que en tous Cases l'on terre est seise en mains le Roy per le Vic' que le Vic' serra charge del Issues & Profits del ceo, de le temps que le terre fuit issint seise & q. il accompt. de ceo in le Exchequer sc. del Issues trouve sur le Default, tanque judgement par le demandant, f. 345. vide Fitz. And yet as in personal actions, the Process of Distringas is but for the taking of Pledges of the Defendant for appearance: See the Process by Cape in Real Actions, is but for setting of the Land for the same purpose.

What is contained under the name of Issues. See more hic postea. Return of Issues, cap. 89.

How much the Sheriff must Return in Issues upon the Defendant. &c. Ibidem.

What Issues he must Return upon Jurors, ibidem.

The Sheriff shall levy no Issues without warrant: ibidem.

Issues forfeited, and upon whom, and what Lands they shall be levied, &c. ibidem & hic postea tit. Forfeiture.

If the Sheriff shall Return a Juror, in Issues, which is not sufficient, he is punishable, ibidem.

So if the Sheriff shall Return any Issues upon any Juror, or Undersheriff, which was not lawfully Summoned, &c. ibidem.

Sometimes also there be Issues set by the Court, as an Amercement, Forfeiture, or punishment for default of appearance of Jurors: Vide Br. Amerc. 35. Fitz. Essoine 123. & Aulse 65. Br. Amercement 55. & 60. & Jurors 15. 18. 25. & 33.

No Officer or other person shall collect or levy any Issues Created, but only of the right person charged with the payment of the said Issues, &c. 27 Eliz. cap. 7. hic cap. 85.

If the Sheriff shall Returne the Issues of any Recognisor, Pledge, 27 Ed. 1. c. 2. or Mainpernor, which at the time of the Returne, was not sufficient to answer the said Issues and Amerciaments, the Sheriff himself shall answer, and shall be therewith charged in the Exchequer, 27 Edw. 1. CAP. 12.

Amerciaments.

The Sheriff is also accomptable to the King for, and upon Process, &c. is to gather up, and to bring into the Kings Exchequer, all Amerciaments and Fines which shall be set or assessed (as a penalty) upon the heads of offenders against the King, in any of his Courts.

Plus hic c. 14.

An Amerciament is properly a penalty Assessed upon an Offendor by his equals, or by the Country.

And this word Amerciament, is called in Latin Misericordia, and in English, Mercy; so as by the name and nature of this word, a man is not to be punished so much as he or his offence deserbeth, but that the Amerciament ought to be less than the offence; for it cannot be properly said, that a man hath mercy shewed to him, if he shall pay or be charged at more than his offence deserbeth; and this is by the Common Law, which is a Law of mercy, and by the Law of reason, a principal ground of our Common Law.

Co. 8. 59. b.
Fi. z. 75. h. k.

And hereupon also it is, where two or more are to be amerced, though one joint offence, yet their amerciaments shall be severall, for that one of them shall not be charged or amerced for the offence or default of the other, but that they shall be all equally amerced and charged, Fitz. 75. g. h. k.

And if there be divers demandants amerced in a plea real, for their nonsuit, the course of the Court of Common Pleas is to make the Estreats of the amerciaments, severally upon them, and to deliver the same Estreats to the Clerks of the Assizes, who delivers them to the Coroners, and they use to Assesse the amerciaments (sc. to assess the sums upon every one) severally, Fitz. 75. k. 76. a.

Vide Co. 8. 39.
b. & 11. 43. b.

And so they use to do where there are divers defendants amerced, Fitz. 75. i.

And those Estreats do rehearse and shew the cause of the amerciaments, &c.

By the Statutes of Magna Charta, cap. 14. & Westminster 1. c. 61. Amerciaments. Amerciaments ought to be assessed, (taxed, moderated, or assised) per Pais, sc. per Pares, by the oaths of good and lawful men of the same Wicnage or County. See Co. L. 126.

Co. 8. 39. b. 40.

But these Statutes are not to be intended of fines assessed by the Court upon any offenders for any contempt, &c. Nor to any issues returned upon any man, for any default of appearance.

But they are to be understood of Amerciaments upon the Plaintiff Vide Co. L: 126. 127. or Demandant, or upon the Tenant or Defendant in actions real or personal, (as if the Plaintiff or Demandant be nonsuit; or if Judgment be given against the Tenant or Defendant, or upon the Plaintiff, Quia non est prosecutus, or pro falso Clamore, or the like) or upon the Mainperners, for that the principal party doth not appear, &c. in such cases the Justices never assess any Amerciament, but by the former Statutes the Amerciaments ought to be assessed per Pares; And the Court in such cases enters, Ideo in misericordia, generally, without taxing or assessing any sum in certain.

And then the Clerk of the Warrants in the Common Place, doth make Citreats of these Amerciaments and delivers them to the Clerk of the Assises within every circuit, to deliver unto the Coroners in every County to assize, id est, to assess the Amerciaments, ut supra.

And so for amerciaments upon Indictments or Presentments, for not repairing of a bridge, or highway, or the like; such amerciaments ought to be assessed per Pares, &c.

But amerciaments of every Officer or Minister of Justice, must be assessed by the Justices of the Court where the cause depends: and this is called an amerciament Royal, as where the Sheriff, Coroner, or other Officer of the King is amerced by the Justices for any his abuse or misdemeanor in his Office: vide Co. 8. 40. CAP. 13.

Fines.

Fines.

This word Fines (or à fine) hath divers significations; As first, for an assurance or certainty of lands, &c. 2. A Fine is a punishment certain which groweth expressly from some Statute. But to the purpose in hand, a Fine is most commonly that which is assessed or set upon an offender in some Court of Record by the Court or Judge there as a penalty for some contempt or offence, and which the offender doth give for and in satisfaction of his offence, default, or contempt; See Co. 8. 38. 40. 41. & 60. & Co. L. 126.

The difference between Amerciament, & tiel fine est, Que ceo que est assés. per le Court, sur vic' Coroner, ou Officer del Court, est appel Amerciament (nemy un fine) Mes sur estranger al Court pur misdemeanors est appel fine, & nemy Amerciament. Co. 8. 40.

Fines pur escape de felons, Such fines are uncertain, and to be assessed by the Justices. Vide hic c. 14.

Also if any of the Kings tenants in Capite (be it in halghes service, or ootherwise) do alien without the Kings licence, any part, they shall pay a Fine: 9 H. 3. 32. & 17 E. 2. 7. Stamf. de Prerog. folio 29. 30. And the Kings Officer may seise the land for the Fine, Fitz. 175. a.

Uncore per tiel alienation sans licence, le tittle del Roy Covient estre primerment trouve per Office, ou autrement de appeare sur Record.

Ass. 2. Stamf. de Prerog. 55. 56.

And by the Statute made 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 34. it seemeth that Sheriffs shall be accountable for all Fines for Alienations and Intrusions made by the Kings tenants, &c. within their County (as well as for Fines imposed upon Offenders for contempts, &c.) and upon Proses may seise the lands for the Fine.

But for such Fines assessed or imposed upon offenders, as also for the profits of the lands forfeited to the King by his tenants in Capite, upon the alienation without the Kings licence, &c. the Sheriff is not chargeable; Nor is it safe for him to meddle to levy the same (notwithstanding any office, or other matter of Record, found thereof) until he hath received Proses or other Warrant under the Seal of the Exchequer, to levy the same; and then when he hath so levied them, he is chargeable and accountable for the same, and may seise the lands for the Fine.

Also offenders convicted of high treason shall forfeit all their goods and chattels (to the King) as well real as personal, moveable and unmoveable, their corn growing, and all their debts due to them: i. e. all such goods, &c. as they shall have at the time of their attainder, but not those which the offender had sold or given away before.

This reacheth to no other escheats, but such as grow upon offences, and if the offence were done whilst the lands were in the Kings hands.

although the party were not attainted thereof until such time as the lands be out of the Kings hands, yet the King shall have the escheat by force of this Statute. Stat. 41.

If any murderer or other felon shall escape, the Town or Country Escape de felon. shall be amerced or fined thereto, by the Justices, 3 E. 1. c. 9. & 3 H. 7. c. 1. sc. The Town where the murder or felony was done; and if the Town be not sufficient, then the amercement shall be laid and levied upon the Hundred, and if the Hundred be not sufficient, then it shall be levied upon the County.

But the Sheriff (nor any other) are not to take or levy any thing (sc. any fine, of any Town, nor of any Gaoler or other person) for the escape of any felon, before it be adjudged, or assessed by the Justices in Eyre, Stat. Westm. 1. c. 3.

And now that there be no Justices in Eyre, it shall be assessed by the Justices of the Kings Bench, or by the Justices of Gaol-delivery, or of Oyer and Terminer, or else by the Justices of Peace (sc. in Cases where the Justices of Peace have power to enquire thereof) Reg. folio 184. 21. ass. 12. 27. ass. 1. 2. 27. 1 R. 3. c. 3. & 19 H. 7. folio 10.

Before this Statute, if there had been any such escape, the Sheriff himself would assess the fines, which many times were unreasonable, and therefore this Statute of Westm. 1. was made, ordaining that such fines should be adjudged by the Justices as aforesaid.

A man arrested for a Trespass, escapeth, or is rescued by a stranger, Stat. 150. c. these are finable, &c. Stat. 31. c.

So if a man be found guilty of felony, and then hath his Clergy : and in these three former cases the Offendor shall forfeit his goods, but no lands, except the offence be Treason : for that they refuse the trial or judgment of the Law : See Plo. 262. b. & Co. L. 391.

Heresie.

If a man abjures for Heresie, he shall not forfeit his goods : but if he be convict and delivered to the lay power, &c. he shall forfeit his goods, but he shall forfeit no lands, except he be put to execution. Quare of this last, for by the Common Law there was no such forfeiture of lands ; and the Statute of 2 H. 5. c. 7. which gave the forfeiture of lands in case of Heresie, is now repealed by the Statute of 1 Ed. 6. c. 12. & 1 Eliz. c. 1. Vide Finch. fol. 71. Doctor & Stat. fol. 115.

Recogn.

Fines.

Amerciaments.

Also the King shall have all amerciaments, fines, issues, and all forfeitures of Recognisances lost or forfeited, &c. before any of his Judges, or Justices in any of their Courts or Sessions ; but these must be first estreated into the Exchequer, and from thence process must be awarded to the Sheriff to levy the same to the Kings use, &c.

Also the Courts of Exchequer, of Wards and of the Duchy have authority to set amerciaments, fines, and penalties upon parties, officers, and other persons, for their defaults, contempts, negligences, or misdemeanors ; as also to take Recognisances for the King, &c. All which amerciaments, fines, penalties, and forfeitures of such Recognisances shall be to the King, &c. 33 H. 8. c. 39.

Also the King shall have all amerciaments, fines, forfeitures and issues forfeited in any of the Sheriffs Courts, &c. in their Townes, County Courts, or Hundreds within the twelve Shires of Wales, and the Sheriffs of Wales shall account for the same. 34 H. 8. p. Wales 43.

But otherwise it is of other Sheriffs within England : See 6 H. 7. fol. 2. 3. & hic tit. Sheriffs Fees.

Goods attached by the Sheriff, &c. if the party so attached (by his goods) appear not at his day, &c. the goods attached are forfeit to the King, and the Sheriff shall be answerable for the value thereof : See hic tit. Attachment. Br. forf. 3. 4.

Issues

And so of Issues returned upon the Defendant.

The petty Jury attainted in a Writ of attainr, shall forfeit to the King all their goods, and the profits of their Lands during their lives, or until they have made a Fine with the King: Br. attainr. 99. Vide Fitz. Judgment, 174. & Stamf.

*Seize filons

Note, that after a man is Indited of Felony (by the Statute made 25 E. 3. Anno 25 E. 3. cap. 14.) a Capias shall go out to the Sheriff, commanding him to attach the body of the Felon: And if the Sheriff return in the said Writ, that the body is not found, another Writ of Capias shall be incontinently made returnable at three weeks after, and in the same Writ it shall be comprised that the Sheriff shall seize his goods, and safely keep them till the day of the Writ returned: and if the Sheriff return that the body is not found, and the Inditee cometh not in, the Exigent shall be awarded, and the goods shall be forfeit: But if he come and yield himself, or be taken by the Sheriff (or other Minister) before the return of the second Capias, then the Goods and Chattels of the Inditee shall be saved.

By the Statute made Anno 1 R. 3. no Sheriff (or other Officer) 1 R. 3. c. 3. P. ought to take or seize the goods of any person, arrested, imprisoned, or indited for Felony, or for suspicion thereof, before the same person be duly convicted or attained of the same Felony (sc. either by Trial, Confession, or Outlawry and Judgment thereupon given;) or that the same goods be otherwise lawfully forfeited, upon pain to forfeit the double value of those goods so taken to the party grieved. Sher. 24. Br. forf. 40.

Howbeit this Statute extendeth not to any other, but to such as be in prison: Also this Statute extendeth not to Lands, but only to goods. Stamford. de prerog. fol. 48.

Mr. Bracton, lib. 3. tit. de Coron. saith thus, Prisiones imprisonati antequam convicti fuerint, de terris suis disseisiri non debent, nec de rebus suis quibuscunque spoliari, sed dum fuerint in prisona debent de proprio suo in omnibus sustentari, donec per Judicium deliberati fuerint, vel Condemnati.

And in another place of the same Book, cap. 18. he saith thus, Qui pro Crimine vel Felonia magna (licet pro morte hominis) captus fuerit & imprisonatus, vel sub custodia detentus, non debet spoliari de bonis bonis suis, nec de terris suis disseisiri, sed debet inde sustentari donec de Crimine sibi imposito se defenderit, vel Convictus fuerit, quoniam convictionem nihil forisfacit, &c.

And yet lest the goods should be disorderly wasted, imbezelled, or sold away, the Sheriff, &c. (before the attainder of the Felon, so soon as he is taken) may take Sureties that the goods be not imbezelled, &c. (sc. may cause the Owner, or some of his Friends to find Surety) and for want of Sureties, the Sheriff, or other his Officers may seize them, and cause them to be praised and valued, and then may deliver them to the Town (sc. to some of the neighbours of the Town where the goods were) by them safely to be kept, until the offender be convicted or acquitted. And by the opinion of Mr. Brook, ut. Fort. 44. this Order ought to be observed concerning the goods of every one which committeth Felony, until he be attained: But yet the Felon must have reasonable maintenance out of his goods for himself and his family, in the mean time: And according hereunto there is a writ in the Register to be directed to the Sheriff, videlicet, Quod tenementa & bona taliter capta, videantur & inbreviuntur, & salvo custodiantur per ballivum ipsius capti, qui fecerint Regi inveniet ei respondendum, &c. (Salvis inde ipsi capto & familie sue, necessariis quantum tulerit in prisona.) So that the Felon must have maintenance of his goods for him and his family, until he be convicted, and then that which doth remain shall be to the King. Bracton, lib. 3. cap. 18. & Stamf. de Prerog. fol. 48. a. De illis autem qui in fuga sunt, aliter erit. Bracton, ibidem.

So then this difference is to be observed in the seizing of a Felons goods, viz. where the goods be forfeited before the Felony tried (as where one is found guilty before the Coroner of the death of another) or where it is found before the Coroner that one did fly for a felony) in such cases the goods shall be presently seized upon the forfeiture of them, though there be no conviction of the Felon; and upon such forfeiture the goods are presently the Kings, and the Felon is to have no maintenance out of them, &c.

But upon an Indictment, &c. where the goods be not forfeited until the Felony tried, then they shall not be seized, or removed out of his house until the Felon be convicted, but yet there the Sheriff, &c. may take Sureties that the goods be not imbezelled or disorderly wasted, as aforesaid, and for want of Sureties may deliver them to the Town, &c. And note that if goods so delivered to the Town, be impaired in their custody, the Sheriff shall be charged to levy of the same Town the value of the loss, &c. (as it seemeth) F. Coron. 355.

And Mr. Stamford giveth it for a general Rule, that the Township where the goods of Felons or Fugitives be found, shall always make answer to the King of them. Stamf. de Prerog. 47.

If one be indicted super visum corporis, of the death of a man, before the Coroner, all his goods are forfeit presently, although he shall be acquitted after: otherwise where one is indicted before other Justices, vide Abr. d'Ass. 71. And yet by others, there is no forfeiture without the flying be found. Vide Fitz. Foat. 32. & Stamf. de prerog. 45.

Where one is found guilty of Homicide before the Coroner, the Coroner may seize the goods, and deliver them to the Town, &c. But upon a fugam fecit found before the Coroner, the Sheriff may seize the goods, and deliver them to the Town, &c. Now we call that a fugam fecit, where any fly for fear, when any Treason, or Felony is committed by any. Finch.

Fugitives.

Pea if a man shall fly for felony, the Sheriff, &c. is to seize all his goods and chattels, real and personal, as also the profits of his Lands to the Kings Use.

- And the Sheriff may retain such Goods and Chattels, and the Issues and profits of such Lands, to the Kings Use, until such time as the Fugitive shall be attainted or acquitted; for that such his flying maketh a great presumption against him. Stamf. de prerog. 45. 46. vide Fitz. Coron. 290. & 366. & Fitz. Forf. 32.

Pe that flyeth for Petty Larceny, shall forfeit his goods. Fitz. Coron. 406. tamen vide Stamf. 47. & Quare.

An Accessary before the Felony committed, shall forfeit his goods, upon a fugam fecit found, &c. But otherwise of an Accessary after the Felony committed. 4 H 7. fol. 18. Br. Coron. 199. & Forfeitor. 52.

But yet the goods, &c. of a Fugitive, are not forfeit until the flying for Felony be lawfully found of Record; either before the Coroner upon an indictment, super visum corporis, in case of the death of a man; or by verdict upon his acquittal (for although he be found Not guilty upon his Trial, yet he shall forfeit his goods for his flying: Quia facit rursus facinus, qui iudicium fugit, and the Law will admit no proof against this presumption:) And although the Jury which tries him, shall find him Not guilty, and further that he did not fly: yet the goods are forfeit by force of the finding of his flying before the Coroner. Vide Stamf. de prerog. 46. & Fitz. Forfeitor. 29. & 35.

Fugitives.

And if a Felon be arrested for any manner of Felony, and as he is leading to a Justice of Peace to be examined, or towards the Gaol, he flyeth, and those which pursue him cannot take him again without killing of him, by reason whereof they do kill him: if all this matter, and the flying be presented before the Coroner, or before any other who hath authority to inquire of felonies, the party so slain shall forfeit all his goods and chattels: sc. all such as he had at the time of the felony committed: Fitz. Coron. 290.

And in these and other like cases presently after the flying found by Enquest before the Coroner, the Sheriff is to seize all the goods, and the profits of the lands of such offenders. See Fitz. Forf. 32. & Stamf. 47. b.

Goods.

And the custody of the goods of those which be convicted of felony, or which be fugitives, after they be forfeited, doth belong to the Town where those goods are, or where the Felon doth dwell: and therefore upon a Fugam fecit presented before the Coroner, the goods ought presently to be seized by the Sheriff or his Officers, and praised by an enquest, and the Sheriff shall cause the appraisement to be enrolled in the Coroners roll, and the goods shall be delivered to the Town to answer answer to the King for them : And though the goods be not delivered to the Town, yet if the goods were in the felons house or possession at the time of his conviction or flying, the Town shall answer for them : Fitz. Coron. 366. Stamf. 192.

Note that under this word goods (Catalla) be comprehended Heales for years ; Lands extended for debt upon judgment given in any Court of Record, or upon any Statute Merchant or Staple, Recog. or Clegit ; The wardship of body and lands ; the issues of lands and tencements ; Corn growing ; debts due by Obligation, Statutes, or Recog. or due upon an account, or upon a simple contract ; yea goods stolen, and goods wrongfully taken from the felon.

Fitz. Coron.
194.

But for the issues and profits of Felons and Fugitives lands, the Sheriff is, and was always chargeable therewith according to the extent thereof, and not any Town : And the Sheriff (presently after a Fugam fecit found before the Coroners) shall seize them into the Kings hands by word only, without taking any enquest. Stamf. de Prærog. 47.

Lands.

Also he that dyeth for felony, shall not forfeit the goods or profits of his lands, which he had at the time of the felony or flying ; but those and such only which he had at the time of the inditement or acquital : Co. 5. 109. Fitz. Coron. 296. & 344.

If process be awarded upon an appeal or inditement of felony against any person who doth absent himself and not appear, until the Exigent shall be awarded against him, by this absenting himself (which in Law is a flying) he shall forfeit all his goods, which he had at the time of the Exigent awarded, although he yield himself upon the Exigent, and that after he be acquit of the felony : but if he were in prison, or beyond the Sea, &c. at the time of the Exigent awarded, then he shall not forfeit his goods, &c. See Fitz. Forf. 19. & 31.

See postea, ut law.

Note that he that is outlawed for treason or felony, shall forfeit those goods which he had at the time of the Exigent awarded, and not such as he had before, and hath aliened.

Note also a difference touching the profits of the lands of fugitives : sc. where the flying is presented before the Coroner, and where the flying is found by verdict upon an acquital ; for upon a flying presented before the Coroner, the offender shall forfeit the profits of his lands until his death, or until he be acquit, or until he hath purchased the Kings pardon : But upon a flying found by verdict upon acquital, he shall forfeit no profits or issues of his lands, for by his acquital his lands are discharged, and consequently the profits thereof : Fitz. Co. 344.

Where one which passeth out of the Realm without the Kings licence, or contrary to the Kings Proclamation, or having licence, shall not return upon the Kings command, &c. he shall forfeit his lands and goods, vide Fitz. 85. a. c. & Dyer 128.

If a man shall kill himself, he shall forfeit to the King all his goods and chattels, real and personal, and his debts, &c. And the Sheriff and his Officers are to seize them to the Kings use, but he shall not forfeit

C A P. 15.

There be other kinds of Forfeitures of Goods to the King, as bona waivata, Eltrays, bona Confiscata, Deodinda, &c.

Bona waivata. Bona waivata, or derelicta, are where a felon hath stoln goods, and Co. 5. 109. upon Hue and cry, or other pursuit after him, he waiveth the goods; or where a felon for fear to be apprehended (thinking that pursuit is made after him, or otherwise to ease himself of his carriage) he having the goods with him in his possession, flyeth and waiveth, casteth away, or goeth from the goods: In these cases the goods are forfeit to the King by the Common Law of this Realm: and the Sheriff, &c. is to seize them to the Kings use: yea any other officer, or person in the right of the King, and to the use of the King, may seize the goods so waived.

And yet the party robbed, or owner of the goods, shall afterwards Br. Estry 2. & 14. be restored to his goods again: sc. if he maketh fresh suit, and shall do all his endeavour to take the Thief, whether he be taken or no; and this is by the Common Law: or without fresh suit, &c. if he do cause the Felon to be thereof attainted, or that the party robbed shall but procure another to give evidence upon the inditement. Vide Finch. 75. &c. and this is by force of the Statute made 21 H. 8. cap. 11.

But if the felon had not the goods with or about him when he Co. ibid. fled (having peradventure hid them, or left them in his own house, or in the house of any other, or in the custody of any other, or left them within any mans Mannor, or put, hid, or bestowed them in the ground, or in any other secret place, and then was fled:) These goods are not forfeit, neither shall they be said to be waived goods in Law, but that the owner may take them again when he will, without either fresh suit made after the felon; or without causing him to be attainted, or other prosecuting of him (as it seemeth) and the Sheriff, nor any other Officer are not to seize or meddle with any such goods, &c.

Note that there can be no waife (properly) but of goods that were Stamf. 186. stoln: and yet if upon Hue and cry levied, a man that hath committed no felony, doth leave his own goods and flyeth, those goods (by some opinions) may be seized to the Kings use say a waife. See 29 E. 3. fol. 29. And so seems the opinion of Lacon in 12 E. 4. fol. 5. But by the opinion of Nedh. in 12 Ed. 4. and of Paster Brook, tit. Estry 2. (agreeing (agreeing with the opinion of Sir Edward Coke, here before) a waife is only that which is stoln, and after waived and left in fying, and Catalla felonum, are the proper goods of the felon, and the one may be seized and forfeited by the fying, but not the other: Br. Bona confiscata. The word Confiscate (confiscare, i. conferre in fiscum) cometh from fiscus, which (as Maſter Mintheu ſaith) originally ſignifieth a Hamper, &c. but Metonymically, the Emperors Treasures, becauſe it was anciently kept in hampers; and ſuch goods as were forfeited to the Emperors Treasure foꝛ any offence, were bona confiscata, and ſo do we call thoſe goods that are forfeited to our Kings Exchequer. Hec ille.

And indeed our Law in ſome caſes doth intitle the King to goods that late were another persons, but loſt by ſome default oꝝ negligence of his; yet this cannot properly be termed a forfeiture, but a conſiſcation of goods. As if a man do ſteal divers goods, and the owner of the goods doth bring his appeal of Robbery againſt the Felon, and therein doth omit oꝝ leaſe out any part of his ſaid goods that were ſtoln; in this caſe the King ſhall have all thoſe goods which were left out of the appeal; and the reaſon of law is, foꝛ that by this omiſſion oꝝ leaſing out any of the goods the felon may eſcape, and the appellant ſhall be thus puniſhed by the loſs of his goods, foꝛ ſuch his negligence, connivancy, and concealng of the felons offence; and then in as much as the owner cannot have thoſe goods, the King ſhall have them as conſiſcate, according to the old rule, quod non capit Chriſtus, capit fiscus. Termes del Ley.

So if a man be indicted foꝛ the felonious ſtealing of another mans goods; where in truth thoſe goods be his own, and the goods be brought into the Court, and he is asked by the Court whole thoſe goods be, and he doth diſclaim to have any property in them; by this diſclaimer he ſhall loſe the goods, though they were his own; and though he be acquit of the felony, yet the goods by this diſclaimer ſhall be conſiſcate to the King. Fitz. Coron. 355. & 368. Termes del Ley. Stamf. 194. and the Sheriff ſhall be charged with the ſame. Ibid.

So if goods be found in the poſſeſſion of a felon which he doth diſavow oꝝ diſclaim to have any property therein, and after he is attainted attainted for stealing of other goods, but not of those : in this case the goods which he did disavow, shall be confiscate to the King : but if he had been attainted for the stealing of those goods, they should have been termed goods forfeit, and not confiscate. Fitz. Forf. 24. Finch. fol. 75.

And some do hold that all goods which are forfeited to the Kings Exchequer, be bona confiscata. Mich.

Co. 5. 110.

And if A. hath the goods of B. by bailment, or finding them, or by Force appeal, or other lawful means, and B. doth bring an appeal of robbery against A. charging him to have stolen them, or taken them feloniously, and it is found by the Jury, that the goods were the plaintiffs, and yet that the defendant A. came to them lawfully, in this case B. the plaintiff shall lose these goods to the King, for his false and malicious appeal, &c. they shall be confiscate.

If a man do steal goods at divers times from several men, and he is attainted at the suit of one of them for the goods stolen from him, but is not attainted at the suit of the others, by this attainder the felon shall forfeit to the King not only his own goods, but also the goods stolen from those other at whose suit he was not attainted, although he had no property, but only a possession of those goods, for a felon hath no property in goods stolen, but the property doth always remain in the right owner, which property in this case he also forfeiteth or loseth to the King, for default of pursuing the felon. Par default de pursuit.

So if a man do steal goods from another, and before his attainder he doth kill himself, he shall forfeit to the King not only his own goods, but also the goods which he hath stolen from the other : for the owner of those goods not having prosecuted and given evidence against the offender to attain him of felony (either by appeal, or indictment) can neither have restitution of those goods by the Common Law, nor by force of the Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 11.

See the Statute de officio Coronatoris made Anno 3 E. 1. that hoxses, oxen, carts, or other things whereby any person shall be slain, that properly are called Deodands, they shall be praised, valued, and delivered (by the Sheriff or Coroner) to the whole Township, who shall be answerable thereto.

Every Sheriff, within one month after the arrival may seize Goods of to the Kings use, all the goods and chattels of any outlandish Egyptians persons calling themselves Egyptians, that shall come into this Realm :

Healm : And may keep the one moiety thereof to his own use, making an account to the King in the Exchequer for the other moiety, 22 H. 8. cap. 10.

But every person that shall prove by two credible witnesses, before the Sheriff, that any of those goods were craftily, or feloniously taken from him, shall be presently restored thereto, upon pain of the double value thereof, to be forfeited by the Sheriff, to the party grieved, &c.

And yet note that after the month, the offence is made felony by the Statutes, 1 & 2 Ph. & Ma. c. 4. & 5 Eliz. c. 10. And then the King is to have the whole goods of such Egyptians.

Where a man is appealed, or indicted for Felony or Treason, and Co. 5 110. b. withdraws and absents himself so long time as that an Exigent is awarded against him (sc. by the space of five Counties) this absenting himself is accounted a flying in Law, for which he shall forfeit all his goods and the profits of his lands which he had the day of the Exigent awarded, or at any time after, although he shall be afterwards acquitted of the felony or treason, and although he yields himself upon the Exigent. And the Sheriff or his Officers may, ex officio, seize them presently to the Kings use. See hic antea Fugitives, & Franchises. Stamf. de Pretpg. fol. 47. Br. Relat. 16. Stamp. 184.

In felony.

Note that he which is outlawed for felony, shall forfeit his lands, and the King shall have Annum, diem & vastum, &c. But for utlary in any personal action he shall forfeit no land, but only the profits of his lands. Br. But the party outlawed doth not forfeit his goods, (neither may the Kings Officer, &c. seize them) before the time that the utlary appeareth of Record, sc. either by the Sheriffs Return of the Exigent, or that the utlary be removed by a Certiorari; or be certified by the Sheriff, sur Testatum est. the party outlawed might, But they may not meddle with the possession of the lands, to plough, sow, grant, or let the same, &c. And if the party outlawed shall make a feoffment of his land, the King shall have no more the profits thereof, but the feoffee shall have the same, for that the King hath not any possession of the land, although he hath the profits thereof. See Br. Forf. 24. 26. & 30. & Br. Issues 9. 10. Plow. 541. b. & Stamf. de Prerog. 57. b.

And yet if tenant for years be outlawed, the King (or his Officers) may seize the land and terme, and may plow the same land to sow with corn, and may occupy the same in the same manner as the termor or tenant might. But otherwise it is, when the tenant of a Freehold is outlawed; for in such case the King may cut the grass, &c. for that it is a thing which is annual (i. yearly cut or fed) but he may not plow the land, nor cut the underwoods; neither shall the King, or his Officers meddle to cut or crop any trees growing upon the Freehold. Vide 9 H. 6. fol. 21.

But where a woman executrix takes a husband who is outlawed, the goods of the testator shall not be thereby forfeited. 33 H. 6. Br. Forf. 71.

And so if an Executor himself be outlawed, he shall not thereby forfeit the goods of the testator. Ibidem.

If a woman covert be outlawed in an action of debt or trespass, the King is not to have her Terme (or a Lease for years which she hath) for that it is in the husband. 9 H. 6. fol. 52. Et encore joint Terme del feme sera mise en execution par debt al Roy per le baron: Issint le baron forsa Terme que il ad jointment ave sa feme, per Attender.

He that is outlawed in a personal action, shall forfeit to the King all such debts as are owing to him by bond or other specialty: but not such debts or other duties, as are due to him by contract, &c. But no goods fixed or annexed to the Freehold, shall be taken or seised for Outlary; as a furnace, a table fixed to the ground with posts, nor wainscot, doors, windows, locks, pales, and the like. 20 H. 7. fol. 13. b. & 22 E. 4. fol. 12.

Deer in my Park shall not be forfeited by Outlary in a personal action, by Vavisor, 10 H. 7. fol. 7. a. And yet by Brian, 18 E. 4. 14. the King may kill them, and may dispose of them to his own use.

Charters or Evidences concerning Freehold shall not be forfeited by Outlary, 21 H. 6. fol. 1.

A Ward shall be forfeited by Outlary. 33 H. 6. fol.

In an action of Trespals brought against a Sheriff for taking of goods, he may justify, for that an exigent of felony was directed to him, and that he took them thereupon; and such Justification is good, although he sheweth not that he had accompted for the same to the King. 3 H. 7. fol. 3.

And if the Sheriff seizeth the goods, and hath accompted for them in the Exchequer, and after the Outlary is reversed: here the parties remedy is only by Petition to the King. Stamf. 75.

In an action of Trespals for carrying away goods, it is a good plea, that the owner was outlawed, and that he as a servant to the Sheriff, and by his commandment took the goods. Br. Trespals 339. 18 E. 4. fol. 9.

But note where the Lord of a Mannor or Franchise, hath by Charter the goods of Felons, Fugitives, or Outlaws, &c. there the Sheriff, or his Officers, are not to seize or meddle with such goods: And yet such Lord must have them by Charter, and not to claim them only by prescription or usage: And such Charter must be made within the time of memory, &c. (i. e. since the time of King Richard the First) and by plain and special words; or else such Charter must have the aid and help of some other matter of Record, within the time of memory, memozy, as allowance before the Justices in Eyre, or before the Justices of the Kings Bench, or (in some cases) before the Justices of the Common Pleas, or before the Barons of the Exchequer, or by force of some confirmation by Charter of King or Queen within the time of memozy: And this is only good for such part of such Charter, as hath been so allowed or confirmed. Coke 9. 27. 28.

If the Sheriff (or any other Officer) shall wrongfully seize or take one mans lands, or goods, being of the same with another that is outlawed, in such case the party grieved, his executors or administrators may have a Writ de Identitate nominis directed to the Sheriff, &c. whereupon the party grieved shall find Sureties before, or to the Sheriff (or other Officer which hath warrant to seize) to answer the King of the value of such Lands, or goods and chattels, in case that he cannot discharge himself: And for this the Sheriff or other Officer shall not take any thing of the party, but shall forthwith (upon Sureties found as aforesaid) deliver to the party grieved his goods, &c. again, upon pain to lose to the party grieved his double damages, and besides to be grievously punished to the King. See the Statutes of 37 E. 3. ca. 2. & 9 H. 6. ca. 4. & Fitz. 268.

But the better to prevent such mistaking of one man for another, the Statute of 1 H. 5. cap. 5. hath ordained, that in every Original Writ of Actions personal, Appeals, and Judgments, in which the Crigent shall be awarded, there shall be additions to the Defendants name, &c. of their Estate, Degree, or Mystery, and of the Town, and of the County, where they be conversant, And that for default thereof, all Outlawries thereupon shall be avoided. Note also that when the Outlawry with the Exigent is returned by the Sheriff into the Court, &c. then is it a good Outlawry to disable the party to sue, &c. And yet before the Return, it is sufficient and good for the King, and therefore the Kings Officers may seize to the Kings use the goods of the party Outlawed, &c. least they be unbezelled. But the Sheriff may not sell the parties goods before the Capias Utlag comes to him: Neither doth the Capias Utlag warrant the Sheriff to sell the goods. See hic cap. 59.

Wreck of the Sea.

Mr. Bracton, lib. 3. fol. 120. saith, Wreckum dici poterit, quasi derelictum, ut si quid (navis levandæ causa) à nave projectum fuerit ab aliquo, sine animo retinendi vel repetendi, id proprie dici poterit wreckum cum res projecta habita sit pro derelicta, &c.

Wreck is by the Civilians called Naufragium, where a ship perisheth 3 E. 1. c. 4. at the sea.

Concerning

Concerning wreck of the sea, the Statute of Westminster 1. (made Anno 3 Ed. 1. 4.) is thus; where a man, a dog, or a cat escape quick or alive out of the ship to the land, no such ship or barge, nor any thing within them, shall be adjudged wreck; but that the goods shall be saved and kept by the view of the Sheriff (or Coroner) and shall be delivered into the hands of such as are of the Town where the goods are found; so that if any sue for those goods, and prove that they were his, within a year and a day, they shall be restored to him without delay, and if not, they shall remain to the King, (as belonging to him by his Prerogative) and shall be seized by the Sheriff, or Coroner, and praised by a Jury, and delivered to the Town, who shall answer therefore, &c. Vide officium Coronat. 4 E. 1. & Doct. & St. 156. 157.

Comment que les parols del ceo Statut' sont tiels, sc. soient les choses gardes, &c. per queux parols semble que le ville ne poiet prendre tiel biens sans le view & delivery d'aucun officer le Roy, uncore semble que le ville poiet ceo prendre sans aucun delivery del officer; & auxi que le vic. poiet ceo prendre sans Committer le Custody del eux al ville.

Note that if the goods within such a ship, be of that sort that they cannot be kept sweet and good by the space of a year, there the Sheriff, or officer, may sell such goods, and deliver the money taken for them, to the Town to keep and answer for them. But if the goods were such as might be kept a year, there the goods shall be kept and preserved during the year, or else the officer is punishable, &c. Pl. 466.

By the Common Law if goods were wrecked, they were immediately (and ipso facto) forfeited: And now by the former Statute of Westminster 1. c. 4. the party shall have a year and a day to prove his property, if a man, a dog, or a cat shall escape to land out of the ship alive: but if nothing escape out of the ship alive, it seemeth that the goods wrecked are presently forfeited to the King, so as the owner shall not be admitted to prove his property, for that this proof within the year and day is given only where something escapeth alive. See Terms of the Law, & Br. Wreck 3.

Where wreck belongeth to another than to the King, he shall have it in like manner as the King should; but there the Sheriff is not to meddle therewith: As where the Lord of any Liberty, Franchise or Mannor, hath wreck granted by Charter, &c. or hath had any wreck by Prescription, &c. for otherwise the King by his Prerogative shall have the wreck of the Sea throughout the Realm. 17 E. 2. cap. 11.

But by the Statute made 27 E. 3. c. 13. if any ship shall perish on the Sea, and the goods come to land, which be no wreck, the owner shall be required to prove the said goods to be his own; and upon proof thereof they shall be presently delivered, paying to them that have saved and kept the same, convenient for their travel, by the discretion of the Sheriff, or other officers, with the assent of four or five of the best or most sufficient discreet men of the Country.

Master Bracton, lib. 3. saith thus hereof, Item magis proprietarii poterit wreckum, si navis frangatur, & ex qua nullus vivus evasit, Et maxime, si dominus rerum submersus fuerit: Et quicquid inde ad terram venerit; erit domini Regis: And therewith agreeth the Book of Entries, fol. 611. 612. tit. Trespass in Wreck. And accordingly also it was adjudged in Sir Henry Countables Case, Co. lib. 5. fol. 106. that nothing shall be said to be Wreccum Maris, but such goods only, which are cast, or left upon the land by the sea: For Wreccum Maris signifieth, illa bona quæ naufragio ad terram appellantur. Sed quæ in Mari longius à littore inveniuntur ita quod constare non possit ad quam terram vel regionem essent applicanda, tunc quicquid ita inventum fuerit, erit inventoris, &c. quia non est aliquis qui inde privilegium habere possit; Rex non magis quam privata persona, &c. Bracton, fol. 120.

Nota que wreck de merre sirra trix per le Common Ley, & nemper le Admiralty. 15 R. 2. c. 3.

There be other casual profits of like nature, as Flotsam, Jetsam, and Lagan.

Flotsam. Flotsam, is where a ship is drowned, or otherwise periseth, and the goods float upon the sea, or swim upon the water, sc. upon the top of the water. Vide Minsh.

Jetsam. Jetsam, cometh of the French word Jetter, to cast out, and is Co. Ibid. when a ship is in peril to be drowned, and so to disburden the ship, the goods are cast into the sea, and after the ship notwithstanding periseth.

Lagan. Lagan, vel potius Ligan, is when the goods are so cast into the sea, Co. Ibid. (sc. to disburden the ship, &c.) and after the ship periseth, and those goods so cast out, are so heavy that they sink to the bottom, and the Mariners, to the intent to have them again, do tie unto the said goods a cork, or other thing which will not sink, so as they may find them again; and they are called Ligan à Ligando.

And so note that wreck is when the goods are by the sea cast upon the land, and so infra comitatum, wherof the Common Law taketh conuſance; but the other three (Flotsam, Jetsam, and Lagan) are all upon the sea, and therefore of them the Lord Admiral hath jurisdiction.

Note also that none of those goods which are called Flotsam, Jetsam, or Lagan, shall be wreck so long as they remain in, or upon the sea; and being upon the sea, quære if they are not due and belonging to the Lord Admiral by vertue of his Letters Patents.

But if any of them shall be cast upon, or driven to the land by the sea, then they shall be called and said to be wreck, and so the King shall have them, or any other Lord, &c. by grant of wreck from the King may have them, for that they being cast upon the land, will pass by the grant of wreck. Co. 5. 106.

And the King shall have Flotsam, Jetsam, and Lagan, (remaining in or upon the sea, sc.) when the ship periseth, or when the owner of the goods is not known. Co. 5. 107.

Note

Co. 5. 117. Note that the Ship must perish, or else the goods cannot be forfeit, nor said to be wreck. But though the ship perish, yet if any of the servants escape, the law saith, that they have the custody of the goods, and so they are not wreck, nor forfeited.

If the ship be broken by tempest, and the goods cast upon the land, they are not wreck. Fitz. 112. c.

So if goods are cast into the Sea for doubt of a tempest, they are not wreck, nor forfeit. 46 E. 3. fol. 15. And therewith agreeth Master Bracton, lib. 2. Res habita est pro derelicta ubi dominus statim desinit esse dominus; si autem causa navis alleviande, non sic, quia non ea voluntate cecit quis, ut desinat esse dominus, &c.

Co. Ibid. Also in Sir Henry Constaibles Case aforesaid, it was adjudged, that the afove recited Statute made 3 E. 1. concerning wreck, was but a declaration of the Common Law, and all that is therein contained concerning wreck, shall be also extended to Flotam, Jetlam, and Lagan: And that if the owner of such goods shall prove that they were his, within a year and a day, they shall be restored to him, and if the owner dieth, his executors or administrators making proof that they were their restitutors, &c. they shall be restored to them.

Note that the year and day in such cases shall be accounted from the time of the taking or seizure of such goods as wreck, for although that the property be in law vested in the Lord before seizure, yet until the Lord (by his officers or servants, &c.) seizeth them, and taketh them into his actual possession, it is not known either who claimeth the wreck, or to whom the owner shall resort to make his claim, and to shew his proofs. Vide quel maner de proufer le owner fera. Co. 5. 108. a.

Co. Ibid. If the wreck belongeth to the King, the owner may have a Commission to hear and determine the truth of such proofs as the owner shall bring, &c. which must be by a Jury of twelve men.

It was there holden, that the King shall have Flotam, Jetlam, and Lagan, by his Prerogative, although they still remain in, or upon the sea; (for the sea is of the Kings ligeance, and parcel of his Crown of England, &c.) and yet another may have them by the Kings grant. Co. ibid.

Co. 5. 108. Note that at the first the Common Law gave as well wreck Flotam, Jetlam, and Lagan, upon the sea, as Estrays, Treasure trove, and the like, to the King: for that by the rule of the Common Law, when no man can claim property in goods, the King shall have them by his Prerogative.

Also note that wreck is an estray upon the sea, coming to land, as an estray of any beast is upon the land coming within any privileged place or seignior, &c. And the Law giveth in both cases (i.e. in case of wreck and estray) a year and a day to the owner to claim them. Co. 5. 108. & Finch. 45.

Also if the goods of an infant, woman covert being an executrix, a man in prison, or of a man beyond the sea, shall be wrecked at the sea, if they be not claimed and proved to be theirs within the year and day, they shall be all forfeit, &c. For the Law is strict and binding in this case, as well as in case of an estray, (wherof see antea tit. Estray.)

By the Statute de Prerogativa Regis (made Anno 17 E. 2.) the King shall have wreck of the sea throughout the Realm (except in certain places privileged by the King) which Statute also is but a declaration of the Common Law: Co. 5. 108. 17 E. 2. c. 11.

Whales, &c.

Also by the same Statute of Prerog. Regis, the King shall have Whales and great Sturgeons taken in the sea, or elsewhere within the Realm, (except in certain places privileged by the King) which was also the Common Law before the said Statute. Co. 5. 108. Br. lib. 3. 120. Flo. 315.

Also it seemeth by the Common Law, that the King (by his Prerogative) shall have other fishes Royal taken in the Sea, or elsewhere within this Realm, as the Porpus, &c. 39 E. 3. Br. Prerog. 35. for the excellency of the person of the King doth draw and appropriate unto him the things of excellency. Flo. 315. vide Br. Prerog. 35. que le Roy avera.

By the Statute de Scaccario, made Anno 51 H. 3. Sheriffs shall seize and keep all such Wards and Escheats (that are not in fees) as belong to the King, which be within their shires, and of the issues thereof they shall be answerable in the Exchequer, when they account for their Counties; and they might let to Farme, or otherwise, such Wards and Escheats, &c. and might seize their bodies, &c. 51 H. 3.

Also by the Statute made 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 34. it seemeth that Sheriffs shall be accountable for all Wards marriages, and reliefs; and for all fines, for alienations and intrusions made by the Kings tenants within their County. 2 Ed. 6.

Also the King by his Prerogative of the wardship of the heir, shall have Rent Charges, Commons, Estovers, Annuities, Adowsons, Offices, and the like, which descend, &c. to the heir: 12 H. 7. E. Prerog. 63.

Direction and Execution of Writs.

serront direst.*

The office of a Sheriff consisteth chiefly in the execution and serving of Writs and Process of Law, to compel men to appear to answer to the Law; and also for taking of mens bodies, or lands, according to Judgments given in superior Courts: and to do this he is the immediate Officer of the King and all his Courts: And he is sworn that he shall truly do this, and he must do this without any favour, dread, or corruption. Dyer 60. b. Plow. 74.

Al Vicont.

By the ancient Law of this land, all Original Writs (purchased at the suit of the party to maintain actions) are to be directed to the Sheriff of the County where the cause of the suit doth arise; and cannot be directed to any other person than the Sheriff, unless it be in special cases where there shall be good cause of exception to or against the Sheriff, and there the Writ shall be awarded to the Coroner, who then standeth in the place of the Sheriff. Co. 3. Pref. Br. offic. 2. Finch. 13.

Also where it is alledged by either party (ſc. by the plaintiff or defendant, &c.) that the Sheriff is coſin, or otherwiſe of kindred, or tenant to the other party, and the other party doth not deny this : in ſuch caſes proceſs ſhall be directed to the Coroners of that County, and and ſhall be executed by them. 21 H. 6. 18.
34 H. 6. 12.
12 H. 4. 24. And yet you may obſerve much contrariety in our Books herein, for ſome hold a difference where the Sheriff is plaintiff, and where defendant, for where he is plaintiff, the proceſs ſhall be directed to him againſt the defendant, and he may ſerve it himſelf (ſc. the ſummons and Capias, and other like original proceſs ſhall be directed to him againſt the defendant) except the panel of the array which he ſhall not make, and except where he is named Sheriff in the Writ, for there the Coroners muſt execute it : And it ſeemeth that the Writ to the Coroners in ſuch caſes is, that the Sheriff ſe non intronſtat. 18 E. 4. 7. See Br. Proceſs 9. 14. 40. 58. & 118.

Br. Proceſs
65. 145. And where the Sheriff is plaintiff (and not named Sheriff in the Writ, there) he may ſerve the proceſs, ſc. the Summons, Capias, and the like, upon the defendant, and he or his Under-Sheriff for him may afterwards put in pledges de proſequendo in the Chancery, or in the Court of Common Pleas where the Writ dependeth, and when they come to iſſue, he, or the defendant may ſhew that he is a Sheriff, and then the Venire facias ſhall be directed to the Coroners. Keil. 96. for the Venire facias.

And yet ſee Br. Proceſs 60. & 106. 118. 140. the contrary, ſc. that the proceſs ſhall go to the Coroners, whereſoever the Sheriff is a party, and that there ſhould be no diverſity where he is plaintiff, and where defendant, and that he may neither ſerve proceſs upon him, nor for himſelf : Ideo quære.

9 H. 6. 10. If the Sheriff be defendant, he cannot ſerve the proceſs upon himſelf : 2 H. 6. 12. 8 H. 6. 30. 9 H. 6. 10. Bro. proceſs 9. Neither can he diſtrain nor ſummon, or warn himſelf. Finch. 6. & hic c. 45.

And yet the books vary in this alſo : See 18 H. 8. 3. Fitz. & Regiſter 81. b. & Thel. 107. 108. Vide Plow. Wimbith his Caſe, an original Writ, Writ, de assise de novel disseisin, directed to the Coroners, was adjudged good, in regard that Assises ought to be speedy, &c. But otherwise there seemeth a difference between other Writs original, that they in all or most cases shall be directed to the Sheriff, but that Judicial Writs may be directed to the Coroners: See Plow. 74.

But (in an Assise of Novel disseisin) if the Sheriff (by craft to have the Writ directed to the Coroners) be named one of the disseisors where indeed he is no disseisor, nor ever was disseisor or tenant of the lands in demand, the tenant in the said Assise may aver this covin, or the Sheriff may shew this matter and covin to the Court, and pray that it may be enquired of, and if it be found that the Sheriff was no disseisor, but was named disseisor by collusion, then shall the Writ be abated, and the plaintiff in the grievous mercy of the King: 11 H. 6. c. 2. Fitz. N. Br. 155. a.

Default.

Also in some cases where the Sheriff maketh default of serving the process, it shall be directed to the Coroners: See Fitz. Process 48. 51. Br. Officer 43. & Fitz. fol. 54. e.

And in some process (sc. an attachment) shall be directed to the Coroners against the Sheriff, for his default in not serving or returning process, &c. Fitz. 54. e. 62. o. 64. b. 68. c. 98. c.

Partiality.

So where partiality is found in the Sheriff in returning the Array Br. Process (or Jury) partially, and thereupon the Jury is quashed, there process^{155.} shall go to the Coroners, and in such cases also the Writ to the Coroners^{Co. 10. 102.} is that the Sheriff shall not intermeddle: 18 E. 4. fol. 3. See^{103.} Dyer 188. Co. L. 138.

And yet where any are returned or put in the Pannel by the Under-Sheriff, or by the Wayliff which are partial or favourable, &c. the Array shall be quashed for that cause, and by some opinions the Sheriff shall make the new Array, for that there was no default in him. 28. Aff. Pl.

But others hold the contrary, for that this shall be intended the Sheriff's own act, and so it appeareth by the Return; for therein the Sheriff maketh no mention that he did write to his Under-Sheriff, or Wayliff, as to a Wayliff of Franchise, &c.

But if the Sheriff be dead or removed, or that otherwise there be no Sheriff, there the process shall not be directed to the Coroners, but shall stay until another Sheriff be chosen; for that the Sheriff being the immediate Officer to the Court, process shall not go to the Coroners but only in special cases; as where it is alledged that the Sheriff is of kindred, or tenant to either party, or that the Sheriff is party to the suit, ut supra, or that the Sheriff made default, or is found partial, ut supra; in such cases process shall be directed to the Coroners, and otherwise not.

If the Venire facias be awarded to the Coroners, where it ought to have been directed to the Sheriff, or è converso (and so the Jury be returned by such as have no authority) it is error; and is not remedied by the Statutes of Neofails: Co. 5. 36. & 8. 162. 163. Dyer 367. Pl. 40.

Note where the Original Process is once directed to the Coroners, all the residue of the process in that suit shall ensue the original, and shall likewise be directed to the Coroners, yea although that Sheriff be removed, or dead, or acquitted, and another indifferent Sheriff be chosen, depending that suit and process: See Br. Process 73. 118. 144. 153. & 183.

14 H. 4. 34.
39 H. 6. 40.

If Process goeth out Coronatoribus, and there be four Coroners, by some opinions any two of them may serve and execute, or return the Process; for the plural number Coronatoribus is observed: but one of them alone cannot execute or return such Process: Br. Ret. 42. See Co. 4. 46.

And yet by the book 31. Aff. 20 Br. Officer 22. the return must be by all four: and according to the opinion of that book, Mr. Stamford. fol. 53. saith, that although in one County there shall be many Coroners, yet it is not needful to have above one in the enquiry super visum corporis: And also that in giving Judgment upon an Aclary, it sufficeth if it be given by one; Also that in Redisseisin it sufficeth to have two Coroners: But where Process is to be awarded to them, there all the Coroners within the same County ought to serve the same, or otherwise it is not good, for that they do this as a Minister, and not as Judge as they do in the other cases; And so also was the opinion of Hawk, 14 H. 4. Br. Reto. 42. See Fitz. Reto. 15. 18. And yet if three of the Coroners die, the fourth may execute and return the Process until more Coroners be chosen. Co. L. 181. b.

Br. Ret. 42.
14 H. 4.

Where process goeth out to the Sheriffs of London or York (there being two Sheriffs) and one of them return the Writ alone, it is not good, although the other be dead; for then there are no Sheriffs; and when the Law giveth authority unto two persons, one alone cannot execute it. Co. 4. 46.

And yet it is used that one of them doth serve the writ, and that is the serving of them both; but when it is returned, that must be in the names of both of them: 31. Aff. 20. Br. Officer 22.

Upon a suit against the Citizens of York, the Venire facias was awarded to the Sheriff of the County, for that the Officers of the City were Citizens. Dyer 279.

Br. Process 155.

For favour in the Under-Sheriff (sc. where he is of kindred, &c. to either party) that being alledged, the process shall be directed to the High Sheriff, with this Clause (as it seemeth) that the Under-Sheriff shall not meddle: And so where the Under-Sheriff is a party. 18 Ed. 4. fol. 3.

Br. Process 58.

But if both the Sheriff and Coroners shall be found partial or faulty, Al Eflit then the process shall be directed unto certain other persons to be chosen or named by the Court, which persons upon a Venire facias to them directed, shall make and return the pannel, and after the return thereof, they shall serve and execute all other the process which shall follow thereupon, as the Sheriff himself should have done if the process had been directed to him: See 15 E. 4. f. 24. Bro. Chal. 69. & 4 H. 7. 3. 14 H. 7. 31. 8 H. 6. 12. & Finch. f. 60. Co. L. 158.

Que terra Triens, & quot, & que poiet estre alter. Vide Co. L. 158.

Sir John Fortescue (sometimes Lord Chief Justice, and after Lord Chancellor to King Henry the Sixth) writing hereof saith, If the Sheriff shall return a favourable pannel, exception may be taken thereto by either party, &c. which exception if it be found true by the oath of two of the same pannel (chosen thereto by the Justices) then the pannel shall be quashed; and then the Justices shall write to the Coroners of the same County, that they make a new pannel; and if that be found faulty, that shall be also quashed; and then the Justices shall choose two Clerks of the same Court, or two other persons of the same County, who in the presence of the Court, upon their oaths, shall make an indifferent pannel, which pannel shall not be challenged by either party: And yet exception may be taken by either party, to the poll or person of any of such pannel, as to say that he is cousin, &c. to the other party, which being found, such person shall not be sworn. Vide Co. 2. 33. a. Co. L. 158.

Also in a place exempt out of every County (as the Palace of Westminster is) there the writ shall be directed to the Gardian or Keeper of the Palace, for he is there the immediate Officer to the Court, and in nature and stead of the Sheriff. Finch. 52.

Exequie.

Sometimes also process shall be directed to the Bishop, &c. as where the defendant is named or returned to be Clerk, Non habens laicum fordam, there a Venire facias Clericum shall go to the Bishop, and by vertue of this writ, the Bishop shall sequester the Benefice of such Clerk, to compel him to appear and answer, and must also warn his person to keep his day, &c. and if the defendant cometh not in at this day, a distringas Episcopum shall go out to the Sheriff, to cause the Bishop to make his Clerk to come in: and thereupon may the Bishop sequester all the benefices of the defendant, and shall answer to the King for the issues thereof, &c. Br. Process 14. 62. 64. & 127.

But if the Bishop be a party to the suit, there the Process shall be directed to the Metropolitan: See 34 H. 6. fol. 29. Br. Ret. 118. & Dyer 153. And sede vacante of the Metropolitan, the Process shall be directed Gardiano Spiritual. Archiepisc. Dyer 77.

Nota que sur issue al Common Ley de matter in fait, que est chose Spiritual, (come Bastardy, excommungement ou tiel) le Trial serra per certificat del ordinary, & ceo son certificat fist fine del matter, & n'est traversable. 7 E. 4. 14. Co. 7. 14. & 9. 31. Finch. 141.

Ceo pur matres spiritual, L'ordinary est le officer al Court. Et certifie excommungement, & tous spiritual matters doiet estre fait per L'ordinary, & nemy per le Commissary, Archdeacon, ou aucun autre, coment que il ad un immediate jurisdiction, si non que il soit specialment admit un Officer a le Court. 8 H. 6. 3. 7. c. 4. 14. f. 238.

Bastardy being pleaded in an Assize, a Writ went out to the Bishop to certifie, &c. who certified the party to be Mulier, reciting the Writ word by word, but did not send the Writ with the Certificate, and for default of sending the Writ, the Certificate was adjudged void: 41. Ass. 19. Br. 81.

Excommunication being pleaded in disabling of the plaintiff, it ought to be certified by the Bishop (who also is the immediate Officer to the Court) and such certificate ought to comprehend specially the cause of the Excommunication, &c. that the Judges may judge thereof, &c. But this may be pleaded (being shewed under the Bishops seal) without any Writ to the Bishop to certify the same: Co. 8. 58. & Lit. 201.

Also upon a recovery in a Quare impedit, the Writ goeth out sometimes to the Bishop of the Diocess, and sometimes to the Dean and Chapter (as Guardians of the Spiritualties, sede vacante Episcopatus) to admit or remove the Clerk, &c. Vide Dyer 241. 200. & 350.

Et nota quant al choses spiritual, L'ordinaire est le immediate Officer al toutes Courts le Roy, &c. par server le proces; le quenz serra per L'ordinaire, & nemy per son Commissary, Archdeacon, ou aucun (coment que il ad immediate jurisdiction) sil ne fuit specialment admit un Officer al Court. 7 E. 4. 14. 12 E. 4. 15. 8 H. 6. 3. & Finch. 141.

Ainsi par al matiers queux concerne Revenne del Roy, L'escheator de chescun County est l'officer al Chancery & Eschequer, a que tous le proces par tuel matiers serra directi. Finch. 78. Co. 4. 57.

Also in some cases the Constable or Lieutenant of the Tower shall receive and execute the Kings Writs; as where the Mayor and Sheriffs of London be faulty, &c. See the Statute of 28 E. 3. c. 10. & 1 H. 4. c. 15.

Sometimes Writs shall be directed to the Justices, &c. as Writs of Error to the Justices, &c. before whom the Judgment was given. And Writs of Audita querela, to the Justices before whom the Plaintiff is to have remedy: And Writs to the Justices to pass a fine of land to be Amortised, Dyer 188.

Thel. 107. Sometimes Writs shall be directed to the Lords of whom the lands are holden: Pl. 74. Sometimes to Stewards, Mayors, Bayliffs, or other Officers of Mannors, Cities, Boroughs, or Towns, within which the lands do lie.

As every Writ which concerneth any Freehold tenant in London, ought to be directed to the Mayor and Sheriffs of London. But all other Writs which are at the Common Law within the same City, ought to be directed to the Sheriffs only. Old N. br. 4. 5.

And sometimes Writs shall be directed to the parties themselves of whom complaint is made, as the Writs of Monstraverunt, de ne in justis vexes, de Estre pemento sometimes, and sometimes Writs of Prohibition, &c. Vide plus Dyer 241. pl. 48. & 266. pl. 8.

2 E. 3. c. 5. Cromp. 203. Sheriffs and Under-Sheriffs shall receive all manner of Writs in any place, and at all times within their County, when and where soever they shall be delivered them, without taking of any thing other than such fees as the Law alloweth, and shall make thereto Warrant.

And when a Writ is delivered to the Sheriff to execute, he ought to receive it, and not to deliver it to the party that delivered it to him back again, but must execute it, and then return the same into the Court from whence it came : for he is so commanded by the Writ ; And if he doth not so, upon complaint thereof, the Court will set a fine upon his head, per Anderson, ter. Patch. 36 Eliz.

An Origent which was delivered of Record (to the Sheriff) was imbezelled, and the copy thereof was returned by the Sheriff ; And he was amerced for the return of the copy, at 30 l. and for the imbezelling thereof, at 20 l. 5 H. 4. fol. 5.

If any man doth fear the malice, indirect dealing, or negligence of the Sheriff, &c. in the execution of any Writ, they may deliver their Writs in the open County Court, or in any other place in the County, and may take of the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff being present a bill, wherein the names of the Demandants and Tenants mentioned in the Writ shall be contained, whereto upon request made by him which delivered the Writ, the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall put to their seal for a testimony, without taking any thing thereof, and mention shall be made therein of the day of the deliverance of the Writ : and if the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff shall refuse to put to seal to such bill, others that be present shall set to their seals to such bill for witness thereof.

Next Return.

And if the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff make not a due return of the said Writs delivered or offered unto him, upon complaint thereof to the Justices of the one Bench, or of the other, they are to make a judicial Writ to the Judges of Assize, to enquire thereof, by vertue whereof the Justices of Assize shall have power to enquire thereof, by those that were present when the Writ was delivered, &c. And if the Sheriff be found in fault, then upon Return thereof into the Bench, &c. he shall be punished, and shall yield damages to the party grieved (having respect to the quantity and quality of the action, and to the peril which might have chanced unto him by the delay which he suffered :) See the Book of Assizes, Lib. 29. pl. 58. Br. return de breve 72. & Officer 40. Abr. d'Ass. 137.

For the Justices of Assize have power to enquire thereof at every mans complaint, and to award damages, ut supra, 2 E. 3. c. 5.

Trials.

Also by this means remedy may be had when the Sheriff shall not execute the Writ ; or shall return untruly that the Writ came too late, whereby he could not execute the Kings commandment, when as he had sufficient time to serve the Writ : 13 Ed. 1. cap. 39. Abr. d'Ass. 137.

Faux Return.

And the like remedy is given when the Sheriff, &c. shall make any other false return of any Writ (whereby right is deferred) and the offenders making any such false return, shall yield damages to the party grieved, ut supra, 28 E. 1. c. 16.

And so if the Sheriff shall return Mandavi ballivo libertatis, where there is no liberty. Kitch. Return. 44.

Also

Also the like remedy is given, when the Sheriff shall Return ten small issues, &c. Abr. d'Ass. 115. & 137. & 19 H. 6. fol. 8. See his power Return of issues.

C A P. 21.

ALl Writs and Process directed to the Sheriff, are usually delivered to the Under-Sheriff, and executed by him. See extent

Lamb. 91.

And yet the High Sheriff may execute them himself; Or the High Sheriff may command his Under-Sheriff, Bayliff, or other sworn or known Officer to serve or execute them, and such commandment of the Sheriff by word only is good, without any precept in writing. Keilw. 86. 9 E. 4. 48. 21 H. 7. 23.

21 H. 7. 23. 2.

But if the Sheriff will command another man (that is no sworn or known Officer) to serve or execute any Writ, Process, or other Warrant, the Sheriff must deliver him the Writ it self, or else a Precept in writing; otherwise an action of false imprisonment will lie for the arrest, Lambert 91. 21 H. 7. 23.

Keil. 85.

And yet the Sheriff may command his servant by word only (without any Precept in writing) to serve or execute any Process and it is good: and so any stranger by the commandment of the Sheriff, and as a servant to the Sheriff, may justify to serve and execute any Process upon the body or goods of another, or to seize the goods of any person that is outlawed, &c. and that without any Precept or Warrant in writing: See Br. Faux. Impr. 43. & Trespass. 339.

If the Writ or other Process cometh to the Under-Sheriff's hands, How to be executed. he must either execute it himself, or else must make his Warrant in writing to the Bayliffs, and such Officers, and that in the High Sheriff's name: or he may make such Warrant to any stranger.

The Bayliff or other Officer to whom any Warrant shall be directed and delivered, ought with all speed and secrecy, to execute the same.

Lamb. 91.

If the High Sheriff (or Under-Sheriff in the High Sheriff's name) upon any Writ or Process to them directed and delivered, shall direct their Warrant to their Bayliffs, or any other such Officer (to arrest one, or otherwise to execute such Writ or Process) such Bayliff or other Officer must serve or execute it himself: for these can command none other to do it neither by word nor writing.

And so it seemeth if the High Sheriff shall direct his Warrant to his Under-Sheriff, the Under-Sheriff must execute it himself, and can command none other to do it.

Note that none shall be arrested for debt, Detinue, trespass, or other cause of action, but only by virtue of some Process, Precept or Commandment out of some Court.

Uncore per le custome de London, sur Pleint, ou Suite pur debt la enter devant les viscounts. Les Serjants poient arrest le Debtor per le commandement del visc. (per parol tantum, sans aucun Process ou Precept in Escrip) de appeare & respond. al mesme suite & ceo ils font per Prescription. Vide lib. Intrac. tit. Trespafs in Process, div. 4. vide hic c. 22.

Poste comitat. is Note that the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bayliff, or other such Officer may (if need be) take posse comitatus, sc. what number of other persons they shall think good to execute any Writ, Process, or other lawful Warrant to them directed; and such as shall not assist them therein being required, shall make fine to the King. See hic postea cap. 95.

A Warrant directed (by the High Sheriff, or Under-Sheriff) to the Bayliff or other sworn Officer) and to a stranger (or special Bayliff, who is no sworn or known Officer) and the warrant is made to them, conjunctim & divisim, and is executed by the stranger only, this is good.

A Warrant is directed to two men jointly to arrest another, yet either of them alone may do it: Lamb. 91. Co. L. 181. Vide.

The forms of Warrants to be made upon mean Process: See hic postea, cap. 23.

Not to dispute the Authority. The Sheriff nor his Officers are not to dispute the authority of the Court, from or out of which they shall receive any Writ, Process, or other Warrant: but they at their peril are truly to execute all Writs, Warrants, Process, and Precepts of the Judges, Justices, or Court to them directed, and that according as the same Writs, &c. shall command, in every behalf; and to this also they are sworn: And therefore whereas there was an information preferred in the Star-Chamber (termino Michaelis Anno 3 Jacobi Regis) by the Attorney-General, against divers Serjeants of the Pace, and others, for arresting the body of Isabella Countess of Rutland, by force of a Capias ad satisfaciendum, upon a Judgment in debt given in the Court of Common Pleas against the said Countess; it was resolved for good Law (by Egerton Lord Chancellor, Popham and Gawdy Chief Justices, Fleming Chief Baron, and by all the Court of Star-Chamber) that the Sheriff, or his Officers by his warrant, without any offence (of Law) might execute the said writ upon the body of the said Countess: And although it appeared in the Capias that she was a Countess (against whom by Law no Capias in such case lieth, Et quod ignorantia Juris non excusat:) yet for as much as in some cases, (as in cases of contempt, &c. a Capias doth lie against a Countess (or against any Peer of the Realm, &c.) for that cause it was there resolved, that the Sheriff and his Officers or Ministers ought not to examine the judicial act of the Court, but ought to execute the writ.

And with this agreeth the opinion in 36 H. 8. Dyer, fol. 60. that if a Capias (in an action of debt) or an Exigent, or a Writ of execution, shall come to the Sheriff against a Duke or Earl, &c. whereas it lieth not against such persons, yet the Sheriff ought to serve and execute such Writ or Process, and not to argue and dispute the validity thereof: See Co. 9. 68. & 10. 70. & 76. b. accordant.

Capias ne gît vers Peer del Realm (in action de trespass, ou del't, &c.) Mes vers un Chevalier gît : Car home poet estre Chevalier que n'ad trespasment, mes tansfolement en un County. Mes si Peer del Realm (le Count, ou Baron) n'ad ascun chose in le County ou il est sit, le party plaigniff avera un Flegit sur restatum in ascun County ou il ad Affets : Ainsi sur contempt, come Rescous, ou tiel, Capias gît vers Peer del Realm, & ceo est pur le disturbance del Ley. 1 H. 5. 14. 26 H. 8. 7. 27 H. 8. 12. Finch. 103.

Ainsi coment que le corps d'un Peer ne serrat, prise sur Capias in Poer, pur ceo que Ley intnd que il ad Affets, &c. uncore semble que son Corps poet bien estre prise in execution sur un Statute, sil n'ad bienz ne ten ext notable ; Car les parols del Statute Merchant fait. 13 E. 1. apres que al lone brief pur les terres, & bienz del debtor, ad ainsi ceux parols & al d'icem il avera brief a quel vicount il voile, de prender son corps si il soit lay, & de restain. ceo, &c. per queux parols nul Noble home est exempt, s'ils sont lay homes, & issint les Justices semble de agreee in le case del Seigneur Mountjoy, in Communi Banco. Anno 29 Eliz.

Upon an Original Process for debt, trespass, or the like, no knight, nor Burgees of the Parliament, nor any of their necessary servants attending upon their Masters, during the Parliament, ought to be arrested : Neither shall any of their goods or chattels necessary, be attached or taken by any Sheriff or other Officer (except it be in case of Treason, or Felony.) Crompt. author. des Courts, fol. 11.

A knight, or Burgees of the Parliament, nor any of their necessary servants or attendants shall not be arrested upon a Writ of execution, or the like ; And if any such privileged person shall happen to be taken upon an execution, during the Session of the Parliament, they shall have the privilege of the Parliament, and the Sheriff may, nay ought to deliver such prisoner, being sent for by the House : But yet upon a Capias utlagatum, they may be arrested, during the Session of the Parliament. See plus hic cap. 22. & 126. & 29.

Clergy-men called to the Convocation, &c. And their servants, shall have the privileges, cundo, morando, & redeundo, which the Peers and Commons of the Realm in Parliament have, Stat. 8 H. 6. cap. 1 Finch. 140.

But if any Writ or Process shall be delivered to the Sheriff, against any of these persons thus privileged, or against their goods, and the Sheriff or his Officers shall execute the same, and after shall readily deliver the party again, or his goods (so taken) when he shall receive any Writ of Privilege, or other Command from the House of Parliament so to do, quære if this shall not excuse the Officer ; or that the execution of such Process upon such privileged persons be altogether unlawful ; it seemeth no excuse. See hic cap. 126.

Dyer 60.

And yet a Burgees of the Parliament was taken, arrested, and imprisoned by the Sheriff upon a Writ of Crigent, which issued upon a Capias ad satisfaciendum, and after a Writ of privilege was granted from the Parliament ; whereupon the Sheriff let the prisoner go at large ; and it was holden that the privilege was grantable, notwithstanding the execution ; for that the King and the Realm have interest in the body of every Burgees (and other member of the Parliament) and the Common-wealth shall be preferred, and the party may be afterwards taken in execution again : but admitting that a Writ of Privilege had not been grantable in this case, yet it was holden that the Sheriff should not be charged for such his letting of the prisoner go, ^{Vide 1 Jac. c. 13.} he being commanded thereto by authority of Law, and not done of his own head only ; and besides, he is bound to execute all process of Law, ^{P. Executio. 4.} as well by his Oath, as by his Office : and the Sheriff is not bound to take notice of the Law ; for the Law intends him to be a Lay person, and not to have knowledge of the Law : so that whereas a Writ shall come to him by authority, or without authority, he may not argue or dispute it : and therefore if a Capias shall come to the Sheriff without any original, and he shall serve it, he is excusable in an action of false imprisonment ; for the Sheriff being the Officer and Minister of the Court, it shall be against reason to punish him for executing the Process and Commandment of the Court ; and the rule is, Quicumque iussu Judicis aliquid fecerit, non videtur dolo malo fecisse, quia parere necesse est : Co. 10. 70.

If the Court or Justices shall award a Process to the Sheriff, to arrest or take another without cause, and the Sheriff (or his Officers) shall thereupon arrest him, the Sheriff nor his Officers are not punishable for this ; yea although the Justices shall after amend their Processes ; yet the Sheriff, &c. shall be discharged. 20 H. 6. 5.

And yet this difference is to be taken : sc. when a Court hath jurisdiction of the cause, and shall proceed in verso ordine, or erroneously, there the Officer or Minister of the Court, which shall execute the Precept or Process of the Court, is excusable, so as no action will lie against him : But when the Court hath no jurisdiction of the Cause, there all the proceeding is coram non Judice, and therefore there an action will lie against the Officer, without any regard had of the Precept or Process of the Court : And as to the former Rule, Quicumque iussu Judicis aliquid fecerit, non videtur dolo malo fecisse, quia parere necesse est, the Law well alloweth thereof ; But when he hath not jurisdiction of the Cause, non est Judex, and it is not of necessity to obey him who is not Judge of the Cause, no more than it is to obey a meer stranger ; for another Rule is, Judicium à non suo Judice datum, nullius est momenti ; And accordingly in 22 Edw. 4. fol. 33. Pigott saith, That if the Court hath not power and authority (in the Cause) then their proceeding is coram non Judice. ^{Co. 10. 76.}

Come si les Justices del Court del Common Pleas, sur preier d'ascun person, hors de leur Court, fera ascun Process de arrest un auter pur suerty de le Peace ; ou deins leur Court fera ascun tiel proces de arrest le party deins le County, lon le Court de Common Pleas est, ou de arrest un pur trouve suerty del Peace, que nest present in Court, ne deins leur view, semble que l'officer n'est de server ou execut. tiel proces, pur ceo que leur authority in tiel caser, est tantum deins le precinct de leur Court.

Issint si les Justices de Common Pleas voile tener plea de Appell. &c. Vide Keilw. 106.

Issint si les Justices de Common Pleas, ou d'ascun auter Court, grant. ascun Precept, &c. concernant ascun auter choses, de que ils ou leur Court, n'ont Jurisdiction.

Iffint quant un action est commence devant un Judge, sil soit Judge de ascun parcel de ceo que est sue devant luy, le judgement n'est my void, par ceo que de parcel il avoit power de tenir plea: Mes lou le Judg tient plea de tiel matter que de nul part il avoit power, & donc Judgment sur ceo, est come un void Judgment in Ley, & doncque chescun que est fait per cause de cel, est un trespass ou dissain, come le case est. Keil. 106.

Also by the book 22. Ass. pl. 64. it is holden, that where an erroneous Judgment is given in any Court, the Officer which maketh execution is excused: but contrariwise, where the Court giveth Judgment of land, contract, or the like, which lieth out of their jurisdiction, as where an action is brought in a Court, of land, which lieth out of their jurisdiction, or of a contract which was made out of their jurisdiction, and the demandant or plaintiff recovereth and hath execution, there an Assize or an action of Trespass will lie against the Officer, &c. which maketh the execution; for all the proceeding is coram non iudice. Also by the book 14 H. 8. 16. if a Justice of Peace shall make a warrant to arrest one for Felony who is not indicted, the Justice doth erre in the granting of such a warrant; and yet if the Bayliff, Constable, or other Officer shall serve such a warrant, this is a good justification of the Officer in an action of false imprisonment (notwithstanding the Justice did erre in making the warrant) for the Justice of Peace is a Judge of the Cause.

Mes si Justices de Peace arreigne un home de Treason (a le Sessions) que est trouve culpable, & sur ceo pendus, ceo est felony, cy bien in les Justices, come in le vicount, (ou autre, Officer) que luy suspend. Car les Justices de Peace n'ont Authority in ceo; mes fuit coram non iudice: Mes si les Justices de Peace arreigne home de felony, sur un Indictment de trespass, sur que l'offender est pendus, ceo est felony in les Justices, mes nemy in le vic. ou Officer, que luy pend, pur ceo que les Justices de Peace ont Authority & Jurisdiction in ceo darain case.

14 H. 8. 16.

The same Law is where the Sheriff doth erre in his warrant directed by him to the Bayliff of a Franchise, or to his own Bayliff. Br. Faux Imprif. 8.

24 E. 3. 9.

So upon a Commission from the King granted out for the arresting of any person, though it should be against the Law, yet the Commissioners, or those to whom the Commissions shall direct their Precept or Warrant (for arresting of any such person) may execute and justify the same. Br. Faux Imprif. 29.

But upon an action of false Imprisonment, where the defendant justifieth, as Sheriff of C. and that he arrested the plaintiff by force of a Capias, &c. this is a good plea, so as he pleadeth that this was the same imprisonment. Br. Faux Imprif. 29.

And so note that in some cases the Sheriff, or other Officer, is bound at his peril to take knowledge of the Law; as in the cases aforesaid, where the Court, Judge, or Justice, having no Jurisdiction of the Cause, shall grant out any Process, Writ or Warrant, &c. and the Officer shall execute the same, &c. for in such cases, Ignorantia juris non excusat ministros Legis. The Officer to take knowledge of the Law.

Un fuit attain de dissein, ove force, per que Exigent issint, quel brief le vic. retourne, & que le Roy luy maund per brief sauth son Privy Seal que il avoit luy pardon le trespass & imprisonment, & command que ne soit endamage par ceo cause, & issint ad rien fait pur raison de ceo commandement le Roy; & retourne auxi le brief le Roy; & pur ceo que cel brief doit aver estre maunde al Justices, & il doivent aver command le vicount que il surcessera, Ideo le vic. fuit amerce, & novel Exigent agard. Car le vic. ne poet per nul brief (per le Ley) surcessera, forsque per garrant del Court, ou Liens, hors de quel il avoit le Commandement. Quod nota 14 E. 3. Fitz. Reto. de vic. 89. & 4 E. 4. t. 17. Plus hic c. 29. & 59.

Also if a Writ de homine replegiando cometh to the Sheriff (which Writ commandeth the Sheriff to make deliberance of the body, except the prisoner be in, per speciale præceptum nostrum, vel capital. Justic' nostri, vel pro morte hominis, vel pro foresta, vel pro aliquo alio recto, quare non sit replegiabilis:) yet the Sheriff shall be amerced if upon that Writ he delivers a prisoner which is in for Redisseisin, without special commandment. See Statute Marl. c. 8. Fitz. Natura Brevium 189. c. Dyer 60. 61. Fitz. 66. f.

And so of a prisoner (or an Accomptant) found and condemned in arrearages before auditors, and committed by them to prison, if the Sheriff or Gaoler shall deliver him upon a Writ de homine repleg. or otherwise, without the assent of his Master, it is an Escape, and the Sheriff, &c. shall pay the debt, &c. whereas at the Common Law before this Statute of Westm. 2. the Master had no remedy, but his action sur le case. West. 2. c. 11.

The words of this Statute of Westm. 2. to this purpose, are thus, Sit hujusmodi incarcerationis irreplegiabilis (sc. sans licence ou assent le Seigneur.) Et caveat sibi Vicecomes, vel custos ejusdem Gaole, (sive sit infra libertatem, sive extra) quod per Commune breve quod dicitur Replegiare, vel alio modo, sine assensu domini, ipsum à prisona exire non permittat, Quod si fecerit, & super hoc convincatur, respondeat domino de dampnis per hujusmodi servientem sibi illatis, secundum quod per patriam verificare poterit, & habeat dominus remedium suum recuperare per breve de Debito versus custodem. Et si Custos Gaole, non habet per quod Justicietur, vel unde solvat, respondeat superior suus, qui custodiam hujusmodi Gaole sibi commisit, per idem breve: Et nota que il. serra charge de tant que l'accomptant fuit trouve in arrearages devant les Auditors.

Et uncore sur brief de ex parte talis, retournable in l'escheker, le vic. poet deliver iel prisoner, ou poet baile luy, accordant come le brief serra, vide Dyer 61. & Fitz. 129. g. i. & 130. a. Mes nota que le Suerty in Ley ex parte talis serra al profit le Roy (& les mainpernors serra oblige sur un paine, que ils luy garder son jour, &c.) mes le Seignior semble icy sans remedy, cy bien vers le vic. ou Gaoler, come vers le bailly: Car le vic. ou Gaoler est discharge per ceo brief le Roy; & le bailly luy discharge adire que il anter foits accompt devant Auditors assignees, &c. & monstre tout le matter, & que il fuit comit. al prison, & ceo matter monstre discharge le bailly; tamen quare inde.

Auxi nota que le suerty que serra prise sur brief de ex parte talis, poet estre prise in le Chancery, ou in le Eschequer; Et in ascun case serra prise in le pais, per ou devant le vicount. Fitz. 129. 130. & Old Nat. bre. 60.

Mes nient obstant que ceo Stat. de Westm. 2. voet que le Accomptant ne serra mise al baile per breve de Homine Repleg. vel alio modo, uncore semble que ceux parols serra prise strict. Car sil ad priviledge del Parliament, ou soit d'estre executee pur Treason, ou Felony, ou forsque d'estre arceigne de ceo, il serra deliver, & le vic. & Gaoler serra discharge.

Mes semble que il nest plee pur le vic. ou Gaoler, adire que il lessa le bailey de aler per assent del Seignior sil ne monstre fait le Seignior proivant cel assent.

Auxi si le Accomptant soit sue, & soit utlage, & apres il est prise & mise en prison en le gyle, donque il est replevisable, Old Nat. bre. 58.

As for the Kings Protection granted to any of his Subjects by his Protection. Writ, whereby any immunity or freedom from actions, suits, or arrests shall be given to any of them; it is to be noted, That the Courts of Justice where any such Protection is cast, are to allow or disallow of the same, (be they Courts of Record, or not of Record;) But the Sheriff nor any other Officer or Minister are to allow or disallow the same. Co. L. 131. a.

Also note that by the death of the King, the authority of the Sheriff, and of all his Officers, doth determine and cease, vide hic c. 2.

But yet by the Statute 1 Ed. 6. c. 7. it is provided that by the death of the King, no action, suit, bill, or plaint depending between party and party, in any Court of Record, shall in any wise be discontinued, &c. So that now, if any Judicial Writ or Process in any Court of Record be awarded in the time of the precedent King, this now may be executed by the Sheriff, or his Officers, in the time of the succeeding Prince, &c. Vide Co. 7. 30, 31.

CAP. 22.

The Officers Duty.

The Sheriff or other Officer to whom any Writ or Warrant shall be directed and delivered, ought with all speed and secrecy, to execute his said Writ or Warrant according as the same commandeth: and besides, he is bound to pursue the effect of his Warrant in every particular, or otherwise his Warrant will not excuse him. 21 H. 7. 23. 2.

In an action of Debt, Trespals, or the like, where the Sheriff is to summon, attach, or garnish the defendant, he must do it presently; and therefore if in such cases the Sheriff shall return Nihil habet, without saying Nec habuit die receptionis brevis, or nec habuit post receptionem brevis; yet it shall be intended that the Sheriff endeavoured the execution thereof presently, sc. the day of, or presently upon the receipt of the writ. See hic c. 56. & 77.

Note that Writs concerning Common Pleas, are some real, and some personal; and they both again, are either Præcipes, or else Si fecerit te securum.

Præcipes are of two sorts, sc.

1. Præcipe quod reddat, which lieth for things in render, as of land, rent, &c. or money, goods detained, and the like.
2. Præcipe quod faciat, or quod permittat, as the Writ de Consuetud. & servitiis, Sect. ad molendinum, &c.

And upon these Præcipes, the Sheriff is to command the defendant to do somewhat in certain which the plaintiff sueth for, which if he do not, then the Sheriff is to serve the Process.

But upon a Si fecerit te securum, the Sheriff is to serve the Process without more ado. Finch. 257.

If the defendant doth the thing commanded by the Præcipe, yet the Sheriff is to serve the Process, and to make return thereof as it seemeth. See hic c. 56. 70.

Shew the warrant.

A sworn and known Officer (be he Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bayliff, ^{Co. 9. 69.} or Serjeant) needs not to shew his warrant or writ, when he cometh ^{21 H. 7. 23.} to serve it upon any mans person, or goods, although the party demandeth it: but a special Bayliff, or other person who is no sworn and known Officer, must shew their Warrant to the party, if he demands it, or otherwise the party may make resistance, and needs not to obey it. ^{& 37.}

And so of the Sheriffs servant, or Under-Sheriffs servant, being no sworn Bayliff, they cannot arrest a man without shewing their warrant, if it be demanded.

And yet no special Bayliff is bound to shew his warrant without demand thereof. 8 E. 4. 14. 14 H. 7. 9. Co. 9. 69.

But every Bayliff and other person that will justifie the imprisonment of the body of any other, by force of any warrant, must shew the same warrant in Court, &c. And therefore it behoveth all Bayliffs, and other such Officers, to keep safely by them all such their warrants. ^{Co. 10. 92.}

Or declare the contents.

A sworn and known Officer, if he will not shew his warrant to the party (as he needs not) yet upon the arrest the Officer ought to declare the contents of his warrant, (sc. at whose suite he maketh the arrest, for what cause, out of what Court, and into what Court, and when it is returnable) to the end, that if it be upon an Execution, the party may pay the money, and so free his body from imprisonment; and if it be upon mean Process, that the party may either agree with the other, or else that he may put in Sureties and bail for his appearance according to Law, and to know the day of his appearance. ^{Co. 9. 68, 69. & 6. 54.}

But this (sc. that the Officer upon the arrest ought to declare the contents ^{Co. 9. 69. 2.} contents of his Warrant ut supra) must be understood, when the party arrested, or to be arrested, shall yield and submit himself to the arrest, and not when he maketh resistance, or flyeth.

Co. 9. 69. b. Note where our Law Books or Statutes do speak of a known Way Bayliff constable or Officer, they are not to be understood (neither is it needful) that such Wayliff or Officer be known to the party, who is to be arrested, but if he be so commonly known, it sufficeth.

Co. 9. 69. And an Officer giveth sufficient notice what he is, when he saith to the party, I arrest you in the Kings Name; and in such case the party at his peril ought to obey him, though he knoweth him not to be an Officer; and if he have no lawful Warrant, the party arrested may have his action of false imprisonment against him.

If the Sheriff or Officer cometh to arrest a man, and he flyeth, the Officer may pursue him, and take him again, though in another County; but may not beat, strike or assault him, for that he was not arrested; but if he were arrested and then flyeth, and draweth any weapon, the Officer may justifie to assault, batter, and take him again. 2 E. 4. 7.

14 H. 8. 16. If any Officer do arrest a man before that he hath any Warrant, and then afterwards doth procure a Warrant (or a Warrant cometh after to him) to arrest the party for the same cause, yet the first arrest was wrongful, and the party grieved may have his action of false imprisonment against the Officer: Br. Faux imprisonment 8.

A man condemned in debt, at the request of the factor of the plaintiff, was arrested by the Sheriff for the debt, without any writ or warrant, and being in the Sheriffs custody, the Sheriffs and the plaintiffs factor do procure a Capias ad satisfac. against the prisoner for the debt, and by vertue thereof the Sheriff arresteth the prisoner again, and brings him into the Court at the day of the return, &c. and all this matter being disclosed to the Court, and found to be true, the defendant would have been discharged, but yet he was committed to prison in execution for the debt (for that the plaintiff was himself particeps criminis in this undue arrest.) And the Sheriff was amerced at 10 l. and the factor at 5 l. And besides, for the wrong to the defendant he may have his action of false imprisonment against both the Sheriff and factor of the plaintiff. Dyer 244. See other like cases. Dyer 241. 242. & 16 E. 3. Fitz. Bar. 248.

If a Serjeant in London shall attach a man before the suit or plaint be entered, an action lieth against the Serjeant: And so is it if the Sheriff, or any other Officer, shall arrest any man before their warrant come to them; and it is not excusable although that the warrant comes to them afterwards.

43 Eliz. c. 6. If any Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or other person having authority, or Sans original, taking upon him to break up writs, do make any warrant for the summons of any person, as upon any writ, process, or suit; or for the arresting or attaching of any person, or persons by his or their body or goods, to appear in any His Majesties Courts at Westminster, or elsewhere, not having before that the original writ or process warranting the

the same, upon complaint thereof made to the Judges of Assize of the County where the offence shall be committed, or to the Judges of the Court out of which the Process issued, as well the party that made such Warrant, as also those that were the procurers thereof, shall be sent for by the same Judges, and be thereof before them examined upon oath; and if the same offence shall be confessed by the offenders, or proved by sufficient witnesses (to the satisfaction of the same Judges) the same Judges shall forthwith commit every of the same offenders to the Gaol, there to remain without bail until they have paid (amongst them) ten pounds unto the party grieved, and such costs and damages as the same Judges shall set down, that the party hath sustained thereby, and withall twenty a piece to the King for their said offence.

And yet where a Capias, &c. shall go out to the Sheriff without an original, and he doth execute and serve the same, an action of false imprisonment will not lie against the Sheriff; for it was not his fault, by Hank. 11 H. 4. 36. Neither is the Sheriff bound to take knowledge whether this be of record or no: yea, the arrest thus made by the Sheriff is good, so that if the party shall make a Rescous, he shall be therefore punished; for the Capias was a sufficient Warrant to the Sheriff. M. 38 H. 8. 12 H. 7. 14. b. & 21 H. 7. 22. b.

Si le vic. escrive al Bayliff del Franchise in tiel forme, Ballivo libertatis, &c. salutem, Mandatum domini Regis recepti in hac verba, & reberse coment le Roy command per brief de prender le corps d'un tiel, lou nul brief viet al vic. ceo est bon excuse al Bayliff del Franchise, & le party avera son remedy vers le vicount.

Two men of one name.

Where there be two or three known by the name of J. S. and upon Process granted out against one of them, the Officer arresteth another of them (where it is not the defendant) or attacheth the goods which are not the defendants goods, the Officer shall be trespasser; quare tamen & vide hic c. 61. and if the plaintiff had shewed the Officer the wrong man, or goods, and had told him that that had been the defendant, or those had been the defendants goods which were not, there both the plaintiff and officer are trespassers; but it is otherwise upon such information, in making of the view of land, for that is neither seisin, nor an arrest.

And yet by the opinion of the book in long 5 E. 4. fol. 51. (Br. Faux Imprif. 19. & Ident. Nom. 6.) where there be two or three known by the name of J. S. Peoman in D. and one of them is sued, and a Capias is directed out to the Sheriff, &c. and the Sheriff taketh another of them, an action of false imprisonment will not lie; for that he that is so taken is named in the Capias, and therefore hath no remedy, but by a Writ of Identitate Nominis: But the contrary is holden in the same book, and year, fol. 84. sc. that in the former case, an action of false imprisonment doth lie against the Sheriff, &c. for that the Sheriff (or Officer) is to take notice at his peril, which of them it is that is sued. And therefore it seemeth safest for the Sheriff in such cases cases to make his Return, that there be divers of that name and surname within his County, &c. and that therefore he knew not upon which of them to execute the Writ. Vide hic cap. 61. such a Return.

Where a Warrant is granted out against J. N. the son of W. N. and the Officer thereupon arresteth J. N. the son of T. N. although in truth he be the same person that offended, and against whom the complaint was made, yet this arrest is tortious, and the Officer subject to an action of false imprisonment. See the like matter 10 E. 4. f. 12. Br. Faux Imprif. 38.

Cromp. 214. If the Sheriff, &c. arresteth one upon a Capias, and after returns Non est inventus, an action of false imprisonment lieth, &c.

If an Officer hath arrested a man by vertue of a Capias, or upon a Latitat. and then giveth him a day to come to him again with sureties to be bound for his appearance, &c. and so the Officer letteth the party go, who comes not again at his day appointed, here it seemeth that the Officer cannot take his prisoner again by vertue of his former writ or warrant, for that the Officer gave the prisoner leave, &c. As where a man is in execution for debt, and the Sheriff or Gaoler licenseth him to go at large for a time, and then to return, or to go by bail or baston, and he cometh again at the time, yet this is an escape; and so it is adjudged in Boyntons Case, Co 3. fol. 44. and in Ridgewaies Case, Co. 3. f. 52. But if the party arrested (or the prisoner) had escaped of his own wrong, without the consent of the Officer, then upon fresh suit made, the Officer may take him again, and again, so often as he escapeth, although he get out of view, or that he shall fly into another County. See Br. Faux Imprisonment 18. & Br. Escape 4. 12. & lib. Intrac. tit. Faux Impr. div. 10.

If an Officer shall arrest another by force or vertue of a warrant of the old Sheriff, after the Sheriff is discharged, &c. an action of false imprisonment will lie both against the Sheriff and against the Officer for such an arrest.

Issint lou ascun que n'ad authority fera un Precept al Officer de arrest auter, & sur ceo l'officer arrest le party, le action gist cybien vers le Judge, &c. que fera tel precept, come vers l'officer que cest execute.

If a man be taken and imprisoned upon a warrant from a Justice of Peace in the Country, for surety of the Peace, or for some Riot, or forcible Entry, or the like, and after a Capias cometh out of the Kings Bench, or Common Place, &c. to the Sheriff to attach or arrest the same person, and the Sheriff upon the Capias returneth all this (and bringeth the prisoner into the Court) yet the prisoner shall first answer to the plaintiff, and after his answer put into the Court he shall go under bail, and then be remitted or sent back by the Sheriff into the Country, there also to make his answer before the Justices of Peace; so that the Sheriff upon a Capias to him delivered to attach or arrest such a prisoner, formerly committed to the Gaol by the Justices of Peace, is to bring such prisoner into the Court upon the Capias, as it seemeth.

Esapi. Note that when a man is in the custody of the Sheriff by Process of ^{Co. 5. 89.} Law, or by force of any lawful warrant, except for Criminal matters) and after another writ is delivered to the Sheriff to take the body of him that then is and was in his custody before, now presently is that prisoner in the custody of the Sheriff by force of this second writ, and in such case if the Sheriff shall refuse to take the second writ, or shall not keep the prisoner thereupon, it is an escape in the Sheriff; and so the Sheriff in this case must be answerable for his prisoner, although he do not arrest him by the second writ.

Where the Defendant being taken at the Kings suit upon a Capias utlagatum, or upon a Capias pro fine, shall be presently in execution for the Plaintiff. Sic hic postea tit. Executio sur Capias ad satisfac.

What persons may be sued and arrested, what not.

Note that the Person of the King is so sacred, that no violent hands may in any case be laid upon him; Neither may he be impleaded or sued by action, as a common person may; But wheresoever the King shall seize any mans land, or take away any mans goods (having no title by order of his Laws so to do) the subject for his remedy in all such cases, is driven to sue unto his Sovereign by way of petition only, for that no Action lieth against the King. Stamf. de Prærog. 42. 72, 73. Vide plus f. 255.

Noble men, where they may be arrested. Sic hic c. 21.

Knights and Burgesses of the Parliament, (nor their servants) may not be arrested. Ibid.

Necessary Officers which attend upon the Parliament (as the Serjeant of Arms, the Porter of the Door, Clerks, and the like) shall not be arrested for debt, or the like, during their attendance, Crompt. Author. des Courts fol 11.

But note that the Parliament doth give no privilege tempore vacationis sed sedente Curia, 2 E. 4. f. 8. Br. Priviledg. 56.

And such persons whose attendance is necessary in any of the Kings Courts at Westminster, shall not be arrested: As the Judges, nor any of their necessary Servants, or Ministers of the Court. Crompt. Ibid.

If any Officer, Clerk, or Attorney of any of the four ordinary Courts who ought to be attendant to the Court, shall be arrested, during the time of their attendance, they shall have a Writ of privilege. Dyer 287.

Every other person who hath any suit in any of the Kings Courts at Westminster, shall be discharged of any arrest, either of his body or goods which are necessary for the maintenance of the suit; mes ceo ferr. a per brief de privilege que ad en luy. un Superfed. as. Finch. 52.

Concerning Ecclesiastical persons Dr. Bracton, lib. 5. cap. 32. saith thus; Excusari poterit vicecomes propter privilegium clericorum, ut si preceptum domini Regis habuerit de attachiando aliquem qui clericus sit, fit, & qui plegios invenire noluerit propter privilegium clericale, nec laicum feodum habuerit, per quod possit distringi, nec debet dominus Rex manus in eos mittere, &c. Nullum aliud superit remedium, nisi quod ex parte domini Regis mandetur Ordinariis loci, sicut Episcopis, &c. quod faciant talem Clericum venire ad talem diem, nisi forte testatum est quod talis Clericus habet laicum feodum, & Catalla in laico feodo per que distringi possit, & vicecom. per fraudem mandaverit quod nihil habuerit, in quo casu vicecom. in man. domini Regis remanebit, &c.

Herewith other books do agree, &c. that the bodies of Ecclesiastical persons were not to be arrested in suits between them and other Subjects; and therefore in cases of debt, trespass, and the like, a Venire fac. Clericum was awarded 32 H. 6. 11. per Prisot, (otherwise it was in cases of felony, or for Contempts. See 21 E. 3. & 10 H. 4. Fitz. procces 50. 198.) & Fitz. 131. a. 266. ab.

But where the first original Procces is to attach or distrain the defendant, there if he be a Clerk, he must be summoned by his person, or by his land if he hath any lay fee, Finch. 135. and yet in Debt, Trespass, and the like cases, where a Capias lieth, there it seemeth a Capias is awarded against them of common course, and then their bodies may be arrested, &c.

And note that every Subject of this Realm for any injury done to him, in his goods, or lands, or to his person, may sue any Subject, be he bond or free, woman or infant, Religious person, or be he outlawed, excommunicated, or any other without exception; for by the Statute of Mag. Chart. c. 29. Nulli negabimus aut differemus justitiam vel remedium. Dyer 104.

By which words now every man for any injury or wrong done to him, may have a writ of course in the Chancery against any other Subject, without suing to the King for it, and without any fine to be made for it. Dr. St. 18.

But if any of the Kings Officers, or other person, do arrest any Minister, or other person, which is doing any Divine Service in the Church, Church-yard, or other place dedicated to God, he shall be imprisoned, and punished at the Kings pleasure, and further shall recompence the party arrested, but no people of the Church shall keep them within the Church by fraud or collusion.

The place.

And yet the Sheriff or other Officer may serve Procces, and execute the Kings writ within the Church, so that it be not done to the disturbance of Divine Service. See 6 H. 4. fol. 3. & hic. Retorne de Sanctuary fol.

Note, that Dies Dominicus non est juridicus: so as the Kings Courts may not sit, or hold plea upon that day. Co. L. 135. a.

Also upon a Recovery the Sheriff may not deliver seisin upon the Sunday. So upon a Fine levied with Proclamation, if any of the Proclamations be made upon the Sunday, all the Proclamations are erroneous.

And so a Scire facias out of the Common Place, bearing date or teste upon a Sunday, it is error. Vide plus Fitz 7.

The Time.

Also the Sheriff, or his Officer might formerly have made an arrest, Co. 9. 66. or executed any Process, or done any other ministerial act upon the Sabbath day, and that as well at the suit of a Subject, as at the suit of the King; for the Officer of Justice ought to execute his Office whensoever he can find the party; otherwise peradventure they shall never execute their Office, nor arrest him, quia qui male agit, odit lucem; and if the Officer shall not arrest him when he findeth the party and may arrest him, the plaintiff shall and may have his action of case against the Sheriff or Officer, and shall recover in damages, whatsoever he loseth or is indamaged thereby. But Nota, the Law is now altered by the Statute of 29 Ca. 2. which prohibits Arrests upon the Sabbath 29 Ca. 1. day.

Night.

And yet the Sheriff, nor his Officers ought not to break open any mans house in the night-time, to execute any Process, or to do any other ministerial act: For the Law giveth no colour to break a mans house by night. Fitz. Just. of Peace, f. 10. b. for this last.

And yet the breaking of a house in the night-time, for the apprehending of Traytors or Felons, being therein; or for the arresting or parrying of Assaunders, and keeping of the Kings Peace, seemeth to be justifiable. Also summons in a Praecipe, may not be in the night, hic cap. 31.

Upon a Capias or Latitat, &c. the Sheriff may arrest the party the same day in which the writ is Returnable, (or upon the day of appearance:) yea if after the day of the return of the writ, and day of appearance before the fourth day, the Sheriff doth arrest the party, it is good, because the first, second, third, and fourth days, be all as one day; and so was the better opinion of the book 33 H. 6. fol. 45, 46. sc. that if any man was arrested after the first day, it was good; for that no appearance shall be before the fourth day; neither is any man demandable at the first day (except in a writ of Right) neither shall any man be received to plead in any case, before the fourth day; yet the very day of return is the day in Law, and to that day the Judgment hath relation, but no Defendant shall be recorded till the fourth day be past. Co. L. 135. a. sed quære de hoc.

I have seen the report of a Case between May and Hopper, Anno 2 Jacobi Regis Rotul. 279. to this purpose; A Lattiat was directed to the Sheriff to arrest Hopper, Returnable die Lunæ proxime post Crast. Sanctæ Trinitatis (which that year was the tenth day of June) and the Sheriff upon the same day, sc. the tenth day of June, did arrest Hopper, and took a Bond of him the same day, bearing date the same day, with condition to appear Coram Domino Rege, die Lunæ proxime post Crast. Sanctæ Trinit. ad respond. &c. After the Sheriff brought an action of Debt upon this Obligation, and the Defendant prayed Oyer del Oblig. &c. and then pleaded all this matter aforesaid, and the Plaintiff did demur; and it was agreed by Fenner and Yelverton Justices, that upon the same day in which the writ was returnable, and which was the day of appearance, the Sheriff might well enough arrest the Defendant: but the doubt in this case was, what day should be understood by the day mentioned in the condition (being the same day upon which the obligation was made) for that there were no words words of proxime sequente. Now whether it should be taken for the day whereupon the obligation was made, or for that day twelvemonth, was the question, but it was not resolved.

Sic nota que sur jour done per Proces, le quel est tous fois le Common jour, (& nemy certain jour come Lune, Martis, &c.) le quarto die post est alors pur le jour del appearance; & issint sont tous les Entres, Oblit se quarto die post; & pur ceo lon le brief est de appear, &c. in Octabis sancti Hillarii (ou ascun autre quel common jour de Retorne) la le party poet appear quarto die post, & a cel intent. le premier jour, & le quart jour & tous les jours mean, sont forsque sicome un jour in Ley (auterment l'on le jour done per Proces, est jour certain come Lune, &c. ut supra, la est jour del appearance.) Warrants upon mean Proces.

NOW for that the Sheriff having all Writs and Proses directed ^{warrants} unto him as aforesaid, and yet it being a thing impossible for ^{mesne Proc} him to execute them himself, sc. for him to do execution of all, therefore the Sheriff (or his Under-Sheriff, to whom such Proses usually are delivered) are to make out Warrants to their Bayliffs or other Officers, for the execution of such mean Proses.

And these Warrants must be made according to the several natures of the writs, which for the substance will direct them therein.

And yet the Sheriff may arrest a man, when he hath a writ, without making any warrant; and so may his servant (or any other person by the Sheriffs commandment) where the Sheriff shall deliver him the writ. 21 H. 7. 23. a.

But if the Proses cometh to the Under-Sheriffs hands, he must make out the Warrants in the High Sheriffs name.

An Execution final, is, when the Defendants Lands are extended, or his Goods sold, and delivered to the Plaintiff, who accepting this in satisfaction, ends the Suit.

An Execution with a quousque, and not final, is in the case of a Capias ad satisfaciendum, where the body is taken to the intent to satisfy the Plaintiff; but is no satisfaction, but a pledge for the debt. If a man be bound in a Statute Merchant (and do not pay the debt at the day) execution shall be done thereof in this manner: first (the Conusor may come to the Mayor or other Officer before whom the Statute was acknowledged, and pray him to certify the same into the Statute de Chancery under his Seal, &c. And if he will not certify it, then a writ of Certiorari must be sued forth of the Chancery, directed to the said Officer, &c. of the place where the Statute was acknowledged, to certify the acknowledgment of the same Statute into the (petty bag office in the) Chancery, and upon that Certificate (a writ of Execution) sc. first a Capias shall go out to the Sheriff against the body, (only of the Conusor (si laicus sit) to take his body, if he can be found, and command the Sheriff to keep him safely in prison, until he hath agreed for, or fully satisfied the debt: But the debtor after he is taken, hath liberty given him (within a quarter of a year) to sell his Lands and Goods to discharge his debts: and if he do not agree for his said debt within the next quarter, or if he cannot be found, then all his lands and goods upon an extendi facias shall be praised by a Jury, and shall be delivered (by the Sheriff) to the Creditor by a reasonable extent to hold until the debt be fully paid; and yet nevertheless the body of the debtor if he be taken, shall remain in prison until the debt and damages be paid.

And this writ may be returnable into the Court of Common Pleas, Fitz. 130. 2. or into the Kings Bench.

But upon the return by the Sheriff (of that Shire to whom the Capias was directed) quod laicus est, & non est inventus in balliva sua, then shall go out an Extent (or Extendi facias) against all the Conusors lands and goods: quære vide le Regist. 147.

Non est inventus

And upon such an Extent come to the Sheriffs hands, the Sheriff shall or may presently cause the lands, and moveable goods of the debtor to be praised (and delivered to creditors, or else he may cause goods to be sold as far as the debt doth amount) and the debt without delay to be paid to the creditor. See Stat. de Acton Burnell 13 E. 1. And such valuation or Extent of the lands and praising of the goods, shall be by a Jury.

The Sheriff shall cause the same goods to be delivered to the creditor at a reasonable price, as much as doth amount to the debt.

And if the praisors of the lands, or goods do set an over high price, to the damage of the creditor, then shall the things so praised be delivered to the praisors at the same price, and they shall be forthwith answerable unto the creditor for his debt, &c. and yet if the goods be delivered to the praisors, they shall not pay the money until the days which are assessed and limited in the Extent: but they shall presently become debtors for the duty and chargeable with the payment thereof, at such days as the rents are payable, or the revenues receivable, and not before. N. bre. 165. Fitz. Extent. 7. Plo. 205. b. Plo. 82. 127.

Also note, that the Sheriff must sell the goods to them which offer most for them, and if the Sheriff shall sell them at any under price, it seemeth the debtor hath no remedy. See the Statute de Acton Burnell.

If the debtoꝝ have no moveables whereupon the debt may be levied, then shall his body be taken and kept in prison until he hath made an agreement, &c.

The Creditoꝝ shall be allowed for their damages, and all costs, labours, suits, delays, and expences. Stat. de Mercator. & Co. 4. 67.

And so soon as the debt is levied, the body of the debtoꝝ shall be delivered with his lands. Ibid.

If the Sheriff do not return the Capias; or do return what the writ came too late, or that he directed it to the Bayliff of some Franchise, he shall be punished, and shall yield damages to the party grieved, according to the Statute of Westminster 2. c. 39. If the Sheriff return that the debtoꝝ is a Clerk, then there shall go ^{Clerk} out an extent against his Lands and Goods (only) to be delivered by a reasonable extent as aforesaid: but his body shall not be taken, by this Statute. And yet if the writ be to take his body (being a Clerk) the Sheriff may then take his body in execution; and the party is to procure a special writ in such case, to be directed to the Sheriff, commanding him not to grieve or molest him, and that if he be taken, that then he shall deliver him, except the Sheriff knoweth any cause why he should not enjoy the privilege of a Clerk. Fitz. 131. a. Or the Sheriff needs not to meddle with the body, but may Return Quod Clericus, &c.

If the debtoꝝ found sureties (which acknowledged themselves to be ^{Sureties} principal debtoꝝ after the day passed) they shall be ordered in all things as the principal debtoꝝ, &c. for the arrest of their bodies, and delivery of lands and goods, Stat. de Mercator.

But so long as the debt may be fully levied of the goods of the debtoꝝ, the sureties shall receive no loss. Stat. de Acton Burnell.

And if any of these debtoꝝ (being in prison) shall happen to escape, ^{Escape.} the Sheriff or Gaoler must answer the body or the debt; and therefore it behoveth the Sheriff and Gaoler that the prisoners be safely kept. Stat. de Mercator.

5 H. 4. C. 12.

Note that when any Statute Merchant is certified into the Chancery, and thereupon a writ awarded to the Sheriff, and returned into the Common Pleas, and the Statute there once shewed, howsoever the Proceſs after the same shewing be discontinued, yet at what time soever the party sueth to have the Proceſs recontinued, and to have execution of the same Statute, the Justices of the Bench where the Statute was once shewed, may upon the same record make and award full execution of the Statute Merchant aforesaid, without having the sight thereof another time.

And yet ſee Dyer f. 180. Termino Paſch. Anno 2 El. where the conuſee Dyer 180. of a Statute Merchant having the ſame certified into the Chancery upon a Cerciorari directed to the Mayor, thereupon ſued a Capias againſt the conuſor returnable into the Bench, at which day the Sheriff returned Non eſt inventus, and the conuſee ſhewed there the Statute (as he ought) and had another Capias, before the return whereof the conuſee died, and it was doubted whether his executors ſhould have a Scire facias againſt the conuſor, or that they ſhould begin of new, ſc. to ſue a new ſpecial writ out of the Chancery to the Mayor, to make certificate (notwithſtanding the firſt Certificate) and to have out of the Chancery a new Capias or no, or whether (at the ſuit of the Executors) the Juſtices of the Bench might have awarded an Alias Capias, or a writ Extent upon the firſt proceeding or not; But it was agreed by the Court that no Scire facias ſhould lie in this caſe; but upon oath made by the Executors in the Chancery, that the debt is not ſatisfied, they ſhall have a new Cerciorari to the Mayor, to make a new certificate of the Statute, and ſo to begin all again of new, vide Fitz. 231. b. c.

Note alſo that if a man be in execution upon a Statute Merchant, he muſt be found in priſon of the rents and revenues of his lands which are in execution; viz. the creditor out of the rents and revenues of his lands is to find him bread and water; the which coſts notwithstanding the debtor muſt recompence the Creditor again with his debt, before the debtor be let out of priſon. Execution sur Capias ad Satisfaciendum.

Capias ad satisfac.

A Capias ad Satisfaciendum, is a writ of Execution after Judgment, lying, only where a man recovereth in an action personal any debt or damages in the Kings Court; there the recoverer shall or may have this writ to the Sheriff, commanding him that he take the body of the party against whom the debt or damages is recovered, and him to keep in prison until satisfaction be made to the Plaintiff, &c.

And thereupon the Sheriff must arrest the party, and put him in prison, and there keep him without bail or mainprise, until he hath paid or agreed for the debt and the damages. Dr. & St. 18.

Nota que nul Capias ad satisfac. gist al Common Ley (sur judgment pur debt ou damages) mes tantum quant le original action soit quare vi & armis, &c.

Mes le Capias ad satisfac. est donec per un late Statute de q. Vide Co. 3. 11. &c.

Et doit estre suc deins l'an & jour apres le judgment, &c. Co. L. 190. h.

And this Capias ad satisfaciendum, is only against the body, which being thereupon taken, the Sheriff must be sure to keep safe, or else he may perhaps pay the debt himself. And therefore if the Sheriff shall take a man upon a Capias ad satisfac. to him directed, (or shall have any prisoner to him committed for debt upon any execution, &c.) and he after shall let the prisoner to go at liberty before the debt be satisfied, &c. The creditor may either have his action of debt against the Sheriff, and Fitz. 93. a. c. shall so recover his debt: or the creditor may have his action of the Case against the Sheriff.

Escape per consent.

And if the prisoner do escape after that he is once in execution, if Co. 3. 52. the escape be with the leave and consent of the Sheriff, or his Under-Sheriff, or Waylist, Gaoler, or other Officer, Deputy, or Servant, then the Sheriff hath small remedy, or none at all: See Plow. 36. a. & Dyer 278.

And

And yet one being in execution is suffered by the Sheriff to go at large for a time, by the consent and agreement of the plaintiff, and after the prisoner returneth again, it seemeth that he is in execution again, and that such his going at large was no escape. See Dyer 275.

But if the prisoner do escape of his own wrong (against the will of the Officer) although he escape and get out of sight or into another County where the Sheriff or Officer hath no authority, yet if fresh suit be made, and he be taken again upon the fresh suit, he shall be said to be still in execution : Coke 3. 52. vide 13 H. 7. f. 1. Co. 3. 52. Fitz. 95. c. & 130. b. ¶ And if the Plaintiff hath brought his action against the Sheriff for the escape, befoze that the Sheriff hath taken the prisoner again : Or if upon the escape, the Sheriff or his Officers did not make fresh suit after the prisoner, yet in both these cases (if the escape were against the will of the Officer) the Sheriff may take such prisoner again, and keep his body in custody, until the prisoner hath made his agreement with the Sheriff : Or otherwise the Sheriff may have his action upon the case against such prisoner for such his wrongful escape (if the prisoner that so escaped be able to make him satisfaction :) and the prisoner in these cases shall not be relieved, because the escape was of his own wrong, and without the consent of the Sheriff or Officer.

*So if the Sheriff, or his Officer shall suffer any such prisoner to go out of prison, by bail, mainprise, or basket (sc. with a keeper, or with the servant of the Sheriff, Warden, or Gaoler, &c.) before the debt be satisfied, or without agreeing with the party, at whose suit he is in execution, (except it be by the Kings Writ) the Sheriff shall be answerable for the whole debt. For by the Law those which are in execution, ought not to go at liberty within the prison, much less abroad though with their keeper, or by baſton; but ſuch priſoner ought to be kept in ſalva & arcta custodia; yea the Sheriff may keep ſuch as are execution, in fetters, to the intent that they may the ſooner pay and ſatisfie their creditors; ſee the Statute made 13 E. 1. c. 11. & 1 R. 2. c. 12. Fitz. 93. c. & 121. a. & Dyer 149. And yet ſee Sir Edw. Coke upon Lit. fol. 260. that impriſonment muſt be Custodia, & non poena; for Carcer ad homines custodiendos, non ad puniendos dari debet.

Priſoner cometh ſura demerſus.

Co. 3. 44. And yet note a difference between the custody of one in execution within the County (or Franchise) where the common Gaol is, or where the Office of the Sheriff or Waplift extendeth, or reacheth, and where the Sheriff or Waplift hath the custody of one in execution, out of their County (or Franchise) by vertue of an Habeas corpus, &c.

For if the Sheriff (or Waplift of Franchise) shall agree that one who is in execution, and under their custody, shall go out of the Gaol, or at liberty, for a time, and then return, although the priſoner return at the time, yet this is an escape, and the Sheriff (or Waplift of a Franchise) shall pay the debt.

Co. 3. 44. But where the Sheriff, &c. hath one in execution for debt, and a Habeas Corpus cometh to him to have the body in the Kings Bench (at Westminster) at a certain day, and he carrieth his priſoner to London (to an Inn, &c.) and the priſoner of his own head goeth at large, and after cometh again to the Sheriff, so as the Sheriff at the day of the return of the writ (of Habeas corpus) doth deliver the body in Court, this was adjudged to be no escape, for that the commandment of the writ is performed, i. e. to have the body in Court at such a day: and in such case the Sheriff may go and take what way, or place he shall think to be most sure and safe for himself and to carry his priſoner.

If the Sheriff shall arrest one upon a Capias ad ſatisfac. and after the priſoner is rescued from him, this is an escape, and the Sheriff is chargeable for the debt. Dyer 241. 10 H. 7. Cromp. 207.

If the Sheriff shall arrest one upon a Capias ad ſatisfac. and shall not return the writ, this is an escape, and the Sheriff is chargeable for the debt, neither may the Sheriff arrest the party again for the same cause. 4 E. 6. 13 H. 7. 1.

And yet if the Sheriff after the execution duly done, shall satisfy the Plaintiff, he needs not to return his writ, hic c. 54.

Also by the opinions of Coke and Billing. 15 E. 4. Br. Escape 11. where a man is in the Sheriffs custody upon an execution, if the Sheriff shall carry his priſoner into another County, the priſoner may have a writ of false imprisonment against the Sheriff, for that it is against law, and the Sheriff is no Sheriff in the other County, and therefore the priſoner shall be intended to be out of ward when he is in another County, except it be by the special commandment of the King, or his Chancellor, or other his Justices, for in those cases he shall be intended to be still in ward.

And yet sometimes the act or commandment of the Kings Court is not sufficient warrant to the Sheriff, &c. to suffer a prisoner in execution to go at liberty, for there is a case reported by Master Serjeant Benlow, Anno 16 El. how that W. Manser brought an action of debt against B. Ansley Warden of the Fleet upon the escape of a prisoner there in execution for 154 l. and the defendant pleaded that H. Draycot who was in execution, was before Wayliff to the Queen (of her lands late parcel of the Monastery of Tucksbury, in the County of Staff.) and was found in arrearages, for which he was committed to the Fleet by the Barons of the Exchequer, and after by their commandment, he suffered the said Draycot by baston (under the custody of one of his servants) to go into the County of Derby, to gather up his debts, &c. to pay the Queen; and pleaded all in certain, and upon this plea, the Plaintiff demurred in Law, and after argument, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Quod nota. See the like Case in Crompt. Author. des Courts, fol. 106. One in the Fleet upon an Execution for the Kings debt (committed out of the Exchequer) was also there in Execution at the suit of another out of the Kings Bench, and after the Treasurers and Chancellors of the Exchequer commanded the Warden of the Fleet to suffer the Prisoner to go with his Keeper into Norfolk to hasten the payment of the Kings debt: whereupon the party at whose suit the prisoner was there in Execution (out of the Kings Bench) brought his action of Debt against the Warden of the Fleet (in the Common Place) for the escape, and yet the prisoner came with his Keeper to the Fleet again, and was never out of his custody: and yet it was holden by the opinion of all the Judges of both Benches (tempore Mariæ Reginæ) that the action would lie.

Another like Case you may find in Dyer 297. and there it was adjudged, Que si un soit in execution, nul commandment del Roigne mesme, sans brief, est suffisient garrant de discharge le Keeper, &c. Et per mesme reason ne discharger le Vicount. Vide 7 H. 6. fol. 5. & 4 E. 4. fol. 17.

And yet one being in execution within the Cinque Ports, was brought before the Council at London, and that was held no escape. Crompt. 214.

Auxy si le vic. avera brief south Signet le Roy, commandant luy de lessier un in execution, d'aller hors, que accordant lessa le prisoner d'aller hors ove baston, semble ceo ne excuse le vic. vers le party pur le Condemnation. Dyer 162. vide Fitz. 89. aut. tiel. Case.

Et per omnes Justic. de utroque. Banco An. 4 & 5 Ph. & Mariæ, fuit tenus que un in Execution ne serra dismis per Protection de Servic. Regis, uncore fuit home very necessary pur le service le Royne, &c. Dyer 162.

Auxy vide 13 H. 4. 17. Ou le vic. pur executer del commandment le Roy in tortious acts serra punish & ou nemy.

Pea somes the Kings Writ under the Great Seal, is no sufficient warrant to the Sheriff to deliver a prisoner, &c. See hic c. 21.

And yet see 14 H. 6. 1. Br. Prerog. 37. that he which is imprisoned (by writ) for a contempt, may be discharged by the Kings commandment, by word without writing: But Master Bro. maketh a Quære of it.

Also if any Knight or Burgeſs of the Parliament (or any of their neceſſary attendants) ſhall happen to be taken upon any Execution, during the Seſſion of Parliament, the Sheriff ought to deliver ſuch priſoner, being ſent for by the Houſe. Dyer 60. See hic Chap. 21.

But if any Officer of the Chancery, or any neceſſary Officer in any other of the Kings Courts, or any of His Maſtieſties Servants ſhall happen to be taken upon an execution, the Sheriff ought not to deliver them upon their Writ of Privilege; for then the party ſhould be without remedy, if the priſoner ſhould be enlarged and ſet at Liberty. Crompt. Author. des Courts 48.

And note that in as much as escapes are ſo penal to Sheriffs, Bayliffs of Liberties, and Gaolers, the Judges of the Law have always made a favourable conſtruction as much as the Law will permit, in favour of the Sheriffs, Bayliffs of Liberties, and Gaolers, who are Officers and Miniſters of Juſtice, Co. 3. 44.

And this Levari facias is only to be executed upon the profits of the lands, (sc. the Corn and Grass growing) and upon the goods: Or the Sheriff may hereupon take the Rents payable by the tenants in execution for the debt, and bring them in Court; but he cannot seize the land and deliver that to the party, by this writ, &c. Plow. 441. a & Finch. 101. And this ought to be sued within the year, after the day of payment to be made by the Recogn. (or after the Judgment.) For after the year, the cognisor (or plaintiff) is now by the Statute of Westm. 2. c. 45. to have a Scire facias, whereby the Sheriff is commanded, that he give knowledge to the defendant, that he appear in the Chancery, or before the Justices, at a certain day, there to shew what he can say, why he should not pay the debt, or damages: And if he being warned, do not come at the day, or do come, and can say nothing why execution ought not to be done, then the Sheriff shall be commanded to do execution. Execution per Fieri fac'

A Fieri facias, is a writ judicial, that lieth for him which hath recovered any debt or damages in the Kings Court, and thereby the Sheriff is commanded to levy the debt or damages of his goods, against whom the recovery was had. Et gist tous temps deins l'an & jour.

This writ of Fieri facias is only against the goods and chattels of a man, sc. Leases for years, &c. Corn growing or sown upon the ground, or moveable goods, as cattel, corn in the barn, &c. household stuff, money, plate, apparel, &c. And this writ also ought to be sued within the year after the Judgment, &c. Co. 3. 12. vide Co. L. 290. b.

Where the Sheriff and his Officers had need to be very careful, how and after what manner they do execute this Writ; for if the leases, or goods, which they shall take in execution, be not the defendants own goods, or leases, but the goods of a stranger, although they may or do find them in the possession of the defendant (which is the best colour in law to prove them to be his, if the defendant notwithstanding standing his sale or gift of them, shall still use them and take the profit and benefit of them) yet if it shall fall out and be found upon trial, that such goods and chattels be not the defendants own, then the Sheriff or his Officers which shall take such goods in execution, (upon such a Writ) in stead of the defendants goods, the Sheriff or Officer shall be a trespasser to the right Owner of such goods, and the Sheriff or Officer in such case shall pay damages to the Owner of the goods to the value of the goods so taken, and costs of suit; although the Officer hath delivered them to the plaintiff in execution. Kel. 119. 120.

Or if the Officer shall not deliver such goods to the plaintiff in execution, but that the Sheriff shall return his Writ that he hath taken so much goods of the defendants, and that he hath denarios illos paratos ad reddend. to the Plaintiff, then is the Sheriff at a double mischief; for although the value of the goods be recovered against the Sheriff or his Officer, by the owner of the goods; yet the plaintiff in the action, may within the year after execution done, have a Scire facias upon the judgment and the return made by the Sheriff, and thereby shall compel the Sheriff to bring the money into the Court, and after the year the plaintiff may have an action of debt against the Sheriff for it, if he be not otherwise ordered by the Court where the judgment is depending.

And therefore the surer course for the Sheriff in such case is either to keep the goods, until the parties be agreed, or else to take good security of the plaintiff to defend him and leave him harmless, and to stay the returning of his writs until he may be well advised what to do therein; But if he take a bond of the plaintiff, it is questionable whether it be good or no in Law, and not within the compass of the Stat. of 23 H. 6. c. 10. to be taken colore officii.

But the safest and surest course for the Sheriff, or Officer, is, to enquire by a Jury in whom the property of the goods is; or else not to take in execution, or not to meddle at all with any such goods as shall not plainly appear to them, to be the proper goods of the defendant: For it cometh that the Officer is bound at his peril, to take knowledge whose the goods be, or at least, that they be the proper goods of the defendant: but being found by the Jury, that otherwise the Sheriff.

Also if an Officer shall arrest another man who is not the defendant, or shall attach goods which are not the proper goods of the defendant, in both these cases the Officer is a trespasser; And if the plaintiff shall shew unto the Officer the man, or goods, and shall say to the Officer, that this is the defendant, or these are the goods of the defendant, where they are not, there both the Plaintiff and the Officers are Trespassors. See Doe. & Stu. 150.

J. S. riding upon his Masters horse to C. and there one enters a Plaint against J. S. the servant, and attacheth the said horse, whereupon the Master of the said servant brought an action of Trespass against the Wyliff which attached the horse, and had judgment to recover against the Wyliff &c. for that the Officer is bound to take knowledge whose goods he attacheth. Br. Trespass 99.

Goods pawned or gaged for debt, cannot be taken in execution: Nor goods demised, or letten for years: Nor goods distrained, Vide Br. Pledges 28.

When

When the Sheriff hath taken any cattel in execution, he may put them into a Castle, or other place, where he thinks most fitting and safe to keep them until he can sell them, or he may keep them himself, till he can sell them.

But upon a Fieri facias, if the Sheriff shall levy the money, and shall keep the same still in his hands, the party Plaintiff may have his action of Account against the Sheriff. And if the Sheriff shall return Fieri feci, sed non inveni emptores, then a venditioni exponas shall go out; Mes le party plt. n'aura unques un novel execution. 13 H. 7. f. 1.

Upon a Fieri fac. to levy 20 l. the Sheriff returneth Quod habi feci 10 l. quas habeo ad diem, &c. at which day he hath not the money, and a new Sheriff is chosen, here the Plaintiff shall have a Scire facias against the old Sheriff, to shew why the Plaintiff should not have execution of the 10 l. and if the Sheriff cannot discharge himself, then the Plaintiff shall have execution against the Sheriff by a Fieri fac. or Elegit, 9 E. 4. fol. N. bre. 165.

Sur Fieri facias le vicount poit vender lease, ou terme pur ans (sans enquire del value del Lease per Jury.) Vide antea Execution sur Elegit, Dyer 363. & Co. 8. 143. que le vic. est command & compell. per le brief de vend. For the words of this writ he Præcipimus tibi quod de terris & catallis præd. J. Anno 3 Jac. Regis.

Sur Fieri facias le vicount doit vender pur lever le det. Co. 5. 90. Vide Co. 8. 171. & 143. Et nul enquest besoigne estre prise sur ceo.

And yet upon a Fieri facias the Sheriff may eithe please and sell the goods without an enquiry, or else he may please the goods by a Jury, and then sell them, which seems to be the more safe and indifferent way.

Sur execution le vic. ne doit deliver le argent al Plt. mes il doit delver ceo in Court, & le Court ceo delivra al Plt. per Cur. Reverse per Error.

Sur Fieri facias si le vicount vend les biens, & apres le judgment est reverse in brief de Error, uncore le defendant n'aura restitution de ses biens ; mes le value del eux, par que ils fuer. vend : & ceux que issint achate tiel biens del vic. poient loyallyment enjoyer eux. Car le vic. que fist le sale avoit loyal authority a vender, & per le sale le vendee ad absolute property in les biens, &c. Et si le vendition del vic. per force del Fieri fac. serra avoid per subsequent reversal del judgment, donque nul voile achater, & per consequence nul execution serra fait. Co. 5. 90. & 8. 96. & 143.

Et accordant a ceo est le case in Dyer 363. Lou le vicount in execution dun Fieri fac. vend un terme del def. per brief de venditioni exponas, & in Court deliver les deniers al Plaintiff, & puis le judgment fuit reverse par errors, & per l'opinion del Manwood, Dyer, & Wray, le Terme ne serra restore, eo que ceo fuit vend loyallyment, sed le argent que vint in loco Terminum serra tantum restore.

Sur Fieri fac. le vicount execute le brief, mes ne rctorne ceo, uncore bon. Vide hic postea c. 38.

Fieri fac. issint vers un Vincent, & devant l'execution il devy intestate. L'ordinary commit le Administration, & le vic. levy l'execution sur les Administrators, & deliver ceo al party ; Quare si l'execution fuit bien levy sur le Administrators. Dyer 76.

Le vic. avoit Fieri fac. a luy deliver vers A. & apres A. morust & donque le vic. (ou son bayly per son garrant) execut. le brief, & fuit tenus per Wray & Gawdy que le execution fuit bon, & loyallyment fait sur le executors ou administrators. Car les biens queux A. avoit al temps del execution agard, sont liable in mains d'ascun estranger. Ou in quecunque mains ils devient, & donque le mort del party ne poict defeat le execution. Ceo fuit le case dun Pierce, vers Mousle, Hoo, & auters. H. 33 Eliz. Rot. 31.

CAP. 31.

Now followeth the Manner and Forms of such Precepts, Proces, or Writs which go out upon the Original, and whereby the Defendant is called or brought into the Court, &c. and how the Sheriff, &c. is to execute the same, &c.

Summons.

Mr. Lambard saith, that the Saxons (our Ancestors) their proceedings in Judgment was de plano, and without solemnity, They not using to call the parties by any Writ, Proces, or writing, but to send for them by certain messengers, which they termed Thems, that is to say, Ministers or servants.

Also he saith, that when that manner of summoning by writ was first brought into use here, yet were not those Writs made in the Kings Name, nor sealed by the Lord Chancellor; for it is to be seen in Mr. Glanville, that the original writs of his time had this form, sc. teste Ranulpho de Glanvilla, &c. which then was the name of the Chief Justice of the Kings Court, under whose sealing they passed abroad.

But at this day all Proses are to be made out in the Kings Name only. 27 H. 8. c. 24.

And all Writs or Proces concerning the Common Law, shall be awarded under the Great Seal of England, 28 E. 1. c. 6. Vide plus hic fol. 222.

Summons is a Writ directed to the Sheriff, &c. to bring in the party Summons. by a day; Or to cite or warn one to appear at a certain day and to answer, &c. sc. in jus vocare, and the summons must be made by (or in the presence of) two or three summoners, and these summoners ought by Law to be boni (vide Co. L. 158. b.) liberi & legales homines, and neighbours, as it saimeth. And Sir Ed. Co. L. 6. b. saith, that a summons of the tenant must be proved by two or three witnesses.

The Summoneas is the original Proces, and goeth out of the Chancery.

And in Real actions the Sheriffs order to serve or execute this Proces, is to go himself, or to send his Bayliff to the land with the Summoneas, and there to garnish, cite or warn the tenant or party, by sticking up a white stick in his land, which done, the Sheriff must return two common pledges for the Plaintiff, and then the names of the summoners, thus,

Note that this summons (or warning) of the Defendant to appear and answer, &c. is so necessary by the Common Law, as that without the same, all the proceedings, yea, and the judgment after, are oftentimes frustrate and erroneous, and besides the Sheriff subject to danger and punishment.

And therefore if a man recover in writ of Dower, or Mass, &c. by the default of the Defendant where in truth he was not summoned, (nor attached, nor distrained) the Defendant may have a writ of Disceit against both the Sheriff and the Plaintiff. Fitz. Disceit 3. 5. & 56. & Fitz. N. bre. 105. a.

Real

Real actions per summons.

Personal actions, per attachment de corps.

Mixt, primes per summons, & autres per attachments.

Also note, that in real actions the Sheriff (or his Officer) ought to summon the tenant upon the Land. Dyer 104. 22 H. 6. 38. vide.

But in an action of debt brought for damages recovered in a writ of entry, &c. the summons shall be to the person. 22 H. 6. 38.

In a Petit Cape the Sheriff must summon the tenant to answer to his default, and to hear his judgment in regard of his default, sc. upon his default, after plea, issue or demurrer. Finch. 87.

But in a Grand Cape the tenant shall be summoned to answer to the default, and further to the demandment.

In summons in real actions, the summoners in the presence of the Pernors or Veiors, &c. ought to summon the tenant, first to keep his day of the return (and to name that in certainty) to answer to the Defendant, &c. Secondly, they ought to name the name of the demandant; and lastly, they ought to name the land in demand. Co. 6. 54. Vide hic c. 75. & 70.

This word Pernor seemeth to signifie the pernor or taker of the profits of the land; quere, or the occupier or farmer thereof. Vide Finch. 86. Pernor.

And the word Veior, to signifie such as are sent by the Court to take view of the place in question, for the better decision of the right. Minth. Veior.
Vide Co. L. 259. b. que le summons doit estre per summoners & veyors, & le ter. sera prise in les mains le Roy per le Pernor. Vide Fitz. 86. que sur le Grand Cape le vie. est de prendre le ter. in mains le Roy, per le view de legal homes, queux sont appell veyors, les autres pernors.

And the Sheriff by force of the Præcipe, may come upon the land with the summoners, and there summon the party against whom the Præcipe is brought; yea, if the Sheriff by information of the demandant shall summon the tenant in another mans land, the Sheriff shall be excused. Doct. & Stu. 150.

But the Summons (in a Præcipe) ought always to be done in the day-time, (sc. between Sun-rising and Sun-setting) and not in the Night.

Note that the Defendant (in every writ) ought always to be summoned fifteen days (at the least) before the day of the return of the writ. See Stat. 28 E. 1. c. 15. Fitz. 177. d. Br. Sum. 6. Et hic postea tit. Proclaim. & Attachm. Co. L. 134. b.

Note also that the Sheriff, &c. cannot summon the party by a rents service, rent-charge, common, reversion, nor the like; for that the soil is another mans Freehold. Br. Retorne de breve 124. & Sum. 14. Per vel chise.

And

And yet in case where tenant for life prayeth in an aid of him in reversion, and a Scire facias goeth out to warn or summon him in reversion, and the Sheriff returneth that he hath nothing in that County but the reversion of that land in which he hath summoned him, it is holden to be a good return; for he shall be summoned in terra petita; and yet it was another mans freehold. 38. Where the action is brought against one as heir, there the summons must be in land that did descend. Ibid.

Mes si le tenant ou def. appear nest material in quel terre il est summon. Ibid.

Upon a Præcipe, if the Defendant be not Tenant of the land, &c. yet the Sheriff is to summon him in terra petita, eo quod petens testatur quod tenens est. Fitz. Ret. 97. & Br. Summons 23.

And indeed the writ commandeth (the Sheriff) not to summon the Tenant upon his own land, but generally that he shall summon him, naming not in what land; and then by a Maxim in Law it is taken that he shall summon him upon the land in demand. Doct. & Stu. 150. Vide Kitch. Ret. bre. 54.

In a Cessavit, the Tenant was summoned in other land which was not in demand; he shall not plead this; but if he makes default, and a Grand Cape is awarded, he may wage his law of Non-summons; but if the tenant appear upon the summons, it sufficeth in what land soever he were summoned. Br. Sum. 7.

If the Sheriff shall return one summoned who was not summoned, the Sheriff is punishable. Vide hic c. 70. & 85.

Note also if the Sheriff shall summon him which hath no land, to or by his person, and shall return him summoned, it is good; and in actions of Annuity, Covenant, or the like, summons is the Proces, whether the party hath land or not; and where a man hath no land where he may be summoned, there the Sheriff may summon him by his person. 33 H. 6. 42. 4 H. 7. 7. Br. Sum. 1. 7. 8.

And so in all personal actions, the Sheriff must summon the defendant by his person, 22 H. 6. 38. a.

A man may be summoned by his goods, &c. in assises.

In a Scire fac. against a Clerk, the Sheriff is to summon him only by his land, (if he hath any lay-fee) or by his person, but not by his goods: by Prisot, 32 H. 6. f. 11. Fitz. Ret. 23.

In a writ of right of Advowson the Sheriff may summon the Defendant in the Church. Br. Return. 101. 11 H. 6.

In a Præcipe against four, the Sheriff cannot summon the one, but that is a summons to all. 3 E. 4. Br. Sum. 10.

Also in a Præcipe there ought to be two Summoners, for if there be but one, and the tenant make default, and lose by default, he shall have a writ of Defect against the Sheriff, &c.

Vide Thel. 332

*Nota que si le tenant n'a fait summoner aucun de ses vassaux, ne sera troyé par Paire, mes le tenant peut gaigner son Lay de non summoner tout luy par son propre Con-

CAP. 32.

Attachment.

After the summons, if the Defendant or Tenant cometh not in, then there issueth out an attachment, which is a Proces authorising the Sheriff, to go to his house or land, and there to take surety by pledges, or to attach him by his goods, to the end that he shall appear and answer, &c.

Attachment.

The word Attachment in our Law signifieth a taking hold, or apprehending by commandment of writ, and differeth from an arrest, or Capias, which is only of the body of a man, whereas an attachment at this day, is sometimes of or by the body, and sometimes of or by goods. Minsh. see Master Lam. f. 95.

In Real Actions, le Original Proces est summons.

In Mixt Actions, le Original Proces, est summons, & apres attachment.

In tous Actions de trespasss, le Original Proces est Attachment, & Distress infinite; Et sur le attachment, ou Distress, retourne Nihil, trois Capias issent, & puis Proces de utlary. Fitz. 92. a. & 100. d. Finch. 102. 106.

In autres personal actions, le Original Proces est summons, attachment, de corps, & Distress infinite. Finch. 106 hic c. 31.

The forme of the attachment at this day is thus, Pone per rados & suos Pledg. B. quod sit coram Justic' &c. ad respondend' A. de placito, &c.

And note that the Defendant cannot be attached by his land; nor by any parcel of his Freehold (as by a Close, &c.) nor by any chattel real (as a Lease for years, or a ward, or the like.) 7 H. 6. & 27 H. 6. Br. Attachment 1. & 4. & Finch. 94.

Pricher

Neither may a table dormant, or any other thing which is fastned to the Freehold, be attached (as a furnace, wainscot, doors, windows, pales, or the like) 20 H. 7. 13. 21 H. 7. f. 26. And if the Sheriff shall attach a man by any such thing, he is punishable.

But an attachment ought to be made by such goods of the defendants own as are moveables, sc. by m^{or} chattels personal, (which may be forfeit by utlary,) and which shall be forfeited by the default of the party, sc. if he appear not. Br. 1. 4. Sæ Dyer 199. pl. 54.

And this attachment by goods is only where the Proces is Pone per vadios, & salvos Plegios.

Fitz. 93 H. 1. In debt, trespass, or the like, a man ought not to attach the defendant by his horse whereupon he rides, where he hath other goods whereby he may be attached; but if he hath no other goods, then the Officer may attach him by the horse he rideth upon. Br. 23.

Neither may a man be attached by his apparel. 7 H. 6. Br. 4. But this seemeth to be understood of his apparel which is upon his body; for if his apparel lieth by him, &c. it seemeth he may be attached thereby.

Neither shall any goods be attached, but the proper goods of the party, and not goods that are pawned, or borrowed, &c. 35 H. 6. Br. 20. tit. Attachment.

And therewith also agreeth the book of 13 H. 4. fol. 2. that if the Sheriff or his Officers shall attach my horse in the possession of my servant, for the debt of my servant, the Officer is a trespassor to me. Vide Fitz. Trespass 14. 55. Dr. & St. 138. & 149.

And therefore the Sheriff and his Officers are to be well advised by what goods they do attach a man, sc. whether they be the proper goods of the party attached, &c. for they at their peril ought to take knowledge to whom the property of the goods doth belong. See Fitz. Trespass. 14. & 243. & Doct. & St. 149. 150.

An attachment may be made by pledges as well as by goods, sc. by Per Pledges finding pledges or sureties to appear. Br. Attachment 1. 7. & 9.

Plegii dicuntur personæ qui se obligant ad hoc, ad quod qui eos mittit tenebatur. Minsh.

Et encore semble que ceux Pledges ne seront lie in aucun serment (come mainpernors seront) mes si le party attach per pledges, (de venir & respondre, &c.) ne appear, mes fait default, ceux Pledges seront amercy al Roy, &c. Cronp. author. des Courts 169.

Ou le brief est, Pone per vadios, & salvos plegios, &c. la si le vic. treuve party, il poiet luy attach per Pledges; Et sil ne luy treuve, il poet luy attach per ses biens Fitz. Return. del vic. 57.

Also, yet if the Officer shall give warning to the Tenant in the presence of other honest men, to appear, &c. it is holden to be good enough, enough, although he made no other attachment by goods, or pledges, &c.

34. Ass. Br. 9.

Note also that a Bayliff sworn and known, may not make an attachment without a Warrant; but a Warrant by word only is sufficient.
Br. Attach. 15.

Also the servant of the Plaintiff may make the attachment, if so be he hath the Sheriffs Warrant to make the attachment. 26 H. 6.

Per Parol.

The Sheriff commanded his Bayliff to make an attachment, and the Bayliff commanded his servant to do it, who did it, and it was holden to be good, and all this was by parol without any warrant by writing.
27. Ass. p. 67. Br. Attach. 15. & 16.

But if a stranger without any commandment or warrant from the Sheriff, or his Officers, &c. shall make an attachment, this is void, and besides the stranger is thereby a trespassor, &c. And the Sheriff may in these cases be examined by the Court, whether he made any such Warrant, or no.

Note that goods attached, if that they be quick cattel, the Bayliff or other Officer may put them in the common pound; but if they be dead chattels (as pots, pans, or the like) there the Officer may take and carry them home to his own house.

Forfeiture.

Where the Sheriff or his Officers, &c. shall attach another by a Cow^{9 H. 7. 6.} (or by any other goods) if the party shall not appear (at the day of his^{34 H. 6. 29.} return) his Cow, or other goods attached, are forfeited to the King, and^{Dyer 199.} the Sheriff shall be answerable for the value thereof; and therefore the Sheriff, &c. had need either to keep the goods attached, or else to take security to be saved harmless therein.

Nota que le property del biens attach. ne sont hors del party, tanque le jour del retourne, & que il fait default; mes si al jour del retourne le party fait default, donque le vic. ou son Officer poit prendre tiels biens come forfeits, coment que il ad lessa tiels biens ove le party que fuit attach per eux: Et sic nota que sur attachment, le vic. ou autre Officer poit (a son election) prendre les biens attach. ove luy; ou poit lesser & relinquier eux ove le owner, & apres prendre eux sur default del apparance per le owner. 9 H. 7. 6. Br. Attach. 10.

Also it seemeth that the Sheriff, or his Officer, upon their attachment and leaving of the goods attached with the owner (as aforesaid) that they may take an obligation of the owner of those goods for the delivery of the same goods, if the owner shall make default of appearance; and that such obligation shall be good.

C A P. 34.

Venire Facias.

*Venire facias.This Writ of Venire Facias is of two sorts :

The one is to cause the party, sc. the Defendant to come in, and answer, &c. and this but as a summons to warn the party to appear, &c. And upon this if the Defendant be returned sufficient, and maketh default, then a Distringas shall be awarded : But if a Nihil habet, &c. be returned at the first, then after the Venire fac. there shall go out a Capias, alias, plurics, & Exigent.

The other is after appearance, when the parties be at an issue, then the Plaintiff or defendant shall have this writ, to cause the Sheriff, &c. to impanel and return a Jury, and this also is but as a summons to the Jurors.

If upon this Venire fac. the Sheriff shall return the names of the Jury, and if they do not appear at the day, then shall go out an Habeas Corpora Juratorum, and after that a Distringas Jurator. to distrain them until they come, &c. N. bre. 171. Plus hic c. 77.

There be divers other sorts of this writ (of Venire fac.) as you may see in the Table of the Register Judicial, verbo venire fac. all which the Sheriff is to execute, as the writs themselves do direct.

C A P. 35.

Distringas.

Distringas.

This writ is directed to the Sheriff, &c. commanding him to distrain the party for his, or the Jury for their appearance, &c. or to distrain for the Kings debt, &c. for this see hic antea cap. 11. Regist. 77. b.

Mes ou home est attach per son Corps, la nul Distr. isserra apres.

A Distringas for the appearance of the party to answer, as also for the Jury, shall go out infinite, sc. until the party cometh in and appear. Fitz. 2. 59.

Ceo est dit distres infinite, quia ceo issen perpetualment tanque il appear. Fitz. 59. b.

And this Distringas is a Process to distrain the parties, or Jury, by their goods, and the issues of their Lands, to come and appear; the which which they shall lose and forfeit to the King if they come not. Fitz. 59. b.

Britton, cap. 71. saith, that this distress for appearance, is of two sorts; Personal, by taking the moveable goods of the party, and detaining them for the security of his appearance to the suit.

Real is made of the moveable goods; as the Grand Cape, and Petite Cape.

The wife shall be distrained by the goods of her husband, and these shall be returned by the Sheriff in issues, and shall be forfeited if the wife come not. Fitz. Attach. 4.

Nota que ceo distress infinite semble d'estre al Common Ley, in lieu de que le Grand Distress est ore done in divers cases. Vide Stat. 52 H. 3. c. 7. & 9. & Westm. 2. c. 7. & 9. & hic antea c. 32.

And this grand distress is when the defendant hath been attached, and yet appeareth not; or when he appeareth and after maketh default, hic. cap. 32. I.

The great diversity also of this writ (of Distringas) as you may see in the Table of the Registers Judicial, verbo Distringas.

Scire facias.

Scire facias est brief judicial, direct al vicount, &c. Et est de garner homme de scire facias venger & monstre cause al Court, &c. quare execution dun judgment que est pas, ne serra fait: Mes cest brief ne serra grant devant que l'ann & jour soit passe apres le judgement done.

Upon this Writ of Scire facias it seems that the Sheriff hath no more to do but only to warn the party to appear, &c. according to the Writ, and then to return the same: See hic postea c. 63.

There be divers other sorts and manners of Proces, as well in actions real as personal, which you may see at large in Fitz. natura brevium.

Nota que tous Proces serra fait in Nome le Roy tantum. 27 H. 8. c. 24.

Auxy nul brief ou Proces concernant le Commonly Ley serra agard south ascun del Petite Seals. 28 E. 1. c. 6.

C A P. 36.

Return of Writs.

Returns are nothing else but the Sheriffs answer touching that which they are commanded to do by the Kings Writ, and are but to ascertain the Court of the truth of the matter; and yet this seemeth to be the most difficult thing belonging to their Office; for the Sheriff must be very careful and circumspect that he make these returns according to Law, both for substance, and forme; otherwise he shall not only endanger himself to be amerced, or sued for the same (as you may see hic postea c. 126. &c.) But also he shall indamage the parties, and may hazard the Cause or Suit it self: for you shall find that Judgments have been often stayed for defaults apparent in the Sheriffs return; yea and that Judgments have been also reversed, by Writs of Error, for such cause. See 5 E. 4. fol. 109. & 9 H. 6. Br. Rot. 43.

Note that in the execution of all Writs and Proses of Law, the Sheriff, and his Officers, must therein do all that which they shall be commanded to do by the Writ it self, and they must pursue the effect thereof in every behalf; and they may proceed no further, or otherwise in the execution thereof, then they are authorized by the Writ: and besides the Sheriff is to return the same Writ into the Court whence the Writ came.

But where the Writ or Proses is directed to the Bishop, there the Bishop is to make return thereof; and so where the Writ is directed to other persons (as to the Coroners, &c.) they are to make return thereof.

For the manner and form thereof of returns of Writs; first they must be made according to the ancient course, and according to the Presidents, and by the usual words, otherwise they are not good. See hic c. 56. 70, & 78.

The form.

And therefore in a Writ of Right, the Writ to the Sheriff is to return four Knights, to chuse the grand Assize returnable such a day, and the Sheriff returneth that they were no Knights but Burgeses, whereupon the Sheriff was amerced; and another Writ went out, &c. and thereupon the four Knights were demanded, who came to the War girt with their Swords, &c. and so it seemeth by the opinion of Pastur Brook, that the Sheriff must return them Knights, although they be no Knights; for so be the Presidents, as you may see hic postea c. 57. But if they have a sufficient Estate of lands within the County, it seemeth sufficient though they be no Knights: see the like case and reason given, Fitz. 164. 2.

Knights.

Waste was assigned in S. the return must not be quod accessit ad S. but quod accessit ad locum vastatum, 27 Hen. 8. Br. 2.

Vobis certifico.

Upon a Scire facias the Sheriff returneth Ego R. O. Ar' vic' &c. vobis i H. 6. 6. certifico ifico; it is not good, for it ought to be vobis Justic' infra script' ifico.

And yet in a Scire fac' upon a fine, the Sheriff retorne Scire feci, &c. quod sit coram vobis ad diem & locum, &c. Exception was taken for that by this return he might be garnished to appear before the Justices of the Kings Bench, Common Pleas, or any other Justice, &c. but the return notwithstanding was allowed, Fitz. Retorn. 118. 20 E. 3. And so in the former case, vobis certifico may seem to be a good return, for that this word vobis (in both these cases) shall be referred to the Justices contained in the writ. See 3 H. 6. Fitz. Retorn. 3.

Venire fac. 12. &c. le vicount retorne Venire feci, & non executio istius brevis, & auxi il retorne forsque 12 & pur ceux casis il fut chasé d'amer-der ceo. 2 H. 7. Br. 84. Fitz. Retorn. 34.

So in a Habeas Corpora Jurator. the Sheriff must return them attached, and not quod habet corpora. And so in a Distringas per omnes terras, he must return Exitus, &c. 2 H. 7. t. 8. Br. 84.

And yet see Liber Intrac' fol. 388. b. wherein a Disting. the Sheriff returned quod J. & A. disti. sunt per catalla ad valenc' 116.

Also in a Praeceptum quod reddat, if the party yield the land, or in debt, if he pays the money, yet these are no good returns (and yet the writ is Praeceptum quod reddat le terre, ou le det) but these returns must be made, according to the ancient course. 2 H. 7. Fitz. 34. Vide plus Fitz. Retorn. 116. hic c. 73.

16 H. 7.

The Sheriff returneth, quod virtute praeccepti, &c. cepit corpus de J. S. and exception was taken thereto, for that the return was not virtute brevis, &c. and yet it was holden to be a good return, for the Sheriff may take one in Westminster-Hall, by the commandment of the Justices without any writ. Virtute praeccepti, virtute brevis.

In the return of garnishment by A. B. and C. D. these words probos & legales homines seem material (for else the Summoners may be persons attainted or outlawed, &c.) and yet if the Sheriff returneth Scilicet Probos & legales feci per A. B. & C. D. without the words probos & legales homines, it is sufficient, especially if the defendant appears, and it may be amended. les hommes. 33 H. 6. 35. 8 H. 6. 27. & 44 E. 3. 36. Fitz. Retorn. 8. & 25.

9 H. 6. 37.

The Sheriff ought not to return quod defend' nihil habet, prout sibi aliquo modo constare poterit, vel non est inventus prout ei constare poterit, but he ought to return directly, quod nihil habet, vel non est inventus, otherwise he shall be amerced. Fitz. Retorn. 9. Prout constare poterit.

The Sheriff upon a Distr' Jurat. returneth, quod breve adeo tarde sibi venit, (or deliberat. fuit) quod illud exequi non potuit propter brevitatem temporis, and it was holden a good return. Vide 21 H. 6. 51. Br. 52. Fitz. Retorn. 37. and yet by the book 2 H. 4. fol. 7. upon a Capias, Tarde is no good return. Plus hic c. 53. Tarde.

Et nota que le vic. poet en chescun brief R. torne Tarde, sinon in un attachment, & sin un Capias.

But if the Sheriff shall make such a return, where he hath sufficient time to serve the writ, he shall be amerced, &c. ⁹ rather he shall yield damages to the party grieved, according to the Statute of 13 E. 1. 39. Abr. d'Ass. fol. 137.

So if the Sheriff shall return mandavi ballivo libertatis, qui mihi sic respondit, quod breve adeo tarde venit, quod illud exequi non potuit, &c. There the Sheriff shall be amerced; for it shall be intended that the writ came to the Sheriff soon enough, and that he hath detained or kept it by so long time, where he might have made deliberance, &c. And indeed the mischief is great which may ensue upon this return; for by this means the Plaintiff shall never come to have his Process served, at least in time. 2 H. 4. fol. 7. for this last.

Non inveni, for,
Non est inven-
tus.

The Sheriff returned non inveni partem, &c. for non est inventus; ^{9 H. 6 fol. 12.} and the party being thereupon outlawed, assigned this for Error, and ^{Br. 43.} it was adjudged to be error, and not to be amended.

Mandavit for Mandavi.

The Sheriff returneth quod mandavit ballivo de E. &c. for mandavi ballivo, &c. and was therefore amerced.

Superdictus for

Also upon a Distringas Jurator, the Sheriff ought to return the Names of the Manucaptors of the Jurors. Br. Retorne 86.

In a Scire facias to execute a Judgment or Fine, the Sheriff ought to return the names of the Summoners and Weiers. 3 H. 7. 8. Br. Ret. 86.

So upon the Grand Cape, the Sheriff ought to return the names of the Summoners and Weiers: Ibid.

Issues.

Also upon the return of a Jury, the Sheriff is to return issues upon every person impannelled and returned by him, sc. upon the return of the Habeas Corpora Jurator. and upon the Distringas Juratores, but not upon the Venire facias, as it seemeth.

And yet in these former cases, if the parties, &c. shall appear and plead, (it seemeth) though the Sheriff, &c. shall omit to return the names of such Manucaptors, Summoners, Weiers, or shall return no issues, ^{3 H. 7. fol. 8.} the return shall be amended, and shall be no error: But yet Mr. Brook holdeth it to be error if the return be not good, notwithstanding any appearance: Ideo quære. vide 8 Hen. 5. fol. 2. b. ^{Br. The Sheriff in a Replevin returneth that the Cattel are in a Fort, Castle, or Park, so that he could not make deliverance, &c. It is not good, but there he shall be amerced for such his return; for that he might have taken Posse comitatus, and so have made deliverance. 8 H. 4. Fitz. Rector. 48. Que ni poert faire deliverance

If the Sheriff shall return a resistance, it is not good, for he should have taken the power of the County, &c. But he shall be amerced for such his return; for that it tendeth to the dishonour of the King and his Crown, 13 E. 1. c. 39. See Fitz. Execution 147. & Rector. de vic. 88. Resistance

The Sheriff returneth a Rescous, it seemeth not to be good: Rescous. Vide Br. Rector. 66. 39 H. 6. The reason is, for that he might have taken Posse comitatus, as aforesaid. And yet see the Books 10 E. 4. fol. 17. & 3 Hen. 7. fol. 11. the Sheriff returned a Rescous; and in the one Book, for that the place where the Rescous was made, and in the other, for that the place where the Rescous was commanded to be made, were not certainly set down, therefore the returns were holden to be insufficient, and the Sheriff amerced therefore, whereas otherwise the Sheriffs return of the Rescous had been allowed: Ideo quare & vide hic retorne de capias.

Also in the Book of Entries, tit. Rescous fol. 579. c. d. you shall find divers forms of Rescous returned by the Sheriff, Plus hic c. 54. And note, that where the Sheriff shall return a Rescous, he must shew in what place, day, and year, the same Rescous was made. Fitz. Attach. 1. Retorn. 32.

Also a Rescous returned against one without any Addition, is good. Br. Exig. 49. & 13 H. 7. 21.

But Quare if the Sheriff by his former Return doth not charge himself, especially if that it may appear that he once had the body, &c. Vide Dyer 212. & 13 R. 2. Fitz. Rector. 74. lou fut un Capias le vic. retorne Cesti Corpus, & illud deliberavi Constabul. Castri de S. &c. & un Abbe la viet vi & Armis, & luy reprist hors de son gard, &c. la fut tenu per Curiam que le vic. ad charge luy in tme per cest Retorne.

Upon a Capias the Sheriff returned, that the party committed Felony, and took sanctuary, which privilege he could not break, this was a good return: See Br. Rector. 29. & 46. Sanctuary.

But if upon a Capias the Sheriff had taken the body, and then had come with his prisoner along by a Franchise, &c. and then the prisoner had claimed the Franchise: here it should have been reputed the folly of the Sheriff to bring his prisoner by such Franchise, and the Sheriff was chargeable with the body, notwithstanding such Return. 2 H. 4. Br. Elich. 38.

Arrest de vant. Upon a Capias the Sheriff returneth, that before the coming of the Writ, the Defendant was taken and detained in prison, by force of a Warrant from a Justice of Peace in the County, for the finding of Sureties for the Peace, &c. yet the Sheriff ought (as it seemeth) to bring in the party into the Court, and then after that the Plaintiff hath counted, and the Defendant hath put in his answer, he shall go under Mainprise, and be remitted to the Sheriff, for to answer in the County before the Justices of Peace, &c. 2 H. 7. fol. 2. Br. Respon. sec 9 H. 6. 4.

Upon an Habeas Corpus directed to the Sheriff against any man condemned, or in prison, upon an Execution, &c. the Sheriff ought to return the truth and cause of his former imprisonment, and withall to bring in the prisoner into the Court, &c. See hic petita c. 54. & 63.

Upon a Corpus cum causa, or other writ, directed to the Sheriff, if he shall return that he hath commandment to surcease (coment vel commandment for Court Party Seal direct a luy per le Roy) yet if he shall not execute the Writ, he shall be amerced. Vide hic cap. 63.

Inhibition. The Bishop being commanded to certify Patrimony, &c. certifieth that he could do nothing, by reason of an Inhibition to him directed out of the Archies, and it was holden no return, for he ought to perform the Kings Commandment, notwithstanding the Inhibition: 36 Ed. 3. Br. Rector. 112.

Clerk. In a Scire facias against a Clerk (that is beneficed (upon a recovery in a Quare impedit) the Sheriff returned, quod Clericus est beneficiatus, &c. and therfore (by some opinions) the Sheriff was to be amerced, for here the Sheriff should have summoned him, &c. And yet it is a good return, quod est Clericus beneficiatus, non habens laicum feodum. Et quod non est inventus, for then he cannot be summoned if he be not found, nor hath Lay. sec. 32 H. 6. 11. Br. 124.

Note that the Sheriff is not to return quod Clericus est beneficiatus, &c. but only in Cases where a Capias or Distringas goeth out (which are a Cohercion) or an Attachment, as it seemeth. Finch. 354. Ibid.

Also in a Scire facias against a Clerk, the Sheriff is only to warn or summon the party, by his person, or by his Land, if he hath any Lay-fee. 32 H. 6. 11. Fitz. Rector. 23.

Where the Sheriff (upon a Scire facias) returneth quod Clericus est beneficiatus. Non habens laicum feodum, there shall go a writ to the Bishop to sequester his Benefice. See hic c. 20. & 56. K. 47. 13 H. 4. fol. ult. 2 E. 4. 1.

Baron & feme. In an Assize against the Husband and Wife, the Sheriff returneth the Husband attached, and the Wife nihil, quare, if that be a good return, for by the better opinion of the Book 7 H. 6. the Sheriff should have attached her by the goods of her Husband: and yet by the Book, 48 Ed. 3. 25. & 49 E. 3. 1. Fitz. Ret. 73. it seemeth that the Wife shall not be attached by her husbands goods; but the Sheriff shall return pledges upon the one and the other: Ideo quare. Br. Attach. 4.

Br. 4.

In a Scire facias against the husband and wife, the Sheriff returned that they are divorced, and was therefore amerced, for persons that are divorced may have garnishment, Quere & vide 1 H. 6. 2. Br. Ret' 63. Fitz. Ret' 1.

In a real action, if the Sheriff shall return the Tenant a woman Covert, or an Infant, the return is not good. Dyer 104.

Warranty returned by the Sheriff upon an Infant, is a good return, so as the Infant be above the age of fourteen years. 2 H. 5. fol. For an Infant is impleadable by the Law, and for his contumacy or contempt shall be punished, as a man of full age shall be. Dyer 104.

14 H. 4. 12.
Br. 14.

Upon a Fieri facias against Executors, the Sheriff returneth that they Ext.utors had sold the goods of the party dead before the writ purchased, and had taken money or other goods for the same, and the Sheriff was amerced for this return; for he should have taken other goods of the Executors to the value thereof, &c. Fitz. Ret. 55.

Also it had been no return that all the Executors but one had nothing; for the Sheriff ought to make execution of that which was in the hands of that one Executor. Fitz. Ret. 55.

9 H. 6. 57.

The Sheriff upon a Fieri facias against Executors, returneth, quod nihil habent, post adventum brevis, prout sibi aliquo modo constare poterit, and for this he was amerced, for he ought to have returned directly, quod nihil habet: but the Sheriff may return, quod bona elongata sunt, and thereupon Execution shall be of their proper goods.

And yet if the Sheriff shall return, Quod bona Elongata sunt, an action of the Case will lie against the Sheriff for such his return, if it be not true.

Sur Fieri facias vers executors. le vicount retourne, nulla bona, &c. le plaintiff peut avoir special brief de Fieri facias, &c. que le vicount lever le del des biens le mort, & si sibi constare poterit que les executors ont degist les biens, donne de bonis propriis. Co. 5. 32. 11 H. 4. fol. 70. Fitz. Exec. 57. 2 H. 4. fol. 4.

Also the omission of words usual maketh the return not to be good, as where the return was Residuum hujus brevis patet in quadam schedula, &c. for Residuum executionis istius brevis patet, this is vitious, 19 H. 6. Fitz. Ret. 14.

So in a Scire facias the Sheriff returned Scire feci A. quod sit coram vobis, &c. and did not say further, ad faciend' quod breve requirit, and it was adjudged to be no good return: 16 E. 3. & 26 E. 3. Fitz. Ret. 77. 119.

Issint assise fuit Retourne sic Plegii. E. V. infranominat' A. B. & C. D. Ou le retourne ferra. h. V. infranominat' attachiat' est per Plegios A. B. & C. D. Et pur default de ceo parol attach, le retourne tenuis void: 5 E. 4. Br. 93. Vide & quare.

Again every return ought to answer the point of the writ (as it seemeth) and therefore where the writ (to the Sheriff) was, quod Scire facias, hæred' terrarum & tenementorum quæ fuere M. &c. and the Sheriff returned, quod Scire fecit W. H. militi, fil. & hæred. prædict' M. &c. And it was assigned for Error, for that he did not return him heir of some Lands or Tenements, according as the writ required; for his Warrant was not to summon the heir of M. but the heir of the Lands and Tenements of the said M. See Co. 3. 15.

Where the Writ directed to the Sheriff, hath in it this clause, vel causam nobis significes, it seemeth the Sheriff may return the special matter or cause &c.

Certain.

Also the return of the Sheriff ought to be certain to every intent, as 3 H. 7. 11. a. a Declaration ought to be, and the Sheriff is bound to take knowledge 12. a. Br. Ret. 88. see Co. 8. 127. 128. Fitz. Rector. 32. of the Law in making his return: and therefore in a Scire facias Laurentio Both Magistro Aule de B. in Cantabr' & scholaribus ejusdem, &c. the Sheriff returned quod Scire fecit Magistro, &c. And did not lay, Scire feci Laurentio Both Magistro, neither spake of the Schollers, and therefore it was holden to be a void return. Fitz. Ret. 26. 32. And yet Vide Co. 8. 127. 128. that the Sheriffs return being only to ascertain the Court of the truth of the matter, it requireth not such precise certainty H. 6. 49. Br. Ret. 14. as is required in pleading.

Yet in a Scire facias against Elen. Prioreff. de W. the Sheriff returned 29 E. 3. 33. Scire feci Prioreff. de W. without saying Elen' Prioreff. and it was holden good.

If the Sheriffs return be uncertain in the year, day, or place, it is not good. Dyer 69. pl. 29. & Fitz. Attach' 1.

And yet these, or the like words, in the return, sc. prout (or secundum quod or ad faciendum quod) illud breve exigit & requirit, do oftentimes help the uncertainty. Vide Fitz. Ret. 2. 44. & 83.

The Sheriff upon a Capias returneth that he arrested the Defendant at D. and would have carried him to the Gaol, and that W. N. did rescue him, and it was holden no good return, for that he did not shew at what place W. N. made the rescue; and it shall not be intended to be where the Arrest was. Dyer 69. Fitz. Ret. 32. 10 Ed. 4. 15. Br. Ret. 97.

Also Termino Pasch. 6 Eliz. Benlows Serjeant shewed to the Court, that upon a Capias ad satisfac. the Sheriff had returned a Rescous, and had not therein shewed the place where the Rescous was made, and thereupon the opinion of the Court was, that the return was not good; for that it was not certain from whence the Venue should come, if the matter were traversed.

Upon an extendi fac. the Sheriffs return was holden void by reason of the uncertainty, &c. See hic c. 58.

Br. 103.

In a Præmunire the Statute is that the Defendants shall be warned by the space of two months before the day of the return, and for that the Sheriff returned the warning generally, and did not say what day, nor that it was two months before the return; therefore the return was holden to be insufficient; yet the contrary was holden: 39 Ed. 3. 7. Br. 56. And that it shall be intended that it is well served according to the Law; for other Writs ought to be served by the space of fifteen days before the return, and yet no mention thereof is made in the return: And if the Sheriff do not warn the party, nor serve the Writ as he ought, the party if he be damnified, may have a Writ of Deceit against the Sheriff.

And so in a Plurics for a Corodie, the Sheriff returneth that the Bishop of H is Founder, and returneth not the name of that Bishop which founded it, and therefore it was holden to be incertain, quia oportet nominare primum Episcopum fundatorem, sc. Herbertum, &c.

Upon a Scire fac. against one upon a Statute, the Sheriff returneth mortuus est, whereupon a Writ went out to warn one J. and his heir, and R. and W. the terre tenants; And the Sheriff thereupon returned Scire feci hered. & terre tenentes, without naming the heir, or terre tenants, by their proper names, and for this the Sheriff was amerced, and another Writ awarded. Fitz. Rector. 69.

If a writ be returned thus, responsio vicecomitis C. and sheweth not the Sheriffs name, it is no good return by the opinion of Jenny, 3 E. 4. Vide hic cap. 41.

If the Sheriff returneth Mandavi Ballivo libertat' R. and sheweth not whole liberty it is, or who is Lord of the Franchise, this is no good return by Pigot, but Danby held the contrary. 9 Edw. 4. 19. See 1 Hen. 6. fol. 6. Br. 64. Fitz. Rector. 2. & 4.

The Sheriff returned Mandavi ballivo libertatis Ducis Lancast. &c. and for that the Duke had divers Liberties within the same County, therefore the return was holden not to be good. See 1 H. 6. 6. Fitz. Rector. 2.

If the Sheriff returneth Mandavi ballivo liberat' de D. and saith not ballivo J. N. libertatis sue de S. this was good by the opinions of three Justices, but Hales Justice held the contrary. 1 H. 6. fol. 6.

And according to this opinion of Hales, it was adjudged termino Mich. Anno 18 Jacobi Regis, that the Sheriff in his return is to set down the name of the Waplist of the Liberty. See hic postea cap.

In a Scire facias, the Sheriff returneth Scire feci, E. K. modo & forma prout illud breve in se exigit & requirit, and saith not infranominat' E. K. and yet this was holden (by the Court) to be good: for note that these words, prout breve exigit, &c. doth amount to infranominatus, or infra scriptus; see the Wks 2 H. 4. 13. & 3 H. 4. 9. Br. 28. Fitz. 44. the like return upon a Scire feci, against two or three several Tenants, the Sheriff returned Scire feci, &c. modo & forma prout breve exigit, &c. and it was holden to be good, without saying or returning separatim sciri feci, &c.

If the Sheriff return upon a Capias against J. & N. quod cepit corpus J. & N. and saith not infrascript J. & N. this is misprision and must be amended, and yet by the Reporter it is well enough without amendment. 12 H. 7. 19. Br. Amendment 64.

In an assize the Sheriff returned the Writ thus J. P. & A. P. attachi sunt; viz. J. P. per unum bovem pretii, 10 s. & A. P. per unum equum pretii 40 s. and saith not infrascripti, this was holden to be erroneous; for it might be intended that they were two strangers. 11 H. 7. 28.

The Sheriff attacheth one by his goods; he ought to return the certainty of the goods in specie, &c. hic c. 52.

Also the Sheriff shall return no Juror without some true and certain addition, by which he may be known. hic c. 85.

But the Sheriff may return Mainperners without any additions. 10 E. 4. 16. Br. Exig. 42.

So the Sheriff may return a Writous against a man without any addition. Ibid.

An Writary was returned in this manner, Ad com. tentum apud J. in com. Sommerset J. M. exactus fuit & non comparuit, &c. and it was holden (by three Justices) a good return, although it were not Ad com. Sommerset, tentum apud J. in com. Sommerset; but Jay Justice held the contrary; for that it could not be intended of what County the County which was holden was; but alii e contra 11 H. 7. 10. Br. 127. Ideo quære.

Note that in the former Case, this word Sommerset, was not entred in the Margent, or upon the head of the return, which is and hath been the ancient usage, and seemeth also to be very material: See 11 Hen. 7. 10. a. b.

Also see Co. 10. 141. a return of an Exigent holden void for the uncertainty, & hic c. 59.

An Writary returned in London, in these words, Ad Husting. tentum in Guildhall Civitatis Londini, tali die A. B. exactus fuit & non comparuit: this is no good return, for that there are two Hustings in London; one is de communibus placitis, the other is de placitis terre, and therefore in such case the return must be Apud Hustingum de communibus placitis, &c. Or otherwise it is not good, for that the same may have two intendments.

The City of Norwich is within the County of Norfolk; also it is a County in it self, which may hold Plea; and therefore if a return be made in these words, Ad com. tentum apud Norwicum in com. Norf. this is not good, for that it may have two intendments; sc. that the County which was held there was for the City, or the County of Norfolk: But if the return be in these words, Ad comitatum Norf. tentum apud Norwicum in comitatu Norf. this is good; for now it cannot be intended, but only that this County was held for the County of Norfolk.

An Exigent went out to the Sheriffs of London against J. Et quod se redderet vic' Kancie, where it should have been vic' London: and for these causes it was holden no good return, and the Sheriff should have been amerced, but that the writ was returned in another term.

In a writ to enquire of waste, the Sheriff returned quod cepit Inquisitionem die Sabbati proxim' apud K. and for that he shewed not what Saturday, and also shewed not quod ivit ad locum vastatum prout breve exigat, it was holden no good return, and the Sheriff was amerced.

34 Aff. 6 Br. 76

In an attaint the writ was, & diligenter inquir. qui fuer. Juratores prince Inquisitionis, and whether M. B. Miles were one of the Petit Jury the Sheriff returned their names, and that M. B. was dead, and did not say M. B. Miles, so as it might be intended to be another person, and yet it was holden a good return.

2 E. 4. 1.

In a Scire facias to have an execution of an annuity against a Parson, the Sheriff returned, quod non habet bonis, and notwithstanding that it was not further, Nec habuit die receptionis brevis, yet it seemeth to be intendable, and so to be good. So in debt or trespass. See h^c Return in det. Non per intend-

In a Scire fac. the Sheriff returns, quod Scire fecit J. N. prout breve in se exigat & requirit, it is good although he says not intranominato, for it shall be intended: 1 H. 6. 6. Br. expol. 34.

So if the Sheriff returns, Mandavi ballivo de D. and doth not further say, ubi terra jacet, it is good, for it shall be so intended, ibid.

So in a Scire fac. sued against two several tenants, the Sheriff returns Scire feci a les. 2. quod sit, &c. modo & forma secundum quod istud breve exigat & requirit, &c. And although the return was not Scire feci a les. 2. separatim, yet for that the return was, modo & forma, &c. the return was holden good: 2 H. 4. 13. Fitz. Ret. 44.

So if the Sheriff in the former case had returned Scire feci a les. 2. quod sint, &c. ad faciend' quod istud breve exigat & requirit, it is good. Ibid.

In waste, or Redisseisin, in divers Towns, the Sheriff ought to go to all the Towns (though he may take his inquisition at one) and he returned quod accessit ad D. & ibid. cepit inquisitionem, and holden good, for that by intendment he likewise might go to all the other Towns, &c. 40. Ass. 23. Br. Rediff. 5.

See more the Sheriffs return holden to be good by intendment : 28. Ass. pl. 40. & 34. Ass. pl. 6.

Also sometimes the return of the Sheriff is only to certify and ascertain the Court the truth of the matter, and in such case there needs no such precise certainty as in pleadings : see the Case of the City of London, Co. 8.

If the return be repugnant, it is not good. Dyer 278. vide hic Ret. de Seisina in Dower.

Double.

A double return made by the Sheriff is not good, as if the Sheriff returneth (the Pluries against an Abbot to admit the Kings Warlet to a Corrodie) that the King is not Founder, and that King Edward the 4. did release to the Abby all Corrodies, this is double and so void. 3 H. 7. c. 6. Br. Ret. 116.

Also the Sheriff is not to return any thing which should come in by the challenge of the parties ; as in a Writ of Right the Sheriff returneth two Knights, and two Serjeants, to chuse the Grand Assise) this is a good return ; but if the Sheriff returneth this as a cause thereof, sc. for that there were no more Knights within the County, which were not of kindred to the parties, this makes the return to be insufficient, Causa qua supra. And yet Surplusage in a return, doth not make void the return (as it seemeth) for as to the Surplusage the Court taketh no regard. 32 H. 6. Fitz. Return. 23.

In all (or most) cases, the Sheriff may make these returns following :

Tarde, &c. hic 64. b.
Non est inventus.
Nihil.
Mandavi ballivo Libertatis hic.
Clericus est beneficiatus.
Servic.

True.

The Sheriff by his Office and Oath, is to make a true and just return of all Writs : see his Oath & Dyer 60. b.

And by the Statutes, if the Sheriff shall make any false return, he shall be punished, i. he shall amerced, and besides shall yield damages to the party grieved : Stat. 13 E. 1. 39. & 28 E. 1. 16.

Where the Father was condemned, and upon the Exigent upon a Capias ad satisfaciend. the Sheriff returned quod reddidit se, and it was the Son which came (and so averred and found to be the Son) the Sheriff was amerced. 7 H. 4. 13.

Upon an Exigent the Sheriff returneth quarto exactus, and the Coroners upon a Cerciorari to them directed, certified that the defendant defendant was outlawed, the Sheriff for such false return was amerced at forty pounds.

5 Eliz. c. 23. If any Sheriff or other having authority to return Writs, do make an untrue return upon any Capias, in a writ of Excommunicato capiendo to him directed, that the party named in the Writ hath not yielded his body upon any Proclamation made, where indeed he hath yielded himself according to the effect thereof, he shall forfeit to the party grieved forty pounds to be recovered by action, &c.

112. s. 3. b. If the Sheriff in a writ of account, or debt, shall return upon one, quod non est inventus, nec habet terras, &c. per quod distringi potest, &c. whereupon a Capias shall be awarded against him, and he shall be taken thereupon, whereas he had lands sufficient, or goods and chattels, then the party may have his action of the case against the Sheriff (directed to the Coroners) for such false return.

Fitz. 97. c. In a Præcipe quod reddat, if the Sheriff return the Tenant summoned, when he was not summoned, whereby the Tenant loseth by default upon the Grand Cape returned: here the tenant shall have a writ of disceit against him which recovereth, and also against the Sheriff for his false return.

48 Ed. 3. 15. And yet in some cases the Sheriff shall not be amerced or punished for making a false return, as in an attainr; if the Sheriff shall return any to be of a petty Jury, which were not, Process shall go out against those whose names were omitted, but the Sheriff shall not be therefore amerced: see hic.

Note that the Sheriff cannot return any thing which is contrary to the confession of the party: As for a trespass laid in D. and the defendant confesseth that there is such a Town, here the Sheriff cannot return Nul tiel ville in Com. &c. 3 H. 7. Er. Return. 87 & 37 H. 6. Fitz. Return. 27.

3 H. 7. 12. Br. Also note that the Sheriff cannot return any thing which is contrary to the verdict of the Jury, as in an action of debt against Executors, who plead that they have fully administered, and it was found against them, &c. that they had assets remaining, whereupon a Fieri facias was awarded to the Sheriff to levy the sum of the goods of the Testator, and the Sheriff returned Mandavi ballivo libertatis de K. qui mihi dedit responsum, quod executores prædicti testatoris non habent aliqua bona testatoris, &c. the which return was contrary to the verdict, &c. and therefore not good. Fitz. Ret. 35.

And yet for that he is a stranger thereto; and it may be that the defendant hath not assets within his County, and yet hath assets in another County, and then the Jury upon the former issue ought to find assets, and yet the Sheriff cannot return so, except they be within his County, whereupon the case was adjourned.

I have seen a report of a case in Communi Banco, 21 Eliz. where in an action of debt against Executors, who pleaded riens inter mains, the defendant did aver that they had assets, which also was found by verdict, and upon a Fieri facias to have execution, the Sheriff returned riens inter mains; and the former books of 3 H. 7. & 5 H. 7. were vouched to prove prove that the return was not good, being against the verdict of the Jury (and therefore it was moved that the Sheriff should be amerced.) But Roads Justice doubted thereof, and avouched the book. 7 E. 6. to the contrary, sc. that the Sheriff should not be concluded by the verdict.

Contra al bre.

In a Replevin it is no good return that there are no such goods or cattel : 5 H. 7. 27.

In a Writ to deliver goods upon a Detinue, it is no good return, that there are no such goods, ibid.

In an Habere facias seisinam, it is no good return that there is no such land, ibid.

Also in Writs of Seisin, it is no good return to alledge Non tenancy in him whom the writ of Record suppoeth to be tenant, Manxels Case. Flo. 14. a. & Fitz. Return. 91.

The Sheriff cannot return Nihil, where issues were returned by himself before.

Contra al former retorne.

The Sheriff cannot return nihil upon him whom he hath once returned, summoned, or distrained upon another writ ; tamen quære, for such return may be good upon some special matter returned, Vide 9 H. 6. Fitz. Ret. 10. 13. & Br. Ret. 7. 22 Aff. 80. Br. 51. 10.

By the opinions of Fortescue and Markham, if the defendant be returned sufficient, and after Nichil, it is good, for that the Plaintiff may have a Capias, and an Exigent against him ; but otherwise against a Juroz : Br. 49. 19 H. 6. 31.

And yet in some cases, the new Sheriff is not concluded by the return of the old Sheriff, but may return the contrary, &c. See hic cap. 44.

False Latin.

But false Latin is not greatly material in the return of a writ, &c. as if the Sheriff shall return in a pannel, Johannis D. where it should be Johannes D. yet it is a good return. 2 H. 4. 7. Fitz. Ret. 43.

The Sheriff returned Scire feci J. A. Cl'io, whereas it should be Clerico, and it was amended : 7 H. 6. 1. Fitz. Ret. 6. 7 H. 6. 1.

CAP. 37.

Cepi corpus.

If the Sheriff return upon any person Cepi corpus, or Reddidit se, the Sheriff shall be chargeable to have the bodies of the said persons at the days of the return of the Writs, Bills, or Warrants, &c. 23 H. 6. c. 10. And so was the ancient Common Law. Fitz. Ret. 71.

The Sheriff returneth Cepi corpus, but hath not the body at the day, he shall be amerced : 44 E. 3. 2. yea although a procection were cast for the defendant : 11 H. 4. 57. Liber. Intrac. tit. Capias 19. Fitz. Return. 71. & Co. 8. 40. 44 E. 3. f. 2. 11 H. 4. f. 57.

So if the Sheriff returneth quod mandavi ballivo, &c. qui respondit quod cepit corpus; and if the prisoner appeareth not at the day the Sheriff shall be amerced, by some opinions; but by other opinions, the Plaintiff only shall be amerced: see hic postea.

The Sheriff returneth Reddida se upon the Exigent, but hath not the body, he shall be amerced.

Upon a Capias ad satisfac. if the Sheriff returneth a Cepi corpus, and hath not the body, he shall not only be amerced, but also the plaintiff may have his action against the Sheriff for an escape, for that his return hath concluded him: Br. Rct. 107.

Upon a Capias for Felony, the Sheriff returneth Cepi corpus, but hath not the body at the day, whereupon the Sheriff was amerced for the escape at fifty pound.

Upon Process against the husband and wife, the Sheriff returneth, quod cepit illos, and at the day the husband appeared, but not the wife, and the Sheriff was amerced therefore.

But if the Sheriff had returned that the husband Non est inventus, and that he had taken the wife, and she only had appeared, that had excused him.

Upon a Fieri fac. the Sheriff returneth Fieri feci, &c. Quas paratas habeo ad diem intra content. and at the day he hath not the money in Court, and after a new Sheriff was made, and it was moved to have a Disting. nuper vicecom. ad habendum denarios, &c. But Littleton said, That the Justices were advised upon this return, being of record, to award a Seire fac. against the old Sheriff to have execution, and if he could not discharge himself, then the party should have execution against the old Sheriff by Fieri fac. or Elegit. 2 E. 4. Br. Rct. 55.

Upon a Fieri fac. if the Sheriff levieth the money, but yet returneth not the Writ, nor payeth the money to the plaintiff, it leaveth the plaintiff may have his action of Account against the Sheriff: as also the defendant may have his action of trespass against the Sheriff for levying the money, and not returning the Writ, vide 11 H. 4. & 27 H. 7. 22. b. Br. Tresp. 211.

Now where the Sheriff shall be amerced for his return.

Mr. Bracton, lib. 5. tit. de exceptionibus c. 32 saith thus. Aliquando vicecomes negligens est in executione præceptorum Domini Regis, per fraudem. Aliquando illa exigi non potest propter impotentiam unde iustitiam rationabilem pretendit excusationem, in misericordia Domini Regis remanebit. Contingit vicecomiti quodcumque quod cum breve Domini Regis susceperit de Attachiando aliquem, post sui monitionem instanti, quod Attachamentum non facit, nec breve quod ei inde venit renuntiat, Quo casu, &c. un alius issera commandment al vic. de Attache le def. quod sit ad talem diem. Et quod ipse vic. tunc sit ibi auditorus Judicium suum de hoc quod præd. def. non Attachavit, nec breve quod ei inde venit, milit, sicut ei præceptum fuit, &c. Ad quem diem si vicecomes nihil inde fecerit magis quamprimum fecit, nec se excusaverit, ad voluntatem Domini Regis amerciabitur de contemptu, & tertio per breve, Domini Regis, &c. præcipietur quod ei Attachiet, &c.

Mittit quandoque vicecomes breve quod inde susceperit, & fraudulenter rescribit & inndat, quod breve tam Tarde recepit quod præceptum Domini Regis exequi non potuit. Quo casu si in contrarium testatum fuerit, &c. Alias issera, ut super, &c. ibid.

Et issint est de auters faux Retornes del vic. &c. un alius issera ut super. & amerciabitur ut super. ibid.

Illint si vicecomes per imperitiam suam erraverit in modo & ordine Attachi-

Attachiamenorum & Distinctionum; ut si præceptum sit ei, quod ponat per vadios & salvos Plegios, & ille mandat, quod, Distrixit per terras & catalla vel è contrario.

Ubi si Præceptum sit ei, quod Habeat Corpus, & ipse mandavit quod Attachavit per Plegios, vel commisit per ballivum, vel hujusmodi, ibid.

hic amercet.

Note also that the Sheriff shall be amerced, yea shall yield damages to the party grieved for his return in divers other cases, see hic cap. 20.

As if his return be incertain or otherwise insufficient: Br. Ret. 3. vide hic c. & 7 E. 6. c. 1.

So if his return be false: Stat. 28 E. 1. c. 16. & hic antea.

So if he make no return: hic postea.

So in a Replevin if he return that the cattel be in a Fort or Castle.

So if he return he could not execute the writ for resistance, &c.

The Sheriff shall be amerced for returning small or no issues, upon the defendant. Stat. 13 E. 1. c. 39. & Bro. Ret. 120. & 86.

The Sheriff shall be amerced for not returning issues upon Jurores, according to the Statutes.

The Sheriff shall be amerced for not returning pledges. Br. Ret. 25. 61. 86.

See Mr. Bracton, lib. 5. tit. de exceptionibus, c. 32. that the Sheriff shall be amerced for making a false or insufficient return, or other negligence therein.

But note that the use is to amerce the Sheriff the same terme only wherein he maketh his return; and if he be not amerced that term, then he is to go quit, quod nota per Fitz. 27 H. 8. fol. 29. a. but this amercement is no recompence to the party grieved: and therefore the ancient Statutes of 13 Ed. 1. c. 39. 28 E. 1. c. 10. & 2 Ed. 3. c. 5. (hic antea c. 20.) were meet to be put in use and execution.

Pur default de auter.

Upon a Writ to enquire of damages, the Sheriff returneth that the Enquest or Jury gave or found no damages; the Sheriff shall not be amerced for this default of the Jury: for the Sheriff shall not be amerced, but where he returneth the writ falsely or insufficiently of himself, whereas here he returned it as the Jury had presented it. Fitz. Ret. 66. 44 E. 3. 3. Br. 20.

Del Southwic.

And yet the Sheriff shall be amerced for the default of his Under-Sheriff; as in the book of Assises, where the Under-Sheriff returned a pannel by a precept directed to one who was not Wayliff of a Franchise, by reason whereof the pannel was quash; there the Sheriff himself was amerced, and not the Under-Sheriff; and an action of the case doth lie against the Sheriff himself, for the return is always in the name of the Sheriff himself: see hic postea tit. Sheriffs Officers. 38. Aff. p. 13. Br. 77.

Del Bayliff.

So the Sheriff shall be amerced for the default of his Wayliff. If any Wayliff or other Officer shall impanel or return any person, upon any inquiry in the Sheriffs Turn, which is not of good name, and have 20 s. per annum of Freehold, or 26 s. 8 d. per annum of Copyhold, &c. such Officers shall lose for every person otherwise returned or impanelled forty shillings, and the Sheriff other forty shillings, &c. 1 R. 3. c. 4. hic postea Sheriffs Tome.

Del Bayliff de Liberty.

Also sometimes the Sheriff hath been amerced for the default of the Wayliff of the Liberty; and therefore where two were indicted of Felony, and pleaded Not Guilty, the Sheriff returned certain persons, and by examination of the Justices it appeared that they had not sufficient Freehold, according to the Statute, and the Sheriff was amerced at five pounds, 38. Aff. 19. Br. Chal. 129.

pounds, the Sheriff said that the Waplift of the Franchise of Bury made the Return; whereunto Green Justice answered, That the King had no Minister but the Sheriff.

But note that in this Case the King was party, and where the King is a party, no Franchise shall be allowed, but the Sheriff himself ought to have served and executed.

Br. 14. 89.

The Sheriff returned upon a Capias, Mandavi Ballivo, &c. qui respondit quod cepit Corpus; and the prisoner appeared not at the day, the Sheriff was amerced; for where the Waplift made a false return to the Sheriff, and the Sheriff returned it (as quod cepit Corpus, and had it not at the day) yet the Waplift shall not be amerced, for that he is not the immediate Officer to the Court, but the Sheriff is the immediate Officer.

And yet there were sundry authorities to the contrary, sc. that in the former Case the Waplift of the Franchise was to be amerced, and not the Sheriff; and that the default was only in the Waplift, and not in the Sheriff: for upon such return of the Waplift (to the Sheriff) quod

Br. Return. 35. cepit Corpus, &c. The Waplift was bound to bring in the body into the Court at the day, or else to deliver the body to the Sheriff, and then the Sheriff was to bring in the body as the immediate Officer to the Court. Vide liber Intrac. tit. Capias div. 20. & Fitz. pr. 22.

87. 92. 94. 96. 99.

Br. 89.

But where the Waplift of the Liberty made an insufficient return to the Sheriff, and the Sheriff returned, he was amerced, and not the Waplift; for that the Waplift was not Minister to the Court, 20 E. 3. Fitz. Return. 113.

And therefore when the Waplift made an insufficient return, the Sheriff should have done well, and might have returned, quod nullum dedit responsum; for an insufficient answer or return, is as none. Fitz. Amerc. 1.

As in a Præcipe against two, the Waplift returneth one of them summoned, and the other not; this is no answer; and if the Sheriff return this, he shall be amerced, Br. 89.

2 H. 6. 9.

Br. 47.

So in an Assise the Sheriff returned, Mandavi ballivo, &c. qui mihi respondit, &c. and returned but nine Jurozs, and the Sheriff was amerced; for that he ought to have returned, quod mandavi, &c. qui nullum mihi dedit responsum.

3 H. 7. 12.

Br. 87.

So the Sheriff returned, Mandavi ballivo, &c. qui mihi respondit, that the Executors had no goods of the Testator, which return of the Waplift was contrary to the Verdict of the Jury (who had found assets, &c.) and therefore the Sheriff was amerced; for that the return of the Waplift appeared insufficient in Law, wherof the Sheriff ought to have taken notice, and in such case to have returned, quod ballivus non dedit responsum.

And yet in a Writ to enquire of Waste, the Sheriff returned, Mandavi ballivo Libertatis; qui mihi nullum dedit responsum. and the Sheriff was therefore amerced; for that the Sheriff (by this Writ) is made a Judge of the Cause, and might have entered the Franchise, &c. 11 H. 4. Fitz. Retor. 53.

But if the Waplift maketh a doubtful return, and the Sheriff returneth this, it seemeth he shall not be amerced, by the opinion of Vavifor. 5 H. 7. 27. Br. 89.

1 E. 3. cap. 5.

But now by the Statute made 27 H. 8. cap. 24. amerciament for insufficient returns of Writs, made by Waplifts of Liberties, shall be set upon the heads of such Waplifts, and not upon the Sheriff, nor upon the Lord of the Franchise, Dr. & St. 134.

Fait nul retourne

If the Sheriff will not return his Writ (in case of Redisseisin, or Uclary) the party may have a Certiorari, directed to the Sheriff, to command and cause him to return the Writ, and the Sheriff shall be amerced for such his fault and concealment. Dyer 223.

If a Capias, or other mean Process be executed, and not returned, the Arrest is tortious and a wrong; for the Arrest is made to that end that the Defendant should appear to answer to the Plaintiff in his action: But if an arrest be made by the Bayliff, and the Sheriff will not return the Writ, this laches of the Master shall not prejudice the servant; for the Bayliff cannot compel the Sheriff to return the Writ: but contrariwise of the Master himself, sc. if the Sheriff taketh one upon a Capias, and returneth not the Writ, an action of Faux imprisonment lieth against him, by him that was arrested, and the Plaintiff also shall have his remedy against the Sheriff, Littleton 18 E. 4. 9. Br. Tresp. 339. Br. False imprisonment 5. 7. & 12. ac'. And yet in the book of 13 H. 7. fol. 1. 2. this difference is taken, sc. that if the Bayliff of a Liberty by vertue of a Warrant from the Sheriff arrests a man, and after the Sheriff returneth Non est inventus, the Bayliff shall be discharged in an action of false imprisonment, for that he is not the Sheriff's Bayliff, but the Kings or some other Lords; but otherwise it is of the Sheriff's Bayliff, if he arrests a man by vertue of a Warrant from the Sheriff, and after the Sheriff returneth Non est inventus, this Bayliff is chargeable in an action of false imprisonment; for it shall be accounted his folly to do a thing by his Masters warrant or commandment, and then his Master will not return the Writ according to that which he hath done. See 21 H. 7. fol. 22. accord. that the Sheriff's Bayliff or servant is not bound to do any thing but that which his Master will justifie.

It hath been holden, that (upon a Fieri facias) the payment of the money by the Sheriff to the party Plaintiff, was to no purpose; for that the Defendant is a Debtor of Record, and therefore ought to be discharged upon Record: And for that purpose the Fieri fac. is, Ita quod habeas denarios hic, to the intent that the money should be paid to the Plaintiff in Court upon Record, and the Defendant discharged upon Record, and so the Sheriff must have made his Return. Vide 11 H. 4. Fitz. Bar. 183. & 19 E. 3. Fitz. Scire fac. 120. & hic cap. 30.

5. 90.

But in all writs of Execution (except an Elegit) as upon a Capias ad satisfaciendum, Habere facias seisinam, vel possessionem. Fieri facias, Liberate, &c. if the execution be duly done, although the writ be never Returned or Filled, it is no great matter, if the Plaintiff have his demand; for then he hath no cause to proceed any further therein: Yet in case of an Elegit, because the extent is to be made by an Enquest, and not by the Sheriff alone, that ought to be returned, or else it is nothing worth.

Co. 4. 67. a.

Also where no enquest is to be taken, but only land to be delivered, or seisin had, or goods to be sold, &c. which are but matters in fait, these are good although that the writ be not returned.

If upon a Capias to arrest one, the Sheriff shall execute it, and shall not return it, he is punishable; for that the Capias is conditional, by these words, Ita quod habeas corpus ejus hic tali die, &c. But in an Habere facias seisinam, the writ is to put the party in seisin without any conditional words; and therefore though he return not the writ, the Sheriff is excusable. 16 H. 7. 14.

Upon a second Deliverance if the Sheriff shall deliver the Cattel to the Plaintiff, and shall not return the writ, he is punishable. See hic cap. 73.

13 H. 7. 1.

Upon a Fieri facias, &c. if the Sheriff leviech the money or debt, but neither returneth the writ, nor payeth the money to the Plaintiff, he is chargeable to the Plaintiff in an action of account, &c. and to the Defendant in an action of Trespass. But if the Sheriff had payed the money to the Plaintiff, the execution had been good without return of the writ, Co. 5. 90. As also the Sheriff had been without danger to be sued either by the Plaintiff or Defendant.

And so note a difference between a Capias in Process, and a Capias ad satisfaciendum: sc. if the Capias in Process be not returned, the arrest is tortious; but if the Capias ad satisfaciendum be not returned, yet it is good, if the Execution be duly done, and the Plaintiff satisfied.

Co. 5. 90.

Note also, if the Sheriff upon a Fieri facias shall execute the writ, and levy the debt, but shall neither return the writ, nor pay the money to the Plaintiff, yet first the levying of the Debt was lawful, and the Defendant could not resist the Sheriff therein: Secondly, the Plaintiff may have a new Execution against the Defendant, and the Defendant is left to his action against the Sheriff: Thirdly, the sale of the goods (by the Sheriff) by force of the Fieri facias is good; and such as shall so buy the goods may lawfully enjoy them. And where the words of the writ of Fieri facias be, Ita quod habeas denarios, &c. they are but words of commandment to the Sheriff to make return, the which if he doth not, he shall be amerced therefore; but yet the execution shall stand in its force. Fitz. Scire Fac. 120.

Amerced

In an action of Disceit against the Sheriff, for that the party was outlawed at the Suit of the Plaintiff, and that the Sheriff (then Defendant) did not return the writ, to the damage of the Plaintiff, &c. the Sheriff pleaded that he had sent the Writ by A. B. his servant, towards the Court, and that one of them which were named if the Exigent did rob and take away the same Writ from his said servant by the High way, and it was holden to be no plea, but the action against the Sheriff to be maintainable. 41. Aff. pl. 12. Br. Action sur le case 121.

But note that in this former Case the Writ which was taken away from the Sheriffs servant, was through the default of the Sheriff; for it was taken away by one of the persons which were outlawed, whom the Sheriff ought to have taken and kept in prison, &c. Br. Bar. 68.

The head and chief Officer or Officers of every of the Kings Courts of Revenue, being of Record, shall have power and authority to set and assess reasonable Fines and Amercements upon any Sheriff, for not returning, or mis-returning of any Writ to them directed and delivered out of any of the same Courts, touching or concerning the levying or answering of any Issues, Rents, or Revenues, or of any Debt due to the King, &c. 7 E. 6. c. 1.

If any Writ of Proclamation (upon any Exigent) directed to any of the Sheriffs of any of the twelve Shires in Wales, or Counties Palatine, &c. be delivered to any of the said Sheriffs, or to his Deputy, and the same Sheriff do not make true Return thereof into such Court out of the which the said Writ of Proclamation shall be awarded, he shall forfeit for every default of non-return to the King and Informer five pound, &c. 1 Ed. 6. cap. 10. & 5 E. 6. c. 26.

If any such Writ or Writs of Proclamation directed to the Bishop or Chancellor of the Bishoprick of Durham, or County Palatine, be delivered unto any of the said Bishops for the time being, or (during the vacation of the said Bishoprick) to the Chancellor of the said County Palatine, for the time being, or to his or their Deputy, or Deputies in manner and form aforesaid, and the same Bishop for the time being, or (during the vacation of the said Bishoprick) the said Chancellor of the said County Palatine for the time being, do not make true return of every such Writ and Writs of Proclamation to them directed into such Court and Courts, out of which the said Writ or Writs of Proclamation shall be awarded; for every such default of non-return, every such Bishop for the time being, and (during the vacation of the said See) the said Chancellor so, the time being, so failing to make due Return, shall forfeit 5 l. to the King and Informer. 31 El. cap. 9.

And yet note that there be some Writs which need not to be returned; As upon a Recovery in a Quare Impedit, a Writ is awarded to the Bishop, &c. to remove the Incumbent, &c. this Writ is not returnable, ut dicitur. Dyer 260.

So upon a Recovery in a Quare Impedit, a Writ is awarded to the Bishop, &c. to admit the Clerk of the Plaintiff. Dyer 350.

Also the Writ de Returno habendo is not Returnable, Fitz. Replev. 3.

Also the Writ de vi Laica removenda, may be made Returnable, or not Returnable, Fitz. 54.

Also the Writ of Trespass, which is Wiscountiel, is not Returnable, Fitz. 85. g. And so of other Wiscountiel Writs. See hic cap. 113.

The Writ de Habere facias seisinam, is not Returnable, Termes del Lay. Tit Habere fac. seisin. Tamen vide hic cap. 63. divers Return de ceo.

And so in other Cases, except the Writ or Precept directed to the Sheriff requireth it, the Sheriff needeth not to make Return. Finch. 229.

Note that, if the Writ be Returnable, the day of the Return is appointed in the Writ. Finch. 237.

Also note, that it is no good Return for the Sheriff, that the party will not pay him his Fee (or costs, or charges) for executing the Process, and therefore he did not execute the Writ, or did not serve the Writ. 34 H. 6. Br. Ret. 10.

The Bishop is not bound to award his Inquiry of a Jure patronatus, (where the Church is Litigious) but where the party or his Clerk shall require it, and that at the costs of the party; or of his Clerk; for that he is a Judge in this Case, and therefore he is not to do it at his own costs and charges; but contrariwise where he is an Officer; for there when the Court writeth to him to certify Wastardy or Patrimony, or the like, he is to do that at his own costs and charges.

7 H. 6. 32.
8 H. 6. 3.
Br. 46.

Note that in some Cases, although the Sheriff serveth not, or executeth not the Process, but excuseth it by his return, it is good. As

1 In a Replevin the Sheriff returneth that the defendant claimeth property. Br. 46. Fitz. 77. c.

So in a Writ de Nativo habendo, if the Villain alledge to the Sheriff that he is free, and the Sheriff returneth this. Fitz. 77.

Ibid.

And so of other impediments which shall interrupt the Sheriff to make his return, or take the party.

2 The Sheriffs of London return their custom. See Br. Custom 23. & Retor. 40. & 46. & Fitz. Ret. 7. & hic c. 73.

3 The Sheriff of Chester, or of any other County Palatine, return that they have a County Palatine within themselves, &c. Br. 46.

Ibid.

4 Also where the Sheriff returneth Mandavi ballivo libertatis qui nullum dedit responsum, &c. here although the Sheriff served not, or executed not the Writ himself, but excuseth it by such his Return, shewing thereby why he hath not served it, yet it is good.

So where the Sheriff returneth Tarde.

So where the Sheriff returneth that the Plaintiff Non invenit plegios de prosequendo.

C A P. 39.

Return de Mandavi ballivo.

As the Sheriff is the immediate Officer of the King, and his Courts, to execute all Writs and Process, so to him all their Writs shall be directed, although it be of a matter or thing done within a Liberty or Franchise, in which case the Sheriff must write or send his Precept to the Bayliff of the Liberty, who must serve and execute the same (as servant to the Sheriff) and must make answer (or return) thereof to the Sheriff; but the Sheriff himself must make the Return of the Writ into the Court. 2 H. 6. l. 7. Finch 52.

And yet in a Writ of Redisselin, and in a Writ to enquire of waste, and such other Writs wherein the Sheriff is made Judge of the Cause, there if the Sheriff shall write to the Bayliff of the Liberty to execute the same, the Sheriff shall be amerced; for the Sheriff in such case must enter the Liberty, and execute such Writs himself, and must not return Mandavi ballivo libertatis: And so in other cases, as where the King is a party, &c. See hic c. 40. & 122.

For the forms of the Sheriffs Precepts or Warrants, to be made to the Bayliff of the Liberty, they are to be like to those which are made by by the Sheriff to his other Waplifts (which see hic c.) saving that where those are directed Ballivo hundred. de R. &c. these are directed Ballivo Libertatis de R. &c.

Now for the manner of these Returns de Mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c.

The Sheriff returneth Mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. he shall do well to shew cause (in such return) sc. Eo quod præd. terræ & tenementa sunt infra libertatem de, &c. And yet without cause shewed, such a return was allowed to be good. 1 H. 6. Fitz. Ret. 2.

The Sheriff returneth Mandavi J. B. ballivo libertatis de E. cui executio istius brevis pertinet, &c. whereas he should have returned, quod ballivus habet retorna omnium brevium, & executio eorundem, and it was moved that the Sheriff should have been amerced.

Mandavi B. ballivo honoris de T. parcel Ducatus Lancast. qui habet plenum retornum omnium brevium & executiones eorundem infra libertatem præd. & cui executio brevis illius totaliter restabat faciend. eo quod nulla executio inde in balliva mea extra libertatem præd. per me fieri potuit. Libr. Intr. 262.

The Sheriff returneth Mandavi A. D. ballivo libertatis Ducatus Lanc' &c. qui habet retorna omnium brevium infra libertatem prædictam, &c. Exception was taken against the Return, for that it was not ballivo libertatis Ducis Lanc' (for that the Duchy hath no capacity to have a liberty) but yet it was holden a good return: And so Mandavi ballivo libertatis Sancti Edmundi de Barie, and Mandavi ballivo libertatis Ducis Lanc' and the like, are good returns. Fitz. Ret. 24.

If the Sheriff shall return Mandavi ballivo libertatis, and shall not therein set down and return the proper name of the Waplift of the Liberty, it is not good; for that such Waplift is to be amerced for his default, which cannot be except his name be known to the Court; and his name cannot otherwise be known to the Court then by the Sheriffs return. Mich. 18 Jacobi Regis: And yet see 3 H. 6. Fitz. Ret. 3. if the Waplift in his Return hath certified or subscribed his name, the Court hath thereby sufficient knowledge, &c.

Where the Sheriff returneth Mandavi ballivo libertatis de S. and doth not shew to whom he is Waplift, or whose the liberty is, sc. ballivo. J. D. libertatis sue de S. yet it was holden to be a good return by three Justices in 1 H. 6. but there Hales Justice held the contrary, sc. that the Sheriff in his return ought to shew who is Lord of the Franchise. See 9 E. 4. 19. Br. 54. & Fitz. Ret. 2. 4. 31.

The Sheriff returned Mandavi tali, &c. qui habet retorna omnium brevium & executionem eorundem per chartam Regis. And for that the Waplift was not returned Waplift of some Franchise, or Lord, the Sheriff was amerced; quare and see the Statute of West. 2. c. 39.

The Sheriff returned Mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. and for that he did not return further that he had nothing within his Waplitwick, he was therefore amerced. 47 E. 3. f. 2.

If the Sheriff shall return Mandavi ballivo libertatis de D. who did nothing therein, whereas there is no such Liberty within the County, or nameth a Liberty which hath not Return of Writs, the Sheriff shall be punished as a disinheritor of the King and his Crown: And therefore it is ordained by the Statute of 13 E. 1. c. 39. (as a thing needful) for the Sheriff to have out of the Treasury of the Exchequer a note of all the Liberties within his County that have Return of Writs. Vide 13 E. 1. c. 39. Fitz. Ret. 40.

¶ Pr. Bracton, libro 5. c. 32. saith thus, Excusatur vicecomes multoties propter propter libertatem & impotentiam, quod libertates sine warranto ingredi non possit, nisi per defectum eorum qui libertates habent & retorna brevium per vicecom. & unde si præceptum sit vicecom. quod attachiet talem qui manens sit infra huiusmodi libertates, cum vicecomes ingredi non possit, faciat vicecomes retortia brevium ballivis præd. libertatis, & præcipiat ballivis quod tale præceptum Domini Regis exequantur, quo casu aut ipsi ballivi exequantur præceptum Domini Regis, aut nihil inde faciunt; Si autem illud plene fuerint executi, per hoc liberabitur vicecomes. Si autem nihil inde fecerint, sufficiat ad excusationem vicecomitis, quod mandet Justic. quod præceptum sit ballivis; Quo casu cum ballivi inde nihil fecerint, propter defectum eorum præcipietur vicecom. quod non omittat propter libertatem talem, quin attachiet, &c. talem quod sit, &c. Et sic poterit vicecomes libertates ingredi cum warrantum habuerit, quod alias ei non liceret.

Et in tiel cases brief isserra al vic. de enter le liberty, de executer le Proces, &c. & de Summoner le Bayliffs del Liberty quod sint coram Justic. responsur. quare præceptum Domini Regis non fuit execut. Et si forte cum vicecomes ingredi voluerit, hoc non ei permittatur propter potentiam ballivorum libertatis, præcip. (ut prius) vicecomes quod non omittat propter libertatem talem, quin attachiet, &c. talem in forma prædicta. Et si aliquem invenerit resistentem, assumptis secum (si opus fuerit) militibus & liberis hominibus de com. ad sufficientiam, capiat corpora hominum resistentium, & illos in prisona salvo custodiat, donec Dominus Rex inde præciperit voluntatem suam; & nihilominus Dominus libertatis attachietur quod sit ad prædictum diem ad defendendum se, si possit, de prædicta transgressione, ad quam quidem si advocaverit, vel defendere non possit, Capiatur illa libertas in manum Domini Regis pro voluntate Domini Regis detinenda, quia libertatem meretur amittere qui permissa sibi abutitur potestate. Bracton ibid.

This then being the ancient Common Law of the land, was afterwards (most of it) confirmed by the Statute of Westm. 2. (which Statute was made after the time that Mr. Bracton wrote) the effect of which Statute of Westm. 2. to this purpose, is as followeth:

13 Ed. 1. c. 9.

If the Sheriff doth return that he had directeth his Precept to the Bayliffs of some liberty (which indeed have return of Writs) which did nothing therein, then the Plaintiff shall have another Writ Non omittat. whereby the Sheriff shall be commanded that he shall not omit for any liberty aforesaid, but shall execute the Kings Commandment or Writ himself, and that he shall warn the Bayliffs to whom he returned the Writ, that they shall appear at a day contained in the Writ, to answer why they did not execute the Kings Precept; And if they do appear at the day, and do acquit themselves, that the Writ was not returned Mandavi ballivis libertatem. nor no Precept from the Sheriff made unto them, the Sheriff shall be forthwith condemned to the Lord of the same liberty, and likewise to the party grieved by delay, to restore him damages: but if the Bayliffs do not appear, and do not acquit themselves in form aforesaid in every judicial Writ, so long as that suit dependeth, the Sheriff shall be commanded that he spare for no liberty, &c. Westm. 12. 13 Ed.

12 E. 2. 5.

There shall be an Indenture made betwixt the Bayliff of the Franchise (which hath full return of Writs) by his proper name, and the Sheriff by his proper name, of every return which the Bayliff of any such Franchise shall make to the Sheriff: And if the Sheriff do change the return so delivered unto him by Indenture, and thereof be attainted as the suit of the Lord of the same Franchise from whence he hath received received the said return (if the Lord have received any damage, or if his Franchise be impaired) and at the suit of the party which hath received loss by this means, he shall be punished by the King for his false return, and also shall yield to the Lord and the party double damages. Stat. Ebor. 12 E. 2. c. 5.

Uncore si le vic. retourne auters persons (in un Pannell) que le Bayliff del Franchise ad retourne a luy, le retorn del vic. semble d'estre bon; mes le Bayliff del Franchise poert aver son action sur le case envers le vic. in tiel case. 30. Ass. 5. Br. Ret. 73.

The Sheriff returneth mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. who serveth Fitz. Ret. 41. and executeth the Process in part, this is not good; for that the Sheriff himself must execute or serve and return all, or the Wapstiff all. See 2 H. 4. 1. & 8 H. 4. 16.

For the Sheriff cannot serve a Writ in part, and write to the Wapstiff of a Liberty to execute the other part, because that the Writ is entire, and cannot be severed nor served by two Ministers or Officers: And therefore if the Sheriff (upon the Venire facias, or upon the Distring. Jurator. or habeas corpora Jurator.) shall return the Writ served by himself, as to part of the Juroz, and as to the rest, he shall return, Mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. the Sheriff shall be amerced for such his return. A Venire fac. was returned served by the Sheriff, and upon the Habeas Corpora the same Sheriff returned Mandavi ballivo libertatis, and this return was holden to be good by all the Justices: for if the Sheriff had done wrong at the first, yet he may amend it when he will; And also it may be that there was no Franchise at the time of the Venire fac. returned, and that there was at the time of the Habeas Corpora: Also it may be that the Juroz were then out of the Franchise, and after at the time of the Habeas Corpora were within the Franchise: Also it may be that the Juroz were sufficient within the Franchise, and not without. Vide 26 H. 6. Fitz. Ret. 19. ibid. 22. contr. But the Sheriff in his return must certify and shew some cause, &c. See Abr. d'Ass. 144. 145. hic postea & 8 R. 2. Fitz. Chall. 176.

So where the issue is of land part Guildable, and part in a Franchise, the Jury shall be returned part by the Sheriff, and part by the Bayliff of the Franchise, and so they may join in the return, But the Districts shall be by the Sheriff only, if the Bayliff of the Franchise shall be slack. The Sheriff maketh his Precept or Warrant to one who is no Bayliff of the Franchise, who returned the pannel, by reason whereof it was quashed, to the damage of the Plaintiff, &c. who brought his action of the case against the Sheriff, and recovered his damages, notwithstanding that this was done by the advice of the friends of the plaintiff, and so pleaded, and besides the Sheriff shall be amerced therefore.

The Sheriff (upon a Replevin) returneth Mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. Qui mihi nullum dedit responsum, or returns that the Bayliff will not make deliverance, &c. these are no goods returns, for the Sheriff (ex officio, as it seemeth in such cases) ought himself to have entered the Franchise, and to have made deliverance of the cattle, &c. Also note where the Sheriff serveth the Proces once of a thing local, as in a Præcipe of land, &c. he cannot after return Mandavi ballivo, &c. yet the Sheriff ought to take the pledges de prosequendo, and then may make his Mandavit, &c. ut super.

Pea wheresoever the Sheriff hath served the first Writ, he cannot (by some opinions) write after to the Bayliff of the Franchise, except in his return he sheweth some special cause. Vide Abr. d'Ass. 144, 145.

But in the former Book of 5 H. 7. Keble taketh this diversity, sc. between a thing permanent, and a thing removeable; for of a thing permanent, as in a Precept of Land, if the Sheriff hath served the first Process, he shall do ill, if afterwards he shall make his Precept to the Bayliff of the Liberty; for by his serving of the first Process he hath affirmed the Land to be within his Jurisdiction: But of a thing removeable, as a Trespass, or Debt, he may serve the Process; and when that cometh to the Capias, he may make his precept to the Bayliff of the Liberty, to take the body, for that the body is removeable, which diversity was affirmed by the whole Court.

C A P. 40.

Where the Sheriff is to enter the Franchise.

ALl Original Writs are to be directed to the Sheriff of the County (as is shewed here before, cap. 20. & 39.) yea although it be of a matter within a Franchise, in which case the Sheriff shall direct his Precept to the Bayliff of the Franchise, who is to serve and execute the same; But the Sheriff must make the Return of the Writ into the Court. 2 H. 6. fol. 7.

Key Party.

And yet note that wheresoever the King is a party, as in every Felony, or suspicion of Felony, or otherwise in any action, the Sheriff, ex Officio, is to enter the Franchise, and to execute and serve the Process himself, and is not to write to the Bayliff of the Franchise. Br. Franch. Pl. 243. Br. 18. 31. 38. Ass. 19. Br. Return. 78. Co 5 92. And yet if this clause, Licet fran. 31. fuerimus pars be in the Charter, then it seemeth otherwise.

On vicount est Judge.

In a Writ to enquire of Waste, the Sheriff returned Mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. qui nullum dedit respons. and the Sheriff was amerced; for that in this Writ he ought himself to have entered the Franchise; and to have executed the Writ ex officio, and without a Non omittas, &c. for that he is both a Judge and an Officer by the Stat. which is, quod accedat ad locum vastatum, &c. & ibi facere inquisitionem, &c. So in a Medietate; and in a Writ of Ward, &c. See more hic postea.

Sur default le Bayliff.

Also in other cases, upon the default of the Bayliff of the Franchise, the Sheriff is to enter the Franchise, and to execute the Process himself, or else he shall be amerced: As where the Sheriff Mandavit ballivo libertatis, and the Bayliff nullum dedit respons. See the Statute 13 E. 1. ca. 39. & hic postea tit. Bayliffs of Franchises. So where the Bayliff is a party.

So where a Distress is taken within a Franchise, and the Bayliff of the Franchise will not deliver them, then the Sheriff upon complaint to him made, may deliver them. Stat. Marlebr. cap. 21. N. Br. 44.

But in the former Cases where the Bayliff of the Franchise maketh default, it seemeth safest for the Sheriff to have a Writ with a Non omittas therein directed to him, commanding him to enter the Franchise, and to make execution of the Writ, before he may enter the the Franchise to execute the Process; for the words of the Statute of 13 E. 1. 39. are that the Sheriff shall be commanded, quod non omittat propter aliquam libertatem, &c. See Fitz. 68. f. 69. b. & 74. a. & 266. d. & P. Rector. 3. & Bracton hic c. 39.

And this Statute of Westm. 2. c. 39. (made Anno 13 Ed. 1.) doth give a Non omittas propter libertatem.

And by the Statute of Marlbr. cap. 21. & Westm. 1. cap. 17. (in fine) upon the default of the Bayliff, the Sheriff ought presently to enter the Franchise and make deliverance of the Distress taken, &c. Fitz. 68. f.

Iffint si plee de Withernam soit in le County Court sans brief, & le vic. maunde al Bayliff de Franchise de faire deliverance, & le Bayliff fait riens, adonqz le vic. potest ex Officio (sine breve) enter in le Franchise, & faire delivrance del Cattel: Fitz. 68. f. & Regill. 81, 82. & Nat. Br. 43.

Si le vic. retourn quod propter libertatem aliquam non possit hujusmodi averia Replegiare, tunc fiat breve de non omittas propter Libertatem. Regill. 82.

Mes vide ibid. que ceo nest pas tenuis in lin case ne l'auter sans brief.

La est in le Regill. un non Omittas propter Libertatem, quin ingred. & Cor-pus ejus Capias, & in prisona donec debitum satisfecerit, salvo Custodias, &c. fol. 151. b.

Un non omittas propter libertat. quin ingred. Et Capias in Withernam, do-nec, &c. cum pluries, fol. 82.

Un non omittas propter libertat. quin omnia bona & Catalla, & medietatem terrar. &c. sine dilacione liberari facias per rationabile precium, &c. Reg. Judic. fol. 5. b.

Also where the thing is Entire. See hic cap. 122.

Upon an extent of a Statute Merchant, if the Sheriff returneth that he directed his Precept to the Bayliff of some Franchise, he shall be punished, &c. Stat. de Mercatoribus hic cap. 24. whereby it appeareth that the Sheriff is to enter the Franchise, and to execute it himself, upon the body, lands, or goods of the Conusor being within the Franchise.

Also where the Bayliff of the Franchise maketh default, &c. and that a Non omittas be thereupon directed to the Sheriff, the Sheriff shall not only thereupon enter himself into the Franchise, and execute the Kings Writ, but the Sheriff also shall warn the Bayliff of the Franchise, that he be before the Justices at the day contained in the Writ; and if he come not and excuse himself, then all Writs Judicials issuing during the same Plea, shall be Writs de Non omittas, &c. and the Sheriff shall make execution of them, hanging that Plea. Termes de Ley.

But in other Cases where a man hath Liberty to return Writs, and to execute them, &c. if there the Sheriff or his Officer shall enter the Liberty without a Non omittas, and execute any Process there, although the same be good, for that the Sheriff is the immediate Officer, yet the Lord of the Liberty shall have his Action of the Case against him. Fitz. 95. b. See hic postea, cap. 112.

Bayliff of Fee.

Where there is a Bayliff of Fee, the Sheriff shall not return Mandavi Ballivo (as it seemeth) nor write to the Bayliff of Fee, as to a Bayliff of a Franchise or Liberty; but he shall send his precept to him as to the Bayliff of the Guildable: and the Sheriff shall return his answer, or make his return, as if the Sheriff himself had served the Proces, and shall not in his return make mention of the Bayliff of Fee, as he shall do of the Bayliff of a Liberty, And yet note that this Bayliff is an Officer of Fee within this Precinct; so that if such a Bayliff of Fee will not execute the Proces, a Non omittas shall not go out to the Sheriff, &c.

The Sheriff (as also the Bayliffs of Liberties which receive the Kings Writs returnable in his Court) ought to set their names to their return (sc. their surnames and Christian names, Plo. 63. a.) so that the Court may know of whom they took such returns, if need be: And this may seem to be by force of the Statute of 12 Ed. 2. cap. 5: Vide 8 H. 6. Fitz. Rector. 8.

Et encore dicetur que per le Common Ley le vic. doit mitter son Nomme sur chescun brief que il retorna, & que le dit Stat. 12 E. 2. done penalty vers le vic. si ne mitter son nomme al retourne: mes ceo Statute ne fait le Ley que le vic. doit retourne ceo, qu'il a fait le Ley devant.

And if any Sheriff or Bayliff do leave out his name in his return, they shall be grievously amerced, by force of the said Statute of 12 E. 2. Also by the opinion of Jenny, 9 E. 4. fol. 20. a Return without the Sheriffs name thereto, is void; and an Utlary was reversed for such cause, 26 H. 8. 3. Thel. 385. See Plo. 63. a. that the Writs are directed to the Sheriff of such a County generally, without naming his name, but he must put his name to the Return; and this was a common difference holden at Writs in Court and Chancery.

And yet if the old Sheriff returneth a Jury in issues, and the next Sheriff at the Distringas return the same Jury nihil, the last Sheriff shall be amerced; for he cannot return nihil, contrary to the former return of his Predecessor, but he ought in such case to pursue the last return; and if any Jury hath sold his land, or that it be recovered from him, or that the Jury was seized in the right of his wife, who after died without issue, or if the Jury had an estate conditional, and the condition be performed, and thereupon the Feoffor hath re-entered, or the like, in these cases the Sheriff ought to return the special matter, and to conclude, Et sic nihil habet: 19 H. 6. 38. And if the Sheriff shall return a man sufficient, upon the Venire fac. who is not (nor ever was) sufficient, whereby the next Sheriff is charged with the issues, he shall have an action of Disceit upon the case against his predecessor, for that he cannot return nihil contrary to the former return of his predecessor, by the opinion of Palton in the former book and case of 19 H. 6. (If it be in any real action; or in any action of Annuity, Covenant, Debt, or other Writ, where summons lieth:) And yet if there be no land whereupon the Tenant may be summoned, quare if this (Nihil) be a good return, except that the Sheriff returneth further, Nec est inventus, for that the Defendant may be summoned by his person. If it be in Trespass, or upon a Distringas, upon a Scire fac. or Fieri fac. and that the Defendant be insufficient, see in what manner those returns shall be made, hic postea c. 67.

But if the Sheriff will not make execution of the Writ, but will delay the same, then they will return it in one of these two sorts.

Responsio A. B. vic. Com. infra-script.

1. Infranominatus J.S. non invenit mihi Pleg. de prosequendo.

And note that in every Writ which hath therein this clause, (Si fecerit te securum de clamore suo prosequendo, &c.) there the Sheriff is to take sureties (or Pledges) of the Plaintiff, that he shall prosecute his suit; or otherwise the Sheriff needs not to execute the Writ, nor to make any Precept to the Wyliff to execute the same. Hic c. 52.

2. Illud breve mihi deliberat. fuit (or mihi venit) adeo tarde, quod illud exequi non potui propter brevitatem temporis

And it seemeth that the Sheriff may return Tarde, in every Writ except in an Attachment, and in a Capias. Hic 36 & 53.

But let the Sheriff beware in making of these two last manner of returns, that they be true; otherwise it is not only a breach of his Oath, but also he is punishable for such his false return.

Concerning Pledges. See plus hic c. 114.

Now it followeth to shew and set down the usual forms of Returns, &c.

The form of the Precept of the Judges, directed to the Sheriff to summon the Assizes, and Gaol-delivery, see in the Register of the Judicial Writs, f. 30. & liber Intrac. 443. with the return thereof.

And the Warrants which the Sheriff must make by vertue of this Precept (for the summoning of the Assizes) to the Waplifts of Liberties, and Waplifts of Hundreds, must contain in them the whole substance of this Precept: but whether it be in Latin or English, it is not material, so that it be made in due form: and it is needful that the Sheriff keep for himself a particular note of the names of such persons as he nominateth in his Warrant, to be summoned to serve in or upon the grand Jury, and not to leave it to the discretion of Waplifts to put in and out whom they list in that service.

And file a Schedule to the backside of this Warrant; in which Schedule may be set down the names of such as the Bayliffs shall warn for the Great Enquest by themselves, and for the Jury of Life and Death by themselves. These two last subscriptions, or the like, may be written under the former Warrant, and then the Warrant to be signed under the Sheriff or Under-sheriffs hand and seal of Office: Or else at the end of the Warrant (sc. under it) the Sheriff or Under-sheriff may set down the names and dwelling-places of such as he will have warned to serve in or upon the Grand Jury in particular; and he shall do well to keep a note of them, that he may be able to shew to the Court, if need require, who he had determined to have returned for that service, if they had come; and if the fault fall out to be in the Bayliff, then he shall be punished, and the Sheriff excused.

Note for this Great Enquest (or Grand Jury) it is meet that three or four be returned out of every Hundred: And the names of the Hundreded to be written in the Wargent of the Return, against the names of the Hundredors. CAP. 49.

Admeasurement.

IF a Writ of Admeasurement of pasture (which is vicontial) if the Writ be removed by a Pone into the Common Bank, and that the parties appear there; and agree that Admeasurement shall be made, then shall there go a Writ to the Sheriff commanding him to make Admeasurement; the which he must do by a Jury, and with them he must go in his own proper person to the common of pasture to be admeasured, as appeareth by the form of the Writ. Fitz. 162. b. But after that he and the Jury have come and seen the ground, it seemeth he may make his enquiry elsewhere; And he must return the same into the same Court by Indenture under his own seal, and the seals of the Jurors. Vide hic c. 93. & 113.

Et nota que in Admeasurement de pasture (Estant remove in Banco per Pone) le def. avera jour d'appcar, & sil n'appcar, dunque ierra le grand Distress, in quel tiel jour serra done que apres poet estre tent' deuz Counties. Et in chescun de les deux Counties publique proclamation serra fait (par le vic) que le def. venter a monstre pur que Admeasurement ne serra fait. Westm. 2. 7. hic c. 102. & 113. & Fitz. 125. h. (le forme de tiel brief.) N. bre. 72.

But if this Writ of Admeasurement of pasture be sued in the County before the Sheriff, he must first summon the parties, who may plead in the County; and if the defendant grants that Admeasurement shall be made, or pleads or shews no cause to the contrary, then the Sheriff shall give judgment that Admeasurement shall be made, and presently shall himself make Admeasurement thereof. And if the Common or ground be not sufficient so that all the commoners may have sufficient to their tenements, in such case the tenements shall be admeasured, having regard so that the Common will bear, so that every tenant shall be admeasured according to the bearing of his tenement. Et nul doit mitter plusieurs beasts en le common que suffist a manure son terre, &c.

Proclamari feci omnia & singula in breve præd. specificat. prout mihi interius precipitur.

The like return of Proclamation, &c. may be made (as it seemed) in breve de Comuni custodia, &c. but that there must be three Proclam. made, at three several County Courts. See hic c. 102.

44 E. 3. 11.
Br. Ret. 119.

In a Writ of Admeasurement of dower, the Sheriff returneth that the wife hath more then she ought to have, by forty shillings per annum, and this was holden to be no good return; for he ought to return two parts by it self, and the third part by it self, and their yearly values, and to leave to the Court to adjudge of the value. Admeasurement de dower.

Note that where the admeasurement of pastures, or dower, is made before the Sheriff (in his County) there the Sheriff himself is Judge, c. Fitz. Adm. 3.

In a Writ of Admeasurement of dower (which is vicountiel) if it be sued in the County before the Sheriff, all the lands which she hath in dower within the same County, shall be admeasured by the Sheriff, (i.e. all the lands which she hath by the indowment of the Guardian, or by the indowment of the Heir when the Guardian bringeth the action) 7 R. 2. Stat. Adm. 3. and the overplus shall be restored to the heir. Fitz. 148. f. See hic c. 113. plus.

But in this Writ of Admeasurement of dower, if the Writ be removed out of the County Court into the Common-Bank, &c. then the Sheriff cannot make Admeasurement, but first the Sheriff must go to the lands, and then the Sheriff ought to divide, and to praise the lands by a Jury of seven men, and to set down and to return in certain, how much the two parts are worth per annum, and how much the third part is worth per annum: And when that appeareth to the Justices, it shall be admeasured according to that which the Court shall think good. Vide Br. Adm. 2. tiel matter & Fitz. 148. h.

So that notwithstanding the defendants default of appearance, the Sheriff is not to make admeasurement, but to leave that to the Court or Justices.

Attachment.

Attachment. Pleg' infranom. J. D. } P. R. } This seems to be no good Return;
 } J. W. } for that the word Attach. is want-
 Sing. 5 E. 4. Br. Rector. 93.

But the Return ought to be after this manner :

Infranominatus J. D. Attachiatus est per Pleg. } P. R. &
 } J. W.

And upon the Attachment, the Sheriff may Return the Defendant attached by his goods, as followeth.

J. D. infranominatus Attach. est per unam Patellam precii 10 d. vel per unam vaccam precii 30 s.

Also if the Sheriff shall make Garnishment, or but give warning to the Defendant, or Tenant, to appear and answer, &c. it seemeth to be good. Br. Attach. 9.

But in all cases where the Sheriff shall return Nihil habet in balliva mea per quod potest Attachiari, ou Summoniri, it seemeth there also the Sheriff ought to return further, Nec est inventus in eadem : And thus, Ideo Manucaptus est, or Attachiatus est per Plegios, &c. Fitz. Rector. 57.

Infranom. J. D. nihil habet in balliva mea per quod Attachiari potest : Nihil. Nec est inventus in eadem.

Aliter, Infranominati, A. B. & J. D. attachiati sunt, & uterque eorum per se attachiatus est, videlicet dict. A. B. per unum equum precii 10 s. & predict. J. D. per unum bovem, pretii 30 s.

And wheresoever the Writ is Pone per vadios & salvos Plegios, the Sheriff may Attach the Defendant by Pledges (or Sureties) or may Attach him by his goods. Fitz. Rector. 57.

But where the Process is to Attach a Clerk, there the Sheriff must Summon him by his person, or else by his Land (if he hath any Lay Fee) but he may not Attach him by his goods. 32 H. 6. Fitz. Rector. 23. & Finch. 135.

Note where the Sheriff attacheth one by goods, he ought to return the certainty of the goods, and also the value of the goods (and it is not sufficient for the Sheriff to return that the party is attached by goods to such a value, but must shew what the goods be in Specie) the reason is for that if the defendant appeareth not, then the goods attached be forfeit to the King, and except the Sheriff in his return expresseth the goods attached certainly and in Specie, they of the Exchequer cannot make out their Writs for the same. Vide Dyer 199. Pl. 54.

Also where the attachment is made of a living thing (or things) it must be pretii, and so of a dead thing in the singular number; but if it be of dead things in the plural number, then it must be ad valentiam, and not pretii.

Attachment sur Appel.

Non est inventus, is a good return in an attachment sur appel de mort, ou de Robbery.

J. F. quæ fuit uxor D. F. infranom. non invenit mihi pleg' de prosequend. Ideo ad executionem istius brevis nihil per me actum est. Plegii de prosequend.

Retorne sur attachment, Mancapius est per, &c. Intr. 84.

Now the form of every Original Writ is in this manner, Si A. fecerit securum de clamore suo prosequendo, &c. whereby the Sheriff is commanded, that if the Plaintiff finds him Pledges, (sc. any men to be his Sureties) that he will prosecute the Suit, then to execute the Process (as in the Writ is mentioned) against the Defendant, to be before the Judges at a certain day, to answer thereto, &c. Finch. 53.

And therefore the Sheriff must take such Pledges of the Plaintiff, and must return them; and if the Plaintiff will not find Pledges, the Sheriff may return, quod nihil fecit, quia petens non invenit sibi plegios, &c. 1 E. 3. Fitz. Pledges 14.

Also in every Writ, which hath therein this clause expressed (sc. si A. fecerit te securum de clamore suo prosequendo,) the Sheriff may delay the Plaintiff by making this Return following; Infranomatus A. R. non invenit mihi pleg' de prosequendo istud breve. Ideo ad executionem ejusdem nihil per me actum est: or he may execute the Writ, without any Pledges, &c.

Note also that the Sheriff is not to return the names of any as Pledges (either for the Plaintiff, or Defendant) except they consent and agree thereto: Stat. 27 E. 1. c. 2. and if he do, shall be grievously punished: and yet for the Plaintiff the Sheriff returneth two common Pledges; or at least the entry is so. Finch. 53.

Also note that the King, nor Queen (in regard of their dignity and prerogative;) neither Infants shall find any Pledges de prosequendo, &c. Fitz. 31. f. Br. Pledges 29.

Also in a Quid juris clamat, Scire fac. or per quæ servitia, the Plaintiff shall find no Pledges, Co. 8. 61. Fitz. Pledges 1.

Note that the Sheriff must take Pledges of the Plaintiff for the pursuing of his suit; otherwise the plaintiff in many cases may be nonsuit without danger: and the Sheriff for not taking Pledges shall be amerced. Fitz. Pledges 1. & 7. But though there be no Pledges returned, yet the Writ being served, it is well enough: Fitz. Pledges 10. For the returning of Pledges seemeth to be but matter of form; and the plaintiff may find Pledges at any time, hanging the Writ. 18 E. 4. Br. Pledges 21.

These Pledges de prosequendo may be found in the Chancery, and how, and by whom, vide the Register, fol. 228. & Finch. 53.

Les Pledges de prosequendo, si ne sont troves al vic', ou in le Chancery devant, poient estre trove in le Court, ou le brief est retorne. Finch. fol. 53. On poient estre trove al Assises al vic. Fitz. Pledges 7.

Et coment que ceo soit forsque matter de forme, encore si le plt. ne trove Pledges al primes, ne al daren, quare si ceo ne soit error.

Et per ascuns le def. ne poiet appear, nec nest compel d'appear, devant que le plt. ad trove Pledges, 22 H. 6. Br. Pledges 32.

Note that where a Writ cometh to the Sheriff, which ought to be served by the Bayliff of a Franchise or Liberty, the Sheriff ought first to take Pledges (of the plaintiff) de prosequendo, before he writes (or makes his precept) to the Bayliff to serve the Writ; and then (after Pledges so taken by the Sheriff, and his precept directed to the Waplift) all the further execution of the Writ doth appertain unto the Waplift: And the Sheriff may return the Pledges, and the Waplift may return all the rest. 22. Ass. pl. 3. Br. Pledges 15. & 21 H.7. fol.14. Quære concerning the return by precepts.

But if the Balliff of the Liberty shall take the Pledges de prosequendo, the Sheriff shall be therfore amerced, &c. And therfore the Sheriff needs not make any precept to the Waplift of the Liberty, to execute the Writ, until the plaintiff hath first found sureties before the Sheriff himself. 14 H. 6. Fitz Amerc. 2. Br. Ret. 61.

And yet by some opinions, the Waplift may take Pledges de prosequendo, well enough. 22. Ass. pl. 3.

Superfed. sur Capias.

Virtute istius brevis vobis certifico quod postquam istud breve mihi liberat' fuit ad capiend. R. T. & alios defendentes in isto brevi specificat', idem R. & alii infranominati protulerunt mihi breve Domini Regis de superfed. quod huic brevi est consut. virtute cujus superfed. omnino Infranominatus R. T. deliberavit mihi breve Domini Regis de superfed. quod quidem breve huic brevi est annex. Ideo ulterius ad executionem istius, Nihil per me actum est.

These two last seem to be good Returns, if the Superfedee be delivered to the Sheriff (or Officer) before the party be arrested, &c. But if he be arrested or taken upon the Capias, and after he delivers a Superfed. of an older date to the Sheriff, now the Sheriff may not deliver him; for it was his fault not to deliver the Superfed. before he was arrested. 19 H. 6. 43. And now upon the return of the Sheriff he shall be delivered by the Court. Crompt. 145. vide Fitz. Ret. 16.

Superfed. post cepi corpus.

Virtute istius brevis mihi directi Cepi corpus infranominati B. C. qui postea protulit mihi breve Domini Regis de Superfed. mihi directi, & huic brevi consut'; Ideo corpus suum coram Justic' infra script. ad diem & locum infracontent' habere non possum prout interius mihi præcipitur.

And yet this last seems to be no good return, for that the party is still adjudged a prisoner, for that he was once taken, and therefore the Sheriff was to be amerced for such a return. Vide Fitz. Ret. 16.

But these Writs (of Capias, &c.) are seldom or never used to be returned by Sheriffs; for Attornies do use to return them themselves; but that must be done with the leave and sufferance or consent of the Sheriffs, otherwise the Attornies cannot justify the setting of the Sheriffs name to their Writs.

Tarde.

Upon a Capias de Appel de mort, the Sheriff returneth quod breve 8 H. 4. 21. adeo tarde sibi venit quod illud exequi non potuit propter brevitatem temporis, and it was holden to be a good return. Br. 34.

But upon a Capias (ad respond. &c.) Tarde is no good return, for the manifold mischiefs which may follow thereon; and therefore in such cases the Sheriff shall be amerced if he returns a Tarde. 2 H. 4. & 21 H. 6. Fitz. Ret. 37. 42.

Mortuus.

Upon a Capias the Sheriff returneth that the party is dead; quere if this be a good return. Br. 125.

But in a Præcipe quod reddat, as also in a Scire facias, and upon a Corpus cum causa, it is a good return that the tenant or party is dead. Br. Ret. 125.

If the Sheriff returns that the party is dead in prison, he must further ther shew that the Coroner had the view of the body, &c. 3 H. 5. Fitz. Ret. 107.

Upon a Capias the Sheriff returned quod cepi corpus, and yet hath not the body in Court at the day of the return, he shall be amerced: and if it were upon a Capias ad satisfaciendum, the Plaintiff may have his action against the Sheriff for the debt, as upon an escape; for by such return the Sheriff hath concluded himself.

Upon the Capias the Sheriff returneth cepi corpus, & quod est languidus in prisona; this is a good return, if it be true that the party is sick indeed; and yet upon such a return quod languidus est in prisona, a Duces tecum may be awarded to the Sheriff to bring in the prisoner, or else the defendant if he will appear, shall be received so to do. Br. 223

The Sheriff upon a Capias returned Mandavi ballivo, & quod ipse cepit corpus, sed illud hic habere non potest quia languidus est, &c. And the Court being informed that he was not sick, a Writ was directed to the Bayliff to return the body, and to appear; and upon examination it was found that the party was not sick, whereupon the Bayliff was fined, and committed to the Fleet.

And our books seem to vary in this point, some allowing the Sheriff's Return, quod cepi corpus, sed non possum habere per malady. Vide 22 E. 3. Fitz. Ret. 94. But 31 E. 3. Fitz. Ret. 85. the Sheriff for the like return, was amerced.

Upon a Capias the Sheriff returned that the Defendant was so sick, that he could not take or carry him out of his house for danger of death, and it was adjudged a good return. Fitz. Ret. 105. & 122.

The Sheriff being commanded to have the body at a day, returned quod languidus est, and the return was holden to be nought, and the Sheriff was amerced. 41 E. 3. Fitz. Ret. 71.

And yet the Sheriff may keep the body after the day of the Return, for he is chargeable to bring him in by his own return.

If a writ of execution shall come to the Sheriff against a prisoner (in the Gaol) who is attainted of Felony, here the Sheriff may return that the prisoner is attainted, and that therefore he cannot take him in execution; but if the Sheriff shall serve the execution upon such a prisoner, and after the prisoner getteth his pardon for the Felony, yet if the Sheriff shall suffer his prisoner to go at large, the Plaintiff at whose suit the execution was, may bring his action of debt upon the escape against the Sheriff, and shall recover; for although by the attainder the execution were suspended, yet by the pardon it was revived: it was the case of one Croft a prisoner in Newgate. Virtute istius brevis mihi directi feci quoddam warrant^{us} cuidam R. P. Aliter. ballivo meo hac vice itineranti, ad capiend. & arrestand. infranom. T. L. secundum exigentiam istius brevis; qui quidem R. P. virtute warrant^{us} prædict^{us} postea, scilicet secundo die Maii anno Regni Domini Regis infrascript^{us} vicesimo, apud B. in comitatu prædicto cepit corpus infranom. T. L. de B. præd. in dicto comitatu Cantabr. Qui quidem T. die, anno, & loco supradict^{us}, vi & armis in præf. R. P. ball. meum prædict. insult^{us} fecit, & ipsum verberavit, vulneravit, & maletractavit, ita quod de vita ejus desperabatur. Et idem T. adtunc & ibidem à custodia præd. ballivi mei, & contra voluntatem suam recessit, escapiavit, & recussum fecit contra pacem dicti Dom. Regis nunc, &c. Et postea idem T. L. non est inventus in ball^{us} mea.

Virtute istius brevis feci quoddam warrant^{us} meum W. H. ballivo hundred. de H. qui mihi sic respondit, quod ubi ipse virtute warrant^{us} præd. ball^{us} Hundr. decimo die S. anno Regni Dom. Regis infrascript^{us} vicesimo apud C. cepit quendam J. S. & ipsum usque in castrum Dom. Regis de C. ducere voluisset, ibidem salvo custodiend^{us} quodque illuc vener. quid. J. T. & R. Et ulterius vobis certifico, quod post præd. decimum diem, &c. prædict^{us} J. S. non fuit invent^{us} in balliva mea.

Virtute istius brevis mandavi J. S. ballivo meo libertat^{us} de D. in com. But for these former Returns of a Rescous (by some opinions) it seems they are not good, and that the Sheriff shall be amerced for such Returns; for the Sheriff is to bring the party at his peril, if it be in time of Peace: And he might have taken Poss. Comitatus, to have aided him therein; And besides, the Sheriff may have his Writ of Rescous against the Offenders, and shall recover to much as he was amerced. Vide 16 E. 3. Fitz. Reton. 110. & hic cap. 30.

And yet where the Sheriff shall return that the party hath been Rescued, &c. per ignotos, it seemeth the Return to good; for then it doth not appear that he can have any Writ of Rescous: Fitz. Ret. 110.

Capias Excommunicatum.

The Sheriff (or other Officer) to whom such Writ of Excommunication. Capiend.) or other process shall be directed, needs not bring the body into the Kings Bench at the day of the Return; but shall only return the Writ thither, with Declaration briefly in what manner he hath served and executed the same. Stat. 5 Eliz. 23.

If the Sheriff, &c. shall return Non est inventus, then a Capias shall be awarded with a Proclamation therein, commanding the Sheriff, &c. in the full County Court, or at the Assizes, or Quarter Sessions, to make open Proclamation, ten days at least before the Return thereof, that the party yield his body to prison within six days: And after the six days, the Sheriff, &c. shall make return what he hath done thereupon, &c. (the offenders to forfeit 10 l. for such default.) And so a Capias Infinitæ shall go out with like Proclamation; and a forfeiture of 20 l. for every other default, to be presently estreated, &c. Ibid.

If the Offendor yield his body, the Sheriff, &c. shall presently commit him to prison, there to remain without bail, &c. Ibid.

If the Sheriff, &c. do make an untrue Return upon any Capias in f f a Writ

a Writ de Excom. Cap. That the party hath not yielded his body upon any Proclamation made, where indeed he hath yielded; &c. he shall forfeit to the party grieved, 40 l. &c.

Also note that if a Rescous be made to the Sheriffs Servant, Wayliff Errant, or other Officer, it shall be returned as done unto the Sheriff himself; for the arrest is the act of the Sheriff himself, and therefore the Rescous to the servant is a Rescous to the Sheriff himself. Br. Rector. 66. 17 Eliz. Dyer 241. accordant. But if it had been the Wayliff of a Franchise or Liberty, the Return had been good; or else the Sheriff might there have returned, Quod nullum dedit respons. Dyer 241.

And yet I have seen the report of a Case in Banc. 31 Eliz. where the Sheriff returned a Rescous, Quod Mandavit ballivo hac vice tantum, qui cepit corpus, & Ad rescous luy del Wayliff; and exception was taken to his Return, and the former Book, 39 H. 6. alleged: But the Court held the Return to be good enough, by divers Presidents; for notwithstanding that the Rescous to the servant, or Wayliff, be a Rescous to the Master himself; so as he may return it in his own name if he will; yet that is not compulsory, but that he may return it in the name of his Wayliff.

CAP. 55.

Capias ad valentiam.

UPon this Writ the Sheriff is to summon the def. (sc. the vouchee) to be before the Justices at the day mentioned in the Writ, &c. And he is to return the name of the Summoners.

The Sheriff is also to seize the Lands of the Vouchee (sc. to such a proportion as the Writ mentioneth) into the Kings hands, by the view and valuation of lawful men of that County, and is to return the certainty of the Lands, and the day of such his seizure, together with the names of those viewors; and of the Summoners, under his seal, as it seemeth by the form of the Writ. Regill. 12.

And this seizure must be of such Lands and Tenements of the Defendant (or Vouchee) as he hath in Fee-simple by Purchase, or as shall descend to him in Fee-simple. Ibid.

Upon this Writ against divers, the Sheriff returned that one of them had nothing, &c. And that of the other he had taken according to the proportion: But for that the Sheriff cannot appportion without a Warrant, he was amerced. Fitz. Ret. 93.

cap. 56. Clericum.

Fr. 124.
Fitz. 23.

In a Scire facias against a Chaplain (or Clerk that is beneficed) upon a Recovery in a Quare impedit, the Sheriff ought not to return quod Clericus est beneficiatus nullum habens laicum feodum, &c. for this is not to be returned, but where a Distring. or Capias in debt, or trespass goeth out, which are a coercion: But in a Scire facias the Sheriff hath nothing to do but only to warn the party by his person: And yet if in a Scire facias the Sheriff returns, quod est Clericus beneficiatus, nullum habens laicum feodum, &c. Et quod non est inventus, &c. this is a good return; for then he cannot be summoned, if he can neither be found, nor hath lay-fee.

The Sheriff returneth that the Parson ante adventum brevis, or post receptionem brevis, or before the return of this Writ, had resigned his Benefice, &c. Et quod non habet nec habuit bona neque catalla infra, &c. these seem to be good returns. See 2 E. 4. fol. 1. Br. 94. & 2 H. 7. fol. 10. sed 39 H. 6. Fitz. Ret. 30. contra.

In trespass, or debt, against a Clerk, Nihil habet, is a good return: And in a Fieri fac. to have execution of arrerages of an annuity, the Sheriff ought to return, quod nihil habet post receptionem brevis. Fitz. Retorn. 30.

In a Quid Juris clamat, the Sheriff ought not to return, quod clericus est non habens laicum feodum, but he ought to distrain him upon the Land in demand. Fitz. Ret. 59.

But note that Clerks or Ecclesiastical persons (in most cases) upon Process out against them, are to be summoned (or warned) by their person; or else if they have any lay-fee, by their land: And if the Officer cannot find him to summon him by his person, nor that he hath any lay-fee whereupon to summon him, then the Sheriff may return, quod est Clericus beneficiatus, Nullum habens laicum feodum, &c. Nec est inventus, &c. Et donques le pl. avera brief al Evêque que il face vener son Clerk; & le Evêque luy fera a vener per sequestration del Eglise.

A corpus cum causa went out of the Kings Bench to the Sheriff of York, to have a prisoner in his custody in the said Bench at a certain day; and the Archbishop of York being President there, commanded the Sheriff that he should not deliver the prisoner, &c. and all this matter was returned by the Sheriff; and it was holden that the Sheriff should be grievously amerced for not executing the Writ; for he should have taken Posse Comitatus, &c. CAP. 57.

Ætate probanda.

IF a Writ de Ætate probanda awarded to the Sheriff, to enquire of the age of the Kings Ward (who is come to his full age) it is required by Law, that every one that shall paise in that Enquest shall be of the age of 42 years: The Law intending thereby that they and every one of them should be of full age, at the birth of such Ward, because that such (in all likelihood) have better knowledge therein then others of lesser age have, or can have. And the Veir that is in Ward, is to enform the Enquest by certain signs and tokens of the time of his birth: Come adire, que in nisme Pan, la fuit un grand tempest, ou Un grand Plague, vel simil. which signs he might hear from his Parents, &c. And which signs so given in evidence shall also be returned by the Sheriff, as well as the principal matter. 21 R. 2. Fitz. Livery 5. & Stamf. 79. & Br. Jurors 42.

But Quere whether this be so in use at this day, or no: Or whether the Church Book where he was Baptized, be not a more material and more sufficient proof of his age; and so that it now shall not be so needful to have the whole Enquest of the age of forty three years as aforesaid. Vide Fitz. 257. the form of the Writ directed to the Sheriff to return a Jury before Commissioners to this purpose: But yet again the form of the Writ directed to the Clcheator in such Case, seemeth to imply that the Jurors should be of such age or years, that they may have knowledge of the birth and age of the Ward; the same Writ being in these words, Precipimus quod, &c. probationem illam per Sacram. pro-proborum hominum, &c. per quos probatio illa Capi, & veritas etatis melius sciri poterit & inquiri Capias, &c. Fitz. 253. 254. Old Na. Br. 159.

Upon an Elegit against him that hath two Mannors, the Sheriff may deliver the one Mannor to the Plaintiff in the name of the moiety of all, and is not bound to deliver the moiety of each Mannor; And so of two acres of land; but this seemeth to be where the two Mannors or two acres be of equal value. Br. Elegit 14. 12 E. 4.

Sur Elegit, par ceo que appiert sur le Inquisition que le def. ad convey son terr. al auter sur condic. &c. Et uncore prist les profits continualment, le vic' retourne que il & le Jury (sur ceo trouve) sont in doubt si le terr. serra extend. & preyonnt discretion des Justices. Dyer 295.

Brief de extent fait azard tempore Mariæ, & le brief execute per inquisition in vie le Royne, mes devant le retourne et devy, & le vic. retourne ceo; quere si le retourne ne soit sans garrant. Dyer 206.

The Sheriff may return the extent for lands, and no goods. Or may return the extent for goods, and that the party had no lands. Libr. Intr. fol. 261, 262.

The Sheriff may return Mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. ibid.

He may return quod J. S. infranom. Nulla habet bona neque catalla in balliva mea, quæ C. N. infranom. per aliquod precium deliberari facere possum, ibid.

Or thus (as the case may be) sc. Nulla habet (or habuerit) bona neque catalla in balliva mea, tempore Judicii (unde infra fit mentio) reddit. nec postea: or tempore captionis inquisitionis illius, nec tempore recuperac. præd. or Quarto die M. ult. præterit. in brevi specific. Quo die idem breve emanavit, nec unquam postea. Ibid.

Sur Elegit le vic. retourne, que il ad extend le terre le def. mes ne poet deliver ceo al plt. in tant que un auter ad ceo in extent devant, ceo semble bon retourne: Et uncore le vic. pouvoit aver seise le terre & deliver ceo (sc. le reversion cum acciderit) al plt. nient obstant que fuit in extent devant (come semble) fuit le casé d'un Palmer in Banco Regis circa. 30 Eliz. vide Fitz. Retor. 112. hic return de extent.

Auxi si A. soit indebt al B. & son terre soit in execution per Elegit (sc. le moiety del ceo) & après le Roy, ou auter person ad auter execution pur son debt, vers le dit A. icy le vic. poet deliver al Roy, ou auter person, le second moiety, & auxi le rever' del primer moiety cum acciderit.

Note that upon an Elegit, the extent and valuation of the lands, and the pricing of the goods, must be by an Enquest (sc. per Sacramentum 12. proborum & legalium hominum) and not by the Sheriff himself; although the Writ speaketh of no Inquisition. Vide Co. 4. 74.

Upon an Elegit the Sheriff returned that he had delivered to the Plaintiff goods and chattels of the Defendants, ad valentiam 20 l. per rationabile pretium, and shewed what the goods were in certain; and also that he had delivered twenty acres of land of the Defendants, quæ est medietas omnium terrarum, per rationabile extentum; but returned no

no inquisition, sc. per Sacramentum 12. &c. and it seemeth by the Court there, that the extent ought to have been by inquisition, &c. and that the Sheriff himself cannot extend it. Dyer 100.

Also upon an Elegit the Sheriff is to make execution by mects and bounds.

Upon the Elegit the Sheriff may return Nihil (Fitz. Execution 52. 58. Br. Excc. 64. 72.) or he may return that he hath extended the land of the Defendant, but that he cannot deliver the same to the Plaintiff, for that another had the same in extent before. Vide hic c. 28. & 26.

Deliberat. post extentam factam super obligat. Statuti Stapule.

Virtute, &c. liberavi infranominat. B. S. maneria, terras, & tenementa infra-script. habend. sibi & assign. suis, ut liberum tenementum suum quousque sibi de debito infra-scripto, una cum dampnis, milis, & expensis suis plenarie fuerit satisfact. prout, &c.

Fitz. 266. c.

Upon an Elegit the Sheriff returneth, that the Conusor hath made a feoffment of divers parcels of his lands to divers Tenants, &c. and of all the residue that he hath infeoffed the King, the Kings lands are to be discharged, &c. But upon a Scire facias to warn the other tenants to come at a certain day to shew cause why their lands shall not be put in execution, if the Sheriff returneth them Garnie, if they shew not cause to bar the execution, their lands shall be extended, &c.

Brief de Estrepiement.

Note that the Sheriff by force of this Writ may resist them which are about to (or would) make waste; and if otherwise he cannot stay or restrain them from making waste, he may imprison them, and may make his Warrant to others to imprison them; And if it be needful, he may take Posse comitatus for his aid. Co. 5. 115.

Et ceo brief de Estrepiement gist in action de Wast. cibien al ascun temps devant judgment, come apres judgment, & devant execution, Car il ne poet recover damages pur plus que il ad contain in son count, & il ne poiet assign ascun wast fait apres le brief purchasé. Foliambes Case, Co. part 5.

A. in dicta balliva mea: Quæ quidem extent. huic brevi est annex. ac etiam omn. terras & tent. prædict. in eadem extent. specific. una cum dampnis & custag. suis rationabilibus levavi, juxta formam statuti inde editi & provisi, & secundum formam hujus brevis.

Upon

Upon an extent of a Statute Merchant, or Staple, the Sheriff may return that the debtor is a Clerk, hic cap. 24, 25.

Upon an extent of a Statute Merchant if the Sheriff returneth quod breve tarde venit, or returneth that he directed it to the Bayliff of some Franchise, the Sheriff shall be punished. See hic c. 24. Stat. de Mercatoribus; tamen vide Libr. Intrac. f. 595. c. Lon sur Capius sur Stat. Merchant, le Vic. retourne, Mandavi ballivo libertat. and also returned Tarde.

Quod distrinxit partem per frumentum, vel per alia cattalla, ad quod Aliiter. non invenit emptores, semble bon Retourne Fitz. 133 b.

Upon a Writ of Extendi facias, the Sheriff may return the special matter, sc. that he cannot make execution, for that another hath those lands in execution by force of an Elegit, &c. Or that another is in by descent, &c. for that they are not to be put out of possession, without a Scire facias, &c. Fitz. Ret. 112. & execution 97.

Upon a Writ of Execution upon a Statute Merchant, it hath been holden a good return, that the party hath no land, but only in ancient Demesne. 15 E. 3. Fitz. Ret. 109. Tamen quære inde; for by the book of 7 H. 7. fol. 10. Lands in ancient Demesne may be put in execution upon a Stat. Vide hic c. 26.

Upon an Extendi facias the Sheriff returneth that the Conusor is dead, and also an inquisition of the extent of the lands of the Conusor; but in the inquisition no certain estate is returned; but generally that the Conusor fuit seiscitus die Recognitionis fact. de Maner. de B. without shewing of what estate; and this return was holden to be uncertain, insufficient and void; for that the word Seiscitus, may be for life, or in Fee-tail, in which cases the land after the death of the Conusor is not extendable; and therefore in case where the death of the Conusor appears in the return, there of necessity his seisin must be found to be of an estate of Fee-simple only. Dyer 299.

Upon an Extendi fac upon a Statute Staple, the Sheriff extended the lands of the Defendant, and praised his goods, and seized them into the Kings hands, according to the Writ, (but delivered them not to the Conusor, which he needeth not to do until a Liberate cometh to him; yet he ought to have returned the extent and praisement.) And after a Writ of Prærog. came out of Exchequer, commanding the Sheriff to levy first 100 l. for the King, &c. And the Sheriff returned the special matter upon the Writ out of the Exchequer, &c. Et ideo nihil inde fecit, &c. And the Sheriff was therefore amerced, and was compelled to return the extent in the Exchequer for the Kings debt. Vide Dyer 67. & hic c. 25.

Upon an Extendi fac. upon a Statute Merchant, the Sheriff returned that he had extended the lands, but did not return that he had delivered them to the Plaintiff: whereupon it was moved that the Sheriff should be amerced. Fitz. Execution 38. & Fitz. Scire facias 117. & Fitz. Exec. 73.

CAP. 59.

Retorne de Exigent.Exigent.

Virtute istius brevis mihi directi, ad com. meum tent. apud castrum Cantab. in com. Cantab. infra-script. die Lunæ videlicet decimo die J. anno Regni Domini Regis infra-script. xix. infranominat. J. C. & cæteri defend. infranominat. (if there be above two) primo exacti fuer. & non comperuer. nec aliquis eorum comperuit, ad com. meum ibidem tent. die Lunæ videlicet viccesimo die A. anno supradict. prædictus J. C. & cæteri defend. infranominat. secundo exact. fuer. & non comperuer. nec aliquis eorum comperuit, Ad com. meum ibidem tent. die Lunæ videlicet decimo die S. anno prædict. prædict. J. C. & cæteri defend. infranominat. tertio exact. fuer. & non comperuer. nec aliquis eorum comperuit, Ad com. meum ibidem tent. videlicet duodecimo die O. anno prædict. prædictus J. C. & cæteri defend. infranominat. quarto exact. fuer. & non comperuer. nec aliquis eorum comperuit, Et ad com. meum ibidem tent. die Lunæ videlicet tertio die N. anno prædict. prædict. J. C. & cæteri defend. infranominat. quinto exact. fuer. & non comperuer. nec eorum aliquis comperuit, Ideo prædict. J. C. & (or name them all) cæteri defend. infranominat. per Judicium J. W. & W. Ri. gen. Coron. dicti Domini Regis com. prædict. secundum legem & consuet. Regni Domini nostri Regis Angliæ utlagat. sunt & quilibet eorum utlagat. est.

Aliter.

Virtute istius brevis mihi directi, ad com. meum tentum apud C. in comitatu C. infra-scripto, die Jovis, videlicet decimo die J. anno Regni Domini Regis infra-script. 19. J. C. infranominatus primo exactus fuit & non comperuit, Et ad com. meum, &c. (ut antea,) secundo exactus fuit & non comperuit, Et ad com. meum tent. &c. (ut antea) tertio exactus fuit, & non comperuit: Et ad com. meum tent. &c. (ut antea) quarto exactus fuit & non comperuit, Et ad com. meum, &c. (ut antea) quinto exactus fuit & non comperuit; Ideo prædict. J. C. per Judicium Coronatorum dicti Domini Regis comitatus prædicti, secundum legem & consuet. Regni Angliæ, utlagatus est, (or if it be a woman) waviata est. Vide Do. L. 122.

Upon the return of the Exigent, it must appear that it was per Judicium Coronatorum (for they be Judges of the Outlawries) otherwise it is error. 31 H. 7. fol. 33.

And the Judgment is, Ideo utlagatur per Judicium Coronatorum. Co. L. 288.

So note that he which is sued, if he do not appear upon the mean Proces, then upon the Exigent he shall be called (by the Sheriff) at five County Court days, to answer to the Law, and if he come not within that time, pro Exlege tenetbitur (cum Principi non obediat, nec legi) & extunc utlagabitur.

And no County ought to be omitted, but when that the Proclamation beginneth, the Sheriff ought to persue the same at every County after without omission (auterment serra error) vide Plo. 371.

Mes le judgment serra pronouncé per le Coroner in le 5. County; & donque le Vic. doit faire retorne de ceo; &c.

Et si sur le Exigent le Vic. retorne quod non comperuit, sur ceo retorne le plt. avera un Capius utlagatum, vers le def. &c. Mes si le def. appear sur le Exigent, Exigent, il doit aver Superfedcas, & douque le Plaintiff declarer vers luy, &c.

Et quant le Vic. ad Retorne le utlary, ove le Exigent in le Court que agard le Exigent donques ceo est bon utlary a tous intents. Fitz. 116.

Also the Return of an Exigent shall be void by reason of incertainty, as where the Sheriff returneth the Exigent, quod ad Comit. Lancaster. tent. ibidem, &c. where it should be, ad Comit. Lancaster. tent. apud Lancast. (or at some other certain place, whereto Ibidem might have relation.) So the Sheriff returneth the Exigent thus. Ad Comit. tent. apud Castrum de Oxon, &c. And sets not down in what County.

So the Sheriff returneth Proclam. fcci ad Com. tent. tali die, and shewed not what year. 27 H. 8. Br. Retor. 3.

Sur Exigent le Vic. retorne, quod al. 5. Hustings, &c. le defendant fuit demand, & ne appiert, & ne monstre in certain, in ceo Retorne, quant ceo 5. Hustings. fuit tenuis, ne in quel Lieu, per que le Retorne fuit adjudge d'estre male 39 H. 6. Fitz. Retor. 29. & Exigit. 11.

Un utlary fuit reversé per Curiam, quia sur le Exigent, le Vicount retorne ad Comit. meum tentum (a tel Lieu, & jour, prox. post Petri & Pauli Anno Regni, &c. Infratominatus J. S. primo exactus fuit, & non comperuit, &c.) Et ceo p. vol. festum, fuit interlesse. Anno 30 Eliz. in Comuni Banco.

Upon an Exigent the Sheriff returned, quod ad Comit. tent. tali die, & ad tres Comit. prox. præcedentes prædictus D. def. exactus, non comperuit, sed Manucaptus per J. C. ad salvand. ci Comit. illius ne utlag. promulgaretur in ipsum prout mos est, &c. This was disallowed, and the Sheriff amerced. Retor. 88. 14 E. 3. fol.

An Exigent is a Writ that lieth where the Defendant in an Action personal will not be found; nor hath any thing within the County whereby to be attached, or distreined: And it is directed to the Sheriff, to call and proclaim him in five County Court days, one after another, charging the Defendant to appear upon pain and danger to be outlawed. Termes de Ley.

Exigenda est Condicio ejus qui quinquies in Comit. aperto exactus, aut vocatus ad comparandum, non venit, Ideoq. Exlex propter contumaciam proclamari potest. Dr. Corwell Index.

'Retorn' de breve de Exigend' cum Superfed.

Superfed. omnino, prout mihi in eodem brevi de Superfed. præcipitur.

But where upon the Exigent the Sheriff returneth Reddit se, he must have the body in Court at the day of the Return of the Writ, or else he shall be amerced: Except that the party be so sick as he cannot, &c. Vide Lib. Intr. fol. 335. b. c.

Also you shall find the like Return in Dyer fol. 223. where the Sheriff returned, Quod comperuit al. 5. County & protulit Superfedcas, &c. Vide Lib. Intr. fol. 335. c. d. & 336. a. b.

An Exigent is awarded upon an Inditement, and the party findeth Sureties, and hath a Superfedeas; but he delivereth that not to the Sheriff; by reason whereof he was Outlawed; and after he offered the Superfedeas to the Sheriff, who refuseth the same; yet at the day of the return of the Exigent, if the party shall bring this Superfedeas into the Court, the Outlawry shall be avoided thereby: But yet by not delivering of the Superfedeas to the Sheriff before, the party shall be Outlawed, his Goods seized, and himself discredited. Crompt. Inst. de p. 145. tit. Superfed.

And note that he which is sued, if he do not appear upon the mean Proces, &c. then upon the Exigent he shall be solemnly proclaimed, demanded, or called by the Sheriff at five several Counties, sc. from County to County, each one after another to appear, and to yield his body, and answer to the Law, or else that he shall be Outlawed. And if he cometh in at any of the five Counties, the Sheriff is to take and imprison him: But if he cometh not in within that time, then the Sheriff with the assistance of one Coroner (at the least) is to pronounce him Outlawed, sc. to pronounce him to be out of the Protection of the King and his Laws, Finch. 346. But the Judgment is to be given by the Coroner in the five Counties, and then the Sheriff is to return the same.

And yet upon an Exigent, the Sheriff returned that the party was dead, and it was doubted whether it were a good return: Br. 125. Vide libro Intrac. fol. 336. a. b. tiel Retorn.

And yet by other Authorities, ſuch a Return is holden not to be good, but the Sheriff was amerced for ſuch a Return; for that the Sheriff hath no authority by the Exigent, but to call the party from County to County, to appear, and answer to the Law; and if he appear, then to take him and impriſon him, &c. (hic cap. 15.) Et ſi un home in tiel caſe ſoit utlage, ſon heir poet assigne ceo (ſc. quod mortuus fuit) pur Error. Vide Fitz. h. Rotor. 104. 106. & 121.

Alſo if after two or three Counties and Proclamations (and before the Return of the Exigent) the King ſhall happen to die; And in the next Kings time the reſt of the Proclamations be made, and then the Sheriff returneth the party Quinto exactus upon the ſame Exigent; this is erroneous; for that by the Kings death the Writ did abate; and yet the Writ is not void, but is Error—7 H. 7. 5.

Yet Quære, whether the Sheriff muſt not return this Quinto exactus, and that the party muſt after assign this for Error.

One being Outlawed, sued a Writ of Error, and reversed the Outlawry, and had a Writ to the Waplift, de bonis restituendis (which were taken away from him when he was Outlawed, &c.) Here the Waplift may not return (or plead) that he was not Waplift; but he must answer, whether he had the goods, or no, and how they are divested out of his possession: Or else he must make deliverance thereof, if he cannot shew reasonable cause to the contrary. 6 H. 7. 9. Virtute istius brevis; assumptis mec. J. W. &c. Quatuor discret. & legal. milit. (or hominibus) de balliva mea, in propria persona mea accessi ad Curiam Caroli Regis Angliæ de O. tent. apud, &c. (tali die & Anno) & in plena Curia illa Recordari feci loquelam, unde infra sit mentio: Et record. illud habeo coram Justic. infra spec. ad diem infracontent, quod huic brevi est confut. sub sigillo meo & sigillis W. C. D. & E. quatuor legal. homin. (eiusdem Comit. ex illis) qui recordo ill. interfuer. Libr. Intrac. fol. 343.

And the Sheriff must return the names of the four Knights of the County, ut supra. Liber Intrac.

Falso Judicio. Virtute istius brevis (assumptis mecum, P. M. quatuor legalibus milit' de com. meo) in propria persona mea accessi ad curiam E. tent apud N. (tali die & anno.) Et in plena curia ibidem ab A. B. &c. sectator' ejusdem curiæ, & R. H. Senesch' ibid', petii Recordum loquelæ q. est in eadem curia, per parvum breve Dom. Regis de Recto, inter J. P. petent' & N. S. tenent' fieri, & mihi liber. Qui quidem Seneschallus, & Sectator' Recordum illud inde mihi liberare noluerunt, ob quod execut' dicti brevis minime facere potui. 11 H. 4. fol. 23.

This Writ lieth where false Judgment is given in the County (or other Court Baron) and is to cause the Record to come before the Justices in Banco, &c. And therefore upon this Writ, the Sheriff is to repair to the Lords Court, or Hundred Court, &c. in the Writ mentioned, and is there to require of the Lord and Steward to have the sight of the Plea (or of the Suit there depending) in the Writ also mentioned; And in full Court (before the Suitors) the Sheriff is to Record the same Plea, and then he is to return the same; and withall he is to warn or Return the Defendant to be before the Justices at the day prefixed, &c. See hic cap. 48.

Also upon the Writ of false Judgment, which is an Accedas ad curiam, the Sheriff must take with him four men; but it is not needful that they be Knights, Fitz. 18. c.

This Writ must be returned under the Seal of the Sheriff, and the Seals of four of the Suitors of the same Court. Ibid.

In this Writ, it is a good return for the Sheriff to say, that after the receipt of the Writ, and before the return thereof, no Court was holden, so as he could not execute the Writ, &c. Fitz. Rector. 21.

Also it is a good return (in the Writ) that the Sheriff hath required the Lord to hold his Court, and the Lord would not, so as he could not execute the Writ: And upon such return the Justices will award a Distress

Writs directed to the Sheriff, to distrain the Lord to hold his Court. Fitz. Rector. 21. Vide Libr. Intr. fol. 342.

The Sheriff returned that he had been at the Court, and that the Suitors would not Record the Plea. Fitz. faux Judgment 6. 8. 21. Process 167. & Dyer 262.

Upon this Writ, although the Pleint or Suit be determined, yet the Sheriff is to make Execution of the Writ, sc. he is to require the sight of the Plea, and to Record the same, and to return the same Record together with the Writ. Vide Dyer 268.

The Sheriff returned that he came to the Court to Record the Plea, and that the Suitors said that there was no such Plea, &c. Fitz. faux Judgm. 13. Nat. Br. 16.

Or that the Suitors would not deliver him any Record. Fitz. Process 128.

Or that the Suitors would not deliver him the Record, nor suffer him to have it. Fitz. Recordar. 7. Libr. & Intr. 342, 343.

Fitz. 19. c.

In this Writ, if the Sheriff returneth, Quod breve adeo tarde venit, quod executionem ejusdem facere non potuit, this is a good return: and upon such return the party may have a Sicut alias directed to the Sheriff; and if the Sheriff doth not return this at the day, then shall the party have a Pluries directed to the same Sheriff, &c. Libr. Intrac. fol. 345. d.

Vi. Fitz. 19. c.

Also in this Writ, if the Sheriff returneth that he went to the said Court of, &c. and there prayed the Lord to hold his Court, that so he might make execution of this Writ, and that the Lord refused to hold his Court, &c. by reason whereof he could not do execution of this Writ, then a Distress shall be directed to the Sheriff out of the Court of Common Pleas, commanding him to distrain the Lord to hold his Court at a certain day to be limited him by the Sheriff; and that the Sheriff taking with him four discreet Knights, &c. of the County, &c. shall come to the same Court, &c. and that he return the same such a day, &c. and also that he have then and there the said Record, &c. and that he Summon the aforesaid Lord that he be there to hear the same Record, &c.

Upon a Writ of false Judgment (of a Judgment given in the Court at Godmanchester, which is a parcel of the Duchy of Lancaster) the Sheriff came thither to the Court; but the Suitors there refused to make a Record, but would thereof deliberate, &c. And in the mean time an Injunction was sued out of the Duchy, directed to the Plaintiff, his Counsellors and Attorneys, and also to the Sheriff, to surcease to pursue, or make Execution, or Return of the Writ, Sub poena 200 l. And yet the Sheriff (notwithstanding) returned the Writ, ut supra; and in his Return he named (by their proper names) all the Suitors which refused to make the Record (who were seven in number. And upon this Return a Distress. Seſſator. issued out against those seven only, &c. And those Suitors were amerced by the Justices, &c. Dyer 262, 263.

Also upon a Writ of false Judgment, directed to the Sheriff of, &c. the Sheriff returned, that the Steward, the Bayliff, and four Suitors (naming all their names) were present in the Court when the Sheriff came to return the Plea, and required the sight of view thereof, and that the Steward and the Bayliff denied him, &c. (Omitting the Suitors;) Et sur ceo un Distress fuit agard al Vic. tantum vers les 4 Suitors, ove un Summons vers le party, &c. Et apres le brief fuit retorne service, Et le Record. port eins per les 4 Suitors tantum, al Common Place, & enter, sed Nihil amplius actum erat. Dyer 268.

In an action of debt against Executors who pleaded that they had fully administered, it was found by the Jury, that they had assets remaining, whereupon a Fieri fac. was awarded to the Sheriff, &c. And the Sheriff thereupon returned, quod mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. Qui mihi dedit responsum, quod executores non habent aliqua bona testatoris, which return being contrary to the verdict of the Jury, was holden not to be good, and the Sheriff was therefore amerced; for he should or might have returned quod Elongaver. or Devastaver. 5 H. 7. fol. 27. Fitz. Ret. 35.

So if the Executors have wasted the goods of the Testator, or have employed the same to their own use, the Sheriff upon the Fieri fac. may return a Devastaverunt.

But if the Executors have sold the goods of the Testator, and taken money (or other goods) for the same, the Sheriff upon the Fieri fac. is to take other goods of the Executors, to the value of the goods so sold. 14 H. 4. Fitz. Ret. 55.

If all the Executors, save one, have nothing of the Testator's, yet upon the Fieri fac. the Sheriff is to make execution of that which is in the hands of that one Executor. Ibid.

But if the Sheriff (upon a Fieri fac. against Executors) returneth that the Executors had sold the goods; or that all the Executors but one had nothing: these are no goods returns: Sic hic c. 36.

Upon a Fieri fac. for damages recovered, the Sheriff returned that after the Recovery, and before that this Writ came to him, the Defendant (in the original) by Covin had given all his goods to divers persons unknown, to the intent to defraud the Plaintiff of his Recovery, this return was holden not to be good, and the Sheriff was amerced for the same, for that the Sheriff is to take knowledge what things he may do by the Law; and this gift or alienation of the goods being void, the Sheriff ought to have made execution thereof, notwithstanding such gift or alienation. 3 H. 6. Note

Note that in real actions, where the Tenant doth not well know the Land demanded, he may pray the view, sc. that he may be shewed which is the Land demanded.

Also the Sheriff is bound to know, or to seek the Land demanded, and therefore, except the Demandant sheweth it to him, he may make his Return accordingly.

And therefore there be good Returns.

Nullus venit ex parte petentis ad ostendendum sibi Tenementa petita, & Ihesu dicto T.S. (petenti) de Tenementis inspect. habere visum ad presens non potuit, or non fecit.

And if the Demandant shall shew to the Sheriff a Strangers Land, by force whereof the Sheriff enters, &c. yet is he no Trespassor. Keil. 119, 120.

Præcipe de Rent, the Tenant demands the view, which was granted, and the Sheriff returned, feci habere visum in Decem solid. redditus, and this was challenged, for that the Return ought to have been, feci habere visum de terram. Redditi, &c. 41 E. 3. Fitz. Reter. 70.

When the Sheriff maketh the View, he ought to warn the Tenants and Viewors, for otherwise the Tenants shall not know when the Sheriff maketh the View. Quere & vide. Fitz. View 150. And the Sheriff and Viewors must go to the Tenements demanded, &c. And the Sheriff must have with him six (at the least) of the Jury to take the View. Co. L. 158.

En brief de Droit le Vic. ne poet recorder le view sans les Viewors, sc. le 4. Chevaliers que le view s'assigne. Fitz. View 164.

Nota en terre. ou maison si est demand. chascun parcel sera mise in view, autrement est de Mannor, car de Mannor vens sera mise in view, mais le Sette ou les appurt. & n'ont pas parcels &c. Fitz. view 115.

In an Assize of Land in two Towns, the view ought to be made in both Towns of Assize 122.

The view in an Assize, ought to be made where the Deissisin began, F. Ass. 28.

Where part of a Mannor, or the like, is in demand, yet the view shall be of the whole. 11 H. 4. Br. View 39.

So where a moiety, or third, fourth, or other part of house or land is only in demand, yet the whole shall be put in view. Br. View 46. 71.

If a Rent be granted, but out of no land, and yet certain land is charged to the distress if rent be behind, there in any assize this land so charged shall be put in view. Br. Ass. 150.

If a Rent be granted out of one land, and other land within the same County charged to the distress, here both these lands shall be put in view. Ibid.

Viewers, are those that are sent by the Court to take the view of any place in question, for the better decision of the right: Old Na. Br. 112. Bacton lib. 5. tract. 3. c. 8.

It significth also those that are sent to view such as essoine themselves de malo lecti, whether they counterfeit, or be in truth so sick as they cannot appear. Br. lib. 5.

It is used also for those that are sent or appointed to view an offence.

And view, significth the act of these viewers. Minsh.

CAP. 70.

Br. 125.

In a Præcipe quod reddat of Land, it is a good return for the She- Præcipe quod reddat.
riff to say that the Tenant is dead: 32 H. 6. 27.

Præcipe quod reddat, is a Writ of great diversity, touching both the form and use, and extendeth as well to a Writ of Right, as to other Writs of Entry or possession.

De queux choses briefs de Entry givt, & de queux nemi. Vide West. de Recoveries, Sect. 2. 3. 6. & 7.

If the Sheriff shall return that the Tenant, who is an Abbot, &c. is deposed, this is a good return, for that is as much as if he had returned him dead.

But if the Sheriff shall return that the Tenant is an Infant, or a feme covert, these Returns are not good. Dyer 104.

In a Præcipe quod reddat, the Sheriff returned, Quod defendens non est

est tenens, & quod Nihil habet unde cum Summon. potuit, Quere si bon, eo quod petens testatur quod tenens est, & per ceo le Vic peut aver. luy Summon in terra petita. Vide Br. Summons, 23. & Fitz. Rector. 97. & hic cap. 36.

In a Præcipe quod reddat, the Tenant voucheth, and the Sheriff returneth (upon the Summons ad warrantizandum) that the vouchæ, nihil habet, nec est inventus, &c. this is a good return; but otherwise it is in a Formedon; for that in a Formedon the Sheriff may summon him in the land demanded, whether he be Tenant thereof or no. Vide Fitz. Rector. 97.

In a Præcipe quod reddat, it is no return to say, that the Tenant hath yielded the Land to the Demandant. 2 H. 7. Br. Rector. 84. Fitz. Rector. 34.

And yet the Sheriff is by this Writ authorized to Command the Tenant to yield the Land to the Demandant. Co. L. 101.

But if (upon command of the Sheriff) the Tenant shall yield the Land, yet it seemeth that the Sheriff must summon the Tenant (and must return the same) for that the yielding of the Land must be in the Court, when the party cometh in. Kiel 116.

In a Præcipe against two if the Sheriff returneth one of them summoned, and the other not, this is no good return, but he must summon them both, and so make his Recor. Br. 89.

In a Præcipe quod reddat, if the Sheriff shall return the Tenant summoned, where indeed he was not summoned, whereby the Tenant loseth his Lands by default, upon the Grand Cape returned, the Tenant shall have his action against the Sheriff for such false return. N. Br. 51. Fitz. 97. c.

Note that in a Præcipe quod reddat of Land, there ought to be two Summoners, Plo. 393. a.

Car si n'ad forsque un, & le tenant fait default, & perde per default, il avera brief de Disceit. Ibid. & Fitz. 97. c.

And the Sheriff or his Officer, in the presence of those Summoners ought to summon the Tenant, first to keep his day of the Return (naming that in certain) again he ought to name the Demandant, and also to name the Land in demand. Hic. cap. 31.

In a Præcipe quod reddat, upon the Summons if the Sheriff by information of the Demandant summoneth the Tenant in another mans Lands, thinking it to be the Tenants Lands, the Sheriff shall be excused here for this his Entry into another mans Land: Doctor & Sud. 150.

Replevin.

In Repleg. le plt. fuit Nonsue per que le def. aver brief de Retorno Habendo, Et sur le Retorno Habendo, le Vic. retorne que le Plt. aver esloigne les avers, per que, &c. Ceo est bon retorne. Dyer 41. & 59. Fitz. 74. l.

*Mes si le brief de Retorno Habendo soit agard al Vic. apres Second Deliverance preic per le Plt. le Vic. n'ad power de server le Retorno Habendo, mes le Second Deliverance. Dyer ibid. C. nota que le Second Deliverance est un Superseus de le brief de Retorno Habendo, & close le mains del Vic. issint que il n'ad authority de faire ascun Retorne sur le brief de Retorno Habendo. Dyer 41. **

Si le Vic. sur le second deliverance delivera les beasts al Plt. Et ne retorne le brief issint que le def. ne poiet aver Retorne, il avera son remedy vers le Vic. 8 R. 2. Br. Second deliverance 12.

Where the Sheriff taketh insufficient pledges, de returno habendo, they are as no pledges, Br. 2. Retorn. des Avers.

If a man hath a return adjudged for him, this is no satisfaction for the thing for which it is awarded; but the Defendant shall retain this as a pledge or gage until he be satisfied: But he hath not any property therein, so that if afterwards sufficient amends shall be tendered to him, he ought to accept thereof; otherwise the Plaintiff shall have a Writ of Detinue: Br. 6. 17.

Br. 11. Nota ou le tenant offer le rent, ou amercement, tempore districtionis factæ ou apres le distress prise, & le Seignior refuse, il n'averà Retorne.

Fitz. 68. f. If the Sheriff, upon the Repl. Sicut alias, or plur. shall return that he hath sent to the Bayliff of the Franchise, &c. who hath made no return to him; or that he will make no deliverance, &c. Then the Plaintiff may have a Non omittas to the Sheriff, commanding him to enter the Franchise, and to make return: And if then the Sheriff shall not do this, the Plaintiff shall have an alias, and plur. &c. to the Sheriff: And yet it seemeth that these returns, sc. quod mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. qui mihi nullum dedit responsoz that the Bayliff will make no deli- verance, &c. are no good Returns: for by the Stat. of West. 1. c. 17. it appeareth that the Sheriff, upon such returns made to him by his 3 E. 1. c. 17. Bayliff, ought presently to enter into the Franchise himself, and to make deliverance of the Goods taken, &c. See the Stat. 52 Hen. 3. cap. 21.

Note that there be divers manners of causes, which the Sheriff may return upon the pluries, for which he cannot make Replevy or deliverance: see the Register, & Fitz. 73. g.

Also note that upon these returns following made by the Sheriff, the Plaintiff shall have a Capias in Withernam, directed to the Sheriff to Withernam. take so many of the cattel of the Defendant, &c. sc. if the Sheriff upon the Plur. shall return,

1. Quod præd. B. averia præd. A. cepit & ea fugavit, de com. præd. in com' S. per quod eidem A. Repl. non potuit, &c.

2. Quod mandavit ballivo libertatis, de R. cui retor' brevium, &c. qui respondit quod averia elongata sunt, &c. per quod non potest habere visum eorum; Nec de faire deliverance. Fitz. 68. g. Vide Fitz. 69. b. & 74. a.

3. That he himself cannot have the view of the beasts to make deliverance.

But in this former case it seemeth the Return must be further, sc. Quod accessi ad locum, & visum habere non potui; For otherwise it may be that he could not have the view of the cattel, for that he came not where the cattel were. 2 E. 3. Fitz. Ret. 76.

And yet if the cattel be driven into a Fort or Castle, the Sheriff may return quod averia elongata sunt. Finch. 354.

4. That after the taking, &c. the Defendant hath esloigned (or conveyed away) the cattel out of the Bayliwick, whereby he cannot make deliverance.

5. That the Defendant hath esloigned the cattel to places unknown, by reason whereof he cannot have view of the cattel to make deliverance.

6. Quod mandavit ballivo libertatis, &c. who answereth that the Defendant hath imparked the cattel within the Rectory of the Church of C. so as he cannot make deliverance, &c.

In a Repl' it is a good return for the Sheriff to say, that the Defendant (or his Bayliff, or servant, quære) claimeth property in the goods, &c. Sed nota que si le defendant in Repleg. claime property fausement, & issint trove in proprietate probanda, il serra fine, & imprison. Co. 8. 60. a. Fitz. proprietate probanda 1. plus hic c. 114. Br. 46. 108.

And note that a man cannot claim property by his Bayliff or servant, for that if the claim be found to be false, the Lord cannot be fined and imprisoned. Vide Fitz. propriet. proband. 6. & Br. Retor. 108. & Co. L. f. 145. b.

In a Repl. it is no good return to say that there are no such cattel or goods found within his Bayliwick. Br. 89. 5 H. 7. 27. Fitz. Ret. 116.

But the Sheriff may and ought in such case, to return, Quod averia Br. sunt elongata. 5 H. 7. 27.

The Sheriff returneth that the Defendant took the cattel as Bayliff of such a Town, for the Kings debt, and sold them, &c. Or returneth that the Defendant delivered the cattel to another in execution by force of a Recovery; these are no good returns, but the Sheriff must make his usual return. Fitz. propriet. probanda 5.

Also the Sheriff may return, Quod nullus venit ex parte querentis ad demonstrand. sibi averia : Br. 9. 89. Kiel. 119.

Br. Offic. 10.
Er. retor. 104. The Officer which maketh or serveth a Replevin, needs not to serve it, but only of such cattel, &c. as the Plaintiff in the Replevin shall shew unto him : And yet the Officer ought to take notice what and whose cattel, &c. they be, which he shall replevy at his peril. Vide Kiel. 119. pro & contra, & Fitz. Barr. 191. & Tresp. 243.

But yet by some opinions, if in a Replevy the Plaintiff doth shew to the Sheriff the beasts of a stranger, and the Sheriff delivereth them, the Sheriff is no Trespassor herein ; for the Sheriff is not bound to make Replevy, but by the shewing of the Plaintiff (and then the default is in the Plaintiff, and not in the Sheriff.) And again the Sheriff cannot by common reason take knowledge which are the beasts or cattel of the Plaintiff, and which are not. Kiel. 129. vide hic c. 22. & 30. other like cases.

Br. 100.

The Sheriff returns, Quod averia elongata sunt ad loca incognita ; this is a good return : but if the return be, ad loca incognita infra com. meum, the Sheriff shall be amerced for such a return ; for he is to take notice of them, if they be within his County.

Br. 125.

In a Repl. at the Pluries, the Sheriff returned that the cattel are dead, and it was holden to be a good return.

Br. 125.

If he which is distrained, take his cattel again, and yet such a Replevy, the Sheriff may return the special matter.

If the Sheriff returneth that the cattel are in a Fort, Castle, or Park, &c. so that he could not make deliverance, this is not good, hic c. 36.

And note that by the form of the Writ de Secunda Superoneratione, the Sheriff in both Cases ought in proper person to go to the pasture or ground surcharged. Fitz. 162. c.

But yet if he cometh to the place, &c. and then causeth the Jury to see the same, and to see the number of the Cattel of the Defendant which are put therein, it seemeth he may make his Enquiry elsewhere.

Also if upon such Enquiry it be found against the Defendant, he in both Cases shall not only yield damages to the other parties, but also shall forfeit to the King all the Cattel which he put into the Common or Pasture, above his due number (after Admeasurement once made;) And the Sheriff upon his Accompt shall be examined upon his Oath, how many Cattel of the Defendant he found in the Pasture above the one Number; and shall be charged to answer them, or their price, to the King. Also in a Distring' Jurat. per omnes terras, &c. the Sheriff ought to return issues ut supra, &c. 2 H. 7. 8. Fitz. Retor. 34.

Upon the Distring. Jurat. where there were Knights and Esquires, &c. and the Sheriff returned but 8 d. upon every Juroz, and was therefore amerced. 2 R. 3. fol. 13.

Upon the Distring. Jurator. if the Sheriff returneth too small issues, he is punishable by the Stat. of Westm. 2. see hic cap. 89. & 90. where these issues are set down in certain by later Statutes.

But note that in the first Venire fac. Jurat', it is not material nor K. Ret. 20. good to set down Manuceptors, for that by such mainprise, you shall cause the Jurozs to lose issues, which is not required at the first time.

And it was agreed by all the Justices of both Benches, that they would not change the ancient course, for the mischief which might follow thereon, for if twelve only shall be returned, no man shall have a Jury without a Tales, if any be challenged; and therefore they caused the Sheriff to amend his return, upon pain of amercement, and yet the Writ is, Venire facias 12 liberos & legales homines, &c.

Also upon the Habeas Corpora Jurat. As also upon the Distring. Jurat. the Sheriff must return reasonable issues, which issues are now by Statutes set down in more certain. See hic cap. 90. 91.

In an action of Waſt against Two, a Writ went to the Sheriff to enquire of the waſt, and he returned that the one of them made the Wast, and not the other, this seems to be a good Return. Vide 14 E. 3. Fitz. Return. 111.

In a Writ to enquire of wast committed in A. B. and C. the Sheriff must return Quod Accessit ad Tenementa infra scripta: And the Inquisition taken at one of the Towns will serve for all. 34 H. 6. 49.

If the Sheriff shall return Quod Accessit ad Villam, it is not good, but Quod Accessit ad locum; &c. 11 H. 4. 6.

Wast committed in a place called Reddel, The Sheriff returned Quod cepit Inquisitionem apud Reddel, it is not good, but it must be, Ad locum vastatum. 40 E. 3. 20.

In a Writ to enquire of wast assigned in S. it is no good return for the Sheriff to say, quod accessit ad S. but he must say, quod accessit ad locum vastatum, or tenementa vastata, & apud S. fecimus Inquisitionem, &c. Fitz. Wast 51.

In a Writ of wast, the Sheriff returned, quod cepit Inquisitionem die Sabbati proxim' apud R. And for that he did not shew what Saturday (it was in certain,) And also for that he said not, Quod ivit ad locum vastatum, prout breve exigit, therefore the Sheriff was amerced, and a new Writ awarded, &c. Fitz. Wast 64.

And note, that in these Cases the personal appearance of the Sheriff is requisite. Co. 4. 65.

Præ, the Sheriff (in a Writ to enquire of wast) ought to go with the Jury to every Town and to every place wasted, lying in several Towns, and there ought to view the places wasted, and then to make Inquisition in any one of the Towns of all the wast done in all the Towns, and also ought to find the wast in certain, sc. succidendo, so many Oaks, & hujusmodi ad valenc. &c. Et permittendo unam aulam & unam cameram, &c. & sic de singulis, and also must find the value. See Br. Wast. 17. & Fitz. Wast 51.

And yet where the wast is assigned in two or more Towns, the Sheriff may cause the Jury to go and see the wast in each Town, and may make his inquisition in one of the Towns only, or in any other Town twenty leagues from the place wasted, as it seemeth by the opinions of Thirne and Hanke, quære tamen. 12 H. 4. Fitz. Wast 62. Br. Wast 68. Br. Rediss. 5. Co. 8. 152.

For by other opinions, the Sheriff in proper person, and at the place wasted, must enquire thereof; And if the Sheriff shall enquire of the wast in any other place (where it should not be) and shall there make this enquiry, although it be in his own person, yet it is erroneous and void. Vide 16 E. 3. Fitz. Return. 32. where the Sheriff returned, quod accessit ad loca, & bosca vastata, & cepit inquisitionem, but for that it appeared by the Inquisition that it was taken at H. which was none of the places, nor Town, &c. therefore although that the Sheriff came to the places, and that the Jury went and saw the wast, yet for that the Inquisition was not taken there, the Sheriff was amerced, and a new Inquisition taken, &c.

The Sheriff in this Writ (to enquire of wast, which was assigned in two or three Towns) returneth, quod virtute brevis prædict. in villa infra content. cepit Inquisitionem, or he returneth Inquisitio capta apud A. (being one of the Towns) and it appeareth not whether he (or the Jury) came to all the Towns, and therefore such returns are not good. Br. Wast. 17.

For in such cases the Sheriff ought to make his return, Quod virtute brevis, &c. Accessit ad loca or tenementa vastata, scilicet, to all the Towns (in which the wast was assigned) and at A. (being one of the Towns) fecit inquisitionem, &c. 34 H. 6. Br. Wast 17. Fitz. Wast 51.

¶ The Sheriff may return, quod accessit ad ambas villas, &c. and that he caused the Jury to go and see the places wasted, but he may return the Inquisition to be taken at one place only. Br. Return. 39. And note, that if any of the Jurors have made the view, that is sufficient. Old N. Br. 173.

Note, where the Sheriff shall do his Office well in one Town, and not in the other Town (in this Writ) a new Writ must be awarded, and all shall be enquired of de novo, for all the Inquisition must be made all by one and the same Enquest, and all at one time, by the opinion of Thirne. 12 H. 4. fol. 3. Br. Return 39. & Wast 68.

Note, that when the Sheriff hath made such his Enquiry of the wast, he must return the Inquisition before the Justices of the Common Pleas; and the single value of the wast; Et donques les Justices taxer cel wast accordant al Statute de Glocester.

Upon a Writ to Enquire of wast, the Sheriff returned that the Jurors were charged before him, and after departed in despite of the Court, without giving up any Verdict, This return was holden good; and an Attachment was awarded out against the Jurors, &c. Fitz. Attach. 6. Quære if the Sheriff might not have assessed a Fine upon the Jurors for such their departure. Vide hic cap. 64.

Upon this Writ to enquire of wast, the Jury may well find that no wast is done, (if the truth of the matter be so, for otherwise they should be perjured;) Otherwise it is, if the wast be confessed, there the Jury cannot find that no wast is done, Neither may the Sheriff make such a Return, per Brown, & Portman Justic. Pasch. 7 E. 6.

It seemeth by Br. Fitz. that the Sheriff in this Writ to enquire of wast, may enquire of wast by the oath of six or eight persons, and is not bound to take twelve persons, for that this Writ is awarded by office of the Court, to enquire, &c. Fitz. 107. c. But the contrary was holden Anno 7 E. 6. sc. That in such case, the Sheriff ought to make his Enquiry by 12 at the least; by Brown and Portman Justic.

In brief d' enquire de wast, le Vic. Retorn. mandavi ballivo libertatis, &c. qui nullum dedit responsum, and was amerced, for that he should have entered the Franchise, he being herein a Judge by the Writ. Fitz. Ret. 53.

In brief d' enquire de wast le Vic. Retorn. Mandavi ballivo libertat: he was therefore amerced, and the Sheriff was commanded to execute it himself. Fitz. Retorn. 92.

And so now by the Statute 13 E. 1. cap. 14. in an action of Wast, West. 2. c. 14. first a Writ of Summons shall be awarded, and if the party (complaind of, or against whom the Writ is brought) come not in and appear upon the Summons, he shall be attached, and after the attachment he shall be distrained, And if he come not in after the distress, then upon his default, a Writ shall go out to the Sheriff of the County where the Wast is supposed to be made whereby the Sheriff shall be commanded, that in his proper person, he taking with him 12 lawful men, &c. shall go to the place wasted (or where the Wast is done) and shall enquire of the Wast done, and shall return the Inquisition before the Justices (and the single value of the Wast, ut supra) and after the Inquisition returned, Judgment shall be given, &c.

Note, that by this Statute the Sheriff is made both a Judge and Officer, quod accedat ad locum vastatum, &c. And therefore in a Writ to enquire of Wast, directed to the Sheriff of Land, &c. within a Franchise, the Sheriff ought himself to enter into the Franchise, and to execute this Writ himself, and if therein he shall return Mandavi ballivo, &c. he shall be amerced. Br. Retorn 38. & Fitz. Retorn. 53.

And if he shall not enter the Franchise and execute and serve this Writ himself, but by the Bayliff of the Franchise, it is erroneous; And yet if the Sheriff shall return, quod accessit ad terram, the other cannot assign this for error, quod non accessit ad terram juxta returnum suum, for that he cannot contradict the Record.

Upon a Nihil dicit, in wast a writ went out commanding the Sheriff, quod in propria persona sua accedat ad terram vastat' to enquire of the damages, and it was holden good (and not to enquire of the wast, for that was confessed.) And here it is not necessary that the Sheriff should go thither in person, according to the Statute of West. 2. for that is only in vasso inquirendo, where the defendant maketh default at the distress.

Nota auxi que brief de Estrepement gist in action de wast, & que le Vic. poet faire resistance in ceo breve, vide hic antea, cap. 58.

Also if a Supplicavit of the Peace be directed to the Sheriff, and to all the Justices of Peace of that County, and be delivered to the Sheriff, he only ought to execute it; sc. He is to grant out his warrant to bring the party before him (alone) to find sureties for the Peace, and he is further to do therein in every behalf according as the Writ directeth him.

And by such Warrant (or Precept) the Sheriff (as it seemeth) may command his Bayliff, (or the Constable, or other indifferent person) to carry the party to prison, if he shall refuse to come before him to find sureties, &c. And yet the Writ to the Sheriff is to arrest and commit him, si coram vobis, vel te, recusaverit, &c. So that the Sheriff may (in such Case) grant or commit part of his authority to another, ut sup. But the Sheriff cannot give power to another to take this surety for the Peace; for that is a Judicial Power, which he cannot assign over, nor make any Deputy therein. 9 E. 4. Br. Deputy 20.

Return of Juries.

Juries are of two sorts, sc. for Enquiry, or for Trial.

Of the first sort are, Grand Juries returned to the (Assises) or general Goal-delivery; or for the Quarter-Sessions of the Peace.

Of this sort also are, the Juries returned before Justices of Peace, to Enquire of Riots, and Forcible Entries, &c. And Juroys returned before Escheators, or before Commissioners of Sewers, or upon the Stat. of Bankrupts, Coroners, and Clerks of the Market, &c.

And so of Inquisitions taken before the Sheriff.

Juroys for Trial, are such as are returned when a matter is in trial between party and party.

The

The Sheriff (upon a Precept directed to him) is to summon (or warn by his Waplifts) and to return (or to cause to be summoned and returned) the Grand Jury to the Assizes; the form whereof see antea cap. 46. For the Assizes.

The Sheriff is likewise to summon (or warn) and to return the Juries for the Quarter-Sessions; the form whereof see also antea c. 47. For the Sessions.

The Sheriff is likewise to Summon (or warn) and to return, Juries for Enquiry, before Justices of Peace, out of their Sessions) and before Commissioners, Clicheatours, Coroners, and Clerks of the Parsonage, upon their several Precepts directed to the Sheriff for that purpose. See hic cap. 83. & 100.

42 E. 3. c. 11
6 H. 6. c. 2.

Sheriffs ought to array their pannels for the special Assizes six days (at least) before the Sessions of the Justices, upon pain of forty pound; so that the parties Plaintiffs, Tenants, or Defendants may have the view and copies of the pannels, if they shall demand the same. For Trial.

Pannel here signifieth a little part of parchment wherein the Names of the Jurors Names be written and annexed to the Writ: And a Jury is said to be impannelled, when the Sheriff hath entred their Names into the Pannel or piece of Parchment. Co. L. 158. b. Copies of Pannels.

Mes ceo nest que un pein al Vic. que serra levy per suit &c. Sed nest ascun cause de Challenge le Array, &c. Abr. d'Ass. 131, 132.

Nota, Que ceo parol Array, est le disposing ou ordering dun Jury.

And these copies of Pannels shall be indented by the Sheriff, and delivered to the Plaintiffs, Tenants, and Defendants (upon their demand) six days at least, before the Sessions, upon pain to forfeit to the King, forty pound for every default. 6 H. 6. cap. 2. Et le party auxi recouvrera ses damages. Abr. d'Ass. 132.

Ceo auxi semble forsque un peine al Vic. &c. Et que suffist de arrayer le Pannel d'Assize 2. jours avant les Assizes; Et pur deliver Coppies del Pannels 4. jours avant les Assizes, Et que les dit Stat. sont in l'affirmative, &c. 43. Ass. pl. 22. Vide Br. Pannel 10. que chescun array in Assize covient estre fait 4. jours devant.

Ibid.

Also the Waplifts of Franchises and Liberties ought to make their returns to the Sheriff (of the names of such persons as are to be so impannelled) eight days (at least) before such special Sessions or Assizes, upon pain of forty pound to be forfeited to the King for every default.

Mr. Fortescue speaking hereof saith thus. So soon as Suiters in the Kings Courts are at issue upon the matter of the fact, the Justices (by the Kings Writ directed to the Sheriff of the County wherein the fact is supposed to be done) do command the Sheriff to cause to come before the same Justices, at a day certain by them limited, 12 good and lawful men, Neighbours to the place where the fact is supposed to be done; And upon the day aforesaid the Sheriff ought to return the same Writ, before the same Justices, with the Pannel of their Names, whom he hath summoned thereto.

Also of those 12 some of them shall be Hundreders (or of the Hundred wherein the Town is, in which the fact whereupon the suit ariseth, is supposed to be done) Fortesc. Now how many of them must be Hundreders, see hic postea.

11 H. 4. c. 9.

Jurors in Inditeements shall be lawful and liege men, &c. and not of persons named by the Justices, but such as shall be returned by the Sheriff, or Waplifts of Franchises, without any denomination to the Sheriff or Waplifts before made, by any person of the names, which by him or them should be impannelled (except it be by the officers of the said Sheriff or Waplifts, sworn and known to make the same, and other officers to whom it appertaineth to make the same according to Law:) And if any Inditement be made (or taken) in any point to the contrary, trary, the same Inditement shall be also void, revoked, and for ever holden for none.

Also if any person shall be returned or put in any Enquest, at the denomination of any other, or to serve any turn, &c. if it may so appear to the Court, they ought to remove him, although otherwise his Presentment might be good. Crompt. 128.

Vide 12 E. 3. Abr. d'Ass. 51, 52. In assise parcel del Jury fuit mise in le Pannel al preier del Plt. & ascuns al denomination le tenant; Et pur ceo que ils semble al Vic. destre probes & loyal homes & nul faver treuve in le Vic. ils fuer. allow.

Auxi vide Dyer 182. Jurors impose al denomination del Plt. poient estre challenge (sc. les poll poiet estre Chall.) per le def.

Whereas divers great inconveniencies have heretofore been, by reason that Sheriffs and their ministers have returned at the Assizes and Sessions of the Peace, the names of such persons as by labour would be wilfully forsworn and perjured, by reason whereof divers persons have been wrongfully indited of Murthers, Felonies, and other misdemeaners; And sometimes divers great Felons and Murders have been concealed and not presented, &c. Therefore by the Statute made 33 H. 8. c. 12. It is enacted, that all Pannels returned, which be not at the suit of any party, that shall be made and put in by the Sheriff or his Officers, before any Justices of Gaol-delivery, or before Justices of the Peace in their open Sessions, to inquire for the King, may be reformed, by putting to, and taking out of names of the persons that be so impanelled, by the discretion of the Justices, before whom such Pannels shall be returned: And that the same Justice or Justices shall command every Sheriff, and their ministers (in his absence) to put other persons in the same Pannels by their discretions: And the same Pannels so reformed by the said Justices to be good and lawful. And if any Sheriff or minister do not return the same pannels so reformed, then every Sheriff or minister so offending shall forfeit twenty pound for every such offence, the one half thereof to be to the King, and the other half to him that will sue for the same. And so of Pannels for Trial, upon a Tales de Circumstantibus granted by the Justices. See hic cap. 90.

Reforme per les Justices.

Whereas before (by the Statute of 13 E. 1. c. 30.) none were to be put in, or upon any Jury, other than those that were summoned to the same at the first.

Nient Summon. And if the Sheriff shall return any Jury which was not lawfully summoned, warned, or distrained in that behalf, and that such person (for default of his appearance) shall lose or forfeit any issues, then the Sheriff (or his minister, by whose default such person shall be returned summoned) shall forfeit to the party so returned, double the value of the issues by such Jury lost or forfeited for his default of appearance.

En assise les Jurors gage leur Ley, que ils ne fuer. Summon; mes semble que il n'est Ley. Vide H. 3. c. 3. Abr. d'Ass. 115.

En assise le tenant dit que les gents empannel ne fuer. Summon, & les Jurors mesmes fuer. sur ceo examin, mes nemi sur Serement. Abr. d'Ass. fol. 131. 22. Ass.

Note, the Law requireth that Sheriffs, and other Officers, shall be indifferent persons of themselves, and shall deal uprightly in returning of Juries for trials, and therefore the Law doth not allow that the Sheriff, Under-sheriff, Bayliff of Franchise, Coroner, or other person, to be an indifferent or meet person to impanel any Jury or Jurors who is a (a) party to the sute or matter in question; or who doth (b) maintain either of the parties, plaintiff, or defendant, in the same suit, or is of (c) counsel with either of them in that sute then in issue; or who is within the (d) distress, or (e) receivers the yearly fee, or weareth the livery or robe of any of the parties to that suit; (f) or who is of kindred by nature, or of affinity by marriage, to any of the parties to that suit; or who doth return that Enquest, or any of the Jurors therein, at the denomination, (g) or by procurement of any of the parties to the same suit, or of any other person whatsoever; or who doth impanel that Enquest, or any of the Jurors therein, for the

And further, to the end and intent that all trials might be by indifferent Jurors, therefore the Laws and Statutes of this Realm have provided, That no Sheriff or Bayliff shall impanel any Enquest, nor put into any Jury, any persons but such as are next neighbours, and which have best knowledge of the truth, most sufficient and most substantial people, and worthy of credit, and not suspected, nor procured, nor laboured: And he that doth otherwise, and is attainted thereupon, shall pay unto the plaintiff his damages double, and shall be grievously amerced to the King: and besides the Sheriff stand bound thus to do by his oath: Artic. 14.

Note also, that in writs of Assize (de Novel assign, de Mortdanc. de Darcin presentment, & de juris utrum,) the Sheriff is to return the Jury the first day, and they are to appear as soon as the Defendant: But in other original Writs (regularly) no Jury is to be returned before the appearance of the parties, and an issue joyned between them.

But yet they which do purchase Charters of exemption and liberty, not to be impannelled in Assizes, Juries, and Enquests, if their oaths be so requisite, that without them Justice cannot be ministered (as in great Assizes, perambulations, and in deeds or writings of covenants, where they be named for witnesses, or in attainrs, and in other like cases) they shall be compelled to swear, saving to them at another time their foresaid liberty and exemption, Marl. 52 Hen. 3. 14.

Note, that he which hath a Charter of Exemption, &c. ought to shew the same to the Sheriff; and if then the Sheriff shall impanel him against the words of his Charter, then he may have his action against the Sheriff. 18 H. 8. fol. 5. b. & 30 Eliz. Probi & legals.

So that by this Statute of 11 H. 4. c. 9. the Sheriff is appointed to return none upon any Indictment, but such as are Probi & legales homines: probi, sc. such as are not discredited (or disabled in their credits) in law by attainder in conspiracy, attainr, decies tantum, perjury, subornation of perjury, concealment, or such like: Legales, sc. such as are not outlawed, abjured, condemned in a Premunire, or attainted of Treason, Felony, or such like.

Likewise Jurors warned upon trials, &c. they ought (by the Statute made 42 Ed. 3. cap. 11.) to be most worthy of credit, and not suspected: And (by the Statutes made 35 H. 8. cap. 6. & 27 Eliz. 6.) they ought to be Liberi & legales homines. In ancient time they were twelve Knights. Co. L. 155. b.

Sir Ed. Coke upon Littleton, fol. 155. telleth us, that by the Law every Juror returned for the trial of any issue or cause; ought to have these three Properties, viz.

1. To be dwelling most near to the place where the question is moved, or where the lands do lie.

2. To be most sufficient, both for understanding, and competency of Estate.

3. To be least suspicious, but only indifferent, and then he is accounted Liber & legalis homo, and that otherwise he may be challenged.

Also they must have sufficiency of Freehold in most cases.

It must be in his own Right, or right of his wife.

They must have Freehold in that County where the cause of the action ariseth, ibid.

Kindred.

Also the Sheriff, nor his Officers, shall not do well to return or impanel wittingly upon any Jury, any person who is near of kindred or affinity to either of the parties to that suit.

Servant.

Nor any person who is servant to either of the parties.

Diins aijhr.

Nor any person who is within the distrels of either of the parties to the suit.

But all the whole Jury must necessarily be of the Shire; and some of them must be of the Hundred where the Land in controversie lieth, or where the fact is supposed to be done.

And if there be no such Venue (Place or Town) as is laid, &c. yet if the parties do agree that there is such a Venue, the Sheriff cannot return Nul tiel Venue, but he ought to return the Pannel de Corpore Comitatus, &c. Fitz. Rector. 27.

In an action of Trespass laid to be done in D. the Def. confesseth, that there is such a Town, here, upon the Venire facias, the Sheriff cannot return that there is no such Town as D. within the same County, for that it were contrary to the confession of the party. 3 H. 7. 12. Br. Rector. 87. Hic cap. 36.

Hundredors.

Upon the trial of any issue joyned in any of the Kings Courts at Westminster, the Sheriff (or other minister to whom the making of the Pannel shall appertain) shall return in every Pannel upon the Venire facias, six sufficient Hundredors (at the least) if there be so many Hundredors within the said Hundred where the Venue lieth, upon pain to forfeit for every Hundredor that shall be omitted in such return of the number aforesaid twenty shillings.

35 H. 8. c.
3 E. 6. c. 22.

And

And yet if there had not been so many sufficient Hundredors within the same Hundred, if there the Sheriff had returned them out of the next Hundred adjoining, it seemeth to have been allowable. Vide 50 F. 3. fol. & Abr. d'Ass. fol. 50. & 52. & 2 H. 4. fol.

A Juror may be challenged for that he hath nothing within the Hundred; And yet after that so many be sworn of the Hundred as the Statute requireth, it seemeth that the rest shall not be challenged in that behalf. Na. Br. 174.

But by the Statute of 27 Eliz. cap. 6. upon the trial of any issue joyned in any personal action, if two sufficient Hundredors do appear, it is sufficient, so as no further challenge for the Hundred shall be admitted.

Note, that Hundredors be men impannelled, or fit to be impannelled upon a Jury for any Controversie, and dwelling within the Hundred where the Land lieth, which is in question, &c. whereby they (by intendment of Law) may have Notice de rei veritate, or better knowledge of the Cause.

Also the word here before, Vicinus, Vicinetum (coming of this word Vicinus) signifieth a Neighbour or near place, sc. the Sheriff, &c. shall return &c. six Hundredors, &c. if there be so many within the Hundred where the Vicinus lieth, that is, within the Hundred or place where the demand is made; Or within the Hundred where the Town is, in which the fact whereupon the suit ariseth, is supposed to be done, for that vicinus facta vicini præsumitur scire (Vide Co. L. 125. & 158.)

If he hath Freehold in the Hundred, though but half an Acre, it sufficeth. Co. L. 157. See Co. L. 157. a. plus & Cook hic.

And if they have nothing within the Hundred, and yet dwell within the Hundred, and have sufficient Lands out of the Hundred, the Sheriff may return them. But if they have sufficient Lands within the Hundred, and dwell out of the Hundred, it seemeth the Sheriff may not return such. Vide P. 3 H. 6. fol. Abr. d'Ass. fol. 53. quære tamen.

A Juror was challenged for that he was no Hundredor (or had nothing within the Hundred) at the day of the Venire fac. returned, but it appeared that he had at the day of the Return of the Distring. Jurator, and by Justice Harper and the Clerks, he was to be sworn, but Dyer Justice held the contrary. Dyer 316.

But if the Juror were a Hundredor at the Venire fac. returned, he shall be sworn as a Hundredor, although that after he be returned and before he be sworn, he selleth his Land, or changeth his dwelling, for that by his selling, or removing, his Notice is not gone nor impaired. Dyer 316.

27 Eliz. c. 7.
39 Eliz. c. 8.

No Sheriff, Coroner, or other person to whom it shall appertain to make return of any ~~Writ~~, shall return any Juror dwelling out of liberty, without the true addition of his dwelling place, or of the place of his abode (at the time of the said return, or within one year next before the making of such return) or some other addition by which the party returned may be known, upon pain to lose five marks to the King, and five marks to the party grieved. Additio.

27 Eliz. c. 7.

And the Wapstiffs of Liberties, or their Deputies, shall certifye and deliver under their hands to the Sheriff or his Deputy, the names of all persons within their Liberty to be returned upon any Jury, with the true addition of their dwelling place, or of the place of their abode, &c. as aforesaid.

And the Sheriff, &c. shall not return any Jurors within any Liberty with other addition than such as shall be delivered to him by the Wapstiff of the said Liberty, or his Deputy, certified under his or their hands, as aforesaid.

Also no extract of issues against any Jury, returned as aforesaid, shall be delivered out, received, or put in ure, without such addition as is put in the original Pannel or Tales wherein such Jury shall be so returned.

Ibid.

And no Under-Sheriff, Bailiff, or other officer or person whatsoever, shall collect, levy, or gather any issues so estrated, or any other person or persons, than such person and persons, as by vertue of the said estrat is of right charged or chargeable with the payment of the said issues, upon pain that every Sheriff, Clerk, or other person offending contrary to the true meaning of this Statute, shall forfeit to the King five marks, and to the party grieved five marks.

Now to shew how many the Sheriff must return upon a Jury, note that the Writ of Venire facias (for the impannelling of Juries) runneth in this form. Rex, &c. Pracipimus, &c. quod venire facias coram, &c. duodecim liberos & legales homines, &c. And yet the Sheriff is always to warn, and must return 24 lest there should be wanting by reason of Challenges, or lest peradventure any might be sick, or have other just cause of absence. Vide Co.L. 155. But in former times it seemeth that Sheriffs used to return unreasonable numbers, to the grievance and great trouble of the people: And therefore it was enacted by the Statute of Westminster 2. cap. 38. which was made anno 13 Ed. 1. That in one Assise no more shall be summoned, or returned upon a Jury, than four and twenty.

Si le vic. retourne plusors que 24 Recognitors in Assise, semble le brief abater, 8 H. 4. fol. 20. & 10 H. 4. 8. mes ceo nest error, ne le vic. ne serra amerce par ceo, ut dicitur, uncore ceux que sont nosme in le Pannel apres le 24 avera lour action sur le Stat. vers le Vic. come semble.

Auxi si per tiel (ou auter) retorn del Vic. le brief abater, per que le pli. est delay de son suite; quare si le pli. n'avera son action sur le Case vers le Vic. par tiel delay & prejudice a luy fait.

Thorp saith that the Law was founded in this, that every Enquest should be taken per duodecim liberos & legales homines, & non per pauciores. 41 E. 3. fol. 36.

Also the Sheriff at every Assises or Goal-delivery, and Sessions of the Peace, is to return 24 Jurozs, out of every Hundred, for Enquiry, &c. (as it seemeth by the form of the Precepts) beside 24 others, for the body of the County.

Upon a Precept directed to the Sheriff, from Justices of the Peace (out of their Sessions) to return before them a Jury, to enquire of any Riot, or Forcible Entry, &c. the Sheriff ought to return 24 persons, &c. 19 H. 7. cap. 13. & 8. H. 6. cap. 9. upon pain of 20 l. to be forfeited by the Sheriff, &c.

In a writ of Attaint, the Jury (called the Grand Jury) are 24. who are to be warned the first day. Old Nat. Br. 111. & Co. 9. 33. & Finch. 112. And the form of the writ to the Sheriff to impannel and return them, is accordingly. Fitz. 105. h.

And so in all other actions, suits, trials, or enquiries, the Sheriff upon any Precept directed to him, for returning of a Jury, is to impannel and return 24 as it seemeth; although the Trial, or Enquiry, may be by fewer.

The Jury in a Writ of Right (called the Grand Assise) must be of four Knights (or of others in default of Knights) summoned and returned turned by the Sheriff: which four Knights, &c. are to chuse a Jury of 12 unto them; and so in all there must be 16 (Finch. 412.) which also must be summoned and returned by the Sheriff.

Also by the Statute of Westminster 2 cap. 13. Sheriffs in their Turns shall cause their Enquests to be made of twelve at least: And this Statute herein seemeth to be in affirmance of the Common Law, for by the Common Law, if a man had been indicted by fewer than by 12 the indictment had been void. What respect is to be given to this number of 12. See C. L. 155.

And so in the County Court, if the suit be by a Justices, the Trial shall be by a verdict of 12 men.

If upon a Venire facias the Sheriff shall return but 23, and 12 appear and give their verdict, this is Erronious. Co. 5. 36. & 37. Ad hoc est remedium per le Statute de Feofailers. Co. Ibid.

And yet in a writ of Wast, the Plaintiff hath a writ to the Sheriff to enquire of the Wast, &c. for that this is but an enquest of office, the Sheriff may inquire by the oath of six or eight persons of this Wast, and need not to take twelve persons, by the opinion of Mr. Fitz. 107. c. But termino Pasch. anno 7 E. 6. it was holden in such Case, that the Enquiry ought to be by 12 in number, at the least; And so in all other Inquisitions or Enquiries. Yet in a writ de Etate probanda, some also have thought that it is not necessary to have the number of 12 upon the Enquest, &c. but that any number above two will serve, for that the Trial is to be by proofs. See Fitz. Livery 5. & Stanif. de Prærog. 79. But the writ directed to the Sheriff to return a Jury before Commissioners, to enquire thereof is in this form, Rex vic. &c. Præcipimus quod Summoneas, &c. 12 probos & legales homines, &c. And again habeas ibi nomina illorum duodecim, &c. Fitz. 257. d. c.

No Jury shall be compelled to appear in any of the Kings Courts at Westminster, for the trial of any issue in any suit, upon any penal Law, for any offence committed above thirty miles from the City of Westminster, except in case where the Attorney General for the time being, for some reasonable cause in that behalf shewed, shall require the same to be tried at the Bar in any of the Courts of the Kings Majesty, his heirs or successors at Westminster aforesaid, which request shall be noted on the backside of the Writ of distringas thereupon awarded, to the end the Sheriff or his Bayliff may and shall assigne the same to the Jury that are in such cases impannelled: 18 Eliz. 5. 27 Eliz. 10.

27 Eliz. Cap. 6. If any Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Sheriffs Deputies, Sheriff or Under-Sheriffs Clerk, or any Bayliff of Franchise shall receive, take, or have by himself, or by any other, any sum of money, reward, or other profit directly or indirectly, or do take any promise, make any agreement or assent to have any sum of money, reward, or other profit, directly or indirectly, of any person or persons for the sparing, nor warning or not returning of any person to be sworn as a Jury, for the trial of any issue joynd or to be joynd in any of the Kings Courts aforesaid (viz. The Kings Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer) or before any Justices: then every Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bayliff, &c. so offending shall forfeit for every such offence five pound to the King and Infeoffmer, to be recovered in any Court of Record, &c.

Spare par rewards.

CAP. 87.

The sufficiency of Jurors.

The sufficiency of Freehold.

BY the old Statutes none were to be put or returned in any Assises ^{13 E. 1. c. 38.} or Juries, that might not dispend twenty shillings yearly in lands; and if such Assises or Juries were to be taken out of the Shire, none should pass or be returned in them, but such as might dispend forty shillings yearly at least in lands.

And if the Sheriff or any Bailiff of Liberty shall offend in any point therein they should give the party grieved damages, and be amerced besides to the King.

Note that forty shillings in those days maketh at this present, at the least 6 l. of our current money, if the just value were taken now to the proportion of monies. Mr. Smith de Repub. Angl 30.

*Put trial hors

And by a later Statute made anno 21 Ed. 2. no Sheriff, Under-sheriff, Bailiff of Liberty, or other Officer shall impanel any Jurors for the trial of any matter which is to be tried out of their proper County, except such Jurors may spend in lands and tenements 5 l. per annum, at the least: and if they shall do otherwise, the party may have ^{Fitz. 166. c.} his action upon the Statute against the Sheriff or other Officer. Stat. 21 E. 1. De hiis qui ponendi sunt in assis.

*Deins le County

And none shall be impanelled to try any matter within the County, except they have in lands and tenements forty shillings per annum, and the party grieved may also have his action upon the Statute against the Officer offending herein: Fitz. N. B. 166. c. Stat. 21 E. 1.

Touching life.

Also by the Statute of 2 H. 5. cap. 3. no person shall be admitted ^{2 H. 5. 3.} to pass in or upon any enquest to be taken or made between denizen and denizen, upon trial of the death of a man; nor in any enquest between party and party, in any plea Real; nor in plea Personal, whereof the debt or damages declared amount to forty marks, if the same person have not lands of the yearly value of forty shillings above all charges, so that he be challenged for that cause by the party, &c. See Stat. 8 H. 6. cap. 20. & Co. L. 272.

And by a late Statute made tempore Caroli Secundi, which is since expired, none should be returned but those which had 20 l. per annum.

But in all manner of Enquests, where any alien is a party to any trial (although the King be a party) the one half of the Enquest or Jurors shall be of aliens (if so many aliens be in the Town or place where such Enquest is to be taken, &c.) And that although such aliens have not lands to the value of forty shillings per annum. <sup>27 E. 3. c. 8.

And yet where any Egyptian shall be indicted of any felony, the Enquest that shall pass between the King and such party shall be altogether of English-men: 22 H. 8. c. 10. 1 & 2 P. & M. 4 & 5 Eliz. c. 20.

Neither shall a Scottish-man have his trial here, per medietatem linguæ, for that they are accounted subjects and not aliens; see Dyer 304. & Co. 9. fol. 117.

By the Statute made 35 H. 8. cap. 6. it is enacted, that in every case where such persons as should pass upon the trial of any issue (joyned in any of the Kings Courts of Record commonly holden at Westminster) ought by the Law to spend forty shillings by the year of Freehold for term term of life, That writs of Venire facias, which from thenceforth shall be awarded and directed for the impannelling of such persons as shall trie the same issue, shall be in this form, Rex, &c. præcipimus, &c. quod Venire facias coram, &c. 12 liberos & legales homines de vicineto de B. Quorum quilibet habeat quadraginta solid' terr' tenement' vel reddit', per annum, ad minus, per quas rei veritas melius sciri poterit, & qui nec, &c. (after the ancient form.) And in every case where it is not requisite, that the persons that shall pass upon the trial of any issue (joyned in any of the Kings Courts aforesaid) shall dispend forty shillings by the year of Freehold, that then the Writ of Venire facias that shall be awarded shall be made after the form aforesaid, omitting the clause Quorum quilibet habeat 40 s. terræ, tenement', vel reddit. per annum ad minus. And that upon every such writ of Venire facias that shall have the said clause Quorum quilibet, &c. the Sheriff or other minister to whom the making of the Pannel shall appertain, shall not return in any such Pannel any person, unless he may dispend forty shillings by the year at the least, of estate of Freehold, out of ancient Demesne, and within the County where the issue is to be tried (and also shall return six sufficient Hundredors at least, &c.) upon pain to forfeit for every person being returned in any such Pannel that cannot dispend forty shillings by the year (as aforesaid) twenty shillings.

But after by the Statute made Anno 27 Eliz. cap. 6. it was enacted, That in all cases where any Juroz to be returned for the trial of any issue, (joyned in any of the Courts of the Kings Bench, Common Pleas, and the Eschequer, or before Justices of Assize) by the Laws of this Realm ought to have estate of Freehold in lands, tenements or hereditaments of the clear yearly value of forty shillings, that in every such case, the Juroz that shall be returned shall every of them have estate of Freehold (in lands, tenements or hereditaments) to the clear yearly value of four pounds at the least, and that the writs of Venire facias, which shall be awarded for the impannelling of Juries in the cases aforesaid, shall be in this form, Rex, &c. præcipimus, &c. quod Venire fac. coram, &c. 12 liberos & legales homines de vicineto de B. Quorum quilibet habeat, quatuor libras terræ, tenement. vel reddit. per annum ad minus, &c. And that upon every such writ of Venire fac. the Sheriff or other minister unto whom the making of the Pannel shall appertain, shall not return in any such Pannel any person unless he may dispend four pounds by the year, at the least of Freehold, out of ancient Demesne, within the County where the issue is to be tried, upon pain to forfeit for every person being returned in any such Pannel that cannot dispend four pound Freehold (as aforesaid) twenty shillings.

And in every writ of Venire facias wherein the aforesaid clause (Quorum quilibet habeat quatuor libras, &c. shall be omitted, there the Sheriff or other minister to whom the making of the Pannel shall appertain, shall not return in any such Pannel, any person unless he may dispend some lands or tenements of estate of Freehold out of ancient Demesne within the County where the issue is to be tried, upon pain to forfeit twenty shillings for every person returned in any such Pannel, that cannot dispend some land by the year.

But note, that these Statutes made Anno 35 H.8. & 27 Eliz. do not extend to any Juries to be returned in any City or Town Corporate, or other Town or place privileged to hold plea, or in the twelve shires of Wales, but that there they shall and may be returned, as heretofore they lawfully might have been.

Corporate Towns.

A Juroz was challenged for not having sufficient freehold, and it was found that he had nothing but certain lands which one H. had letten to him him for term of life, yielding a certain Rent, with a clause of Reentry for default of payment thereof, and the opinion of the Book 7 H. 4. fol. 1. was, that for such a Freehold, so defeasible, he was not to be sworn; and yet the Reversion also of the Land was in the wife of the Juror; quod mirum, per Br. titulo Challenge 34.

If A. shall infeof B. to the use of the payment of certain money (to be levied out of this land) to the use of a third person, Now during the time of the payment of this money A. is not sufficient Freeholder to pass in a Jury. Keil. 167. But here the Feoffee is sufficient, for the Freehold which is in him. Ibid.

If A. maketh a Lease for 10 years, absque aliquo reddendo, yet A. shall be a Freeholder to pass upon a Jury, for the Freehold which is in A. Ibid.

If A. letteth his lands for years, the Remainder to B. in fee, here B. may pass upon a Jury, for the freehold which is in him (in Rem.) if the lands be of the yearly value of 40 s. Ibid.

A Juror was challenged for that he had not sufficient within the Hundred the day of the Venire fac. returned, and it appeared that he had sufficient at the day of distress, and was therefore sworn. Dyer 316.

So if he hath sufficient at the time of the Pannel made, though he had not at the distress, yet he shall be sworn. Ibid.

In Attaints.

Sheriffs, Bayliffs of Franchise, and Corpnors ought to return in writs of Attaints in plea of land of the yearly value of 40 s. or more; and in actions of Attaint for Deeds concerning land of the yearly value of forty shillings; and in personal actions of forty pound or more, such persons inhabiting within his Baylwick which can dispend 20 l. per annum, besides all charges, for term of life at least, and out of ancient Demesne, and Cinque Ports; and if there be not sufficient persons under the degree of a Baron inhabiting within the County which can expend twenty pound per annum, then they shall impanel other persons of the most sufficient in possession of yearly value of lands under the value of 20 l. per annum, upon pain of twenty pound.

By another Statute made anno 23 H. 8. where the thing in demand extendeth to forty pound (and concerneth not mans life) every of the Grand Jury that shall pass in an attaint in such case must have lands to the value of twenty marks by the year of Freehold out of ancient Demesne: But where the thing in demand (being a thing personal, as Debt, Trespass, or the like) shall be under forty pound, it sufficeth if every person of the Grand Jury, which shall pass in the same attaint, may dispend five marks by the year of Freehold land out of ancient Demesne, or be worth a hundred marks in Goods.

Before Escheators.

Also no Sheriff or other person upon any Writ or Precept to them directed to return before any Escheator or Commissioners, shall return any person to enquire of any lands or tenements, except such person, or others to his use, have lands or tenements of the yearly value of forty shillings above all charges, within the same Shire where the enquiry shall be made, upon pain to forfeit 5 l. for every Juror otherwise returned (except the same Jurors be returned before an Escheator in a Ctry or Upon every Precept directed unto the Sheriff from Justices of Peace to enquire of Forcible Entries or Detainours, the Sheriff ought to return sufficient persons dwelling next about the lands forcibly entered upon or detained, whereof every man to be impannelled to enquire in that behalf shall have freehold lands or tenements of the clear yearly value of forty shillings at least above reppises; and for every default herein the Sheriff shall forfeit twenty pound, and also pay a fine to the King: And yet note, that if such Jurozs shall not have lands of such yearly value, yet their presentment is good for the King, but then quare whether the party put out forcibly, &c. shall have restitution, &c. upon Forcible Entry. Lamb. 155.

19 H. 7. 13.

Upon a precept directed unto the Sheriff from the Justices of Peace, to return before them a Jury to enquire of any Riot, Rout, or unlawful Assembly, the Sheriff shall return four and twenty persons dwelling in the Shire where such Riot, &c. shall be committed, whereof every one of them shall have lands, &c. within the same Shire to the yearly value of twenty shillings per annum of Freehold, or of twenty six shillings and eight pence of Copihold, or of both over and above all charges, and the Sheriff in default of such return shall forfeit to the King the sum of twenty pounds. upon Riots. xx s.

Also in Liberties and Franchises, and in Cities, Burroughs, and other Towns and places infranchised which have Justices of Peace therein the Wayliffe of the Franchise, or other Officer, ought to impannel sufficient Jurozs to enquire of Riots (if sufficient persons may there be found) upon pain of 40 l. 2 H. 5. cap. 8.

2 H. 5. c. 8.

Upon the default of the Justices of Peace and Sheriff in not executing the Statutes made for suppressing of Riots, &c. the party grieved may have a Commission out of the Chancery to enquire of the matter, as also of the defaults of the Justices and Sheriff, upon which Commission the Coroners of that County where the Riot, &c. was committed, shall make the pannel, and shall return only such persons for that inquiry as have land, tenements, or rents to the value of 10 l. by the year at least: But if the Sheriff (reputed to be in default as aforesaid) be discharged of his office at the time that such Commissions shall be awarded out of the Chancery, then the new Sheriff of the same County shall make the pannel upon this Commission, and shall return only such persons as have ten pound by the year at least (ut supra) and in default thereof the new Sheriff shall forfeit forty pound. 10 pound per annum.

But also that he may the better know their sufficiency and ability, to be Pledges, or Sureties, &c. for other persons, as occasion shall serve : And besides if the Sheriff shall return any Juror in issues which is not sufficient, the Sheriff may be enforced to pay there issues for them.

C A P. 88.

The Antiquity of Jurors.

The trial of Juries (sc. of all matters of fact, by the oaths of twelve men) was long time before the Conquest, and is one of the invincible arguments of the antiquity of the Common Laws of this Realm, being only appropriated to them. Co. 1. 3. & Preface.

Master Cambden (in his Britannia, pag. 153.) saith thus thereof; Whereas Polidor Virgil writeth that William the Conqueror first brought in the trial by twelve men, there is nothing more untrue, for it is most certain and apparent by the Laws of Etheldred the Saxon King, that it was in use many years before, &c. See Co. L. 155. b. & Eph. anno Christi 979.

By some opinions Lucius King of England ordained this our Trials by twelve of matters in fact, (which shoud be about anno Domini 190.) Master Selden, cap. 10. And this he saith that godly King Lucius did according to the Example of Christ, who ordained and chose twelve to bear witness of his Resurrection. Wherewith agreeth the Apostolical Canons. See John 15. 27. Acts 1. 22. & 10. 41. And Sir John Fortescue saith, That Juries were used among the Christian Britains.

Again Thorpe (a reverend and learned Judge) in the time of King Edward 3. concurring in opinion with these before named, saith, that it was a foundation of the (Common) Law, that every Enquest shoud be taken per duodecim liberos & legales homines ; And if it were a foundation of the Law, then it was one of the first Laws. See 41 E. 3. fol. 36.

Besides, we must needs confess, that no Law can be without trials ; Now in the City of London (a most ancient City) they had this trial by 12 in their Hustings, and in the time of the Britains, so in all other ancient Cities where they have like customs and liberties : yea the ancient Hundred Courts, Shire-motes, Ward-motes, Swain-motes, and Leets, which are often mentioned in the Saxon Laws as things in in use, they had no other kind of trial or inquisition, but this by twelve men; and that by custom or prescription, whereof no beginning could be proved by any Record, writing, or other lawful testimony; for that is in Law said to be by Prescription, and not the continuance of 50. 60, or 100 years. See plus Mr. Selden, cap. 10.

For the excellency and indifferency of this kind of trial, and why it is only appropriated to the Common Laws of England. See Justice Fortescue, cap. 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, &c.

CAP. 89.

Return of Issues.

NOW concerning issues to be returned by the Sheriff for default of appearing, the Sheriff shall do well to consider of his oath, whereby he stands bound truly to set, and return reasonable and due issues upon all such as be within his County, &c. upon the Defendants or Tenants having sufficient lands or goods, after their estate, to the end they may the rather appear.

Concerning the Defendants, the Statutes to this purpose are as followeth:

First, by the Statute of Westm. 1. cap. 44. The Tenant or Defendant making default of appearance after the first Attachment returned, &c. shall lose and forfeit issues.

And when the Tenant or Defendant is distrained for such issues, it seemeth that the Sheriff ought to deliver them to the Painsperners, or Sureties; and if the party maketh default at his day, the Sheriff shall answer for those issues in the Exchequer, by the Estreats thereof made, And the Sureties shall be answerable thereto the Sheriff; And this is the Order limited by the Stat. of Westm. 1. ut dicatur.

Westm. c. 39.
1 E. 3. c. 5.

But for as much as Sheriffs and Bayliffs of Liberties many times make false returns as touching the Articles, Quod de exitibus, &c. sometimes returning that there are small issues when they may return great, and sometimes do make mention of no issues, It is therefore ordained by the Stat. of Westm. 2. that if the Plaintiff shall demand Oyer of the Sheriffs return, it shall be granted him, and if he aver (or offer to prove) that the Sheriff, &c. might have returned greater issues, he shall have from the Justices of the one Bench, or the other, a writ to the Justices of Assize that they shall enquire thereof, &c. that they shall enquire of what and how great issues the Sheriff might have made his return from the day of the Writ purchased, unto the day of the return thereof:) And if it be found that he hath not answered for the whole, then upon the return thereof, he shall be charged with the overplus by the estreats of the Justices delivered into the Exchequer, and besides shall be grievously amerced for his concealment. Vide Br. Issues 2.4.6.

Issues upon the Defendant or Tenant.

And yet quære whether the Sheriff may after levy the same of the Tenant or Def. for that it is contrary to his Return, &c. Vide Abr. d'Ass. fol. 137.

For the form of this Writ directed to the Justices of Assize, to enquire of the issues. See Register, fol. 26. & 58.

And by the same Statute of Westm. 2. within or under the name of issues quid.

issues are contained rents, corn in the grange, and all moveables (except horse, harness, apparel, and household-stuff.)

But where Corn is growing, it seemeth the Sheriff is not bound, (or needs not) to return that for issues, for that it may so fall out that the Corn may afterwards be spoiled or lost, by reason of tempest, or otherwise, before it can be carried, &c.

Also it hath been holden that the Sheriff needs not to Return in issues, any Rent except it be due at the day that he shall make the Distress: And if it be then due, the Sheriff may then come to the tenant, and command him to pay the same Rent to his Lord, &c.

But note, that the Sheriffs and Bayliffs of Liberties by the said Statute of Westm. 2. & 1 E. 3. 5. must return sufficient, and good and reasonable issues upon such persons as have lands or goods sufficient, sc. they must return in issues so much as the party may receive and take, or as ariseth of the profit of the lands within that County, and the Rents from the day of the teste of the writ, until the day of the return thereof, and the value of his goods which he hath in all that time (except his horses and their furniture, and his apparel and household-stuff,) and if the Sheriff or Bayliff of Liberty doth not accordingly, they shall answer the surplussage. See 27 H. 8. f. 3. & Br. Issues 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, & 21.) And Mr. Fitzh. saith there that this Statute of West. 2. is good Law; and for that it is not in use much inconvenience is.

27 H. 8. f. 3.

As if his land be worth xij C. l. by the year, and one months space between the Teste and the Return, there C. l. issues must be returned upon him. Finch 353.

The Sheriff returned upon the tenant or defendant but 7 d. in issues upon the Distress, and therefore the Sheriff was to be amerced (by the opinion of Fortescue) for that he had returned less than the Costs of the writ of Distress, which is 13 d. But quære whether the Sheriff shall be amerced only, for returning too small issues, for by the opinion of Paston in the same case, it seemeth rather that the Pl. shall have his Averment against the Sheriff upon the aforesaid Statute of Westm. 2. and so to have his writ to the Justices of Assize, to enquire thereof, and so to charge the Sheriff with the overplus; and besides to have the Sheriff amerced according to the Statute. Vide Abr. d'Ass. 115. & 137. & 19 H. 6. 8. Br. issues 6.

And yet where the Sheriff hath returned too small issues, upon the tenant or defendant, if in time he prayeth to amend his return therein, the Court in favour will permit it. Br. Issues 1. 27 H. 8. fol. 3.

In a Writ of Right of ward, or of ejectment of ward, after the Grand Distress, if the Def. cometh not in at the day prefixed, and that Proclamation be made, &c. according to the Statute of Marlebr. cap. 7. the Sheriff ought to return issues upon the Defendant, &c. Vide hic cap. 102.

Upon a Distress against the def. the Sheriff must return issues. Hic cap. 56.

Upon a Distress to Distress the suitors for not suffering the Sheriff to Record the Plea in a Court Baron, &c. the Sheriff is to return issues upon the suitors. Fitz. Record. 7. & Record. 15.

But in the former case the Sheriff returned but 12 d. in issues upon the suitors, Fitz. Record. 15.

And upon a Distress, though the words of the writ be Quod distring' per omnes terras & catalla sua, &c. yet the Sheriff ought to distress him but reasonably, &c. Hic cap. 56. tit. Distress.

And yet if the issues returned upon any be never so great, it seemeth the party hath no remedy, but they shall be forfeited, or the Sheriff shall be charged therewith if they be extorted. Hic cap. 11.

Upon

8 F. 4. c. 2.

Upon proces against any person, for retaining or giving of liveries, or against any which is retained (contrary to the Statute,) the Sheriff ought to return upon the Defendant (being a person sufficient) no less than 20 s. at the first day of the distress, and at the second day 30 s. and at the third day 40 s. and so at every day after more by 10 s. in issues; and if any Sheriff do the contrary, he shall forfeit for every such return against the form aforesaid 20 s.

Retainers.

The Stat. of West. 2. cap. 39. doth give an averment against the return of the Sheriff if he return too small issues; and yet a man shall not aver against the Sheriff's Waplift, that he might have returned greater issues, &c. But against the Sheriff himself only, by this Statute of Westm. 2. Fitz. Averment 43.

Averment.

But by the Statute of 1 E. 3. cap. 5. made against the false returns of Waplifts of Franchises (which have full return of writs) a man shall have Averment, and recover against them (as well as against the Sheriff) and that of too little issues returned, as in other cases: and all the punishment shall fall only upon the Waplifts.

Fitz. Averment 15.

Note, that the Plaintiff may aver against the return of the Sheriff when he returneth too small issues, as aforesaid. But the Def. cannot have such averment, and this by force of the Stat. of West. 2. c. 39. For before that Statute the Plaintiff had no remedy at the Common Law, but only his action of the Case against the Sheriff in such case, which remedy the Plaintiff may have still.

Fitz. Averment 25. & 45

Note also, that an averment of too small issues lieth as well against the return of the Sheriff of too small issues returned upon Jurors, as upon the party, &c. for this Stat. of West. 2. was made to oust all delays by false returns; and the party is as well delayed where the Sheriff returneth too small issues upon the Jurors, as where he returneth too small issues upon the Defendant, 11 E. 2. Fitz. Averment 45.

And herewith agreeth the Book 2 R. 3. fol. 12. b. where the Sheriff should have been amerced for returning too small issues upon Jurors, but that the Sheriff was there present, and amended the same.

And yet in the Book 10 H. 7. fol. 11. some hold that too small issues returned upon Jurors, was not within the Statute.

CAP. 91.

What Issues the Sheriff, &c. must return upon Jurors.

By the Common Law the Sheriff was to return no issues, upon a Venire facias Jurator. Neither was it needful (or at least not used, nor required) by the Common Law, to return any great issues, upon any Writs of Habeas Corpora or Distring' Jurator. until the Statutes of 35 H. 8. cap. 6. & 27 Eliz. cap. 6.

But for the more expedition of Justice, and more speedy Trial of issues which are to be tried by the verdict of 12 men, (which in former times were greatly delayed, and that chiefly for lack of appearance of the persons returned to try such issues) there have been divers Statutes made for the better expedition of Justice to be had in such manner of trial of Issues; As also in some cases of Enquiry, as hereafter followeth.

And as it is the Law that for execution of Justice every man shall be impannelled when need requireth, so it is a reasonable Law that such as will not appear, should have some punishment for their not appearing (for else the Law would be clearly frustrate in that point.) And the punishment or pain in such case is, that they shall lose issues to the King for their not appearing. Dr. St. 38.

More, that upon reasonable cause proved before the Justices of Assise, the said Justices may discharge any Juror of the issues upon him returned, and the Sheriff, &c. having commandment by the said Justices to omit the returning of such issues as aforesaid upon such Juror, shall be therein discharged of the penalty aforesaid, for the non-returning of the said issues; also if the Justices of Assise do not come at the day appointed, or that the Assise be discontinued for any other occasion (other than by default of Jurors) then every of the Jurors shall be discharged of their issues, &c. and the Sheriff, &c. shall be likewise discharged of the penalty of these Statutes for the not returning of such issues, as therein are limited.

2 R. 3. 13.

And yet if the Sheriff upon a Distringas Jurat. shall return no manner of issues, and a full Jury shall appear, &c. this is no error; for the King hath no loss, and the issues are for the King, which he is not to have if a full Jury do appear. Br. Rector. 86.

5 H. 7. l. 8.

The same Law is, that if the Sheriff shall return issues upon 12, and none upon the rest, and a full Jury shall appear. Ibidem.

If the Sheriff shall return a Juror in issues which is not sufficient (or hath no land) he is punishable, &c. the Sheriff shall be charged to pay those issues himself.

If upon an Habeas corpora, or Distringas Jurat. the Sheriff, &c. shall return any issues upon any Hundred or Juror, whereas the same Hundred or Juror was not lawfully summoned, warned, or distrained in that behalf, then the Sheriff, &c. shall lose for every such offence double so much as the said issues returned upon such Hundred or Juror not lawfully summoned, warned, or distrained, shall amount unto, the one half thereof to the King, the other half to him that will sue for the same. 5 El. cap. 25. & 35 Henric. 8. cap. 6.

Upon every precept directed to the Sheriff from Justices of the Peace, to return them a Jury to enquire of a Riot, the Sheriff ought to return upon every person so by him impannelled, at the first day twenty shillings in issues, and at the second forty shillings, and the Sheriff for his default herein shall forfeit 20 l. Sur Riots.

2 H. 5. c. 8. By the Statute of 2 H. 5. cap. 8. upon a Commission granted out to enquire of the defaults of the Justices of the Peace and old Sheriff, in not executing the Statute made for suppressing of Riots, the Coroners shall return the Enquest, and they shall return upon every person impannelled, at the first day (when issues are to be lost) 20 s. at the least, and at the second day 40 s. at the least, and at the third C s. at the least, and at every day after the double at least, upon pain of 40 l. and if it happen that the said Sheriff so reputed in default be discharged of his Office at the time that such Commission shall be awarded out of the Chancery, then the new Sheriff of the same County, his successor immediate or immediate for the time being (and not the Coroners) shall make the pannel upon the Commission, returnable in the manner and form as the said Coroners should do in time when the Sheriff so reputed in default continued in his Office, and the same new Sheriff in default of returning such issues, which the Coroners be to return as aforesaid, shall forfeit 40 l. to the King.

Upon an Information taken upon the Statute of Liberties (made anno 8 E. 4. cap. 3.) the Sheriff ought to return in issues, at the first day 20 s. at the second day 30 s. at the third 40 s. and at every day after for every time to increase them 10 s. upon pain of 20 s. to the Sheriff for every default.

4 H. 6. 7. Note also, that if there appear so many Jurors, so that twelve are ^{12 appear, nul} sworn upon the issue, then the rest which made default shall not lose ^{issues terra.} any issues; otherwise (sc. if twelve do not appear) those which appear shall have their appearance noted, sc. entered and recorded, and shall save their issues, and the rest which made default shall lose their issues. Br. Issues 16. Stat. 8 E. 4. cap. 3.

And yet when eight, &c. of the Jury appear, and the rest make default, by reason whereof they are to lose their issues, and at the same time the Plaintiff is demanded, and is nonsuit, this shall save the issues of the Jurors, quod nota. Br. Issues 14.

A Jury do appear and after make default, they shall lose their issues. Br. Enquest 42.

Tales is a Latin word, signifying like or such, and is here used for a supply of men impannelled upon a Jury, and not appearing, or at their appearance challenged as not indifferent; Here the Judge upon Petition granteth a supply to be made by the Sheriff, of some other men there present, Tales, or like in reputation to those that were impannelled.

Also by the Statute of 35 H. 8. where the principal Jury do not fully appear, or that after appearance of a full Jury, by challenge of any of the parties the Jury is like to remain untaken for default of Jurors, there the Justices upon request may cause a Tales de circumstantibus to be returned or named by the Sheriff, &c. But yet those of the principal Jury which made default shall lose their issues notwithstanding that the Jury shall be full upon the Tales, &c. Br. Issues 16.

Note, that a Tales de circumstantibus may be granted at the suit or request of the Plaintiff, or the Defendant; as also upon and in popular actions; and the Sheriff (or other minister to whom the making of the return shall appertain) shall add and annex to their former panels, the names of the persons so named and impanelled upon the Tales, &c.

14 El. c. 9.

Note, that there may be many Tales, one after another till the Jury be full; as a Decem Tales, an Octo Tales, a Sex Tales, &c. Finch. 4. 14.

But every Tales must be of a less Number than the former; as after an Octo Tales a Sex Tales; but not a Decem Tales, nor an Octo Tales again. Ibidem.

Also every Tales must be fewer in number than the Principal Panel: As where the Panel or Jury is of 12, there may be a Decem, or Octo Tales, &c. Or in any Attaint where the Jury is 24, there may be a Viginti Tales, &c. But in Indiments and Appeals that touch life, a Tales may be of a greater number than the principal Panel. Ibidem.

Also every Tales must be an even Number. Ibidem.

And they must be others of the same sort that the principal Panel were of. Ibidem.

By the Statute made 51 H. 3. de Scaccario, all the Kings Courts, Justices, Commissioners, and others, shall deliver into the Exchequer (at Michaelmas yearly) the Estraits of Fines and Amerciaments made, assessed or taxed before them, and of all issues and other things wherefore the Estraits are wont to be delivered there, &c. And from thence they shall make proces against the parties to answer thereunto, and to satisfy the King of that which is done unto him.

The Commissioners of Sewers shall also yearly (at Michaelmas) deliver their Estraits into the Exchequer, &c. 13 Eliz. c. 9.

Also the Estraits of the value of the Cattel forfeited in case the Secunda Superoneratione shall be put into the Exchequer by the Justices.

No Sheriff, &c. shall levy any issues other than he hath warrant for out of the Exchequer by the Estraits of the Justices; neither shall the Sheriff be charged with any other issues than those for which he shall have such warrant out of the Exchequer. And in those Estraits every man shall be charged for issues forfeited like as of amerciaments. And by the Stat. 43 E. 3. cap. 9. Sheriffs must levy their issues by their estraits under the Seal of the Exchequer, upon pain to yield treble damages to the party grieved, and to make fine to the King.

And yet (as Mr. Lambert telleth us) The Estraits of the Justices of Peace be now an immediate warrant for the Sheriff, to levy not only the Fines and Amerciaments, but also all other issues, penalties, losses, forfeitures, and sums whatsoever arising before them, (And therefore whatsoever sums are to be Estraited into the Exchequer) the same the Sheriff may now levy upon the said Justices Estraits,
Lambert

And note, that these Estreats of the Justices (being made by the Clerks of the Peace out of their Records) are to be indented by the Clerks of the Peace, and by them to be delivered to the Sheriff and to the Barons of the Exchequer, Lamb. ibid.

But the Sheriff in many Counties is herein wronged by the Clerks of the Peace, who receive all the fines, and thereout pays (or might pay) the Justices wages, and then deliver the rest to the Sheriff, and should make his Estreats accordingly; whereas many Clerks of the Peace put up the surpluse (if there be any) yea sometimes all into their own purse, and the Sheriff pays it to the King and never hath it. CAP. 92.

Now concerning the choosing, and returning of Knights and Burgeses, of the Parliament; and for the levying of their wages: and what the Sheriff is to do therein.

Parliament. By the Statute made, 5 R. 2. c. 4. every person (be he Archbishop, 5 R. 2.
Bishop, Duke, Earl, Baron, Knight, Citizen, Burges, or other) shall upon Summons come to the Parliament, &c. And if any Sheriff be negligent in making his returns of writs of the Parliament, or that he leave out of the said returns any Cities, or Boroughs, which be bound, and of ancient times were wont to come to the Parliament, liament, he shall be amerced, & otherwise punished in manner as was accustomed to be done, &c. and it seemeth now by the Stat. made 23 H. 6. cap. 15. that the Sheriff for every such default, shall incur the pain contained in the Stat. made 8 H. 6. cap. 7. which is to pay 100 l. to the King, and to have one years imprisonment, &c.

After such time as the Sheriff hath received the Kings writ for summons of the Parliament, and election of the Knights, &c. the Sheriff (or his Under-sheriff) before his next County Court, is to make out his Warrants, to his Wapstiks of every Hundred, commanding them thereby, to summon or warn the Freeholders within their several Wapstiks, to be at the next County, and there to make choice of their Knights, &c. Or else the Sheriff at some Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or some other general meeting of the County (to be between the receipt of the Kings writ, and his next County) may give publique Notice thereof to the Freeholders. Mes si le Vic. ne faire les Freeholders desre summon, ore sil ne done Notice semble que le Vic. sera puny come est avant dit.

But there are divers mischiefs in the choosing of these Knights for the Parliament worthy of consideration.

After the Sheriff hath received the Kings writ for the choosing of these Knights, the Sheriff at his next County Court, and betwixt the hours of eight and nine before noon, is to proceed to the Election without Collusion upon the pains limited by the Statute.

Now first the Sheriff having received this writ, often concealeth it, and giveth either no warning, Summons, or Notice thereof (or at least very small Notice is given) to the Freeholders; so that very few can be present to attend the Election.

Next some few being present (and perhaps laboured of purpose to be chosn) the Election is hastily oftentimes made by these few (with more hast than good speed) And before that the rest of the Freeholders be come in, and the Sheriff by one of the clock is gone, and the Election made and so returned.

Thirdly, the extraordinary labouring of voices beforehand; whereas this Election should be free.

Again, where this labouring for voices is, divers are sent for of new to give their voices therein, who were neither present at the reading of the said writ, nor during the hours appointed, yea perhaps come not in till the next day.

7 H. 4. c. 15.

By the Statute made 7 H. 4. c. 15. it was enacted, that the election of the Knights of Counties for the Parliament shall be made in the form following, i. e. at the next County to be holden after the delivery of the Kings writ to the Sheriff, for the election of Knights of Parliament, proclamation shall be made by the Sheriff in the full County of the day and place of Parliament; and that all they which be there present (as well suiters duly summoned for the same cause, as others) shall attend and in full County shall proceed to the election of their Knights for the same County for the Parliament freely and indifferently, notwithstanding any request or commandment to the contrary. And after that they be chosen, the names of the persons so chosen (be they present or absent) shall be writtten in an Indenture under the seals of all them that did chuse them, and tacked to the same writ of Parliament, which Indenture so sealed and tacked shall be holden for the Sheriffs return of the said writ, touching the Knights of the Shires; and in the writs of Parliament to be made hereafter this clause shall be put: Et electionem tuam in pleno comitatu tuo factam, distincte & aperte sub sigillo tuo & sigillis eorum qui electioni illi interfuerunt nobis in cancellariam nostram ad diem & locum in brevi contentum certifies indilate, Stat. 11 H. 4. 1. 6 H. 6. 4. 23 H. 6. 15.

Forf. le Vice.

And after by the Statute made undecimo Henrici quarti capite primo, 11 H. 4. & 8 Hen. 6. cap. 7. it was further ordained, that if it be found by any Enquest befoze Justices of Assise that any Sheriff shall make any return contrary to the tenor of the former Statute made 7 H. 4. cap. 15. That then the said Sheriff should forfeit one hundred pound to the King, and have one years imprisonment without bail. And besides the Knights so unduely returned shall lose their wages, &c. of old accustomed: But yet the Sheriff and Knights may have their Traverse to such Enquests, &c. 6 H. 6. cap. 4. & 8 H. 6. cap. 7. Also the Sheriff may be sued for perjury in the Star-Chamber for such false return. Dyer 167. hic cap. 2.

Dyer 168.

Again, by the Statute made An. 23 H. 6. cap. 15. The Sheriff making any return contrary to any of these Statutes, shall forfeit another hundred pound to the other person chosen Knight for the same Shire, and not duely returned.

Quelx persons sera eslie.

By the Statute made 1 H. 5. c. 1. & 8 Hen. 6. It was enacted, That none should be chosen Knight of the Shire, unless they be resident within the Shire where they shall be chosen, the day of the date of the writ of the summons of the Parliament. And by another Statute made 23 Hen. 6. the Knights of the Shires for the Parliament, must be notable Knights, or such Esquires, or Gentlemen born, of the same County, as be able to be Knights: and no man may be such Knight, which stands in the degree of a Peoman or under.

1 H. 5.
8 H. 6.

But no Sheriff during the time of his Sherifftwick, may be chosen Knight, or Burgess, of the Parliament (for the same County, or for any other County, as it seemeth.) See the form of the writ for the Choosing of Knights. Hic postea.

Also the Mayor of a City or Town Corporate, shall not be chosen to be Burgess, or Citizen, for the Parliament. Br. Parliament 7.

Persons attainted of Treason, or Felony, being chosen to be Knights, Citizens, or Burgesses of the Parliament, it seemeth the Sheriff ought to return them. See 1 H. 7. fol. 4. Br. Parliament 37. where divers Knights and Burgesses were attainted of Treason by a former Parliament, and by the opinion of all the Justices, those Knights and Burgesses were not to sit in the Parliament House, until the act of their Attainder were reversed, but after they might sit.

But yet a man attainted of Treason, or Felony, or outlawed, ought not to be chosen a Knight or a Burgess for the Parliament; For all Knights and Burgesses ought to be Legales homines.

Neither ought any man that is in Execution for debt, &c. be chosen a Knight or Burgess for the Parliament. Crompt. Autor. des Courts 11. And yet such persons being chosen, it seemeth that the Sheriff ought to return their names.

Also the choosers of the Knights for the Parliament ought to be only of such persons as are resident and dwelling within the said Shire the day of the date of the said writ, &c. 1 Hen. 5. 1. & 8 Hen. 6. 7.

Also the choosers of Burgesses for the Parliament, must be only of Citizens and Burgesses resident, dwelling, and free, in the same Cities and Burroughs.

Esloirs quelx.

And yet if a man have two dwelling houses in several Shires, and a family or servants at each house; Or if a man keep his family in one County, City, or Burrough, and abideth in service in another County, &c. in both these cases he may be a chooser of the Knights of the County, or of the Citizens, or Burgesses, of the City or Burrough, where he keepeth his family; for he shall be said in Law to dwell in each of the said Counties, or Burroughs, &c. (But he must have 40 s. Freehold where he is in service, &c.) Crompt. Autor. des Courts 3.

Also

Also a Freeman or Burghers of a Town Corporate, having 40 s. Freehold lands or tenements within the County (per annum) may be a chooser of the Knights of that Shire, &c. in which the Burrough where he dwelleth, is. And so one man may have a voice, and may be a chooser of the Knights or Burghesses, in two several places, &c.

Vide hic fol. 199. & scribe hic.

8 H. 6. cap. 7.
10 H. 6. c. 2.

Also by the said Statutes made 8 H. 6. & 10 H. 6. It was Ordained, That no person shall be a chooser of the Knights for the Parliament, except he hath Freehold lands or tenements within the same County, to the value of forty Shillings by the year at the least above all charges: And that such as have the greatest number of voices of them, which may spend forty Shillings per annum as aforesaid, shall be returned Knights for the Parliament for the same County, by Indentures sealed between the Sheriff, and the said choosers: and the Sheriff hath power (given to him by the same Statute of 8 H. 6. 7.) to examine upon oath every chooser, how much he may expend by the year, if he doubteth thereof.

And so the Sheriff is here made a Judge in this Case, i.e. to examine and judge of the ability of these Choosers of the Knights for the Parliament. But for that no person shall be a Chooser of the Knights for the Parliament, except he hath Freehold lands or tenements to the value of forty Shillings by the year, above all charges, &c. To avoid many ambiguities and doubts which have arisen concerning these words, Lands or Tenements, you must understand that these words are thus to be taken or construed.

First, he that hath no other Freehold (or Inheritance) but advowsons of Churches, though they be of the value of 40 s. (or 40 l.) by the year, yet thereby he hath no such sufficiency, nor such Freehold land or Tenements, as that thereby he may be a Chooser of the Knights of the Parliament, &c.

He which hath no other Freehold than Common of Pasture, though that be to the value of 40 s. per annum, yet he may be no Chooser: But he which hath a Freehold house or lands, of the yearly value of 30 s. and besides hath thereto belonging a Common of pasture appendant, to the yearly value of 20 s. he may be a Chooser, &c.

Otherwise it is, if his house be a new erected Tenement, or erected within the time of memory; for that Common Appendant must be by prescription; And therefore except such house be of the yearly value of 40 s. besides the Common, it enableth him not.

If a man have a Freehold Estate of Lands or Tenements in the right of his wife, or pur terme de autre vie, of the yearly value of 40 s. it is sufficient.

And yet if after the Return the Land be evicted, or that the wife, or cestuy que vie do die, he may be challenged. Co. L. 272. b.

If a man hath a free Warren of Coneyes, the which Communibus Annis is worth 40 s. per annum, this is sufficient Freehold, &c.

If a man maketh 40 s. by the year (Communibus Annis) of his Wood-sales, Cole-mines, Tythes impropriate, or the like, being his Freehold, these are sufficient, &c.

But if A. hath Lands to the value of 40 l. per annum, and letteth the same out to another for life, reserving no Rent, or but 20 s. or 30 s.
Rent

Rent per annum, this seemeth not to be sufficient Freehold for A. during the term, &c. to give his Vote.

Yet if he letteth such his Lands to another but for years (though for divers years) reserving only 20 s. or 30 s. Rent per annum, (Or absque aliquo reddendo) during the said years, yet here he may be a Chooser, &c. in regard of the Freehold in him.

If Lands be lettē for years, the remainder to A. in Fee-simple, or in Fee-tail, here A. may be a Chooser, &c. for the Freehold which is in him, if the Lands be worth 40 s. per annum.

If a man hath 40 s. Rent per annum, Or an Annuity of 40 s. per annum issuing out of Lands, during his life, this is sufficient.

Note, that by the Common Law, all Freemen of England, had a voice in the Election of these Knights, within the Counties where they dwelt: But now by these Statutes of 8 H. 6. & 10 H. 6. they are restrained to such as have 40 s. Freehold per annum within the County, &c.

Again, it seemeth they must be such Freeholders, as do contribute to the wages of the Knights of the Shire: Or else such as are suiters to the County Court.

Clergy-men, for their Spiritual livings, are holden to have good voices in the Election of these Knights.

Fellows of Houses or Colledges in Universities, are holden to have no voices (in this Election of Knights) for or by reason of their Chambers or other availes, &c. in their Colledges.

Gentlemen of the Houses of Court, or Chancery, are holden to have no voices herein, by reason of their Chambers there.

Note, that the Election of Knights for the Parliament, ought to be made by the Sheriff in his full County; and between the hours of eight and eleven before noon, without collusion, upon the pains above limited, and this by the Statute, 23 H. cap. 15.

And all such as be Choosers of these Knights must be present in the County Court, between the said hours of eight and eleven.

Quære if they ought not to be present at the reading of the said writ of the Summons of the Parliament.

If the Election of these Knights be made by the Freeholders in the full County between the hours of eight and eleven as aforesaid, although the Sheriff shall make his Return, and seal his Indentures afterwards, and in another place, yet it is good.

So then Sheriffs ought to make due Election of Knights for the Parliament, by the Freeholders of the County, and in open County Court, and between eight and eleven of the Clock in the forenoon, And ought to return for Knights of the Parliament, such persons as are so chosen by the greater number of Freeholders (dwelling within the said County) which may expend forty shilling per annum, at the least within the same County, upon the pains above limited: See Dyer fol. 60. where Bronker Sheriff of Wiltshire was sued in the Star-Chamber upon an Information of perjury at the Kings suit, for a false return made of Sir John Thin to be Knight of the Parliament for the said County, Where in truth, Penruddocke was chosen by the greater number of the Freeholders in the said County, in deceit of the County, and of the whole Realm.

Note, that such only are to be Knights of the Parliament, as shall be be chosen by the greater number of the Freeholders present in Court as aforesaid; And therefore if the Sheriff shall Return any other, upon complaint thereof made to the House of Commons, they, after Examination and due proof hereof, may and will cause the Sheriff to amend his Return, &c. and besides they will punish the Sheriff: And may cause a new writ to be sent out, and so a new Election to be made, where they shall see cause.

The Citizens and Burghesses of Burroughs, ought to be chosen of persons, resident, dwelling, and free, in the same Cities and Burroughs, and of none others, 1 H. 5. cap. 1. taken aliter in usu.

23 H. 6. c. 15.
Cromp. 208.
P. Parl. 5.

Also every Sheriff after the receipt of the Kings writ for summoning burgesses of the Parliament for the Election of Knights of the Parliament, ought forthwith to make out his Warrants under the seal of his office, to every Mayor, and Bayliffs of Cities and Burroughs, within the County, reciting in his said Warrants the writ of Parliament, commanding them thereby to chuse Citizens and Burghesses to come to the Parliament: (sc. if it be a City to chuse Citizens for the same City by Citizens; and if it be a Burrough to chuse Burghesses by Burghesses or Free men of the same Burrough.) And those Mayors and Bayliffs must make a lawful return of that Precept to the Sheriff, by Indentures made between them and the Sheriff of their Election, and of their names which are elected. And the Sheriff must set his hand and seal of Office to the one part of the Indentures, and then deliver it to the Mayor, or Burghesses, or Citizens to be kept, And to the other part the Mayor, or Citizens, or Burghesses must set their hands and seals, and deliver it as their deeds to the Sheriff, to be certified and returned by him, with the writ of Summons, to the Clerk of the Crown (who will have 4 s. for his fees, for every Indenture.) And the Sheriff ought to make a good and true Return of all this (sc. of the said writ, and of every such return to him made by the Mayors, &c.) upon the pains hereunder limited.

Note, that if the Sheriff shall do any thing contrary to this Statute of 23 H. 6. 15. (concerning the election of Burghesses, or due returning of them.) Or of any other Statute made for the election of Knights to come to the Parliament, he shall incur the pain of one hundred pound to the King, and imprisonment for one year without bail; And further shall pay to the party so chosen, Knight, Citizen or Burghess, and not by him duly returned (or to any other person, who in default of such Knight, Citizen or Burghess, will sue) one other hundred pounds, to be recovered by action of debt, against the said Sheriff, his Executors or Administrators.

The form of the Indenture for the Citizens or Burgeses.

THis Indenture made, &c. (reciting the day, and year, and the Kings Stile at large, as before, &c.) Witnesseth, That by vertue of a Warrant to me directed from Sir A. B. Knight, Sheriff of the County of Cambridge, for the electing and chusing of two Burgeses, men of good understanding, wit, knowledge, and discretion, for causes concerning the weal publick of the Realm, to be at his Majesties High Court of Parliament to be holden at his Highness City of Westminster the day of next coming, I Mayor of the Borough or Town of Cambridge, with the whole assent and consent of the rest of the Burgeses there, have made choice and election of of Esquire, and of of Esquire, to be Burgeses for our said Borough of Cambridge, to attend at the said Parliament, according to the tenor of the said Warrant to me directed in that behalf. In witness whereof I have to these presents set our common Seal of our said Borough, the day and year first above written.

This Court of Parliament is the highest Court of England, wherein the King himself sitteth in person, and cometh thither at the beginning, and ending, and at other times at his pleasure.

Every Lord of the Parliament (as well Lords Spiritual as Temporal) is to be summoned severally, by the Kings writ, to come to the Parliament, at a certain day and place set down in the writ.

The form of which Writ is as followeth.

Carolus Dei gratia, &c. charissimo consanguineo nostro Joh. Comit. Essex salutem. Quia de advisamento & assensu Consilii nostri pro quibusdam arduis & urgentibus negotiis, nos, statum, & defensionem Regni nostri Angliæ, & Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ concernent' quoddam Parliamentum nostrum apud Civitatem nostram Westmonasterium 12. die Febr. proxim. futur. teneri ordinavimus, Et ibidem vobiscum, ac cum Prælati, Magnatibus, & Proceribus dicti Regni nostri Colloquium habere, vobis sub fide & ligeanciis quibus nobis tenemini firmiter injungend' mandamus, quod considerat' dictorum negotiorum arduitate & periculis imminentibus, Cessante excusatione quacunque dict. die & loco personaliter interfitis nobiscum, ac cum Prælati, Magnatibus, & Proceribus prædictis, super dictis negotiis tractatur' vestrumque Consilium impensur' Et hoc sicut nos & honorem nostrum, ac salvationem & defensionem Regni & Ecclesiæ prædictorum, Expeditionemque dictorum negotiorum diligitis, Nullatenus omittatis. Teste meipso apud Westmon. die Novemb. anno Regni nostri Angl. &c.

The like Writ is to be made to every Bishop, Mutatis mutandis.

Also Writs are directed to the Sheriff of every Shire, for the choosing of Knights, and Burgesses, of the Parliament.

The form of the Writ is as followeth.

Carolus Dei gratia, &c. Vicecom. Com. Cantabr. salutem. Quia de advisamento & assensu Consilii nostri pro quibusdam arduis & urgentibus negotiis, nos, statum, & defensionem Regni nostri Angliæ & Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ concernent' quoddam Parliamentum nostrum apud Civitatem nostram Westmon. 12. die Febr. proxim. futurum teneri Ordinavimus, Et ibidem cum Prælati, Magnatibus, & Proceribus dicti Regni nostri colloquium habere, Tibi præcipimus firmiter injungentes quod facta Proclamatione in proximo Comitatu tuo post receptionem hujus brevis nostri tenend' de die & loco prædict. duos milites gladiis cinctos, de magis idoneis & discretis Comitatus prædicti, Et de qualibet Civitate Comitatus illius duos Cives, Et de quolibet Burgo duos Burghenses de discretioribus & magis sufficientibus libere & indifferenter per illos qui proclam' hujusmodi interfuer' juxta formam Statutorum inde edit. & provis. Eligi facias, Et nomina eorundem Militum, Civium, & Burgensium, sic electorum, in quibusdam Indentur. inter te & illos qui hujusmodi Electioni interfuerint inde conficiend', sive hujusmodi Electi præsentés fuerint vel absentes, inseri: Eosque ad dict. diem & locum Venire fac. Ita quod iidem Milites plenam & sufficientem potestatem pro se & Communitate Comitatus præd. Ac dictos Cives & Burghenses, pro se & Communitat. Civitatum & Burgorum præd. divisim ab ipsis habeant, ad faciend' & consentiend' hiis quæ tunc ibidem de Communi Consilio dicti Regni nostri (Deo favente) contigerint Ordinari super negotiis antedictis, Ita quod pro defectu potestatis hujusmodi, seu propter improvidam Electionem Militum, Civium, & Burgensium prædictor', dicta negotia infecta non remaneant quovismodo. Nolumus autem quod tu, nec aliquis alius Vicecomes dicti Regni nostri aliququaliter sit Electus. Et Electionem illam in pleno Comitatu factam distincte & aperte sub Sigillo tuo, & Sigillis eorum qui Electioni illi interfuerint nobis in Cancellariam nostram ad dict. diem & locum certitices indultate. Remittens nobis alteram partem Indenturar. predictarum presentibus Consuet. una cum hoc breve. Telle meipso apud Westminster. die Novembr. Anno Regni nostri Angl. &c.

The forms of the Sheriffs Return upon this Writ, As also of the Indentures between the Sheriff and the Freeholders, And of the Indentures between the Sheriff and Burgeses. See hic Cap. 57.

AND note, that where the aforesaid Writ for summoning of the Parliament hath in it these words, De qualibet Civitate Comitatus illius duos Cives, that is to be intended where the City is no County in it self. For if it be a County of it self (as London, Norwich, and Leich.) then the Writ shall be directed to them, as it shall be to the Sheriffs of other Counties. Crompt. author. des Courts fol. 3.

And so every City which is a County in it self, shall have two Knights or Citizens, besides such Knights as are for the County in which the City is: As the City of Norwich shall have two Knights or Citizens, and the County of North. (for the same County) shall also have two Knights, & sic de similibus. Crompt. author. des Courts 28.

But for that (by the words of the former Writ) the Sheriff is to cause to be chosen, and is to Return de qualibet Civitate Com. duos Cives, & de quolibet Burgo duos Burgenes, &c. And again, for that by the aforesaid Stat. of 5 R. 2. 4. & 8 H. 6. & 23. it seems to be so penal to them, if any Sheriff shall leave out of his said Returns (of Writs of the Parliament) any Cities or Burroughs, which be bound and of ancient times were wont to come to the Parliament, I have therefore here inserted the names of all the Counties, Cities, Burroughs, and Ports, which do send Knights, Citizens, Burgeses, and Barons, to the Parliament of England, as I find them in Mr. Crompton.

But the Sheriff shall execute no such plaint (or thing) without the Kings special Writ. 20 H. 3. c. 3.

Note, that the writ de Redisseisin, is, Scire facias præfatum S. (the disseisor, & D. qui terram illam nunc tenet, quod Inquisitioni interfuit, &c. And therefore the Sheriff (upon this writ) ought to summon the said parties (i.e. the disseisor, and the terr tenant) to be before him at the time when he maketh this Inquiry; but the summoning of the terr tenant, seemeth only to be, to give in evidence, &c.

And for that by the former Stat. of Merton made 20 H. 3. there was no remedy given or provided in case where the Sheriff had delivered the party without the Kings Licence, &c. therefore by another Stat. made at Marlebr. Anno 52 H. 3. it was ordained, that if the Sheriff shall deliver any such persons as are convicted of Redisseisin, without the special commandment of the King (or Judgment, &c. of the Kings Court) the Sheriff shall be grievously amerced, and besides, the parties so delivered shall be grievously punished for their wrong or trespass. 52 H. 3. c. 8. Fitz. 189. c.

Dyer 61. 2.

Also by the Statute of Westm. 2. (made anno 13 E. 1. cap. 26.) the Redisseisors shall not be repleviable by the Common writ, i.e. they shall not be delivered or let go out of prison (by the Sheriff, &c.) by the Common Writ, de Homine Repleg. nor by any other writ, nor without writ, but shall remain in prison until he be discharged by the Kings special commandment, which must be in manner following, viz. Where a man is convicted of Redisseisin, he ought to make his fine in the Chancery, and from thence to have a writ directed to the Sheriff, making mention that he hath made his fine with the King for the Redisseisin, and commanding the Sheriff to enlarge him, &c. And this was the opinion of the Court (except Inglesfield) anno 18 H. 8. fol. 1. for that the words of the Statute of Marlebr. cap. 8. be, that such offenders shall not be delivered without the Kings special commandment, &c. And this special commandment cannot be but out of Chancery: For in the same case Inglesfield held, that the Justices of the Common Pleas, having the record before them (by a Certiorare) that the Justices there had power to assess the fine, and to award such a special writ out of that Court to the Sheriff, to let the prisoner at large: And that such a writ issuing out of that Court was the special commandment of the King; and that the meaning of the Statute was only to prohibit the Sheriff to assess the fine, and not to prohibit the Justices, who are Justices of Record so to do, Ideo quare.

But note, that the Sheriff is not to dispute the authority of the Court, &c. See Co. 6. 54. & hic antea fol.

And yet, See Fitz. 190. f. if a man be convicted before the Sheriff of Redisseisin, before he shall be delivered out of prison, he ought ought to remove the Record into the Kings Bench, and there to make his fine with the King, &c.

The reason of the punishment inflicted by the Law upon Redisseisors, or such as shall disseise others who are in by judgment of Law, is chiefly to avoid oppression, and that there might be end of suits, for otherwise malicious persons by their infinite vexations would weary such as have right, and in the end compel them to relinquish and give over their right, contrary to the Rule and reason of Law, and to the dishonour of the Common Laws of this Realm, which utterly abhor infiniteness and protraction or delaying of suits. CAP. 94.

Where the Sheriff, &c. may break open an house, or break open the doors, &c. to execute the Kings Proces or Writ.

When any house is recovered in or by any real action, or by any Ejectione firmæ, there the Sheriff or Officers, upon an habere facias seisinam, or possessionem, may break the house and deliver seisin and possession thereof to the Plaintiff, for that after Judgment it is no more (in right or in the Judgment of Law) the house of the Defendant or Tenant, Co. 5. 91.

Pea the Sheriff upon the Habere facias Seisinam, may and ought to execute the writ, although that indeed an Estranger be seised of the Land, and that neither of the parties to the writ were seised thereof. Pl. Com. Manxel's Case, fol. 12, 13.

But the Sheriffs, nor his Officers, cannot justifie the breaking of any mans house to make execution upon a Capias ad satisfaciendum; Nor break any house or chest, &c. to make execution by virtue of a Fieri facias; nor to execute any other the Kings proces upon the body or goods of any person, at the suit of any Subject (for any debt, damage, trespass, or the like, for there it is but a particular interest of the party) and if he do, he is therein a Trespasser. But where the King is a party, there the Sheriff may justifie the breaking of the house to do execution of his proces, if he cannot otherwise execute his proces; And yet first he there ought to make request to have the dooz opened, and must withall signifie the cause of his coming. Co. 5. 91. & 13 E. 4. 9. Fitz. Bar. 110. Br. Execution 100. Co. 5. 91, 92.

Note, that in all cases where the King hath any interest, the writ is Quod non omittas propter aliquam libertatem, and therefore the privilege of any mans house will not hold against the King. But where the King hath no interest, but only a common person, there the Sheriff, although he make request to have the dooz opened, &c. and that denial be made him to enter, &c. yet he may not break them, and so enter and do execution of his proces, for by such means great inconvenience might arise, that men in the night, as well as in the day, should have their houses broken, upon any feigned matter. For although that the Sheriff himself be a man of especial note and worth, and his office of great authority and trust, yet we see by daily experience, that all or the most part of the Kings Writs are served and executed by their Under-Sheriffs and Bayliffs, which most commonly are persons of small worth and account.

And yet where the Sheriff shall break a mans house, or chest, being lockt, &c. to make execution upon a Venire facias, although he shall be punished as a trespasser for breaking the house or chest, yet he shall not be punished for taking the goods, 18 E. 4. fol. 4. but the execution which the Sheriff so made, is good. Br. Execution 100. Co. 5. 95.

Note, that in all cases where the dooz is open, the Sheriff and his Officers may enter into the house, and make execution, at the suit of any Subject, either of the body or goods: Co. 5. 92. But if the dooz be shut to, and only latched, (but not locked nor barred, &c.) the Officer may not draw the latch and so enter, per Curiam M. 36 Eliz.

And yet if the dooz be open, and the Sheriff or bayliff come to the house, and sheweth the Kings proces, and offereth to enter to execute the same pro-process (being at the suit of any Subject) and the owner of the house, &c. shuts the dooz against the Sheriff, &c. here the Officer, giving Notice of the cause of his coming, and requesting to have the dooz open; may break open the house, if the party refuseth to open the dooz. Vide Co. 5. 92, 93.

I have seen the report of a Case adjudged in Mich. Term An. 17 Jacobi Regis, in Banco Regis Rotul. 1049. between White Plt. and Wilk. bare (an Under-sheriff) Def. where in an action of Trespass Quare clausum fregit, domum intravit, ostium fregit, & feras fregit & abiecit, &c. The Def. for the breaking of the house, &c. justified as followeth, viz. He pleaded that the Sheriff of that County had made him Under-sheriff, and that a Fieri facias was directed unto him, to make execution of the goods of the Plt. And that he made his warrant to five of his bayliffs to make execution, and that his bayliffs found the dooz open and entered, and that the Plt. shut the dooz upon them, and detained them in prison in his house by the space of 24 hours, And that he to deliver the bayliffs did break the dooz, and that he being so in peace in the house, for the execution of the said writ; he broke open the inward doozs, And thereupon the Plt. Demurred; And three Objections were made to this justification.

1. For that the authority to the bayliffs was made to five jointly, or severally, and that two only made the execution.

2. For that according to Semaynes Case, Co. 5. 92. upon a Fieri fac. in case of a Subject, the Officer cannot break the house of the party to make execution, for his house is his castle or safeguard: And admitting that he may break the first dooz, yet being entered he cannot break open the inward dooz.

3. Admitting that he may break the doozs, yet it ought to be averred that there were goods within the rooms whereof the doozs were broken.

To the first Objection the Council of the Def. answered, That it hath been often adjudged (and named one Abington's Case in Banco,) that upon such an Execution and Warrant, the bayliffs, five, four, three, two, or one of them might execute the same, for that it is for the administration of Justice, and for the publick good that Execution be made: And all the Court were against the Plt. in this point: And Sir John Doderidge said, That meer strangers to the Warrant might aid the bayliffs in this case.

2. To the second point this diversity was taken, sc. when an Execution is once lawfully begun, there the Sheriff or his Officers may break the house to make Execution, &c. Otherwise when it is not lawfully begun; But here it was lawfully begun, for the outward dooz was open, and they lawfully entered into the house, so that after their Entry the Plt. cannot prevent the Execution, although that he might (peradventure) have prevented it, if that he had shut the dooz before the entry of the Officers: and for this also the case of Sir W. Filh was cited, wherein this former diversity was taken and agreed of for Law. The case was this, the Sheriff had a Capias ad satisfac. delivered to him against Filh, whereupon F. was apprehended, and then the said F. made an escape from the Sheriff and got into his house, and the Sheriff presently broke open the dooz of his house, and took him again, and it was adjudged to be well and lawfully done, for that there was a lawful beginning of the Execution before, and that now he pursued the Execution lawfully begun; and all the Court agreed to this diversity. And Sir Henry Mountague Chief Justice said, True it is that an house is a castle, for him that dwelleth there, for his repose and safety, and that that it is privileged against the Execution of the Subject, when it is close and the doors shut, yet when in this case the entrie of the Minister of Justice was lawful, and the owner of the house shall abuse this privilege, and shall make resistance, and shall lay his hands, &c. upon the Minister of the Law, he hath thereby lost his privilege, and hath made resistance to the Law, which now will not protect him in such a case, and this is the reason, that every one which shall kill an Officer in the doing of his duty shall be a murderer. Dodridge, when a man hath begun a lawful Execution, such as shall resist the same do resist the act of the Law: and the possessions, houses, and lands of every man are chargeable by the Law to such Jurisdiction of the King and his Ministers (as it is in Manxel's Case, Plo. fol. 13.) Sir Robert Houghton, if one be arrested by the Sheriff, and he escapeth to his own house, and the Sheriff pursueth him, and breaketh open the doors of his house, and taketh him again, and so continueth his first possession of his prisoner, the party shall never take benefit of this his own wrongful escape.

3. And as to the third point the Council of the Def. answered, That for breaking of the inner doors, they needed not to aver that there were any goods there, for the Officer cannot know that, before his entrie, and by intendment a man hath goods in his own house, whereunto Dodridge and Houghton Justices did agree, and said further, That if the Sheriff were in one room, he may break open another (to execute his writ, &c.) upon refusal to let him go in.

And as to that which was said in this case before, that the Sheriff cannot deliver his bayliffs upon his own authority, but ought to have sued out a writ de Homine Replegiando, Dodridge said, that were against all reason, that the Officer of the Law should be put to such an inconvenience for the execution of his Office. And Judgment was given by the whole Court against the Plt. And Justice Houghton moved that the Court ex Officio would grant out Process de bene gerendo, and an Attachment against the Plt. for thus abusing of the Officers of the Law.

The Sheriff and other the Kings Officers, which shall enter into any house or land, or shall meddle therewith, to do things requisite for the Execution of the commandment or writ of the King, or of his Courts, or for the Examination of the titles of the parties complainants, or the Execution of the rights tried or adjudged, are punishable: So that if A. be seised of land in fee upon a good and undefeasible title, and an stranger shall demand this land by a Præcipe, against another stranger, and upon this the Sheriff or Officer by virtue of the Præcipe cometh upon the land with Summoners, and summons him against whom the Præcipe is brought, and after the demandant recovereth against him by default, or by issue tried, And that by force or virtue of an habere facias seisinam the Sheriff cometh again and putteth him, who hath recovered, in seisin thereof, and then departeth: here A. cannot punish the Sheriff or other Officer, for their first coming, nor for their second coming upon the land, For that the Officer doth nothing but execute the Kings commandment, in manner and form as he had in charge. Plo. Manxel's Case, fol. 13. 14. And if A. shall shut or keep shut the door of the house so recovered (by default) or by issue tried, yet the Sheriff by virtue of the Habere facias seisinam, may break open the door and deliver seisin thereof to him which hath recovered, &c. Co. 5. 91. hic antea.

Whether upon an Injunction out of the Chancery for to deliver or yield the possession of an house, directed to the Defendant, and commanding manding the Sheriff upon an Attachment which is granted at the suite of the party (out of the Chancery) for not performing an Order of that Court, or for some other contempt) it seemeth the Officer cannot break open the house to take the party so offending. Crompt. Author. des Courts, fol. 33. Tamen quere, for that the words of the Attachment are thus, Ad respond. nobis tam de quodam contemptu nobis illat. &c. So as the King seemeth to be a party, &c. in regard of the contempt.

But upon a Commission of Rebellion out of the Chancery, the Sheriff, or his Officers (or the Commissioners, may break open the doors or house to apprehend the party being therein (whether he be within his own house, or in the house of any other, if they will not open the door, or deliver him, &c.) Crompt. Author. des Courts, fol. 47.

Also in Execution of the Commission of Bankrupts, the said Commissioners, or any Officer or Officers, or other person, by the said Commissioners, or the greater part of them deputed and appointed by their warrant under their hands and seals, may break open the houses, chambers, shops, warehouses, doors, trunks, or chests of the said Bankrupt, wherein the said Bankrupt, or any of his goods or estate shall be, or reputed to be, and to seize upon and order the body and goods, &c. 21 Jac. cap. 19.

But the Sheriff, &c. ought not to break open any mans house in the Night, to execute any Proces, or to do any other ministerial act, &c. See hic cap. 22.

Also it seemeth that the Sheriff cannot break open a door, or a gate, &c. to distrain for the Kings rent; or to levy any fine or amercement, issues, debts, or other such like duties due to the King, Quere if it be by the Kings Writ or Proces out of the Exchequer, &c. See hic cap. 19.

The Sheriff may break open, or beat down a Castle, Fort or House, to make replevy and deliverance of Cattel there impounded, and with holden, &c. Westm. 1. cap. 17. Hic cap. 114.

The Sheriff may not break open a Close to make a Replevin, where there is a gate, Except that be locked up, &c. 20 H. 6. 30.

Upon a Fieri facias if the Officer shall break open a house, door, or chest, to take goods in Execution, an action lieth against him, mes tantum purlu debruifer. 28 E. 4. 4.

And note, that in all cases where the King is a party (as for Felony, &c.) or hath interest in the business, the Sheriff, and his Officers, if no door be open, and that they cannot otherwise enter, may break open the doors, or house of the party offending, or any other house where the party is, to arrest the offender, or to make other execution of the Kings Proces, &c. Co. 5. 91. 92.

As if a man be Indicted of trespass, and a Capias pro fine be awarded to the Sheriff to take the body of the same person, The Sheriff may break open the party or offenders house, or doors, or any other mans house wherein the offender shall be, to arrest the offender. And so upon Hue and Cry levied after one who hath stricken another, so as he is in any danger of death. 7 E. 3. fol. 16. Co. 5. 91. 92.

If a man be outlawed of Treason, or Felony, or in any personal action, whereby a Capias utlagatum shall be directed to the Sheriff to apprehend and take him, the Sheriff, &c. may break open the house to apprehend him.

See more hereof in my Country Justice, titulo Forcible Entry.

But note, that though the King be a party, yet the Sheriff and his Officers, &c. before they shall or may break open any house or doors, ought to signifie the cause of their coming, and to make request that the doors may be opened, &c. Co. 5. 91.

Also note, that no mans house shall be any privilege to or for any stranger; Nor shall extend to protect any person that shall be there, or fly thither, Nor to protect the goods of any other that shall be brought or conveyed thither, to prevent any lawful execution, or to escape the ordinary proces of Law. But the privilege of every mans house shall extend only to himself and his family, And to and for his proper goods, or to such as are there lawfully and without fraud or covin: And therefore if the Sheriff having proces to be executed upon the body or goods of any stranger, do desire to have the door opened, or to have the body of the party flying, &c. thither, or the goods of another brought thither, to be delivered unto him, After such request made to open the door, or to have the body, or goods, of such person delivered him, if denial or refusal be made, or that it be not done, Then the Sheriff, or his Officers may break open the house, and may execute the Proces, without any danger of law. Co. 5. 93.

Also if the Sheriff do break open the house (in any the cases aforesaid) where any of the doors of the same house be open whereby he may enter, or where he may open the door by a key, or otherwise, without breaking the house or door, he is a trespasser, and subject to an Action.

CAP. 95.

Where the Sheriff, &c. may take Posse Comitatus.

Posse Comitatus The Sheriff, or his Under-Sheriff, or Bailiff, &c. may (nay ought if need be) to take the power of the County, (i.e. what numbers of persons they shall think good; to aid him, or them, to execute in every behalf the Kings Proces or Writ, (be it by a Writ of Execution, Replevin, Capias &c. or any other Writ) it being the Kings Commandment; And such as shall not assist the Sheriff, &c. therein, being required, shall pay a fine to the King. Bro. Parliament & fines 37. & Trespass 266.

The Statute of Westm. 2. cap. 39. is direct and full in this point, saying, Sheriffs make many times false answers, returning that they could not execute the Kings precept for the resistance of some great man; wherefore let the Sheriff beware from henceforth, for such manner of answers rebound much to the dishonor of the King. And as soon as his Bailiffs do testify that they have found such resistance, forthwith all things set a part (taking with him the power of the Shire) he shall go in proper person to do execution, &c. See hic antea fol. West. 2. 13 E. 1. 39.

But it seemeth by this Statute that the Sheriff shall not take the power of the County, but only post queremoniam factam, and not before, And yet it is holden that the Sheriff may do it by the Common Law, for quando aliquid mandatur, mandatur & omne per quod pervenitur ad illud. See 3 H. 7. fol. 1. & Co. 5. 115.

Also by the Statute of West. 1. cap. 17. If a distress be impounded in a castle or fortress, and detained, the Sheriff or Bayliff taking with him the power of the Shire, &c. may cause the said castle or fortress to be beaten down. See hic postea. West. 1. 17.

And by the Book 19 E. 2. Fitz. Execution 147. upon a writ of Replevin, the Sheriff returned that he could not deliver seisin for resistance, and for that the Sheriff did not take the power of the County, according to the Statute, he was amerced twenty marks.

So in a Replevin, if the Sheriff return that the cattle are in a fort, or a castle, so as he cannot make deliverance, he shall be amerced, causa qua supra.

Lam'b. 359.

Note, where the Sheriff, or other Officer, is enabled to take the power of the County, they may command, and ought to have the aid and attendance of all Knights, Gentlemen, Peomen, Husbandmen, Labourers, Tradesmen, Servants, and Apprentices, and of all other such persons, being above the age of 15 years, and that are able to travell: to which purpose also, see the Sheriffs Patent of Assistance (here before fol.) wherby there is commandment given to all Archbishops, Bishops, Dukes, Earls, Barons, Knights, and all other the Kings Subjects within the same County, to be aiding to the Sheriff in whatsoever belongeth to his Office.

And in such cases they are not appointed any number, but it is referred to the discretion of the Sheriff, &c. what number they will have to attend upon them, and how, and in what manner they shall be armed, weaponed, or otherwise furnished.

3 H. 7. 1.

The Sheriffs layliff to execute a Replevy, took with him three hundred men armed (modo guerrino) sc. with Brigandines, Jackes, and Guns, and it was holden lawfull: for the Sheriffs officer hath power to take assistance, as well as the Sheriff himself. Br. Riots 2. Vide Co 5 72.

12 H. 7. 17.

Also the Sheriff may take Posse Comitatus, in defence of the Realm, when any of the Kings enemies shall invade the land, &c. See here fol.

The Sheriff also may take Posse Comitatus, (any number that he shall think meet) to pursue, apprehend, arrest and imprison Traytors, Murderers, Robbers, and other Felons, or such as do break, or go about to break, or disturb the Kings peace.

And it seemeth, that in all cases where the Sheriff may take Posse Comitatus, here also he may make Proclamation, commanding in the Kings Name, all persons (meet) to come and go with him, and to aid him, for the apprehending of Traytors or Felons, suppressing of Rioters, pacifying of an Affray, or the like, Or in any other thing belonging to his Office, where he shall find any resistance.

The Sheriff, &c. upon any lawful Warrant. for the apprehending of any Popish Recusant, &c. may take Posse Comitatus, &c. See the Statute 3 Jac. cap. 4.

P. Recusants
52.

A man demands the Peace in Chancery against a great Lord, and hath a Supplicavit directed to the Sheriff, &c. there, if need be, the Sheriff may take Posse Comitatus, to aid him to arrest such a Lord, &c.

The Sheriff also may take Posse Comitatus, to execute the Precept or Warrant of the Justice of Peace: as in case of forcible entry, to make restitution, &c.

But it seemeth in such cases where the power of the County is to be raised or taken, that the Bayliff must have warrant from the Sheriff to do it, and that he must be a known Bayliff or Officer, that must do it.

Note, that the Sheriff, or his Officers, may take the power of the County by force of the Common Law, and that the Statute of Marl. cap. 21. & Westm. 1. cap. 17. & Westm. 2. cap. 39. are but a confirmation of the Common Law, for the taking of the power of the County by them, and that as well for the safeguard of their persons, as to execute the Kings Writ and Commandment by Writ. 3 H. 7. fol. 1.

And every man is bound to aid and assist the Sheriff, and to maintain him him in his Office in the Execution of the Kings Writ, for this is the Commandment of the King. 3 H. 7. 1. Br. Trespas 266.

Also the Sheriffs Bayliffs (or his servant, having the Sheriffs Warrant) hath the same authority that the Sheriff himself hath, and every man is bound to aid them in their business, and that both by the Common Law, and Common Reason.

And every man is sworn (saith Keble) to be aiding to the Sheriff in his business; and if they do it not at the request of the Sheriff, they shall be fined. 3 H. 7. 1. Br. fine pur Contempts 37. & Trespas 266. See also the Stat. of 2 H. 5. cap. 8. which indicteth both fine and imprisonment upon such as shall not aid the Sheriff, they being thereunto required.

If the Sheriff (or his Under-Sheriff, Bayliff, or Servant having the Sheriffs Warrant) shall take Posse Comitatus with them, without any sufficient cause, yet such as therein shall be aiding to the Sheriff, or his said Officers or servant, may well justifye such their doing by the Commandment of the Sheriff or his said Officers, &c. 5 H. 7. 4, 5.

C A P. 96.

Bailment of Prisoners by the Sheriff.

Bailment.

Bailment is properly the freeing or setting at liberty, of one Miosh. arrested, or imprisoned, upon action, either Civil or Criminal, upon sureties taken for his appearance at a day and place certainly assigned, Bracton, and cometh of the French word Bailler, 1. tradere, to deliver up, because he is then delivered into the hands of them, that bind themselves for his forth coming. Master Manwood maketh a great difference, between bail, and mainprize; for (saith he) he which is mainprised, is always said to be at large, and to go at his own liberty, out of ward, after he is let to mainprize, until the day of his appearance: But it is otherwise where a man is let to bail, until a certain day, for there he is always accounted by the Law to be in the ward or custody of his sureties, for the time they undertook for him; and they may, if they will, keep him in ward or prison, all that time: So that he that is bailed, shall not be said to be at large, or at his own liberty. See Master Lamberts Justice of Peace, tit. Bailment, agreeing with this difference.

Mainprize.

But in our Law these two words Bailment, and Mainprize, are notwithstanding indifferently used, to express that surety which the prisoner is to find in such case. Lamb. ibidem.

And yet Bailment seemeth to imply the delivery, and Mainprize the receiving of the prisoner, &c. and so these two words to be Relativa.

Detain persons bailable.

If the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or Bayliff, &c. shall detain any prisoners who are bailable, after they have offered sufficient sureties, the Sheriff, &c. shall be therefore grievously amerced to the King. 3 E. 1. cap. 15. See 23 H. 6. cap. 10.

Bail persons ment bailable.

If the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or other Officer, shall let to bail any persons which are not by them bailable, they are also punishable therefore by the Judges of Gaol-delivery. See the Statutes, 3 E. 1. c. 15. 27 E. 1. c. 3. 4 E. 3. c. 2. & 23 H. 6. c. 10.

If the Sheriff shall let a man to Mainprize, in case where he is not Mainprisable, it is an Escape. 25 E. 3. Abr. d'Ass. 74. Fitz. Escape 4. & Coron. 246.

And

And if the prisoner were in for Felony, and the Sheriff shall deliver him upon upon Bail or Mainprise, this seemeth to be Felony in the Sheriff, for that as it is a voluntary act done by him, so it is without authority; For the Sheriff hath no authority, at this day, to bail any such prisoner, except it be upon or by virtue of the Kings special Writ to him directed for that purpose. Fitz. fol. 250, 251. Regiller 269, 270.

Fitz. 251. b.

But Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and other Officers ought to let to bail, and out of prison, all manner of persons being in their keeping, or by any of them arrested by force of any Writ, Will, or Warrant, in any action personal, or upon any Indictment of trespass, upon offer of reasonable surety (of sufficient persons,) having sufficient within the County where such persons be to let to bail) to appear at the day and place, as the said Writs, Wills, or Warrants shall require (or where the same are returnable) except such persons as are hereunder mentioned, sc. the persons in the seven Cases following.

23 H. 6. c. 16.
Plo. 63.

The first branch of the Statute of 23 H. 6. is a precept and commandment to Sheriffs, that they shall let to bail prisoners which are arrested in personal actions, et. the which Sheriffs could not do before this Statute. Co. 10. 100.

The second branch of this Statute was to restrain the bailing of others contained in the exception; so that Sheriffs shall not bail any such persons as are in execution upon any Statute, or Recognizance, or upon any Judgment given in any of the Kings Courts for any debt or damages at the suit of any person, for that such persons shall not be bailed, nor suffered to go out of prison by Writ, (sc. with a Waper) until they have agreed with the parties of that whereof they were judged, or for which they are in execution (unless it be by Writ, or other Commandment of the King.) See the Statutes of Acton Burnell, & de Mercator' made 13 E. 1. 1 R. 2. cap. 12. & Fitz. 121. a. 251. d. Plo. 36, 37.

Mes si Homme soit condemn in ascun Court, & son corps prise in Execution, icy son corps poet estre remove per brief de Corpus cum Causa, ou per Certiorari (hors del Chancery); mes il ne serra bail, sed serra remaund al prison; la de remain, quousque il ad satisfie le Pl. &c. Stat. 2 H. 5. cap. 2.

Neither shall any Sheriff bail any person, taken by a Capias Utlagatum, Excom' Capiendo, for Surety of the peace, by commandment of any Justice, nor Vagrants. Ut supra Stat. 23 H. 6. cap. 10.

Neither shall Sheriffs bail any prisoner or person which is taken for any manner of treason or felony. See the Statute of Westm. 1. cap. 15. 27 E. 1. c. 3. 23 H. 6. cap. 10. & 1 R. 3. cap. 3. for that power is now taken away from the Sheriff, and transferred to the Justices of Peace, in cases of Felony.

See

See more in my Country Justice, tit. Bailment, what persons are bailable, and what not.

If the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or other Officer shall detain any prisoner who is bailable as aforesaid, after sufficient sureties by the prisoner offered, or shall let to bail any person which is not bailable as aforesaid, such Sheriff or Officer shall lose to the party indamaged or grieved treble damages, and besides shall forfeit forty pound to the King and Informer. 23 H. 6. cap. 10.

*Officer prender
prisonero.*

Note, that the Bailiff, or other Officer, which arrests one by virtue of any Warrant, &c. ought to take sureties of the party arrested (if he be bailable) and this by force of this Statute of 23 H. 6.

And therefore the prisoner is not bound to go to the Sheriff if he offereth sufficient sureties to the Bailiff.

The abuses of Sheriffs in bailing of prisoners, before this Stat. of 23 H. 6. see in Plo. 67.

The third branch of the Statute contains the form of the Obligation whereby they shall be let to bail; and makes Obligations taken in other form than the Statute limits and appoints, to be void. Co. 10. 100.

Forme del Obligation.

Now for the form of such Obligations as the Sheriff, or his Officers shall take (for the appearance) of such as they shall let to bail, the words of the Statute are thus; No Sheriff, nor any of his Officers or Ministers, shall take, or cause to be taken, or made, any obligation for any cause aforesaid. Or by colour of their Office, but only to themselves, of any person, nor by any person which shall be in their ward (by course of the Law) but by the name of their Office, and upon condition written, that the said prisoner shall appear at the day contained in the said Writ, Fill, or Warrant, and in such places as the said Writs, Fills, or Warrants shall require. Dyer 119.

If the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Bailiff, or other person shall take any bond or obligation of any person being in their custody, in any other form, by colour of their Office, such obligation shall be void, and besides the Sheriff (or other Officer) taking such obligation contrary to this Statute, shall lose to the party damaged or grieved in this behalf his treble damages, and besides shall forfeit 40 l. to the King and Informer.

Now then seeing that Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and other Officers, after they have arrested one that is bailable, they then are to bail him, and ought to take bond for the appearance of their prisoners, before they deliver them, it behoveth them to be heedful and careful, that their bonds be made according to Law, wherein let them mark these Observations.

1. First, the bond must be made to the High Sheriff himself (or to his use) by the name of Sheriff, and not to the Under-Sheriff, nor to any other.

2. Next there must be nothing inserted or put into the condition of that bond, but only that the Defendant shall appear (in the Court, from whence the Writ issued, or in such place as the said Writ or Warrant shall require) at the day contained in the said Writ or Warrant (being the day of the return thereof) and there to do as the Writ requireth. Plo. 69.

And yet if the condition be to appear generally, or to appear and answer; or to appear in person, it is good enough, notwithstanding such addition. See postea.

3. And concerning the prisoner or party to be bailed, it is meet, and safest for the Sheriff, that he be bound with two sureties, having sufficient silent within the same County; but this not of necessity, but only for the safety of the Sheriff.

Cromp. 106. a. A bond entered into by a prisoner, to any person save only to the Sheriff, for the enlarging of the prisoner, is not good, but merely void in Law, by this Statute of 23 H. 6. i. Serva alij tantum.

Co. 10. 100. b. And with this agrees the Book of 7 E. 4. 5. where one was in the custody of the Sheriff, by force of a Capias directed to him upon an Indictment of Trespass, and the party maketh an obligation to another (by the denomination of the Sheriff) upon such condition as the Statute prescribeth, (for the surety or security of the Sheriff) and there it is holden that the obligation is void, for that the Statute prescribes that the obligation shall be made to the Sheriff himself, and by the same of his Office, and this is part of the essential form of the Statute. Dyer 119. Co. 10. 100.

Cromp. 206. a. A Sheriff had one in execution for a great sum, and after the Sheriff took an obligation (of the party which was in execution, and of divers others) in his sons name to pay to him at a certain day, &c. and so let the prisoner go at large, this was holden to be an escape, and the bond clearly void; it was the Sheriff of Staffordshire his Case, Ann. 31 Eliz. as Master Crompton reporteth.

Ibid. And so it is where a bond is given to the Sheriff by a stranger for the enlarging of a prisoner, the bond is void. Fast per tñ

Co. 10. 100. Flo. 69. a. But note, that this Statute of 23 H. 6. extends only to such obligations which any person being in the custody (or ward) of the Sheriff, do make unto him, and therefore Anno 34 Eliz. in an action of debt brought by D. Sheriff of B. against Burman upon an obligation, the Defendant pleaded this Statute of 23 H. 6. and shewed that one K recovered debt and damages against him, and pursued a Writ of Fieri facias against him, directed to the Sheriff of B. and that he made the obligation to the Plaintiff (being Sheriff) for the execution, and that the obligation was void by the Act; upon which the Plaintiff demurred; and it was resolved and adjudged, 1. That the obligation was not within the said Statute, for that the Statute extends only to such obligations which any being in his * custody do make unto him. 2. That the obligation was not void by the Common Law, whereupon the Plaintiff had judgment. Sic fieri fac.

* Mesicy le party ne fuit en son custody car fuit sur Fieri fac.

Wherewith also agreeth the opinion in Dyer fol. 119. a. that this Stat. of 23 H. 6. doth make void only obligations made (to the Sheriff, &c.) by prisoners, and persons arrested.

Co. 10. 99. b. And so in Beaufage's Case (10 Jacobi Regis) the Sheriff upon a Fieri facias, took bond of the Defendant to pay the money in Court at the return of the writ, and it was resolved that such obligation was good, and not void by the Statute of 23 H. 6.

Co. 10. 100. a. The like judgment was given An. 28 & 29 Eliz. between Barwey and Kett, upon an obligation taken by the Sheriff, pro solutione pecuniæ debitæ Domina Regina, upon an extreat out of the Exchequer. Sar estreat.

Si le Vic. levy biens sur Fieri fac. & apres vend eux al party, & prist obligation par les deniers, cest obligation nest void per Stat. 23 H. 6. per Curiam in Communi Banco. Mich. 37 Eliz.

Tanfeild al contrary, le Stat. est, That no Sheriff, &c. shall take any obligation for any cause aforesaid, &c. of any person, nor by any person, which shall be in their ward, &c. per quex parols constat que le obligation prist n'est deins le Stat. sinon que le person soit in gard, Et sic le estant in prison est issuable; Wray, Gawdy, Fenner & Clinch, non obstant que obligation prise d'un que est alarge, soit deins le Stat. per special matter monstre, &c. uncore quant celuy que plede le Stat. suppose que un in Executione existens fait l'obligation, ore le estant in Execution al temps est necessary & traversable, Et issue prise sur ceo est bon: per que le Jury fuit prise, & troveront pur Ri. But if the Sheriff shall take an obligation of any person being in his custody or ward, then the condition of such obligation must be in substance according to the form prescribed by the Statute, or otherwise it will be void.

37 H. 6. f. t.

Sans condic.

And therefore in 37 H. 6. the Sheriff took a single obligation of one that was in his custody (who was bailable) and it was holden to be void, for that the obligation wanted the essential form prescribed by the Statute; for the condition therein prescribed (i.e. for the appearance of the prisoner) was wanting, which is part of the substance. Co. 10. 100 Plo. 76. Dyer 119.

De que nemy est bailable.

So in the same Book Moyle saith, that if the Sheriff had bailed one who is excepted in the said Statute, and not bailable, and had taken a single obligation, that it was void, which the rest of the Justices also granted; for by the exception it appeareth that it was not the intent of the Statute, that he should be bailed, and so the obligation is taken in other form than the Statute meant.

37 H. 6. fol. x. Plo. 64. 67.

And by the opinion of Sir Edw. Coke, that as well in the former case of 37 H. 7. as in the principal case of Dive and Manningham, Plo 67. the obligation which was with condition to save the Sheriff harmless (when the Sheriff against the Law had bailed one which was not bailable), is against the Law, and void by the Common Law; wherewith agreeth Wiseman's Case, 15 El. Dyer 324.

Co. i. 100. b. Plo. 69.

Also if the Sheriff shall add to the condition of the obligation, that he shall be saved harmless against the King, and the Plaintiff, &c. this shall make all the condition void. Plo. 62.

So if the Condition of the bond be, to save harmless, or to discharge the Obligee; or to discharge, or to pay the charges or fees of the prisoner; or to yield his body to prison at all times upon summons, &c. in these cases all is void. Dyer 118, 119.

So if the condition of the bond be, that the prisoner shall be always at the commandment of the Sheriff, as a true prisoner, &c. or shall behave himself as a true prisoner (as well within the Gaol, as without) until he shall be lawfully discharged. Dyer 323. Plo. 62.

One being in the Marshalsey for debt, the prisoner and an estranger did enter bond under Marshal, with condition to save him harmless of all Escapes, Actions, and suits touching the prisoner, and thereupon he let the prisoner go at large, and the opinion of the Court was that the obligation was void; And also that the under Marshal within within the Case of the Statute of 23 Hen. 6. cap. 10.

So if the Sheriff or Gaoler shall take an obligation of the prisoner, with condition to pay for his meat, or his drink, these are void. Plowd. 68. See hic Gaoler.

Co. 10. 100. b.

So if the Sheriff shall add any other thing to the matter prescribed by the Statute, as to pay so much money for a horse, &c. such addition maketh all the obligation to be void, for that it is taken in other form (touching the substance of the matter) than is prescribed by the Statute; and with all this agreeth Master Plowd. fol. 67, 68, 69.

Co. 10. 100. b.

And if a Sheriff or Gaoler (for the ease and enlargement of any person who is in their custody, or ward) shall take a promise to save him harmless, although the Statute speaketh only of obligations with conditions, yet this is in the like mischief; and therefore promises shall be taken within the Statute of 23 H. 6. and within the equity of the words (any obligation) an assumpsit shall be taken; for Quando verba Statuti sunt specialia, ratio autem generalis, generaliter Statutum est intelligendum. See hic postea Dabridgecourt's Case.

A verbal promise.

Dabridgecourt brought an action upon the Case against Smalebrooke, and counted that whereas the Plt. was Sheriff of the County of Warwick and a Capias ad Satisfac. came to him to take one Lane at the suit of the Def. the Def. desired the said Sheriff to make one Russell (who was the Def. friend) his especial Bailiff for the taking of Lane, and in consideration thereof, the Def. did assume and promise that if the said Lane did escape, that he would not take any advantage thereof against the Plt. whereupon the Sheriff made the said Russell his special bailiff, &c. and after the said Lane did escape, and for this the Def. charged the Plt. against his own promise and Assumpsit; whereupon he brought his action: The Def. pleaded Non Assumpsit, and it was found for the Plt. And in arrest of Judgment it was alledged that this Assumpsit is within the Stat. of 23 H. 6. in the same manner as an obligation is; and so void; Also that the Assumpsit was against Law, for the ground of it was to let Lane at large, which the Sheriff could not do. And in this Case Cooke agreed that an Obligation, and Assumpsit also, is void by the Stat. of 23 H. 6. where the party is arrested, but here this Assumpsit is before the party was arrested, and the Assumpsit was not made by the party himself. Wray Chief Justice said, that an Assumpsit was within the Stat. of 23 H. 6. as well as an Obligation, but here this Assumpsit was not within the Stat. nor contrary to Law, For if the Sheriff shall make a Bailiff at the request of the party, reason will that the same party shall not charge the Sheriff for an escape suffered by the said Bailiff. Gawdy Justice was of the same mind, for that it was a benefit to the party. Clinch and Fenner also agreed thereto. And Fenner (who was made Justice the same term) said, that the Sheriff did take of every known Bailiff an obligation to save him harmless, wherefore it is great reason when he makes a special Bailiff at the request of the party himself, that the party shall not take advantage of this escape. And Judgment was given accordingly for the Plt. in Banco Regis ter^o Hillar. 32 Eliz. Rotul. 371.

Also Fenner (in the former case) said, that if such an Assumption had been made to the Sheriff, to have one Bailiff who is a Bailiff General to the Sheriff, it had been void, for it had been no benefit to the party; but otherwise to have a special Bailiff (as in this former case) for this doth advantage the party to have a more speedy Arrest made.

Also in the former Case it was said to have been adjudged, that where an Obligation is void by the Stat. of 23 H. 6. that in every such case, an Assumpsit or Promise shall also be void. And Wray said further, that if the Stat. makes an Obligation void, a fortiore it makes an Assumpsit void, which shall be contrary to the provisions of the said Stat. But the Assumpsit in the first case, he and all the other Justices held to be good.

By Montague Chief Justice, if more be inserted into the Obligation than for appearance of the party bound, all the Bond is void. Plo. 68.

And yet 21 Eliz. Dyer 364. there the condition was in the copulative, to appear and answer, and the Obligation holden good. Co. 10. 101. b.
Dyer 364.

The case there was this, a Sheriff having an attachment returnable coram Domina Regina & concilio suo, in camera stellata apud Westmonasterium in quindena Paschæ, ad respond' dictæ Regine & concilio suo de quodam contemptu, & ad faciend' & recipiend' ulterius, &c. doth arrest the party, and takes bond of him (for his appearance) indorsed with this condition, sc. that if he shall personally appear before the Queens Majesty and her Council at Westminster, in quinden' Paschæ, and then and there shall answer a contempt by him against the Queen and her Council committed, that then, &c. And the question was, Whether this bond and condition were good in Law or no, because the words (and then and there shall answer, &c.) were added to the condition, and so was more than the Statute of 23 H. 6. would warrant; And by the opinion of Dyer and Windham the obligation was good enough, for it was as much as to have said, then and there to answer (to a contempt, &c.) which had been good: And by this obligation no profit did accrue or grow to the Sheriff, nor to any other person, but was only to answer the Queen, &c. which was the intent of the Statute of 23 H. 6. yet Meade was of the contrary opinion: But afterwards Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, and so the Obligation holden and adjudged to be good, according to the Statute of 23 H. 6.

Also in the Kings Bench anno 27 Eliz. the case was this, Sir William Drury late Sheriff of the County of Suff. brought an Action of Debt upon an obligation of twenty pound, against A. B. who demanded Oyer of the obligation (whereby it appeared that the Defendant was only bound therein) and of the condition, which was that one More, whom the said Sheriff had arrested by force of a Latitat out of the Kings Bench, should appear in person at the day contained in the Writ, ad respond', &c. and pleaded the Stat. of 23 H. 6. and that the said obligation was taken in other form than the said Statute prescribed, &c. whereupon the Plaintiff demurred in Law: And it was objected that there were three variances from the form prescribed by the Statute, sc. one in the obligation, and two in the condition: In the obligation, for that the Plaintiff took but one surety, whereas the Statute prescribes reasonable surety of sufficient persons, in the plural number, having sufficient within the County, &c. in which case there ought to be two sureties at the least; and here was but one surety, and so against the words of the said Statute; and also against the intent of the Statute, for the more, and the better able that the sureties are. they will the sooner cause the party that is bailed to appear, and thereby Justice shall proceed with more expedition: And also in the condition, first the words are that the prisoner shall appear in person, whereas the words of the Statute are to appear generally, without these words in person, secondly, that he should appear at the day, &c. ad respond', where those words 27 Eliz.

(ad respondend') are more than the Statute prescribes, and so for these two cases the condition varied from the form prescribed by the Statute, and therefore the obligation was void: But it was resolved by Sir Christopher Wray, Sir Thomas Gawdy, and all the Court of the Kings Bench, that the said obligation was not void; for as to the first Objection, the words upon reasonable surety of sufficient persons, are added for the surety of the Sheriff, and therefore if he will take but one surety, it is at his peril, for he shall be amerced if the Defendant appeareth not; and therefore the Statute doth not make void the obligation in such case, for the branch of the Statute which prescribeth the form of the obligation, requireth that the obligation shall be made to the Sheriff himself by the name of his Office, and that the prisoners appear, in which clause no mention is made of the sureties, so that the meaning of the Statute was, that in as much as this was at the peril of the Sheriff, to leave this to his discretion, sc. to take one or more sureties for his indemnity; and peradventure it shall be better for him sometimes to take one which is sufficient, than two others; And although the sureties or surety have not sufficient within the same County, as the Statute mentioneth, yet the obligation is good enough, for these words of the Statute to this point, are rather for counsel and direction of the Sheriff, than by way of precept or constraint to him, and that for the safety of the Sheriff: But note, that if the Defendant cannot find two sufficient sureties, having sufficient within the same County, the Sheriff is not bound to let him to bail.

But one surety.

Fitz. 25. c.

And as concerning the two additions to the condition of the said obligation, more than is in the Statute, it was resolved, that there is a verbal difference in the form prescribed by the Statute, but no difference in substance and effect, for he that is bailed ought to appear in person; And so, and for the same cause, the other exception was not material, for he which was to appear, ought to appear ad respondend' & parum differunt, quæ re concordant.

In an action of Debt brought by Bassett (a Sheriff, in Communi, Banco Anno 29 Eliz. Rotul. 1511.) against Ballard, upon an obligation made upon condition that Ballard should personally appear (before the Justices of the Common Pleas) at such a day, there to answer to such a suit as J. S. had against him; it was moved that this bond taken by the Sheriff was against the form of the Stat. of 23 H. 6. for that there was more inserted into the Condition, than the Stat. limits, or the Common Law enforced, for it had this word personally, whereas the Def. may well appear by Attorney, in the action, &c. and therefore the bond should be void by this writ. And it was adjourned, and after Gawdy shewed a Judgment in the Kings Bench, upon the very point, upon a bond taken by Thomas Sackford (a Sheriff) of one Shutt (A. 29 Eliz. Rotul. 1512.) And Sackford brought an action of Debt against Shutt hereupon; and it was adjudged for the Plt. after much argument. Quære si nul diversity soit perenter apparence sur Latitat, & sur autre brief. Car sur Latitat ne poet apparee per Attorney, sinen le pli. voet ceo admit; mes semble nul diversity, Car le Stat. ne parle sic, personally.

And so note that Sheriffs (nor their Officers) ought to take no obligation for any cause or thing aforesaid (or by colour of their Office) of any person being in their custody or ward, but only to the High Sheriffs themselves, and by the name of their Office, naming himself Sheriff in the obligation, and upon condition only that the party shall appear at the day and place in the Writ or Warrant specified; and if any obligation be taken by colour of their Office, in any other form, it is void by the Statute of 23 H.6. But for the sureties, their number, their sufficiency, and the sum wherein they shall be bound, all these rest in the discretion of the Sheriff, and his Officers, but yet at the peril of the Sheriff, if the Defendant shall not appear thereupon.

The Condition for appearance.

The condition of this present Obligation is such, That if the above bounden A. B. do appear coram Domino Rege (if the writ be out of the Kings Bench) apud Westmonast. die Jovis proxim' post quindenam Sancti Hillar' (or otherwise according to the return of the writ) but if the writ be returnable in the Court of Common Pleas, then the words in the condition must be for the Defendant to appear coram Justic' Domini Regis (apud Westmonast. in oct. Sancti Hillar', (or such other return according to the writ) to answer to C. D. in a Plea of Trespass (or Debt, as it is in the writ) that then this present Obligation to be void, and of none effect, or else the same to stand, remain, and continue in force, strength, and virtue.

Sealed and delivered to the use of the above-named Sheriff, in the presence of A. R. and T. S. (two witnesses at the least.)

Or thus in Latin.

Conditio istius Obligationis talis est, Quod si supra obligatus *J. Upon a Warrant made or granted out upon a Capias utlagatum, the Sheriffs in some places do use to take of their Bailiffs a Bond, with Condition, to bring the Defendant to prison if he be arrested; which makes good execution of those Proses. And it were to be wished, that this were used in all Countries, and then there would not be so much Extortion and indirect dealing used by Under-Sheriffs and Bailiffs to the King

King and his Subjects as there is : For if they take any man upon a Capias utlagatum, they will not only take money of the Plaintiff, for to take the Defendant, but when they have taken him, for money they will let him go again ; and they will alledge for a colour, that it is to reverse the Writlaw, which they have nothing to do withall ; for the Defendant ought to be brought to prison, and there to remain until he hath reversed the Writlaw by the help of some Attorney, and not by the Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, or other Officers ; For no Under-Sheriff, or Sheriffs Bailiff, &c. ought for their times to practice as an Attorney. Wilk. See hic postea Sheriffs Officers.

*Upon Replevin.

Also upon all Replevins granted or made by the Sheriff, or his Officers, they must take a Bond of him to whom the Replevin is granted, for his appearance, and prosecuting of the suit, &c. Whereof see postea titulo County Court.

*De Retor' les

Also there is another Bond which the Sheriff or his Officers must take for the delivery of the goods or cattel replevied, if return shall be adjudged, &c. The form of which condition may be as followeth :

Ibid.

De ses officers.

Also it is safe for the Sheriff to take good security of his officers, sc. from his Under-Sheriff, Bailiffs and Gaoler, &c. And this security is commonly by Bonds or Covenants, the forms whereof, See hic polica titulo, Sheriffs Officers.

But these bonds are thought by some opinions to be void, or voidable by the Words of the Statute of 23 H. 6. cap. 10. That no Sheriff shall take any Obligation for any cause aforesaid, or by colour of his office, but only in such form and sort as is prescribed by the same Statute, And if any Sheriff take any obligation in other form, by colour of their office, it shall be void: And therefore if the High-Sheriff shall take good Covenants by Indenture, from his Under-Sheriff, Bailiffs and Gaoler, &c. with three or four good sureties, (all of them to Covenant jointly and severally to and with the High-Sheriff for the performance of such Covenants as shall be meet to be had and made between the said High-Sheriff, and his said Officers, respectively) it may seem (without bonds) to be safer, than to trust wholly upon bonds which may be questioned, &c. And yet a bond of some good sum with sureties, from the Under-Sheriff and other Officers, with condition for the performance of the Covenant comprised in such Indentures, will make them the more careful, &c.

And by others this Stat. of 23 H. 6. doth make void only such obligations as are made (to the Sheriff, &c.) by Prisoners, or persons arrested. See hic cap. 69. And that bonds taken by the Sheriff, or his Under-Sheriff, Bailiffs, and other Officers, with condition to save the High-Sheriff harmless, are good.

Also by the Statute made 37 E. 3. cap. 2. where the Sheriff shall seize any lands or goods, &c. of one man, which beareth the same name with another that is outlawed, the party grieved may have a Writ de Idemitate Nominis, directed to the Sheriff (or other Officer:) but the party grieved must withall find surety before the Sheriff (or other Officer) to answer the King the value, &c. in case he cannot discharge himself.

Sur Idempt. Nominis.

C A P. 98.

- The Sheriff is to be Attendant upon the Judges in their Circuit.

NOte that the Counties of this Realm are divided into six Circuits. And two learned men are assigned by the Kings Commission to every Circuit to ride twice a year through those Shires allotted to that Circuit.

And the Judges of Assise allotted to every Circuit do use to make Proclamation aforehand a convenient time in every County of their coming into the County, and the time, and place of their sitting.

And at that time, all the Causes of the Country are brought before them by the parties grieved: And all the Prisoners in the Gaoles of those Shires; And all Controversies arising concerning life, liberty, lands, or goods.

And these Judges of Circuits have now five Commissions, by which they sit.

1. A Commission of Oyer and Terminer directed to them and to many other of the best account in the Circuit: But here the Judges are of the Quorum. And this is the largest Commission, giving them power to deal with Treasons, Murders, and all manner of felonies and misdemeanors.
2. A Commission of Gaol-delivery: This is to the Judges only; And hereby they are to deal with every Prisoner in the Gaoles, for all Offences whatsoever.
3. A Commission to take Assises.
4. A Commission to take Nisi prius. } These two Commissions are directed only to the Judges, for the speedy trial of Discords; and also to try Issues joyned at Westminster for the ease of the Country.
5. A Commission of the Peace, in every County in their Circuit: where all the Justices of the Peace are to attend the Judges.

1. Upon a Precept from the Judges of Assise, the Sheriff is to summon the Assises, and to return the same, &c. which see hic antea fol.

2. Also the High Sheriffs themselves of every Shire are in person to attend upon the Justices or Judges of the Assises and Gaol-delivery in (and through) their Circuits, v. 27. and shall give their attendance for the due executing of the Commandments and Precepts of the said Judges in matters concerning the execution of their offices and ministration of Justice; and to take the charge of all prisoners committed to the prison, and for the execution of felons and other persons condemned to die, which Sentence he is to see Executed, And for the inflicting of punishment upon other prisoners according to Justice and the Judgment given upon them, and so far forth as appertaineth unto their office of a Sheriff.

Also all Sherwards, Bailiffs, and other Ministers of any Liberties, or Franchises, &c. shall be attendant to the Justices of Assise, and Justices of Gaol-delivery, of the same Shires, wherein such Liberties and Franchises be. And shall make due execution of all Proses to them to be directed for the ministration of Justice, within such Liberties and Franchises, 27 H. 8. cap. 24. vide hic cap. 121.

And the Judges of Assise may fine the High-Sheriff, and other the said Officers, if they fail either in their attendance, or for any other negligence, misbehaviour, or misdemeanour, in their Office, before them.

Now, by some opinions, the Sheriff in every Shire through the Circuit, is to attend in person, or by a sufficient Deputy allowed by the Judges, all the time that they be within the County, and the Judges may fine him if he fail, &c. Bacon, v. 26. Tamen aliter in usu.

The Sheriff also is safely to carry, convey and conduct unto every such place and places as shall be lawfully assigned, all prisoners committed to his charge, or custody, or to his Gaoler, for any manner of misdemeanour, criminal cause, or other offence whatsoever, there to receive their trial, judgments, and punishments for the same.

The command of the Judge (without writ, or warrant) is a sufficient writ warrant to do execution upon a prisoner condemned. Fi. 17. 3 H. 7. c. 3.

3. Every Sheriff (and all other persons) which have the custody of the Gaols (or of prisoners for felony,) ought to certify the names of every of their prisoners which are in their custody for felony, to the Justices of the next general Gaol-delivery, in a Kalendar, upon pain of 5 l. for every default.

The form of such Kalendar may amongst other things be as hereunder followeth, or else they may make a Kalendar of the prisoners alone.

The Kings Writ under the hand of the Justice of Gaol-delivery, if it shall be sent to the Sheriff commanding him to take persons appealed (before the same Justice) by Provoers who are in prison, the Sheriff in whose liberty the party so appealed shall be commorant or may be found, by vertue of such writ shall take such persons appealed, and shall cause them to be brought unto the Gaols where the Appelloers be kept that appealed them, &c. Stat. 28 E. 1. for persons appealed.

Ibid. Also by writ from the same Justices to the Sheriff in whose liberty the felonies were done, of which such persons are appealed, the Sheriff shall cause an Enquest of the County to come before the same Justices, unto the same places where the Appelloers be kept.

CAP. 99.

The Sheriff also is to assist the Justices of Peace in his County, in divers Cases.

The Sheriff is to provide and make ready a fit, meet, and decent place, for the Justices of Peace, to keep and hold their general Quarter Sessions, as need shall require. Riots.

In some cases the Sheriff is to joyn with the Justices of Peace, as in case of Riots. See hic antea.

If the Sheriff, or Under-Sheriff, shall not go and joyn with the Justices of Peace for the due execution of the Stat. of 13 H. 4. c. 7. made for the suppressing of Riots, Routes, and unlawful assemblies, &c. for the arresting, and imprisoning of such offenders, and recording their offence, and inquiry thereof, according to the same Statute, they shall forfeit one hundred pound.

And the Sheriff is to convey such offenders to the Gaol, at the appointment of the Justices of Peace.

13 H. 4. c. 7.
15 R. 2. c. 2.

If the truth of the Riot cannot be found out upon the Inquiry, then within one month after the Inquiry, the Sheriff, or Under-Sheriff shall joyn with the Justice of Peace in a Certificate of the fact and circumstances, &c. upon pain of one hundred pound. See hic antea fol.

Also if the said Riot be not found by reason of any embazery, or maintenance, &c. When the Sheriff, or Under-Sheriff (over and besides their former Certificate) shall joyn in another Certificate, of the names of such maintainers, and embazers, with their misdemeanors, upon pain of twenty pound. See antea hic fol.

In some cases the Sheriff is to attend the Justices of Peace.

If the Sheriff (or any other person of the County) do not attend upon the Justice or Justices of Peace, to go and assist him or them, to arrest such as shall make any forcible entries (into any houses, lands, or other possessions) or any forcible detainer thereof, he or they so offending, shall be imprisoned, and pay a fine to the King. 15 R. 2. ^{13 H. 4. c. 7. cap. 2.

If two Justices of Peace (the one being of the Quorum) shall make their Precept to the Sheriff to summon the Sessions at a certain day and place, and shall command him thereby to return a Panel or Jury from such a Wenne (or place near where their Sessions shall be holden) before them, The Sheriff ought to perform this precept and commandment of the said Justices, notwithstanding any Superedeas or other command or precept to the Sheriff awarded by any other Justices of Peace. Fitz. Just. of P. 10. Crompt. 122.

But if the King by his Writ of Superedeas, shall command the Sheriff (or the Justices) that they shall not hold such their Sessions at that day and place appointed, this doth discharge the first precept of the Justices. Ibidem.

And yet if the Custos Rotulorum, (or two Justices of Peace, &c.) shall make their precept to the Sheriff to summon the Sessions at a certain place and day, Two other Justices (one being of the Quorum) may make another precept to the same Sheriff to summon and keep another Sessions upon the same day, at another place within the same County, as Mr. Crompt. saith, fol. 123. 124.

The Sheriff, (by himself or by his Undersheriff) ought also to attend the Justices of Peace at their general Sessions of the Peace, and that for the double duty that he beareth, The one as Sheriff, to return the precept, and to take the charge of prisoners, and to serve the Court otherwise, as he hath in charge by the Mandamus that is mentioned in the Commission of the Peace; The other, because the Sheriff hath also care and charge of the Peace, (Lambert 381.) and so is there to object against such persons as shall be committed by him.

The Sheriff is to summon 24 discreet men of the County to be at the Sessions to serve of the Great Inquest, &c.

He is also to warn all Coroners, Constables, Wayliffs of Hundreds, and Liberties, &c. and some of every Hundred for Jurors, to appear at the Sessions, &c. according to the form of the Precept directed to him for that purpose, which see hic cap. 47.

And if the Sheriff shall make default of Attendance at the Sessions of the Peace, the Justices of Peace may amerce or fine him for such his default.

In other cases the Sheriff is to execute the Proses, Precepts, Warrants, and other lawful commandments of the Justices of Peace. And therefore upon a Precept from any two Justices of the Peace (the one being of the Quorum) the Sheriff is to summon the Sessions of the Peace, and to return the same. See hic fol.

All Wayliffs and other Ministers of Liberties ought also to attend the Justices of Peace at their Sessions, and must execute their process, &c. 27 H. 8. cap. 25. See hic postea cap. 121.

If any Sheriff (or Wayliff of Franchise having return of the Kings Writ) shall slack and not make due execution of the Precepts of the Justices of Peace, to them directed for the returning of Juries to enquire of forcible Entries, &c. or Riots, &c. they shall forfeit to the King 20 l. for every default, &c. See Stat. 8 H. 6. cap. 9. & 19 H. 7. cap. 13. hic cap. 87.

All Sheriffs, and Bailiffs of Liberties, must truly execute all such Proces as shall come to him or them from the Justices of Peace, before whom any presentment shall be made touching decayed Bridges, or annoyance of Bridges, upon pain to make such fine, as shall be assessed upon him or them by the said Justices. 22 H. 8. c. 5. P. Bridges 8.

If the Justices of Peace shall grant out any proces against any servants, or labourers, departing into other Shires, the Sheriff must duly execute such proces upon pain of twenty pound. Stat. 2. Hen. 5. c. 4.

Also the Justices of the Peace (as well out of their Sessions, as from their Sessions of the Peace) may in many cases direct their Precepts, or Warrants, and other Proces to the Sheriff, Under-sheriff, Bailiff, or other like Officer for the administration of Justice, And the Sheriff and other his Officers are to execute the same, accordingly. See my Country Justice, pag. 303, 305, & 367.

By the Stat. 12 R. 2. cap. 10. it is ordained that every Justice of Peace shall take for his wages or costs 4 s. for every day of the Sessions, and 2 s. for his Clerk; which wages shall be levied of the Fines and amerciaments of the same Sessions, by the hands of the Sheriff: And that the Lords of Franchises shall contribute to these wages of the Justices, according to the quantity of their parts of the Fines and amerciaments.

After by the Stat. of 14 R. 2. cap. 11. it was provided, that the Records of the Sessions of the Peace shall be doubled (or Indented) by the Clerk of the Peace, and that the one part thereof shall remain with the Sheriff, and the other part thereof to be delivered to the Barons of the Eschequer, And the names of the said Justices of Peace, and the number of their days of sitting at their Sessions shall be written in the same Indenture, to the intent that the Sheriff may know to what Justices he ought to pay the wages of the Sessions, and to whom not.

And by the same Stat. it is further ordained, that neither Duke, Earl, Baron, or Baronet, shall have or receive any wages, for the time of their Sessions, or for the said Office.

Note, that if a man do forfeit a Recognisance for the Peace, (to the King) because he kept not his day of Appearance at the Sessions; Or if the Recog. be forfeited for any breach of the Peace; these forfeitures are not liable to the payment of the said Justices wages.

Also the Issues returned upon Juries, are not liable to the payment of the said wages: But if the Juries who should have been upon the great Enquest do make default of appearance, for the which they be amerced, of these amerciaments the said Justices wages may be levied, although there were no Inquisition made at the same Sessions.

The said wages of the said Justices of Peace, ought also to be levied of the Fines and Amerciaments of the same Sessions, and not of any other Sessions holden either before or after.

And yet if a man be indicted at one Sessions, and at the next Sessions, or at any other Sessions after, he maketh his Fine, this Fine shall be liable to these wages of those Justices before whom the said Indictment was taken.

The Justices of Peace may have their action of Debt against the Sheriff for their said wages being unpaid.

And the Lords of Franchises shall be contributory to the said Justices wages, &c. where the Lord of the Franchise hath the Fines and Amer-

Amerciaments of his tenants, or of the inhabitants of such Towns, &c. there such Fines and Amerciaments shall be rated proportionally, and the Sheriff may detain and keep in his hands, so much thereof, when the Lord of the Franchise demands the same in the Exchequer: But if the Lord shall levy the same by his Officers (as he may by the Kings grant) then the Justices of Peace are to be payed by the Lord himself, &c. Crompt. 177.

The Justices of Peace, by their Commission have power to enquire de quibuscunque vicecomitibus, ballivis, Custodibus Gaolorum, & aliis Officiariis, qui in Executione Officiorum suorum (concerning matters belonging to the Justices of Peace to Enquire of) indebite se habuerunt, aut remissi, vel negligentes fuerint: And to hear and determine the same, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

C A P. 100.

The Sheriff is to execute the Precepts of Commissioners of Sewers.

The Commissioners of Sewers have authority to make and direct Writs, Precepts, Warrants, and other Commandments, to all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and all other Ministers and Officers, as well within Liberties as without, before the said Commissioners or six of them, at certain daies, times, and places to be returned, &c. 23 H. 8. c. 5.

Sheriffs shall return and cause to come before the said Commissioners (at such days and places as they shall appoint) such and so many Jurors, sc. honest and lawful men of their Bailiwick or Shire, (as well within liberties as without) as shall be expedient for inquiry. Ibid.

All other Ministers and Officers, as well within liberties as without, shall be attendant unto the Commissioners of Sewers in and about the due execution of their Commission. Ibid.

If any Sheriff, or other Officer, shall be negligent in the due execution of the premises, the said Commissioners may (as it seemeth) punish them by distress, fines and amercements, or otherwise, as to the said Commissioners, (or six of them) shall seem expedient, &c. Ibid.

And by the Statute made 7 Jacobi Regis, All Sheriffs, (Bailiffs, Officers, and other the Kings Ministers whatsoever) within the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk (as well within liberties as without) shall from time to time be attendant, aiding and assisting to the Commissioners of the Sewers, and to every six or more of them; for and concerning the returning of the Juries before the said Commissioners; as also for and concerning all such other things as shall concern their several offices and places respectively, in or about the execution of all things in the said Act contained; upon pain to forfeit such pains, penalties, fines, and sums of money as shall be set or imposed upon them, by any six or more of the said Commissioners, &c. which said penalties, &c. shall and may be levied, by distress, sale of goods and imprisonment, &c. and shall be employed and disposed of, in and about the preservation of the Fen-grounds, and draining of the waters there. 7 Jac. c. 20.

The Sheriff also to execute the Precepts of other Commissioners.

Sheriffs, or their sufficient Deputies, shall at their own proper costs and charges give their diligent attendance upon all Warrants and Precepts directed to them from Commissioners, and other such Officers or persons as shall have authority to write to the Sheriff for any manner of service, whatsoever by the Laws of this Realm ought to be done by the Sheriff: And shall make such return thereof, as the Law, or need shall require.

As the Commissioners upon the Statute of Bankrupt (made 13 El. cap. 7.) may cause the lands, tenements, annuities, offices, and goods, &c. of Bankrupts, to be viewed, rented, and appraised unto the best value they may, and then to make sale thereof, &c. And for the appraising of such lands, &c. the said Commissioners (ex officio as it seemeth) may make and direct their Precept or Warrant to the Sheriff, for the returning of a Jury before them, for appraising and valuing thereof: And such Commissioners (may as it seemeth) set a fine upon the Sheriff for not returning such a Jury before them, tamen hoc quere.

Sic Fitz. 119. f. A Writ of Attendance directed to the Sheriff, by Commissioners assigned to take an account, &c. and to make return of a Jury before them the said Commissioners.

Alto Fitz. 257. d. A writ awarded to the Sheriff, to return a Jury before Commissioners (assigned to enquire of the age of the Kings Ward) at a certain day and place to be appointed by the said Commissioners, by their Precept and Warrant made to the same Sheriff.

Sheriffs ought to obey and execute all Precepts and reasonable Requests made to them by Commissioners for the Subsidy, for the Execution of the said Commission, so far as to the Office of the Sheriff belongeth to do. Sic the Statutes of grants of Subsidies.

If any under-Collector for the Subsidy cannot levy the sums comprised within his Extents, &c. the Commissioners for the Subsidy may direct their Precept to the Sheriff (or other Officer) to distrein such person indebted, his executors, administrators, fermors, and assignees, &c. And for want of distress to arrest and attach the body of such person indebted, and to keep him in prison without bail until he hath paid the said sum, &c. And the Sheriff to whom such Precept shall be directed by the said Commissioners, ought to execute the same. Ibidem

The Sheriff in some things is to execute the Precepts of Escheators.

Note that Escheators by the Common Law may make and direct their Precepts or Warrants to the Sheriff, for the returning of Juries before them; and may also assess and set a fine upon the Sheriff, for not returning of a pannel or Jury before them, &c. 7 H. 6. 12. Br. Fines pur Contempts 18. And this Escheators might have done by the Common Law.

And yet for that Escheators for their private gain used to take Enquiries quests (to enquire before them, as well by virtue of the Kings Writs, as by force of their Offices) favourably and not duly, by people not impannelled nor returned to them by the Sheriffs of the Counties, to the grievance of the Kings Subjects, &c. Therefore by a Statute made 8 H. 6. c. 16. it was Ordained, That no Escheator or Commissioner shall take any Enquest, but of such persons or people as he returned and impannelled by the Sheriff, in the County within which he is Escheator or Commissioner.

By the Statute 34 H. 8. every of the Sheriffs within the Counties of Wales, shall have power within their Sheriffricks, as Sheriffs in England, and shall accomplish and execute all the lawful commandments and precepts of the Justices, &c. and of Escheators in all things appertaining to their offices and authorities. 34 H. 8. c. 26.

The Sheriff in some Cases is to execute the Precepts of Coroners, &c.

Note also that Coroners by the Common Law may make and direct their Precepts and Warrants to the Sheriff, for returning of Juries before them; And may also Assess and set a fine upon the Sheriff for not returning of a Pannel or Jury before them, &c. 7 H. 6. 12. Br. Fines pur Contempts 18.

By the Statute made Anno 34 H. 8. it was Ordained, That every of the Sheriffs within the Counties of Wales, shall have full power within their Sheriffricks, to do as Sheriffs in England; and shall accomplish and execute all the lawful commandments and precepts of the Justices, &c. and of Coroners, in all things appertaining to their offices and authorities. 34 H. 8. c. 26.

By the Statute made An 3 E. 2. Sheriffs shall have Counter-Rolls with the Coroners, as well of Appeals as of Enquests, of Attachments, Abjurations, Writs, and of other things which to that office belong. 3 E. 1. c. 10. P. Coroners. 3. & 16. Stamf. 64. & Fitz. Coron. 186.

And to this purpose Master Bracton lib. 2. de exceptionibus ad Appella, saith thus, Est aliquando dissensio in recordo faciendo, inter Coronatores & Vic', cum uterque debeat habere suum Rotul', in quibus quandoque varia continen', quandoque Concordant. Et habent Record' quandoque Coronat' per se sine Vic', ut si Vic' mortuus fuerit, vel amotus, & rotuli non inveniant'. Si vero Rotulus Vic. discord' à Rotulis Coronat', & rotuli Coron' conveniunt, tunc eorum stabit' recordo, quia Rotulus vicec' nihil operat' nisi ad testim'. Et quid si rotulus unius Coron' discord' à rotulis aliorum, cum plur' fuer' standum est plural'. Si autem non sunt nisi duo Coron', & discord', tunc stabit rotulis ipsius cum quo concordat rotulus Vic'. Si autem sunt ibi quat' Coronat' & duo dissent' à duob', nec appareat Vic' qui Rotul' habet ad testific', tunc stabitur illis duob' qui cum Appell' conven', &c. Stamf. 83.

Again Master Bracton libro 3. tit. de Corona, saith thus, Cum quis alium appellaverit de pace, & plagis, videre debet Coronator plagas illas, & illas mensurare cujus sunt longitudinis, & cujus profunditatis, siue factæ fuerint in Capite, siue alibi, & quibus armis; Et hæc omnia faciet Irrotulari cum testimonio vicecom' si præsens fuerit in Inquisitione facienda, vel saltem in Com. si Appellum factum sit in Comitatu.

But no Sheriff, Coroner, or any other Wayliff of the Kings shall hold pleas of the Crown: sc. they shall not hold pleas of any felony, nor of any lands (or other Real things but by a writ of Justices.) Nor of any trespass vi & armis, &c. And yet the Sheriff, or Coroner may enquire of the death of a man, and of other things belonging to their Offices. See hic antea fol. & hic postea cap. 107.

The Clerk of the Market also (who is an ancient Officer to see that all weights and measures be according to the Kings Standard in the Exchequer,) may hold a Court, and make his Proses or Precepts to Sheriffs (and Wayliffs of Towns) to return Juries before him, at a certain day and place by him to be appointed, by which Juries he may enquire of things incident to his Office. *Crompt. CAP. 101.

The Sheriff in some Cases is to Assist the Ordinary.

The Sheriff by his oath, is bound to do all his power and diligence to destroy and make to cease all Heresies called Lollards or Lollards within his Shire or County.

Also the Sheriff (being required) is to aid and assist the Ordinary, and Comissary, for the suppressing of Heresies within his County.

Note, that this part of the oath which the Sheriff taketh, for the suppressing of Heresies, seemeth to be by force of the Statute 2 H. 5. c. 7. which Statute is since repealed by the Statute, 1 E. 6. 12. & 1 Eliz. 1.

Note concerning that Stat. of 2 H. 5. cap. 7. made against a sect of Hereticks (so then termed) called Lollards; the Stat. it self is not only repealed as aforesaid; But the persons then called Lollards by the Papists were indeed the true Professors of the Word of God, as appeareth in Mr. Fox his Book of Martyrs, pag. 540. So that the Oath of the Sheriff in that behalf were fit to be amended.

For the Papists taking advantage thereof write as followeth; That Lollards was the vulgar name of Wickliffs Followers, and therefore the Sheriffs Oath to persecute Lollards, King Edward the Sixth, Queen Elizabeth, and King James would not have suffered, Nor the Protestant Sheriffs would take such an Oath, if they accounted Wickliffs Protestants, thus say they, Pr. 440.

Master Birckbeck in his Book called The Protestants Evidence, part 2. pag. 85, 86. saith, that the Lollards were a company of true and godly professors: And that they were so called from one Raynard Lollard, who was burned in Germany for Religion and opposing the Pope.

How far the Sheriff was in former times, to aid the Ordinary for the suppressing of Heresies, and punishing Hereticks. See Flet. 269. d. & Br. titulo Heresies.

But now the Statutes made against Lollards or Hereticks (as they were termed) sc. the Stat. 5 R. 2. c. 5. 2 H. 4. c. 13. 2 H. 5. c. 7. & 25 H. 8. c. 14. &c. stand all repealed by the Stat. made 1 E. 6. c. 12. And therefore at this day, a man before he shall be adjudged an Heretic, must be convicted of Heresie, by the Archbishop, and all the Clergy of that Province, &c. by a Provincial Synod, and must abjure thereof, and after Abjuration must fall into a relapse of that or some other Heresie, and be newly convicted, and condemned by the Clergy of that Province, in their general Council of Convocation, And yet after such conviction and condemnation, the Ordinary ought not to deliver him to the Lay-power, or Sheriff, to be burned, without the Kings Writ purchased and had therefore: whereas before (by the Statute 2 H. 4. c. 15.) every Bishop within his Diocess, might have convicted, abjured, and condemned a man of Heresie; And upon the Bishops Warrant, the Sheriff ought to have burned him, and that without the Kings Writ.*

Fitz. 269. d.
Br. Heretic.

And quere what the Sheriff at this day may do, for the destroying, or suppressing of Heresie, more than to execute the Kings Writ, for burning of such as shall be convicted and condemned, as aforesaid.

But now this Writ de Hæretico Comburendo is taken away by the Statute made in 30 Ca. 2. Regis.

CAP. 102.

The Sheriff is to Proclaim certain Statutes, &c.

Statute of Winch.

Every Sheriff in England ought in person four times in every year, to proclaim the Statute of Winchester (made 13 E. 1. against Homicides, burning of Houses, Robberies, and other felonies) within every Hundred of his Bailiwick; and in all Fairs and Markets by his Bailiffs (as well within Liberties as without;) And this is parcel of his oath, and is by force of the Statute made anno 7 R. 2. c. 6. and the purpose and intent thereof was, that the offenders should not be excused by ignorance; but these Proclamations are not made at this day. Vide Dr. St. 146, 147.

13 E. 1. c. 1.
28 E. 1. c. 17

Statutes of Purveyors.

Also every Sheriff ought to proclaim all the Statutes and Ordinances made of Purveyors (not repealed) four times in his year, through his Bailiwick, upon pain of 5 l. But it seemeth the Sheriff is first to receive the said Statutes, together with the Kings Commandment, for doing the same, and then he ought to proclaim them accordingly; and he ought then also to deliver the same to his successor by Indenture, for him to proclaim the same upon the like pain.

1 H. 6. c. 2.
20 H. 6. c. 2.

Unlawful Games

Sheriffs shall make Proclamation four times in the year, &c. every quarter once, in every Market to be holden within their Counties, of the Statute provided against unlawful Games, and for maintenance of Archery: but it seemeth that none of these three former Statutes as for the Proclamations are now in use.

33 H. 8. c. 9.

Rates for wages

The Sheriff upon receipt of any Proclamation printed, and sent down by the Lord Chancellor, &c. or upon receipt of any rates of wages made by the Justices of Peace of that County, and ingrossed in Parchment under their hands and seals for the rates of wages of servants and labourers, &c. shall forthwith cause Proclamation to be made of the several rates so made, in every Market Town within his limits (or at least in so many places within their authorities as shall be convenient;) The same Proclamation to be done in open Market, and to be fixed upon some post, in some convenient place of the Town.

If any findeth a Hawk that is lost, he must presently bring the same to the Sheriff of that County (where it is taken up,) and the Sheriff must make Proclamation, in all the good Towns in the County, that he hath such a Hawk in his custody, and if the Lord and owner which lost the same Hawk, or any of his servants come to challenge it, and prove reasonably that the same is his Lords or Masters, he is to pay for the costs, and to have the Hawk again: and if none come within four months to challenge the Hawk, then the Sheriff shall have the Hawk, making gree to or with him that did take up the Hawk, if he be a simple man: and if he be a Gentleman, and of estate to have the Hawk, then the Sheriff is to deliver him the Hawk, taking of him reasonable costs for the time that he had him in his custody, &c. reasonable allowance for the keeping thereof.

Proclamations to be made by the Sheriff.

31 El. cap. 3.

For avoiding of secret summons in real actions, after summons up- Summons in on the land, and fourteen days at least before the day of the return Real. action thereof, the Sheriff shall make a proclamation of the summons upon a Sunday, immediately after Divine Service and Sermon, if any Sermon there be, and if no Sermon there be, then forthwith after Divine Service, at or near to the most usual door of the Church or Chappel of that Town or Parish where the land whereupon the summons was made doth lie. And that Proclamation so made as aforesaid, shall be returned Returned together with the names of the summoners. And if such summons shall not be proclaimed, and returned, according to the tenor and meaning of this Act, then no Grand Cape to be awarded, but an alias and pluries summons, as the case shall require, until a summons and proclamation shall be duly made, and returned, according to the tenor and meaning of this Act, 31 Eliz. 3.

4 H. 8. cap. 4.

Also for the avoiding of secret Outlawries, &c. upon every Exigent upon writ where Writs of Proclamation are to be awarded, the Sheriff of the County to whom any such Writ of Proclamation shall be directed, before any outlawry pronounced, shall make three Proclamations within his County, at three several days (two of his Proclamations to be made in full Court of his County or Shire Court, And the third Proclamation to be made at the general Sessions in those parts where the party defendant is supposed to be dwelling, &c.) that the party yield his body to the Sheriff of the County to whom such Exigent is awarded, so that the Sheriff may have the body at the day of the return of the Exigent to answer the plaintiff: But now by the Statute of 13 Eliz. one Proclamation is to be made in the open County Court, another at the general Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the third at or near the most usual Church-door of that Town or Parish where the defendant shall be dwelling at the time of the Exigent awarded, and upon a Sunday immediately after Divine Service (and Sermon, if any be) and the same (third proclamation) to be made one month at the least before the quint exact, by virtue of the said Writ of Exigent, and that all Outlawries had and pronounced, and no Writ of Proclamation awarded, or not returned according to this Statute, shall be utterly void.

 2. At Sessions.
 3. At the usual Church-door.

 P. Exig' 6.

Also whensoever any Writ of Exigent shall be awarded (in any action or suit in the Kings Bench, or Common Pleas) against any person dwelling in Wales, Lancashire, or Cheshire, one Writ of Proclamation shall be also awarded, &c. and every Sheriff (of every of the said Counties) to whom any such Writ of Proclamation shall be directed, rected, shall make proclamation of the said Writ of proclamation, according to the tenor of the same, and shall make true return of the same, according as the same Writ shall require.

Also by another Statute made anno 31 El. Writs upon proclamations, and Exigents, against any person dwelling within the County Palatine of Durham, shall be directed to the Bishop (or Chancellor) of Durham, &c. And the said Bishop, &c. shall by his Mandate directed to the Sheriff of the said County Palatine, cause proclamation to be made of the same writs of proclamation, according to the tenor of the same; and shall make true returns of the same into such Courts as the tenor of the same writs of proclamation shall require. 13 El. c. 9.

All Writs pronounced against any person upon any such Exigent awarded against any person dwelling within any of the said Counties of Wales, Lancashire, and Cheshire, as also within the said Bishoprick or County Palatine of Durham, and no writs of proclamation awarded in form aforesaid, or not returned as aforesaid, shall be clearly void, and of none effect. P. Exigent. 6. & 15.

Also if the Sheriff shall not duly execute and make true return of such writs of proclamation, &c. he shall be amerced at the discretion of Justices. 6 H. 8. c. 4. P. Exigent. 5.

And the Sheriffs of every the said Counties of Wales, Lancashire, and Cheshire, as also the Bishop or Chancellor of Durham, &c. which shall not make true return of every such writ of proclamation to them directed, &c. they shall lose for every such default v l. the one half to the King, the other half to any person which will sue for the same. 1 E. 6. c. 10. 5 E. 6. c. 26. 31 El. c. 9. P. Exig. 8. & 17.

Averment.

If the Sheriff shall not make all these proclamations in case of Writ of Attainder, according to the statutes, &c. yet by the Common Law the party being outlawed should not have averred this against the Sheriff's return, (i. e. to say that there was but one, or two proclamations made by the Sheriff, &c. or to say, that the Sheriff made no proclamation at the Church-door, or Sessions, &c.) but in such cases the party so unduly outlawed, should have had his Action of the Case against the Sheriff, and so recovered his damages, &c. See the opinion of Keble 10 Hen. 7. fol. 23. & Br. Action sur le Case 122. 10 H. 7. f. 2.

But now by the words of the statute of 6 H. 8. cap. 4. All Writs of Error had contrary to the same statute shall be avoided by averment without suing of any writ of Error. 6 H. 8. c. 4.

And by the Statute 31 Eliz. cap. 3. in fine before any allowance of any writ of Error, or reversing of any Writary, shall be had by plea or otherwise, through, or by want of any proclamation to be had or made, according to the form of this Statute, the Defendant and Defendants in the original action shall put in bail, not only to appear and answer to the plaintiff in the former suit, in a new action to be commenced by the said plaintiff for the cause mentioned in the first action, but also to satisfy the condemnation, if the plaintiff shall begin his suit before the end of two terms, next after the allowing the writ of Error, or otherwise avoiding of the said Writary. 31 El. c. 3.

Upon an Appeal, or Indictment, against any person dwelling in a foreign County, before any Exigent awarded, immediately after the first Capias returned, another writ of Capias shall be directed to the Sheriff of the County, whereof by the said Inditement the party is supposed to be, upon which second Capias, if the Sheriff cannot find the party within his County, When the Sheriff shall make proclamation in two Counties (before the return of the same writ) that the party so Appealed or Indicted shall appear before the Justices, &c. where he was so Indicted.

dicted or Appealed, at the day contained in the said last writ, to answer the matter, &c. 8 H. 6. cap. 10. And if the party appear not thereupon, and that be returned by the Sheriff, then the Exigent shall be awarded; and every Exigent awarded, or Writ pronounced upon any such Indictment, &c. against this form, shall be void. Ibid.

Upon a writ de Excom' Capiendo, if the Sheriff returneth Non est inventus, then shall there be awarded a Capias with a proclamation therein contained, upon the receipt whereof, the Sheriff shall in the full County Court (or else at the general Assises and Gaol-delivery, or at a quarter Sessions for the peace to be holden within the same County) make open proclamation, ten days at the least before the Return, that the party or parties named in the said writ, shall within six days next after such proclamation yield his or their bodies to the Gaol of the said Sheriff, there to remain according to the tenor of the first writ de Excom' Capiendo. And if the Sheriff shall thereupon return that the parties have not yielded their bodies accordingly, thereupon still such process shall go out, and the Sheriff shall make the like proclamation, until the party yield himself. 5 Ed. 1. cap. 23.

If any Riot, Rout, or unlawful assembly of people shall be, and that the same, or the truth thereof, cannot be found by the Justices of peace upon their Enquiry, Then within one month the said Justices and Sheriff (or Under-Sheriff) shall certify into the Kings Bench, &c. the whole fact, &c. (ut hic cap. 4.) And if the offenders do not appear in the Kings Bench upon the first process, Then another writ shall be directed to the Sheriff to take the Offenders, and to bring them into the said Court, &c. And if they cannot be found, Then the Sheriff shall make proclamation in his full County Court next ensuing the delivery of the said second process, that the said Offenders be before the King and his Council in the Kings Bench, or in the Chancery in the Wascation, within three weeks then next following, And if the offenders come not then in, and that the proclamation be made and Returned, the Offender shall be convicted and attainted of the Riot, &c. 13 H. 4. cap. 7.

5 H. 4. c. 15. Sheriffs (at the next County holden after the delivery of the Kings writ) shall make proclamation in their County Court, of the day and place of the Parliament, &c. so that all interested may attend to the election of the Knights of the Parliament, &c. See hic antea fol. Of the Parliament.

23 H. 6. c. 11. Sheriffs when they have received the Kings Writ for the levying of expences of the Knights of the Parliament, at the next County Court, they ought to make proclamation, that all parties interested be at their next County, to assess the said wages, &c. *See hic antea tit. In the Writ of Admeasurement of Dower, as also in the Writ of Admeasurement of Pasture, when the suit is come to the grand distress, days shall be given, within the which there may be holden two Countesses, at the which open proclamation shall be made, that the Defendant shall appear at the day contained in the Writ, to answer the Plaintiff, at which day, if he do appear, the suit shall proceed betwixt them, and if he do not appear, and the proclamation be in form aforesaid testified by the Sheriff, Admeasurement shall be made by default. When any suit dependeth between parties for the wardship of an heir, or land, or both, by the common Writ de Communi custodia, 52 H. 3. 7.¹ Summons shall be made, &c. and when they have passed to the great Distress, there shall be a time given, wherein there may be holden three Counties at the least, in every of which Counties there shall be open proclamation made, that the deforcer shall appear in the common place at the day contained in the Writ, to answer the Plaintiff, at which day if he do not appear, and the proclamation be so testified, the first, second, and third time, judgment shall be given for the Plaintiff, saving the Defendants right, if he will at another time defend the same; In the same manner it shall be done in an action of Trespass, when any man complaineth himself to be ejected from such wardships, Westm. 2. 13 Ed. 1. 35. Vide stat. de Marl. cap. 7. 13 E. 1. c. 35.

Ejectione

This stat. of Marl. 52 H. 3. cap. 7. is in these words, If the Def. come not to answer within the said half year, For the Sheriff cannot get his body, to have it before the Justices, to answer, &c. now by these words it may seem, that the Sheriff ought to take the body of the Def. or Deforcer, and to imprison him by force of this Distress; But the words words are not so to be understood, or rather seem to be of none effect; for in the Writ of Distress no mention is made of the taking of the body of the Def. And therefore in such case the Sheriff shall do no other thing, but only to return Issues upon the Def. by force of this Distress, sc. of all his goods and chattels, (other than such as are excepted by the Stat. of Westm. 2. cap. 39.) And then as a Kibbel, &c. the Def. shall lose the seisin of the Ward, &c. Lectur.

CAP. 103.

The Sheriff is to make certain Purveyances for the King.

10 E. 3. c. 4.
14 E. 3. c. 19.

By the old Statutes it was provided, that all Purveyances that should be made for the Kings great Horses, so long as they did sojourn in any County, should be made by the Sheriffs of the Counties, where such Horses did sojourn, and not by any other; And that the Purveyances made by the Sheriff in this case, shall be delivered to the Keepers of the Horses, by Indenture. And the Sheriff was to make such Purveyances, of the issues of his Bailiwick: And the number of the Horses for which the Sheriff should make such Purveyance, should be contained in his * Commission or Warrant &c. And that no Purveyance should be made over this number, saving that the chief Keeper had a Hackney; And the Sheriff was to take good heed that the County were not charged of more than should keep the Horses; But for every Horse a Servant, without bringing Women, Pages, or Dogs with them. And if any more were found abiding in the charge of the Countrey, they were to be brought to prison, there to remain, till the King had sent his will. 14 E. 3. 19. But now quere of the validity or use of these Statutes. Dicitur that it appeareth by the Roll, that this Stat. of 10 E. 3. is holden for to be no Statute.

Commandment.

14 E. 3. c. 19.

And in the same manner it was commanded to the Sheriffs, that they should make Purveyances for the Kings Dogs, of the issues of their Bailiwicks: And that such Purveyances should be made by none other, but by the Sheriffs. And that it should be contained in his commandment, the number of Dogs, for which he should make Purveyance, over which number no Purveyance should be made, so that they should live of their certain, without charging the Countrey. And if any found himself grieved against this Ordinance, he should recover against the Sheriff for such grievance done unto him. Quere also of the use of this Statute.

For Dogs.

CAP. 104.

The Sheriffs Courts.

It appeareth by Finesux Chief Justice 12 H. 7. that at the first all administration of Justice was in one hand, sc. in the King, (so as no Law was used, nor Justice administered, but only before the King himself) but afterwards the administration of Justice was divided into Counties, so as this power was committed to the Sheriff within every County: And for his better government of the County, and for the punishment of evil doers therein, the Sheriff had two Powers of Courts appointed unto him; the one the Sheriffs Tourn, unto which all the County, sc. every man of a certain age should come (yea were compellable to come) there to hear the articles and things given in charge, that so they might not be ignorant of the Laws, whereby they were to be governed, and where also they were to be sworn to their allegiance to the King; the other was the County Court, the which was to give remedy between man and man, for any thing between them under 40s. And so by these two Courts all the County was governed at the first.

Afterwards, for that this was too great a thing for the Sheriff (being but one person) to do, by reason of the multitude of people, and for their ease (and better government, and more easie administration of Justice) Leets were derived out of the Tourn, and were granted to the Lords of Franchises or Mannors; And Hundred Courts were derived out of the County Court, and were granted or leiten by the Kings of this Realm to the Lords of certain Liberties (especially to Religious men, Noble men, and others of great place) to hold pleas also under 40s. of Contracts, &c. made within the Hundred.

The Hundred Court is to be kept every three weeks (by the Wayliffs of the Hundred.) And the Judges of this Court are the Suiters.

And there may be holden every Plaint between party and party, as there may be in a Court Baron: And this Hundred Court is to the same effect as the Court Baron: And it is the Kings Court Baron.

Note that the Hundred Court, is where a man hath by the King granted a Court Baron for all the Inhabitants of the Hundred, or of some other great Precinct, to be holden before him, or his Wayliff, &c. and it is in all respects as a Court Baron. 12 H. 7. 17. Finch. 122.

And all the Inhabitants within the Precinct of such Liberty or Hundred, by reason of their Tenements there, shall be Attendant, and owe suit to the Hundred. Rede. 12 H. 7. fol. 17. Finch. 248.

Hundred Courts (certain Franchises excepted) were after taken into the Sheriffs hands again, and were re-joyned unto the County Court, and that by force of the Statutes of 2 E. 3. cap. 12. & 14 E. 3. cap. 9. See Fitz. Petition 1.

And now the Sheriff is Judge not only of that grand Court for the County (called now the Sheriffs Tourn) but also he is Judge of all the Hundred Courts which be not given away from the Crown. V. 9.

Minsh. verbo Bailie, saith, That these Hundred Courts (certain Franchises excepted) are by the Stat. 14 E. 3. Stat. 1. cap. 9. brought into County Courts.

And he describeth what a Hundred is. Verbo Hundred.

Sir Fr. Bacon writeth, that by occasion of many mischiefs falling out out at those great Assemblies of the Sheriffs Torne, the King was moved to allow subdivisions of every County into Hundreds, and every Hundred to have a Court, whereunto the people of every Hundred should be assembled twice a year, for survey of Pledges, and use of that Justice which formerly was executed in that Grand Court of the County (or Sheriffs Torne) And that the Count or Earl appointed a Bayliff under him to keep the Hundred Court. V. 8.

The Sheriff hath now the keeping of two Courts for the County, committed or assigned to him, sc.

1. The Torne for the government of their County, wherein he is to enquire of Criminal causes, and to reform common Nusances, &c. throughout the whole Shire.

2. The County (or Shire) Court, to hold plea within their County of debts, detinue of chattels, trespasses, and the like, being under 40 s. and to replevy the cattel distrained and impounded by others. But if the Sheriff shall hold any plea in any other Court than in the County Court, it is coram non Judic. 7 E. 4. 23. Br. Justices 3.

But per in this County Court, by a writ of Justices, a man may sue for any sum. Also in this Court the Sheriff by a writ called an Exigent, is to proclaim men sued in the Courts at Westminster, to render their bodies, or else to be outlawed. All which more particularly see more fully in that which here followeth.

CAP. 105.

The Sheriffs Torne.

The Book called Speculum Justiciar. libro 1. cap. 16. treating of the Sheriffs Torne, saith thus,

Co. 9. pref.

Sheriffs of ancient Ordinance do hold general Assemblies twice a year, in every Hundred, whither all the Freeholders within the Hundred are bound to come, by the service of their fees, that is to say, once after Michaelmas, and another time after Easter: and because the Sheriffs for the doing hereof make their Torns (or Courtles) through the Hundred, such Assemblies are called the Sheriffs Torne, or Sheriffs Courle. In cheescote Hundred.

And Mr. Bracton writeth thus, Torne de Vic' est Circuitus Vic' per omnia Hundred' Comitatus sui, bis in Anno terminis & locis Stat. & usitat. populi Comit' pro pace Regis observand'.

Brit. fol. 71.

And Master Lambert saith, that this Court of old was called also the Sheriffs Mote.

This Court was ordained to be holden in every Hundred for the ease of the people; and therein the Sheriff is to deal with matters touching the King himself, and with matters touching the Common Wealth, (sc. to enquire of Criminal causes, and of common Nusances, and them to reform) And so this Court (the Sheriffs Torne) is for the administering of Justice Distributive. But this Court was not ordained for any particular or private matters between party and party, but for such things the County Court, and the Hundred Court, were appointed; and in those Courts Justicia Commutativa is administered.

So then in this Court it belongeth to the Sheriffs to enquire of all offences personal, and of all the circumstances of offences done in those Hundreds, and of wrongs done by the Kings and Queens Ministers, and of wrongs done to the King, and to the Commynalty, &c.

And such things as the Sheriff could not redress in the Torne, was used to be presented by the Sheriff in the Elchequer. Spec. Justic. libro 1. cap. 17.

Suiters.

It appeareth by Britton, that all the Freeholders, and terretenants, and other persons of the age of 12 years or above, which are resident or inhabiting within the Hundred, ought to come to the Sheriffs Torne, (none excepted but Barons, Clergy-men, and women, children under 12, and men above 60) V. 8. for these, their presence was not, nor is not necessary there, for that they are never sworn upon any Enquests, especially to enquire of any thing inquirable before the Sheriff. See 52 H.3. c. 2. & 10: & Br. Lect 42. & 39. & Finch. 125. Fitz. 160.
c. 161.

And all these did appear at this Court to give or renew their Pledges for their Allegiance. V. 8.

Note, Barons, &c. although they are exempted from their Appearance at the Sheriffs Torne, for any matter or cause which appertains to the Torne, yet the words of the said Stat. are further, Nisi eorum presentia ob aliquam causam specialiter exigatur, by force of which words, if any Baron, or any other of the said persons exempted, shall be summoned to come to the Torne for any other special cause, as by the Kings commandment upon any special occasion; Or for to aid the Sheriff in executing his Office there, if any shall make resistance; Or for to give in evidence concerning any Purpresture, or other thing there inquirable, and lying within their knowledge; Or upon other the like occasion, Then such persons upon such cause, ought to come to the Sheriffs Torne, &c. Lectur. Mri Chiborne Anno 1 H. 8.

Also if any Baron, Prelate, or other Clergy-man, or woman, have any lands or tenements which they hold by * Suit-service to the Sheriffs Torne, then they ought to come and appear there, and to do suit there, according to their said tenure. * Quare.

Concerning Clergy-men the words of the Stat. of Marlebr. cap. 10. are thus, Necesse non habeat ibi venire Archiepiscopi, Episcopi, Abbates, Priores, nec aliqui viri Religiosi, by the equity of which words all secular Priests seem also to be intended: And yet by the Common Law, men of Religion, and women were exempted from appearance at the Sheriffs Torne.

All men-children of the age of 12 years, are compellable to come to the Sheriffs Torne, there for to hear the charge, and so learn the Laws, &c. And also to be sworn there to the King, and to be his liegemen, (or to be his faithful and loyal Subjects, &c.) Br. Lect 39. & Fitz. 161. a. Eritton dicit eos jurare, quod Regi fidei portabunt, quodque neque felones erunt, neque eis Consentient. Cow. 82. But they shall not be sworn to enquire, or to present anything there; for no man shall be sworn upon or in any Enquest, &c. before he cometh to his age of 21 years. Lit. 259. & Co. L. 68. 122. b.

Townships shall not be amerced by Justices, because all being 12 years old come not before the Sheriff and Coroners, to make enquiry of Robberies, burning houses, and other things pertaining to the Crown, so that there come sufficient out of those Towns, by whom such Enquests may be made full: Except Enquests for the death of a man, whereat all being 12 years of age ought to appear, unless they have reasonable cause of absence. 52 H. 3. cap. 24.

And yet tenants in ancient demesne are not bound to come to the Er. Lect 38. Sheriffs Torne. Fitz. 161. c. Br. Aunc' Dem' 43. 49.

Also they which have Hundreds of their own to be kept, shall be 52 H. 3. c. 1. bound to appear at the Sheriffs Torne, but in the Bailiwick or Hundred where they be dwelling. Stat. 52 H. 3. cap. 10.

The English Statute-Books are so translated; but the old Latin Statute-Books are in these words, Qui in diversis Hundredis habent Tenementa, non habent necesse ad huiusmodi Turnos venire, nisi in ballivis ubi fuerint conversantes, and with this also agreeth the old French.

And if any man who hath lands or tenements in divers places of the Fitz. 160. a. County and in divers Hundreds, be distreined to come to the Sheriffs Torne, in any place where he dwelleth not, (but that he be dwelling within the precinct of another Hundred) then he may have a writ directed to the Sheriff, commanding him to discharge the party for coming to any other Torne, &c. than within the Hundred where he dwelleth.
 The form of which writ you may see Fitz. 160. a. & Register. fol. 174.

Also if any Lord hath a Leete or View of Frankpledge of all his Tenants of his Mannor, which is within the Hundred, those tenants are not compellable to appear at the Sheriffs Torne, for that the Torne, and the Leete, are both as one Court: And the Leete is no other, but where the King hath granted to a particular man to hold this Court within a certain precinct (as within his Mannor or Signiory.) So that when it is in the Kings hands, it is called the Sheriffs Torne, for that the Sheriff is to hold or keep it; And when it is in the hands of another person (by the Kings grant or otherwise) it is called a Leete or a View of Frankpledge, and then such as ought to appear at the Leete shall not be compelled also to appear at the Torne, for no man shall be compelled to appear at two Leets. Lectura Mr. Chiborne.

Quere if the Lords (themselves) of Leets, be not compellable to appear at the Torne.

If a man hath a View of Frankpledge (or a Leet) of all his tenants within his Mannor, and he hath one tenant whose house wherein he dwelleth, part thereof doth extend it self within the Precinct of his Signiory, and part thereof within the Precinct of the Hundred out of his Signiory or Mannor, such a tenant ought to appear at the Sheriffs Torne, and not at his Lords Leet, for that the Torne being the Kings Court shall be preferred. Lectur. præd.

If a mans house wherein he dwelleth extendeth or standeth in two Counties, or Hundreds, (sc. his Hall, &c. in the one, and his Chamber wherein he lieth in another) here he shall be adjudged to be of that County or Hundred wherein he coucheth or lieth in the Night. ibid.

Again, all Resiants within the Hundred ought to appear at the Sheriffs Torne, and therefore if I do hire a servant for one year, and the second day after he is come to dwell with me, the Sheriff holdeth his Torne, my servant ought to appear there. But if a stranger cometh and lieth at my house three or four days, within which time the Sheriff holds his Torne, such stranger shall not be compelled to appear at the Torne, if he hath any dwelling place of his own, or else where resiant; Otherwise he may.

By the Common Law none are compellable to appear at the Torne for his lands, for this suit to the Sheriffs Torne (or Lords Leet) is a Suit Royal, which is always by reason of the person, and not of any Land. Ibid.

See hic cap. 8. and the reason why it is called Suit Royal.

An Alien resident within the Hundred is compellable to appear at the Torne; and to be sworn there to the King, for his Allegiance: and yet this makes not him a Denizen. Ibid. & 14 H. 4. fol.

But men of great age (sc. above 70) and men Decrepit, and such as are sick, were at least excusable by the Common Law.

Note, that if the Leet of any Lord shall happen to be seized into the Kings hands for misfeuer, or for any other cause, Then all the people resident within that Leet so seized, &c. shall now come to the Sheriffs Torne. Ibid.

Also when the Lord of a Leet shall neglect to keep his Leet (at least once a year) if the Sheriff shall hold his Torne within that Hundred during such times of neglect, those which be Residents within such Lords Leets may be compelled to come to the Sheriffs Torne, there to be sworn to their Allegiance (if they were not sworn before at the Leet,) and there to be sworn to enquire of things appertaining to the King and Common-wealth (happening within the Precinct of the Leet so neglected,) which services or suit otherwise would utterly be neglected and lost through the defaults of Lords of Leets. Ibid.

The Jury.

In the Sheriffs Torne after the appearance of the suitors, twelve (at the least) of the most discreet and sufficient Freeholders within the Hundred, ought first to be impannelled and sworn (by the Sheriff) to enquire of, and to present all things there enquirable and presentable: and after (as a second Jury) all the rest which appear there ought to be sworn (per decenaries, & per villas) the Tithing-men with their Tithings, and these shall present or give in their verdict, to the first Jurors, such things as shall be given them in charge. And if they shall conceal any thing, they shall be amerced: But if they shall present any thing that is false, and the 12 first Jurors shall find that their verdict is false, for this they shall not be amerced.

Brit. 71.
Cromp. 212.

And when the Decenaries or Tithings have delivered their presentments to the said first Jury, and that the first Jury are agreed of their presentments, then they must give up to the Steward or Court Keeper, such presentments as they will stand to and avow; and if there be any felony, they must deliver those up by themselves to the Steward privily, and the rest openly.

Cromp. 213 a.

But it is used in some places, that one Enquest is impannelled for the body of the Hundred of the Freeholders, to whom the Constables (or Thirdboroughs, &c.) of every Town and Village within the same Hundred, which come to the Sheriffs Torne, do present upon their oaths, the defaults within their several Towns to the Steward, and he informeth the Deceners, of such things as they have so presented.

Cromp. 212.

Fincox in 12 H. 7. fol. 18. saith, That every man within the Hundreds, Burroughs and Towns, ought to come to the Sheriffs Torne (by reason of their allegiance.) And that the Constables of the Hundreds, and Petty-Constables of the Burroughs and Towns, ought there to present the defaults of misdoers, &c. sc. every of them must present the defaults committed within their several Limits: and this presentment of the High-Constables, and Petty-Constables shall be made and delivered in, to the said first Jury (as it seemeth) and that upon Oath, otherwise their presentment is void.

The sufficiency of those Jurors.

But by the Stat. made 1 R. 3. c. 4. it is now enacted, That no Way-liff, or other Officer, shall impannel or return in any Pannel, any person to be taken or put in, or upon any Enquiry in any Sheriffs Torne, but such as be of good name and fame, and which have Freehold lands or Tenements within the same County, to the clear yearly value value of twenty shillings at the least, & Copihold lands & Tenements within the same County, to the clear yearly value of 20 shillings and eight pence at the least. And if any Officer shall impanel, or Return any person contrary to this Statute, he shall lose for every person so returned or impanelled (not being of such sufficiency) forty shillings, And the Sheriff other forty shillings, the one half to the King, and the other half to such as will sue for the same, &c. And besides every Inditement in other manner taken, before the Sheriff in his Torne, shall be void. Stat. 85. See Stat. 11 H. 7. cap. 26.

Lou cen Stat. de 1 R. 3. parle que tiel Jurours expender 20 s. Freehold per Ann. ou 26 s. 8 d. Copihold, Semble que ceux sommes doient estre certain & Annual, & per reason del gayne del Orchyard, de Garden, de Market, de Wreck. & brjusmodi, que sont forsque Casual, & nient certain, home ne serra juré de tiel Enquests, &c.

Mes si dencx Joyntenants sont, & que eux ne poent expender forsque 20 s. Freehold per Ann. uncore eux ambidenx poent estre jurus par ceo, &c. come semble.

Westm. 2. 13.

By the Statute made Ann. 13 E. 1. c. 13. it is ordained that Sheriffs in their Tournes (and in other places where they have authority to enquire of Delictors or trespasses) shall cause their Enquests to be made (or make their inquisitions) by 12 men at the least, and by lawful men, which shall put their seals to such Inquisitions, or Inditements, that so it may the better appear that the Inditement was taken by twelve lawful men.

Their number.

If there shall be 15 or 16 such Jurors upon the Inquisition, it seemeth good; and if but 12 of them agree, and those 12 shall set their seals to such Inditement or Inquisition, it sufficeth: But if all the 16 shall agree, then also must all those 16 set their seals thereto.

At the Common Law, and until this Stat. of Westm. 2. cap. 13. dictum, that Sheriffs in their Tournes would often Endite certain persons by five or six men, and by such as were outlawed, &c. and by force of such Enditements would imprison the persons so Indited, and them keep in prison, until they had made a Fine to them, at their own wills, and that the persons so imprisoned had no remedy, to prevent which mischief this Stat. of Westm. 2. was made.

Afterwards, for that divers Sheriffs, used to alter or change such Enditements, after they were lawfully taken (sc. where the Enditement was for Felony, they would make it Trespass, Et de Converso) and the better to conceal such their abuses they would oftentimes imbezil the same Inditements, To prevent which mischief there was another Stat. made Anno 1 Ed. 3. cap. 17. as followeth.

And because the said Inquisitions taken by the Sheriffs should not be changed, imbezilled nor concealed, therefore by another Statute made Anno 1 E. 3. c. 17. it was enacted, that Sheriffs (and Bailiffs of Liberties, and all others who take Inditements at their Tournes, or elsewhere) shall take those Inditements by Roll indented (or Indentures made between the Sheriff and the Jurors) whereof the one part shall remain with the Inditors or Jurors, under the hand and seal of the Sheriff, and the other part with the Sheriff, or him that taketh the Enquest, so that the Inditement shall not be imbezilled, &c. and so that one of the Enquest may shew the one part of the Indentures to the Justices, when they come to make deliberance. But now the Sheriff or his Steward is to send or deliver their part of these Inditements or Presentments to the next Sessions of the Peace, &c. See hic postica Stat. 1 E. 4. c. 2.

The Presentments shall be indented.

The place.

So note, that the Sheriff ought to keep his Torne in every Hundred within his County, as is aforesaid. Co. 9. Preface. Fitz. 160. a. Br. Leet. 42.

But the Sheriff ought to keep this his Torne no where but in due place and accustomed, and that by force of the said Statute of Magna Chart. cap. 35.

And if the Sheriff shall keep his Torne in loco consueto, he may be indicted and punished for the same. See Dyer 151. Sir John Savages Case, & Kiel. 192.

Time.

Also the Sheriff ought to keep, or to hold this his Torne but twice in the year, sc. once within one month next after Easter, and again within one month next after Michaelmas ; And if he shall hold his Torne at any time after the month from the said feast days of Easter and Michaelmas, it is void, by the Stat. of 31 E. 3. And all indictments and presentments (either of Felony, or otherwise) so taken by him after the said months are Coram non Judice, and altogether void. See 38 H. 6. fol. 7. And besides the Sheriff shall lose his profits thereof, &c. Br. Leet. 17. & 21. & Indictments 9. 27. Vide Co. 10. 76. Stamf. 84. & 6 H. 7. f. 2.

See hic cap. 42.

Also the Sheriff keeping his Torne oftner than twice a year, or after the said months (next after the Feast days of Easter, and of St. Mich. the Arch-Angel) he may be inhibited for the same, as it seemeth.

Fitz. Lect 11.

Note (by some opinions) that the Sheriff in his Torne holden after Easter, ought not to enquire of any action popular, &c. but only he is then to take their suit which are suiters, and to take the view, sc. quod Tithinga tenentur, sc. that all above the age of twelve years come and appear there, &c. (the cause of which their appearance, see hic cap. 8.) But at his Torne holden after Michaelmas, then he shall enquire of such things as are there inquirable. CAP. 106.

What things are inquirable in the Sheriffs Torne, at this day.

The Sheriffs Torne in ancient time was one of the highest Courts in it self, which the King had: For at the first they had more authority than the Justices of Peace now have; for the Sheriffs in their Tornos did enquire of all Treasons which were Treasons by the Common Law, and of Felonies, &c. Also in the Torne they did Enquire of Alienations without Licence by the Kings Tenants, &c. And of Alienations in mortmain; And of such as held by Pontage, or to repair any Bridge, &c. and as the great Enquest (at the Assises, or Sessions of the Peace now) are sworn to enquire of matters through the County, so this Torne was in stead or place of such great Enquest, &c. Lectur. Mr. Littleton super Stat. Westm. 2.

Also in this Court the High Constables of Hundreds, and Petty Constables were appointed and sworn; breakers of the Peace were punished by fine and imprisonment; the parties beaten or hurt were recompenced upon complaints of Damages; All Appeals of Murder, Mayhem, and Robbery, decided; Contempts against the Crown, publick annoyances, Treasons and Felonies, and all other matters of wrong, betwixt party and party, for lands, or goods. Sir Fr. Bacon of the use of the Law, p. 5, 6.

Treason. The Sheriff in his Torne at this day hath power, and ought to enquire of such as are mortal Enemies to the King, Queen (his wife) or to their children: And of the Councellores, Procurers, Consenters, and Aiders; and of all Treasons at the Common Law. Cromp. 212.

Also of such as falsifie the Kings Seal.

Stat. 18 E. 2.

And such as falsifie the Kings money; or shall wash, or clip the same, Finch. 241. but M. Brooke maketh a quære thereof, titulo Leet 26.

Felonies. They are also to enquire in their Torne, of all manner of Felonies by the Common Law, as of murder, manslaughter, and other Homicides: See the Stat. 52 H. 3. c. 24. & 3 Ed. 1. c. 11. & Britton. Cromp. 212.

And yet see Br. Leets 26. & Fitz. Torne 5. and the Book 22 E. 4. fol. 22. by the opinion of all the Justices, that the power of the Sheriff in his Torne, was to enquire of all Felonies, at the Common Law, except the death of a man. Finch. 125.

They are there to enquire of Burglaries, Robberies, and Thefts, and of the receivers of such offenders.

Of burners of houses, or stacks of corn feloniously.

Of breakers of prison, being therein for Felony.

Of ravishing of women, Stat. 18 E. 2. Cromp. 212. Yet the Book 22 E. 4. & Br. Leet 26. & Fitz. Torne 5. are contrary, as being a Felony by Statute, and not by Common Law. Sed de hoc quære.

Of Poisoners.

Of Sorcerers, Conjurers, and Witches: which offences were Felony by the Common Law, and the offenders therein were to be burned. See Fitz. 269. b.

Of Petty Larcenies, in stealing Hens, Geese, or Sheafs of Corn, &c.

Of such as take Theft-note.

Br. Lects 26.

But note, that the Sheriff in his Torne, hath no authority to enquire of any Felonies by Stat. as cutting out of tongues; putting out of eyes, &c. 28 E. 3. 95. 21 E. 21. Fitz. Torne 5.

Note also, that no Sheriff within any of the Counties of Wales, shall have power to enquire of any manner of Felony, in any their Lects, Law-days, or Tournes, within the same Dominion to be holden. Stat. 35 H. 8. c. 26.

Also Sheriffs shall enquire in their Tournes of the escape of any Felon; And of any person imprisoned (for any other cause) which is let go without warrant or mainprise. Stat. 18 E. 2.

And of such as have abjured the Realm, and are returned without licence.

Of Outlaws, which return without the Kings Warrant.

Of Treasure trove.

Nota, que Coyne trove, comment que ne fait abscondita in terra, est Treasure Profits le Roy trove, (& semble Inquirable rey) Br. Presentments 24.

Iffint semble de money, plate, ou bullion trove, le owner nient connus; Car ceux ferra dit Treasure trove, & le Roy avera eux. Br. Coron. 176.

Of Wayfres and Straits.

Cromp. 213.

Of wreck of the Sea, found and retained.

Of those which claim any Franchise real.

Of new Franchises, or Customs, levied on land or water.

If any man hath a Fair, or Market, by grant or by prescription, and doth not hold, or keep the same Fair or Market, as he ought to do.

It seemeth also, that the Sheriff in his Torne ought to enquire of all Purprestures and Encroachments made upon the Kings Lands or Franchises, &c.

Now concerning this word Purpresture, there is no such word in use in the Latin Tongue, but only in our Law; And in the general sense this word Purpresture is now taken for any thing which any man by wrong hath encroached upon another, and (by inclosure, or usage) appropriated unto himself. M. Manwood, fol. 59.

And Skeene de verbo Purpresturæ maketh three sorts of this offence; One against the King, the second against the Lord of the Fee, the third against a Neighbour lying near him.

Concerning the King this word Purpresture may seem to be, when another doth take or incroach any thing upon the King, which he ought not to have, whether it be in Jurisdiction, Franchise, or Land: As if a man do hold a Fair without the Kings grant, or lawful Prescription; Or do incroach or claim any liberty within the Kings Forest; Or do levy a house, wall, or hedge, in the Kings High-way; Or upon the Kings Land: The penalty in these cases is, that he which maketh such Purpresture shall be grievously amerced, and the Purpresture shall be pulled down and destroyed for ever at the Kings pleasure. And if it be in land, or buildings, after the Purpresture is found by Enquest, and the value of it assessed, it may be set at yearly Rent to be answered to the King, if the King will. Lectur. Mri Treherne. And herewith agreeth Dr. Glanville libro 9. cap. 11. tit. Purpresture. See hic cap. 9.

Vide plus Stat. 4 E. 1. cap. 4. & Cromp. Autor des Courts 152. & 203.

Vide Minch. verbo Purpresture & scribe hic.

Also concerning this word Nusance, Nocumentum, in our Common Law signifieth any thing which tendereth either to the general hurt and annoyance of the Kings Liege People, Or else to the hurt and annoyance of some one particular person. But in the Sheriffs Torne (as also the Leet) they are to Enquire only of Common Nusances.

And the Sheriff in his Torne is also to Enquire of Purprestures, Usurpations, or Encroachments, made in any the Kings demesne lands, woods, or upon highways, common streets, or waters, to any common annoyance, Stat. 18 E. 2. Vide Co. L. 277. b.

Of all walls, houses, hedges, and ditches, made up, or broken down, to annoyances, ibid.

Whether Highways be enlarged according to the Statute of Winchester.

Of ways, and paths streightened, or stopped.

Of any other Nusances, or annoyances, in the Kings high way, or in any common way or path; By turning or altering them out of their ancient place; By ditches there not scoured. Br. Lect 26. By laying any Carion, or Duck, &c. there.

Of the Kings Highways, if they be not enlarged and cleansed of bushes and trees according to the Stat. of 13 F. 1. c. 5.

Of Nusances in any Rivers, or common waterings by stopping, streightening, or turning them out of their right course.

Of Bridges, and Causies decayed, or broken, and who ought to repair them; Or hold any land to repair them.

And of all other, Common or popular Nusances, or grievances done to divers or sundry of the Kings subjects.

Common Trespases.

Also the Sheriff in his Torne may Inquire of Affrays. Br. Presentments 7.

And of Bloodsheds. Br. Lect 26. Fitz. Torne 4.

If there be any misdoer within the Hundred, whereby any peril may come to any person, of life or of member, the name of such misdoer is to be presented in the Sheriffs Torne.

Of Wound-breaches.

Also all other things being a Trespas at the Common Law, and popular, is there Inquirable.

But of such things as are trespasses by Statute, or Offences against any statute, the Sheriff hath no power to enquire thereof in his Torne; Except the Statute doth expressly therein give authority to the Torne, or Leet. Stat. 28 E. 3. 95. 21 E. 4. 21. 3 H. fol. 1. Br. Lect 19. & 25.

Neither shall any other thing be enquired of in the Torne, but only such Nusances, grievances, offences, or trespasses as are popular and common grievances to many persons, And therefore assaults made to a sole or particular person (although it be done in the Court) yet it is not there Inquirable; Except there be bloodshed. Br. Pref. 7.
2 H. 7. 10.

Neither can they inquire there, of a Close, or Hedge, debzised (or broken) for that is particular. Br. Lect 26. Finch. 125.

Evil members.

The Sheriff also in his Torne may enquire of Malefactors in Parks.

Of takers of Doves in Winter by Doozefalls, or other Engines. 18 E. 2.

Of Usurers. Crompt. 212.

Whether Hugh and Cry be duly made upon Robberies and other Felonies.

Of Hue and Cry levied, and not pursued.

Of Hue and Cry levied without cause.

Of Nightwalkers. Br. Lect 26. and whether night-watches be duly kept.

Of those which go in message of thieves.

Of those which sleep by day, and watch by night, and fare well, and none know whereof they live.

Of those which continually do haunt Taverns.

Also the Assise of Bread, Beer, or Ale broken, is there enquirable. Stat. 18 E. 2. Br. Lect 25.

If any Hosteler or Inholder shall make any horsebread, which is not sufficient, lawful, and of due Assise, &c. the Sheriff in his Torne may enquire thereof, and determine the same, by the Stat. 32 8 cap. 41. & 21 Jac. cap. 21.

So if any Hosteler or Inholder shall make any horsebread, except he be dwelling in a Town being a thoroughfare, and being no City, Town, Corporate, or Market town, wherein a common Baker is dwelling, for Bakers shall make such bread. 21 Ja. cap. 21.

So if any Hosteler or Inholder shall not sell their horsebread, hay, oats, and provender, and also all kind of victual, both for man and beast, for reasonable gain, &c. Or shall take any thing for litter, it is enquirable, and to be determined in the Torne. And these Offenders for the first offence shall be fined &c. and for the second offence shall be imprisoned, and for the third offence shall stand upon the Pillory, and after shall be forfeited for keeping any Inn again. 21 Ja. cap. 21.

False measures, false ballances, and false weights are there enquirable: Stat. 18 E. 2. Also Stat. 9 H. 5. c. 8. the falsifiers and counterfeiters of false weights are here enquirable.

If any have double measures, (as bushels, gallons, yards, or ells,) and buy by the greater, and sell by the lesser, it is there enquirable. Ibid.

And yet see the Wook 3 H. 7. l. 1. & Br. Lect 19. a presentment in the Sheriffs Torne, that a man did use false measure of a bushel, and the presentment was adjudged to be void, for that it was given by Statute, and the Statute gave no express authority to the Sheriff to enquire thereof.

If night watches be not duly kept (according to the Statute of Winchester) it is there enquirable.

If any person shall make a prison of, or in their own houses, it is there enquirable: Crompt. 212.

Homesoken, or forcible entry into houses without licence, and contrary to the Kings peace, seemeth to be there enquirable: Crompt. 212.

Attachments made by the officers of the Courts of the East Marches, or West Marches, &c. are there enquirable by the Statute of 31 H. 6. c. 3. But seemeth to be repealed by the Statute 4 Ja. c. 1.

Also the Sheriffs in their Torne may enquire of all offences committed, contrary to the Statute made 7 E. 4. to avoid the excess, as well of spending, as of the prices of wines: and every presentment thereof taken by the oaths of six men in the Torne, shall be of such force, as if the same were taken in the Kings Bench.

Also they shall enquire, if all the Jurors and luters which owe suite to this Court be Come (18 E. 2.) i. e. if all persons of twelve years of age or upward, dwelling within the hundred, be come to this Court (except Clerks, Knights and women: Crompt. 213.)

Lastly, the Sheriff in his Torne, hath authority to enquire of all other things or offences that is either felony, or trespass at the Common Law: and of all other Articles and things enquirable in a Court Leet (if there have been default in the Lord in not keeping his Leet, or if they have been omitted, or not formerly inquired of and found, and redressed or punished in the Leet.) For that all Leets were at the first derived and taken out of the Sheriffs torne, so that for default of enquiry in Leets of things there inquirable, the same things there omitted, and not enquired of, &c. ought to be enquired of in the Sheriffs Torne, and if it be there omitted, then to be enquired of by the Justices in Eyre, at their coming into the Countrey, or else by the Justices of the Kings Bench. See 8 E. 4. fol. 21 E. 3. fol. 3. 29 E. 3. 27. 41 E. 3. 26. 43 E. 3. 29. & 18 H. 6. 12.

Br. Pref. 1.
Crompt. 212.

De Felony, coment que il soit Enquire deins le Leet, uncore il serra Enquire arere in le Torne, Ut dicitur.

If it be found in the Leet of any Lord, that a Bridge lying within the Precinct of the Leet is ruinous, and that such a man ought to repair it, he shall be amerced in the Leet: And yet if after the same default shall be found again before the Sheriff in his Torne, the party shall again be amerced, and the Sheriff may levy that amercement, and neither the Lord, nor party hath any remedy, for this default after the Leet was not presented at the Leet, and therefore being presented at the Torne, it shall be there punished: And if it be not amended before the next Leet, the Lord at his Leet may cause him to be amerced again, and so the party may be amerced, toties, quoties, at the Leet, and also at the Torne, until it shall be amended. Lectur. Mri Chiburne.

And although at the Leet, the Steward or Jury shall set a pain upon the party, to make, or amend the Bridge, &c. before such a day, yet if the Torne shall be holden before that be amended, the party shall be amerced at the Torne. ibid.

It is a good presentment at the Torne, that such a man ought and used to repair such a Bridge, notwithstanding that they shew not that the party hath any lands to repair the said Bridge.

Mes le Signeur del Leet (que ad grant le Roy d'aver le Amerciements, &c.) avera les Amerciements (sc. avera allowance del eux in L'eschequer) sur l'enquiry ewe devant le Vicount ou devant les Justices, quere & vide Fitz. Lect 13.

And it hath been adjudged that the power of a Sheriff in his Torne, and of a Steward in a Court Leet, is all one: 22 E. 4. Br. Lect 26. sc. that the same authority which the Leet hath within the Precinct thereof, the like the Sheriff hath in this Torne, & e converso.

Also the Sheriffs Torne is sometimes in our Books called the Kings Leet, and sometimes the Sheriffs Leet, or the Leet of the Torne of the Sheriff: see Br. Lect 21. & 23. which appeareth also by the style of the Torne, hic antea.

If the Sheriff shall enquire of a Rusance in his Torne, and the same shall be found, which ought to have been enquired of in the Leet of another man, and hath been used to be found there, the Sheriff cannot distrain for the amercement upon this presentment, and if he do distrain he is a trespassor: but if default be in the Lord of the Leet, that he did not inquire thereof, or that the same be not found in his Leet, when it ought to be inquired of, or that it be not punished, or amended, the Sheriff then by the Lords default may inquire thereof in his Torne: 21 E. 3. 3. 28 E. 3. 95. 10 H. 4. 4. And herewith agreeth the Book of 29 E. 3. that if a Rusance, &c. be within a Franchise, the Sheriff ought not to punish this, but it appertaineth to the Lord only to redress this, for otherwise every Lord might lose his Franchise in every thing: but if apparent default shall be in the Lord, as in not keeping his Leet, or that he will not punish the offenders, then the Sheriff may enquire thereof in his Torne, and it being found there, the Sheriff may punish the same: see 29 E. 3. fol. 27.

Crompt. 212.

But where there is no default in the Lord of the Leet (either in not keeping his Leet, not Enquiring of, or not finding, or punishing, and redressing the fault) there if the Sheriff in his Torne shall enquire of such things presentable in the Leet, and shall after make his precept to his Bailiff to distrein for any amercement assessed for any such thing in his Torne, such Distrels is tortious, Et le party poct aver son Replevy & recover damages come semble; Car autrement Vicounts poent tous fouts prendre les profits & amercements de Seigneurs de Leets, issint que ils n'averont aucun profit par leur Leete. Vide Fitz. Barr. 289. & 29 E. 3. fol. 27.

Mes les Torne del Vicount, come un overseer del Court Leete, est de enquerir si les Decenaries sont pleins, ou nemy; Et a presenter les defaults queux ne sont redress in le Leete. Finch 32.

Et concernant ceux Decenaries, Nota, que par le meior expedition de Justice, le Hundred fuit divide in 10 Villes, & chescun Ville in 10 Families, d'ont ceux Villes fueront dits Decenaries; Et en les Decenaries, chescun ferra pledg pur l'auter de son bon gesture (d'ont le Court Leet fuit auxi du Curia visus franciplegii) Autrement celluy que prist lui en son meison fuit destre amercé en le Leet. Finch. 126. Co. 6. 77. b.

But if the Sheriff in his Torne shall enquire of any thing, which is not there inquirable, it is void, as being taken Coram non Judice.

If the Sheriff, or the Steward of the Sheriffs Court shall enquire, or shall take any indictment, or shall hold plea, of any thing whercof they ought not, it seemeth to be punishable. Vide 41 Ass. 30. Br. Contempts 12. The Lord of a Leet fined for that his Steward did take an Indictment unduly. Also 2 R. 3. fol. 10. a. the Abbot of Crowland was punished (i. e. his Liberty was seised) for his Stewards default: And by some opinions the Lord of a Court Leet, which shall keep his Court Leet by an ignorant Steward, his said Court may therefore be seised in a Quo Warranto.

Nota, que le Vic. avera les amerc' & fines (& divers autres profits) del ceo Court, Et il n'ad aucun autre chose de lever son grand somme overseer, mes que chescun Vic. est charge sur son account, sinon de cest Court; car le Torne (& les profits del cestuy) est al Vic: Et est son Court, & nemy le Court le Roy, per T. mayle 6 H. 7. f. 2. 3.

CAP. 107.

It seemeth in former times that Sheriffs, sometimes in malice, and sometimes for their private lucre and gain, did often imprison such persons as were Indicted before them, as well in their Tournes, as also in other places, by virtue of the Kings Writ or Commission to them granted (and which they might have justified to do as well by the Common Law, as also by virtue of the Stat. of Westm. 2. cap. 13. as it seems) But the mischiefs thereof appearing, and somewhat to restrain their power of imprisoning any man for malice, or profit, or other sinister cause, first Sheriffs were restrained by Statute made Anno 28 E. 3. to make any Enquiry by Writ or Commission as followeth.

Whereas in times past Sheriffs by virtue of Commissions and general Writs granted to them at their own sute for their private gain, did take divers enquests to indict people at their pleasures, and then took fines of them to their own uses, and delivered the parties so indicted without without bringing them before the Kings Justices: It was therefore by a Stat. made 28 E. 3. ordained, that all such Commissions and Writs should from thenceforth be repealed, and none such after to be granted: so that the Sheriff (by that statute) is restrained to make any enquiry by Writ or Commission except in some special cases, whereof see Fitz. 92. hic postea.

Afterwards for that divers persons were greatly troubled by the inordinate indictments and presentments (as well of felonies and trespasses, as of other things) taken before Sheriffs, their under-sheriffs and other ministers at their Tourns and Law-days; which Indictments were often affirmed and found by Jurors having no freehold, &c. and sometimes by menial servants and bailiffs of the said Sheriffs, &c. By reason whereof many people were arrested, and put in prison by the said Sheriffs and their ministers, and then were constrained to pay them great fines, to be delivered out of prison: And further, the said Sheriffs, &c. had the awarding of Proses upon such Indictments when they were found, and the assessing of the fines: and also the said Indictments were often imbeasted and concealed: For the reformation whereof it was ordained by a statute made anno 1 E. 4. that upon all presentments and indictments, which shall be taken before any Sheriff (Under-sheriff, or other ministers) in their Tourn or Law-days, they shall have no power to make, or grant out any Proces against any person so indicted; nor to attach, arrest, or put in prison; nor to assess, levy, or take any fines, or amerciaments of any Person so indicted or presented before them, by reason or colour of any such Indictment or Presentment, nor to take of any Person so indicted or presented, any Fine or Ransom, but that the said Sheriff (or other Ministers) shall bring and deliver all such Indictments and Presentments (taken before them in their Tourns to the Justices of Peace, at their next Sessions of the Peace that shall be holden in the County where such Indictments or Presentments shall be taken, upon pain that every Sheriff (Under-sheriff, Clerk, Bailiff, or other Ministers) failing to deliver or present any such Indictment to the Justices of Peace at such Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid, to forfeit forty pound.

And the Justices of Peace are to award Proces, upon all such Indictments and Presentments, and to try, arraign and deliver the offenders, and not the Sheriff, &c. and also the said Justices of Peace, shall have power to set such fine upon every person indicted or presented (in the Sheriffs Tourn) of or for any trespass; as it shall seem good to them in their discretions; And the estreats of the same fines and amerciaments shall be inrolled, and by Indenture delivered to the said Sheriff, Under-sheriff, or their Clerks, or Ministers, to the use and profit of him that was Sheriff, of the said County at the time of the taking of such Indictments or Presentments: and if any Under-sheriff, Clerk, Bailiff, or Minister shall cause any person to be attached, arrested, or put in prison, or shall cause to be taken any fine, or ransom, or levy any amercements of any person so indicted or presented, by colour of any such Indictment or Presentment (before him or them) taken at their Tourn; before they have proses from the said Justice of Peace, or Estreats delivered out of the said Indictments or Presentments (so delivered to the Justice of Peace,) the Sheriff so offending shall forfeit 100 l. the one half to the King, &c. and the other half to the party thereby indamaged.

1 Ed. 4. ca. 2. But this Statute extends not to Indictments taken before the Sheriffs of London in the said City; Nor to any Person having the grant of fines or amercements by any Letters Patents of the King, &c. Nor to any Person having any Liberties or Franchises by any Letters Patents, or in any other manner by Prescription.

Neither doth this Statute give Authority to the Justices of Peace, to award Process upon all Indictments taken in the Sheriffs Torne when they be brought and delivered them; but only of such Indictments as shall be lawful and sufficient, and such as contain matter whereof the Sheriff hath Jurisdiction in his Torne, and power to make enquiry by the Common Law or by Statute; for if the Sheriff in his Torne shall make enquiry of Liberties given contrary to the Statute of Liberties, or will enquire of the Statute of Laborers, or Indict one who did Feloniously ravish a woman, or such like, which be not inquirable in the Sheriffs Torne, though such Indictments be by him brought and delivered to the Justices of Peace according to the said Statute made 1 Ed. 4. yet they ought not to award Process thereupon for that they were taken coram non iudice, and so void. Co. 5 112. & 2. 26.

Also if the Sheriff, &c. shall not deliver their Indictments and Presentments (found and taken in their Tourns) to the Justices of Peace of the same County at their next Sessions, according to the aforesaid Statute made 1 E. 4. then such Indictments, &c. not so delivered, &c. are void. So then (at this day) Sheriffs shall make no inquiries, nor take any indictments of Felony, by virtue of any Writ or Commissions procured at their own suit; Nor elsewhere, but in their Tourns.

But in their Tourns Sheriffs at this day may make inquiries, and take indictments of Felony, virtute Officii: wherein notwithstanding they must demesne themselves according to the aforesaid Stat. Stamf. 34. And Sheriffs shall hold their Tourns and take indictments, but in convenient and usual times, and places accustomed; And they shall take their indictments by the Oath of twelve men at the least, and by roll indented (i.e. those indictments or presentments must be inrolled) and sealed between the Sheriff and the Jurors; and they shall take their indictments by men of good name and credit, (legales homines) and sufficient of Estate as appeareth here before.

And yet if any man having the Kings protection, another shall take his goods, or shall enter into his Lands, &c. or shall beat his servants, &c. he may have a special Writ or Commission to the Sheriff (of that County) to make enquiry thereof, and to certify the same before the King, &c. and thereupon Process shall be made out against them (in the Kings name) by Venire facias: as upon an Indictment, and that they shall be fined therefore.

And although by the former Statutes of 28 E. 3. c. 9. & 42 E. 3. it was ordained that no Commission or Writ should be thenceforth granted to the Sheriff to make any inquiry, &c. yet if the King shall grant out such a Commission or Writ to the Sheriff, quære, if it be not good, it seemeth to Master Fitz. 92. c. that it is not good, for that this Statute bindeth the King that he cannot now grant out such a Commission to the Sheriff; and yet enquests of Office may be taken by the Sheriff as in Wall, Redicellin, &c. C A P. 108.

The Power and Authority of the Sheriff, in, or by reason of his Torn.

By the Common Law, (before the Stat. of Magn. Charta) the Sheriff in his Torn (as also the Steward in a Læet) might have Arraigned one who had been Indited before them of Felony (and so might the Coroners also upon an Indictment sup. visum Corporis) Finch. 125. but now by the said Stat. of Magn. Charta, cap. 17. It is ordained, that no Sheriff, Costable, Escheator, Coroner, or other Bailiff of the King, shall hold Pleas of the Crown : And therefore the Sheriff in his Torn cannot now hold Plea of any Felony, or other thing pertaining to the Kings Crown : nor of any thing touching any Lands, nor of Debt, Trespass, or other matter whatsoever.

Mag. Charta 17.

But this Court, and the Authority of the Sheriff therein, is only or principally for the good ordering and government of the Countrey, by taking view of the luters, and Inquiry and Presents of offences committed therein against the Peace, and of other common Nusances and Grievances within the County.

But the further proceeding upon such inquiry, presentments, and indictments made and taken before the Sheriffs in their Torns, belongeth now to the Justices of Peace, &c. as aforesaid, by force of the Stat. of 1 E. 4. c. 2. before recited.

And yet note, that the Sheriffs Torn is a Court of Record (in all things that pertain to the Torn,) and the Sheriff therein is a Judge of Record, and hath authority (in some cases) to imprison offenders, to assess fines upon them, and to take Recognisances : As

Br. Lect 39.

The Sheriff in his Torn (or his Steward there) may commit him or them to Ward, that shall make an Affray in their presence, whilst they be in Execution of their Office : And may also by recognisance bind such Offenders to the Peace; and may commit them to Ward until they have found sureties for the Peace; and all this he may do notwithstanding the said Stat. of 1 E. 4.

Also the Sheriff in his Torn, or his Steward there, may command the meet help, and aid of others, to Arrest such Affrayors.

If any other contempt or disturbance to this Court shall be committed in the said Court, before the Sheriff (or Steward there) they may impose upon such offenders a reasonable fine : see Br. Lect 14. 36.

The Sheriff in his Torn (or his Steward there) may take the examination of felons, and may commit them to the Gaol ; And may also take the presentment of any felony at the Common Law, committed within their Precinct, as you may see here before.

Co. 8. 38.

In former times the High Constables of every Hundred, and the Petty Constables of every Town, were chosen and appointed by the Sheriff of the said Shire, yearly in the Torn, and there these Constables received their Oath. And at this day they may still be appointed or chosen, and sworn in the Sheriffs Torn before the Sheriff, or his Steward, as well as in the Leet.

In the Læet, or Sheriffs Torn, if one that oweth sure thereto, will not be sworn, &c. he shall be fined and imprisoned, (by the Sheriff or Steward there) until he hath paid such his fine : Or he may be amerced, and be distrained for such amercement, by his goods, in any place within the County.

Fitz. Lect 11.

And

And so if any that owerth suite there shall make default of appearance, he may be amerced by the Sheriff, and distrained for the same amercement, as before. Fitz. Avowry 194.

But if any Lord hath the view of Frankpledge of all his Tenants of his Mannor, which is within the Hundred, those Tenants are not compellable to appear at the Sheriffs Torne. For the Torne, and the View (or View of Frankpledge) are all one Court. And when it is in the Kings hands, it is called the Sheriffs Torne; and when it is in the hands of any other person of the Kings grant, (or otherwise) it is called the View of Frankpledge, or View, or Lawday.

Co. 8. 38. So if a suiter, being sworn of the Jury there, shall refuse to make presentment there: or if a Juror there shall depart without giving up their verdict, the Sheriff (or Steward) may impose a reasonable fine upon such offenders.

Ibid. So if the Sheriffs, Bailiffs, or other Officers belonging to this Court, shall refuse in Court, to execute their Office, they may be fined as aforesaid; And so in other like cases happening in this Court before the Sheriff, he being Judge therein.

Cromp. 210. a. Upon a presentment of a Rulance in the Sheriffs Torne, the offender may be amerced there by the Sheriff, and the Sheriff may distrain for such amercements, throughout all his County, by the Book 2 H. 4. f. 24. Br. 1 cet 41. & 8 R. 2. Fitz. Avowry 194. but now it seemeth that such presentment must be delivered to the Justices of Peace, who are to try the offenders, &c. and to fine him, and then to execute the same, before the Sheriff may levy or take any fine or amercement for such Rulance: see the former statute of 1 E. 4. cap. 2. And yet by the Book of 8 Ed. 4. If a presentment of a bloodshed, &c. shall be lawfully made in the Sheriffs Torne, the Sheriff hath power to amerce him that is found guilty, and the offender shall make his fine there (as it seemeth) and shall not be put to answer the same before the Justices of Peace, &c. 21 Jac. 21.

By the Stat. made 21 Ja. c. 21. if any Inholder or Possessor shall make any housestead contrary to the Statute, or which is not sufficient, lawful, and of due assise, or shall sell their provender or victuals at unreasonable prices, and that the offence be presented in the Sheriffs Torne, the Sheriff thereupon may determine the same, i. e. may assess a reasonable fine upon the offenders, and may make out process against them, and being taken may commit them to prison, until they have paid their said fine.

And for the second offence the Sheriff may imprison the said offenders, by the space of one month, without bail; and for the third offence may cause him to be set upon the Pillory, without any Redemption of money. Vide Stat. 21 Jac. cap. 21. hic cap. 157.

Also by the Stat. made 13 R. 2. cap. 8. Sheriffs, (and all others which have the Assise of Bread and Ale to keep, and the correction of the same) shall take no amercement or fine, but shall adjudge the offenders to that bodily punishment which the offence requireth (i. e. to the Pillory in some cases,) and shall do execution thereof upon presentment of the offence. Idem hic cap. 4.

Also by the Stat. made an. 13 E. 1. c. 13. such malefactors, in felony, or trespasss as were duly indicted and found culpable in the Sheriffs Torne, the Sheriff might have apprehended and imprisoned them, &c. and the apprehending, arresting, and imprisoning of Felons, being an authority given to the Sheriff by the Common Law, seemeth not to be restrained, by the intent and meaning of the said Statute made 1 Ed. 4. Hic fol. 1

But for that it was found to be a great trouble for the people to travel to the Sheriffs Torne, Therefore Court-Lets were granted to redress all manner of defaults there: And if the Let redressed them not, then those defaults were to be presented in the Sheriffs Torne. 12 H. 7. fol. 18.

And this Court (the Sheriffs Torne) is now almost grown out of use, the reason whereof M. Wilkenfon observeth to be, That Sheriffs have used to sell, both their Under-Sheriffwicks, and Bailiwicks, to men of mean estate, that regard not the good of the Commonwealth, but altogether their own private gain and profit; whereby the King is many times much wronged and deceived (between the Undersheriff, and Bailiffs) of all his Waifs, Estrays, Felons goods, and other profits, which are things inquirable in the Sheriffs Torne, and which are taken up by the Bailiffs, and never accounted for, which thing as it may touch the Sheriff in his credit and reputation, so in his Dath: For when he entreteth into his account for the payment of the Kings debts, he is then sworn to answer and account for all waifs, strays, felons goods, debts, perquisites and profits which seldom or never, either the King, nor yet the High-Sheriff knows of, because these ancient Courts are not kept as they ought to be.

Divers other reasons (as I conceive) may be given, why the Sheriffs Torne is now grown so much out of use:

1. First, for that all (or the most part of) the business, or things inquirable in the Torne, or there to be dealt withall, are now usually and frequently enquired of, presented, heard and determined by and before the Judges of Gaol-delivery, &c. in their Circuits; And also before the Justices of Peace at the Quarter-Sessions; and again are presented, and many of them punished, in the Court-Lets of every Lord, &c.

2. Next, the small number of Suiters now (at this day) compellable to appear at the Sheriffs Torne, by reason that there are almost in every Town, one or more Lets granted by the Kings of this Realm, in which Lets they do Enquire of, and redress the Common Pussances, Trespasses, and Grievances, done within the Precincts of the same Lets, &c. And besides such as before were Suiters to the Sheriffs Torne, are now become Suiters to the Let where they dwell, in regard of their Resiency, and then no man is compellable to appear at two Lets, or Courts of one and the same nature, and only for his Resiency.

3. Thirdly, the trouble of the Country people, to travel from all parts of the Hundred, to the Sheriffs Torne; whereas now they perform the same service, to the King and their Country, at home in their Let.

4. Again, the trouble and charge of the Sheriffs, in keeping this Court, and making this their perambulations into every Hundred, and that twice in every year.

5. And again for that divers Rights, profits, and advantages; are now taken away from the Sheriffs, which anciently did belong unto them, or which anciently they at the least had and enjoyed, by reason of the Torne, (whereof in part see hic cap. 14. & 124.)

1. For the first true it is, that for the expedition of Justice in the Country

Country, and for the ease of the people, these Judges, and Justices, and the Court Leets, have had their beginnings and authority given them of later times : But withall we may observe in our daily experience, that notwithstanding the great care of the Reverend Judges, and Justices of Oyer and Termin. in their Circuits, and of the Justices of Peace in their Sessions, as also of the Lords in the Leets, for the discovery and redressing of the common grievances of the Country, yet for the most part they have little usually presented before them, but Omnia bene, except where any particular person will and do prefer and follow the cause against the offenders.

2. For the second, true also it is, that at the special requests and suite of divers Lords of Franchises, or of Mannors, and for the ease of their Tenants and Neighbours, Leets have been granted by Kings, within several Precincts, to the intent to redress all Misdemeanors, trespasses and grievances, or other defaults there, which the Torne, was to enquire of and to redress; and that the Sheriffs Torne, and the Leet are all but as one Court, and that no man is compellable to appear, &c. at the two Courts, only for his Resiance. And that there are now in every Town almost, one or more Leets, whereof all (or the most part of) the Inhabitants are become suitors, so as there cannot now be so many suitors to the Sheriffs Torne (by a great number) as anciently there have been : But withall we see many of these Leets are now much neglected, and sometimes not kept in many years together, in which case such as be Resiant within such Leets, may be compelled to come to the Sheriffs Tournes, which shall be holden within that Hundred (where such Leet ought to have been kept) during such times of neglect of the Leet : And again where the Leet of any Lord hath been, or shall be, seized into the Kings hands for any misuser, or other cause, all the people Resiant within that Leet so seized, shall now be compellable to appear, &c. at the Sheriffs Torne. Finch. 132. a.

3. For the trouble of the Country people, Surely, if they duly performed their service in this behalf at home in their Leets, it were well, but that is by common experience found to be otherwise : And for their travel twice a year at the most, to the Sheriffs Torne being always within the Hundred wherein they be dwelling, it is far less labour or trouble to them, than their going to their Assises, or Sessions of the Peace : And besides, this their service if it were well performed at the Sheriffs Torne, it would much ease, and expedite the business of the Judges, and Justices, yea and of the Country people themselves, at their Assises, and Sessions of the Peace.

But for the trouble and charge of the Sheriffs in keeping this their Court, as also for the profits thereof, which be now taken away from them, perhaps some Sheriffs may regard more their private gain than the common good and weal of the Country, (which also is now grown to be the common cause almost in all other men, as well Officers as others) But yet it cannot be denied, that of Reward and Punishment (as one saith) all Commonwealths do consist, and that the care of Equity and Justice waxed cold, unless there be reward ready for virtue ; And therefore though all Sheriffs be, or ought to be men of the best sufficiency in their Country, and such as need no reward for their care, diligence, travel, and charges, in that behalf, yet often times (now of late years) the charge and burthen thereof lieth upon men of no great Estate, yea upon such as find it overburthensome to them in regard of the charge : And besides, be they of the best and ablest sort, yet they must of Necessity imploy under them inferior Officers and Ministers, &c. their Undersheriffs, and others, who with more chearfulness and care (yea and moze honesty, and conscience) would (in all likelihood) proceed in their affairs, when they shall find due recompence or reward yielded them for their travel and pains.

And as it cannot be denied, but that the Sheriffs making and keeping orderly these their Circuits, Courses, or Toznes, through every Hundred within their Countries, twice every year, may not only themselves in their travel espy, and by their care enquire and learn out, but also may redress many grievances, common wrongs and injuries committed or done within their County, which now never come to publick light; So on the other side it is evident, that not only divers profits and avayls which anciently were belonging to the Sheriffs (and yielded to them as a Recompence or Reward towards their great charges by them in this their office sustained, as well in the Execution of this their Office, as upon their Accompts) are now taken away from them; But also that the charges of passing their Accounts, and their dangers otherwise, are grown so exceeding great, as that many, (yea of late most men) seek what they can, to avoid and keep themselves from the place.

CAP. 109.

The County Court, or Shire Court.

*Incident al
offic' del Vic'.*

The County Court (as well as the Sheriffs Tozne) hath of ancient time been belonging to the Sheriff; And is incident and belonging to the Office of the Sheriff, and not to be severed nor granted away from it; nay the King by his letters patents cannot grant away the Office of the Clerk of the County Court, nor the fees, &c. thereto belonging; and if whilst the Office or place of the Sheriff remains void, the King (by his letters patents under the great seal) shall grant away the said Office of the Clerk of the County (or Shire Clerk of the County) or shall appoint any to occupy or use the same, yet when the King shall afterwards make one Sheriff, he shall avoid that grant. For that the County Court, and the entering of all the proceedings therein, are incident to the Office of the Sheriff, and the Sheriff is to appoint such Clerks under him in his County Court for whom he will answer at his peril.

Sir Edw. Coke super Litl. fol. 168. saith, that the Sheriff in the time of the Romans, and before, was a Minister to the Kings Court of Law and Justice, And had then a Court of his own, which was the County Court, then called Curia Consultatus, &c. And that What which we call Comitatum, the Romans moze latinely called Consulatium. And that whom the Saxons afterwards called Shireve, the Romans called Consul, &c.

But now these County Courts (called also the Shire Courts) shall The Times. be holden and kept from month to month: And shall be no longer deferred, but one month from Court to Court, and so the said Courts are to be kept every month, upon a day certain, and none otherwise: And so within the twelve Shires of Wales, their Sheriffs shall keep their Counties monthly: And so within the County Palatine of Chester. 33 H. 8. cap. 13.

34 H. 8. 26.

The necessity of keeping this Court every month, and upon a day certain, is by reason of the Kings Writs of Exigents which must be proclaimed or read there.

Process of Writary, sc. the Exigent is to be directed to the Sheriff in this Court; And (in this County Court) the Sheriff (upon the Exigent) doth proclaim, or call the parties (sued in Courts above) to render their bodies, &c. Or else to be outlawed, and out of the Kings Protection, &c. Terms de ley.

And the Coroners are to sit with the Sheriff, at every County Court, there to give their Judgments upon Writaries, &c.

Note that in London the Judgment upon Writaries is given by the Recorder. Co. L. 288. 8.

And as to these matters the County Court is a Court of Record. Finch. 116.

By the Common Law these County Courts may be kept or holden The Place. at any place, at the pleasure of the Sheriff, or Under-Sheriff, so that it be within the County. And this Court every man within the County may resort, to have knowledge of the Law, and to have justice there ministred to him.

But the Sheriff of Northumberland (by the Statute made Anno 2 E. 6. cap. 25.) is to keep the County Court of that Shire, in the Town or Castle of Alnewike, and none other place.

And the Sheriff of Suffex (by the statute made Anno 19 H. 7. c. 24.) is to keep and hold the Shire Court for that Shire, one time at Chichester, and the other time at the Borough of Lewes, and so to be kept Alternis vicibus, for ever: And every Shire Court there holden to the contrary, and all things therein done shall be void. Vide Dyer 135. Pl. 14.

33 H. 8. c. 13.

And the Sheriff of the County of Chester, is to keep his Shire Court, in the Shire Hall of the said County.

27 H. 8. c. 26.

And the Sheriffs Shire Courts in Wales, of the County of Brecknock, shall be holden at Brecknock: of Radnor at new Radnor, and Preston; of Mountgomery, at Mountgomery and Maghenleth; of Denbigh, at Wrexham; and of Monmouth, at Monmouth, and Newport; Alternis vicibus.

If the Sheriff shall give false judgment without the assent of the Suters, the party shall not have his Writ of false judgment, but must have his remedy against the Sheriff by bill, &c. Fitz. Bill. 12. 26 Aff. p. 45. N. br. 17.

The County Court is the Sheriffs Court, and the entry of all the pleas and proceedings there, are incident to the Office of the Sheriff, and cannot be granted or severed from the same; And the Sheriff is to appoint Clerks under him in this Court, such as he will answer for at his peril. Co. 4. 33. & 6. 11.

And note that every County or Shire is as it were an Entire body of it self, and entirely governed by one Sheriff under the King, and therefore to this county court all the inhabitants dwelling or abiding within the county or shire do owe suite by reason of their Resiency there; And suite to this county court is called suite Real (and not suite service) and for default of this suite the party shall be amerced, and not distrained, &c. Finch. 115. 116. & Fitz 71. d. that it is the Kings Court.

And yet a man may hold Lands to do suite service to the County Court. Fitz. 158. a.

But for that at the Common Law, the Sheriffs used to make Proclamations in the Church or Markets, what day they would hold this their Court, and if any suter came not at the day appointed, they would amerce him, &c. for to remedy this, the stat. of Merton, c. 10. first ordained that every free man might make his Attorney to do suite at this court, and for the better redress of this former mischief, presently after the stat. of Marlebr. c. 18. ordained, that none should amerce, any man for default of common summons, but only the chief Justices, or the Justices in Cire in their Circuits: so that at this day no suter shall be amerced in the County Court for default of appearance, if there be a sufficient number to pass upon all the issues and matters before them depending; and it seemeth also that they ought to be specially warned (by the Writ) to appear, &c. otherwise they shall not be Amerced. Lectur.

Nec alicuius serra Amerce ne distrem alicuius d'alicuius Enquest. si la soient assets en mesme le pannel, &c.

The Officer in this county court, is one of the Bayliffs. Finch. 116. Que Judge la. Also in these county courts (which are in manner as Court Barons) the Sheriff is no Judge, but a Minister. 6 E. 3. Br. Court Baron 11. 12, 19. Finch. 117.

And yet in ancient times the Sheriff and Coroners have been, and still are Judges in the County Court, in pleas which touch the Crown. Abr. d'Ass. 68. Finch. 115. See hic cap. 4. & 3. As also in Crigents.

But (now at this day) as to all Actions and Proceedings by a Justices, or Writ, As also in other suites between party and party, which are these by plaint without Writ, the Freeholders of the County or Suiters are Judges there: And as to Outlawries, the Coroners are only Judges, &c. the Coroners are only Judges there to give Judgment upon the Kings Writs of Crigents (sc. if the party cometh not in upon the 5. Proclamation (or at the 5. County) then the Coroners shall give Judgment that he shall be out of the Kings Protection, &c.) and yet if they be Freeholders (as by Law they ought to be) they are also Judges in all actions there sued. See 6 E. 4. 3. 7 E. 4. 23. 39 H. 6. 5. & 26 Ass. pl. 45. Br. Court Baron 11. 12, 19. & Justices 3. 6.

And although the Suiters be Judges there, yet all the judgments there shall be pronounced by the Sheriff, upon actions or suits there: And see Co. libro 9. Preface. Those courts are called Counties where the judgments are given by the suiters, if there be no Writ; so that where the suits in this court are by plaint without Writ, the freeholders or suiters are to give judgment (sc. to find the party guilty, or not guilty, &c.) and the Sheriff is thereupon to pronounce the judgment; but yet if the suit be by Writ, there the Suiters also are Judges. Neither can the Sheriff (in their County Court) do any act without the assent of the Freeholders or Justices (for that it is but a Court Baron) and if the Sheriff shall do any thing there without the Justices, an action of the case lieth against the Sheriff, quære tamen.

And notwithstanding that the Writ be directed to the Sheriff (to hold plea of the matter) and not to the Justices, yet the Justices are Judges : And yet the Justices is a Commission to the Sheriff to hold plea, as well as the Writ de Nativo habendo, Br. faux imprisonment 30.

Co. 6. 11.

But the reason why the Writ is directed to the Sheriff, is, for that the County Court is the Sheriffs Court, and therefore great reason that the Writ should be directed to him, to whom by Law the Court appertaineth ; To the intent that he should see two things performed there, sc. First to hold his Court, that justice and right may therein be done to the parties ; secondly, that he may be answered of those profits of his Court which appertain unto him : but yet when he holdeth plea by force of the Kings Writ, this doth not change the nature, nor the jurisdiction of the Court, For the Kings Writ cannot alter the jurisdiction of any Court Baron, County Court, or Hundred, &c. to make them Courts of Record, all which are mean, or base Courts by the Common Law, and have judges authorized and appointed in them by the Law, And therefore all things determined in these Courts ought to be determined by the Judges of the same Courts, sc. by the Justices only.

Also see the Book 2 H. 4. 24, That the Sheriff cannot justify to arrest or imprison one by a Writ de Nativo habendo, or by a Justices, for those Writs are but commissions to hold plea, and the Sheriffs Court by these Writs is not become a Court of Record, Br. Faux. impris. 30.

Also it appeareth by the Stat. of Westm. 2. cap. 36. that Sheriffs in their County Courts, or their Officers, have formerly solicited and procured suits in their Courts against poor men, procuring other persons to bring against them Writs, and Complaints of account, Debt, Detinue, Trespass, and the like, by which means they compelled the poor men to follow or resort to their Counties, until they made fines with the said Sheriffs at their wills, for remedy whereof that Stat. provideth, that if any Sheriff, Bailiff, or other, be lawfully convicted thereupon, they shall make a fine to the King, and besides shall yield treble damages to the party grieved. Et le dit Stat. voet ouster, Si quis per hujusmodi falsas quærimonias fuerit attachiatus, replegiat districtionem suam sic captam, Et poni faciat Loquelam coram Justiciariis, &c. sc. quant un est attache in tiel manner, il avera un Repleg. & remover le plee devant les Justices al Westm., hors del County Court; Et si le Vic. ou Bailiff, que attache le party in cest manner, vient & avowea le prisel per force d'un Pleint (sue devant luy per un tiel envers le plt.) de Det., Detinue, ou trespass, &c. (come le case est) doncque ceo stat. done al plt. un Averment, sc. adire que le pleint fuit mone envers lui malitiose per procurement & abritment del Vic. ou auter def. le quel il voet Aver, & preia ses Damages. Et si ceo soit trouve, le plt. recouvrera ses treble damages, & le def. ouster al prison, & fera fine al Roy, &c.

Et nota, que cestuy que est attache in tiel manner, poet aver un Repleg. (ut supra) Ou brief de Trespass mes sil port brief de Trespass, la il recouvrera forsqe single damages. Et le def. ne serra fine.

Iffint si le plt. ne remove le plea hors del County Court, nient obstant que le def. soit attaint in le County, il navera le punishment done per ceo stat.

Mes si un vient al Vic. &c. & dit que un tiel ad fait a lui trespass, ou doit a luy un certain some de argent, & preia que il poet aver un pleint devant luy envers l'auter, Et le Vic. &c. dit que sil voet suer devant luy, il avera come le Ley voet, Et sur ceo l'auter enter un pleint devant luy envers son adversary, ou detter, per force de quel le def. est attache, la sil voet suer come ceo stat. voile, & le case montre, il recovers rien, Car ceo fait primerment move per cestuy, que suist; Et le stat. ne parle mes lon le pleint fait move primerment per procurement del Vic. &c. Vide 41 E. 3. Fitz. Avowry, 78. & 9 E. 4. fol. 23.

Again it appeareth by the stat. 11 H. 7. cap. 15. that afterwards Sheriffs or their Officers in their county court, did often practise divers other misdemeanours, by entering Plaints there subtly and untruly (of Det, Covenant, Trespas, and the like) unknowing to the plaintiffs (or persons in whose names the same plaints were entered, yea sometimes the same persons being dead) and only to the intent to extort from the defendants money at every of the said Courts (depending the said plaints) for their defaults of appearance there, and where the Def. were never summoned nor warned to the said Courts, nor ever had knowledge of any such suit or plaint depending against them; and also by using other notable extortions; For remedy whereof the said stat. of 11 H. 7. hath provided as followeth.

11 H. 7. c. 15. The Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or Shire-Clerk, nor any other person Plaints entered there. in their name, nor by their commandment, shall enter any plaints into their Books, (in their County Court) in any mans name, unless the party Plaintiff be in his proper person present in the Court; Or else by sufficient Attorney or Deputy that is known to be of good name and disposition; And the Plaintiff shall find pledges to pursue his plaint, being such persons as are known in that County; And also the plaintiff Plegii de prosequendo. shall have but one plaint for one trespass, contract, or cause: And if the Sheriff, (Under-Sheriff, or Shire-Clerk) shall enter or cause to be entered any more plaints than the Plaintiff supposeth that he hath cause of action for against the Defendant, then the Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, or Clerk, that doth enter or cause to be entered any such plaints contrary to this statute, shall forfeit for every default forty shillings, one half to the King, the other half to him that will sue and prove the same, by action of debt, or information, &c.

After such plaints entered (in the County Court) against the Defendant, the Sheriff (Under-Sheriff, or Shire-Clerk) shall make sufficient Precepts, directed to the Bailiffs of the said Hundred, to attach (summon or warn) the Defendant to appear and answer to the said plaints, Precepts to warn the defendants. And if there shall be any default in the said Bailiffs of the Hundred, in not warning of the Defendant to appear, or in other executing of their said office (against any Defendant in the Sheriffs Court, according to the tenor of their Precept) then the said Bailiffs shall forfeit for every default forty shillings to the King, and to be convicted thereof by the examination of any Justice of Peace, upon complaint thereof to them made by the party grieved; Or else the party grieved may sue in the Exchequer, &c. by Action of Debt, or Information, and there for every such default proved against the Sheriff, &c. the said Sheriff or other Officer shall forfeit forty shillings, the one half to the King, the other half to the party grieved. Defaults in the Bailiffs.

Also the said Sheriff (Under-Sheriff, Shire-Clerk, nor their Deputies) shall make no Estreats to levy the said Sheriffs amerancements (or Shire amerancements) until that two Justices of Peace (whereof one to be of the Quorum) have had the oversight of their Books, and that the Estreats be indented between the said Justices of Peace and the said Sheriff and Under-Sheriff, and sealed with their seals; the one part to remain with the said Justices, and the other part with the Sheriff or Under-Sheriff, to the intent they may understand, if there be any deceit or untrue demeaning in them, in making of their Books. Estreats for the Shire amerancements. Viewed, and sealed by two Justices of Peace.

shall be sworn.

Also those persons which shall be gatherers of the same amercements (as Bailiffs or other Officers) shall be sworn by the said Justices of Peace, that they shall gather or take no more money than is forfeited, and contained in the Extreats, sealed with the seals of the said Justices of Peace upon the pain aforesaid; the same gatherers to be convicted by examination of the said Justices of Peace, or one of them, as before is rehearsed: see my Countrey Justice, tit. Sheriffs.

Auxi Capias & Exigent gift in Appeal per bill sue icy, ut supra: Et semble que breif de Error gift (& nemy faux Judgment) sur Error en l'appell. Finch. 116.

But Mr. Bracton, libro 3. fol. 154. sheweth, that in his time, in a suit commenced in the County Court, the Plt. ought not to complain de pace Domini Regis fracta; which well agreeth with, and explains the Law as now it is used, sc. that the Sheriff cannot hold plea of Trespasses Contra pacem Domini Regis.

And yet at this day Sheriffs in their County Courts (before themselves only, without the Coroners) by way of Plaint, without any Writ to them directed, may hold Plea of, and may examine, hear, and determine certain smaller personal actions, as of Debts due upon contracts, &c. Detinue of Chattels, Assumpsit, Covenant, Rusances, taking of cattel, and detaining of them, or Replevin of beasts, Trespasses, and the like, hapning, made, or done, within their County, and where the Debt or Damage is under 40 s. and the Plea determinable by wager of Law; And all this (except in a Replevin) the Sheriff may do by the Common Law. Finch. 116.

But the Sheriff cannot by way of Plaint, without Writ, hold plea in a Replevin, by the Common Law. Dyer 246. Finch. 116.

Neither can the Sheriff by way of Plaint hold Plea in an Accompt, although the sum be under 40 s. Finch. 116. Fitz. Accompt 29. (the reason is, for that the Sheriff hath no authority to assign Auditors.) And yet Fitz. 117. b. that if one entreteth into my Land to my use, and receiveth the profits thereof, &c. I may have an Action of Accompt for this in the County; Mes ceo semble destre par breif de Justicies, & nemy per Plaint. Also at this day the Sheriff may make Replevins, and may in his County Court hold Plea thereof, by Plaint (without Writ) and may there determine the same, so that the damage exceeds not the sum of 40 s. And this they now may do by force of the stat. of Marlebr. c. 21. & Westm. 2. cap. 2. see more hereof hic postea. But if the damages be above 40 s. it seemeth the Sheriff must then hold Plea by a Justicies, and not by Plaint. Quære.

Also concerning these former Actions of Debt, Detinue, Assumpsit, Covenant, and Trespasses, &c. if the Debt or Damage be above 40 s. then they are not to be sued in the County Court, but by a Justicies.

Neither can they hold plea in their County Court, of any Debt due by, or upon Record in any Court of Record; (But otherwise it is of Debt upon Record in the same Court) Nor Debt due upon bond, &c.

Also in an action of Trespasses there holden, no force shall be supposed, for then a Superfedas lieth. Fitz. 299. d. Finch. 116.

Neither can they hold plea in their County Court, of any Disceit, Maintenance, or forger of false Deeds.

Neither can they hold plea of Detinue of Charters concerning freehold. Fitz. 138.

Neither can they hold plea of any freehold, by Plaint, where the freehold cometh in question (but by a Justicies.) Mes si Judgment soit la done de Franktenement sur un pleint, dicitur que il est bon, tanque il soit reverse per brief de faux judgment, sed quære de ceo, Car quant al Real actions in queux terr. serra demand, le Vic. ne est competent judge, Et son proceedings in tiels cases est Coram non judice.

Si le Vic. voile tener plea in son County, Ou de personal choses ouster 40 s. Ou de Real choses, sans brief de justices, le party poiet Eslier d'aver brief de faux judgment; Ou autrement poet disobey tout que serra issint fait come chose voide, & fait Coram non Judice.

Glocester 8.

By the stat. made 6 E. 1. c. 8. Sheriffs shall hold pleas of trespasss in their Counties, as they have accustomed; sc. where the damages do not amount to the value of 40 s. Or that the Plea be not laid to be vi & Armis; for this Statute is a confirmation of the Common Law.

And by the Statutes of 27 H. 8. c. 26. & 34 H. 8. c. 26. the Sheriffs of the Counties of Wales, shall hold plea of Replegiare, and all other suits, and plaints, under forty shillings, in their County or Shire Courts, in like manner, as all other Sheriffs do within the Realm of England.

Finch. 116.
N. br. 48.

But this County Court cannot hold plea, where the debt or damages is forty shillings or above, unless it be by a Writ of Justices, (out of the Chancery) which the Plaintiff may procure if he will, to be directed to the Sheriff: And that Writ of Justices is a Commission to the Sheriff to hold plea of any sum whatsoever, as well above 40 s. as under that sum; Neither is this Writ of Justices retornable, but shall be terminated before the Sheriff in his County Court.

CAP. III.

IN Courts le Roy touts suits perenter party & party commence per breif Original, mes in le County Court (come auxi in auter inferior Courts) ils commence per Pleint; sc. Proces.

First, the like Process or Precepts as are made out of the Hundred Court or Court Baron, are to be made out of the County Court ^{34 H. 6. 47. n. 116, 117.} mutatis mutandis, viz. a Summons, Attachment, and Distress infinite, which also is the Process at the Common Law; and these are to be made in the Sheriffs name, and to be directed to his Bailiffs.

In the Justices or Vicountiel Writs, the Proces is a summons by the defendants goods, an Attachment, and Distress infinite; & if upon the summons a Nihil be returned, then a continual Capias. Finch. 352.

And note, that a Precept or Commandment by parol only in a Court Baron is good enough, without any Precept in writing. 10 H. 7. Br. Proces 184. Finch. 248.

The Forms of these Precepts are as followeth.

A Summons.

Et tiel Attachment & Distress serra execute in mesme le forme, cybien en Pleints de Dett, come de Trespass.

An Attachment.

Cantebr.

Preceptum est ballivo ibidem quod attachiat' C. D. per omnia bona & cattal' sua, quod sit ad prox. Comitatum meum, ad respond' A. B. de placito debiti, &c. vel transgressionis.

De this attachment may be made moze amply as befoze (almost Alias. word for word usque at not'*) Ideo tibi præcipio quod attachias præf. I. D. per omnia bona & catall' sua, quod sit hic ad prox. Comitatum meum, &c. ut supra.

Also the defendant may be attached by pledges, &c. See plus hic cap. 52 -- And the Attachment may be thus.

R. S. Armig' Vic' com. præd. ballivo, &c. salutem. Pone per vadios & salvos plegios C. D. quod sit hic ad proxim' Comitatum meum apud C. die Jovis, &c. ad respond. I. S. de placito Debiti, &c.

Upon a precept of Attachment in the County Court, the Officer must not attach the Def. by his person or body; but by his horse, or, pot, pan, &c. cap. 32. & 52.

And the goods or chattels whereby the Def. is so attached, the Bailiff shall keep in his own possession until the next County Court; Except the Def. do replevy the same goods so attached by two Pledges distreinable within the County and Jurisdiction of that Court, which pledges shall become sureties that the Def. shall appear at the next Court to answer to the Plt. in his Plaint.

But if the Def. do not by Pledges replevy the said goods so attached, and that the def. maketh default at the next Court (or at the day given him by the Attachment) the Court shall award the goods so attached, to be forfeited (and shall keep the same goods as forfeited, &c.) And besides the Court shall award that the Def. be distreined by other of his goods, to be at the next Court after, to answer, &c. And thereupon an Entry shall be made in the Court Book (or Roll) in manner following.

I. S. op. se versus C. D. de placito debiti, &c. Et ipse non venit. Ideo ballivo mandatum fuit quod Attachiat præfatum C. D. Qui quidem ballivus retornavit quod attach. unum equum precii v s. & non venit. Ideo ipse in tñia. Et præceptum est quod prædictus C. D. distringatur quod sit hic ad prox. comit' meum, &c. ad respond' præfato I. S. de placito prædicto.

And if the Def. do Replevy the goods attached, by two Pledges (as aforesaid) and then maketh default (sc. appeareth not) the Court shall then award the said Def. as also his Pledges, to be amerced, and shall amerce them; And besides the Court shall award that the Def. be distreined against another day; and then the Entry shall be thus.

I. S. op. se versus C. D. &c. Et ipse non venit. Et ballivus retornavit quod Attachiat' est per Pleg. E. F. & G. H. Ideo in tñia. Et mandatum est quod prædictus C. D. distringatur quod sit, &c. (ut supra.)

A Distringas.

PRæceptum est ballivo ibid. quod distringat F. D. per omnia bona & cattalla sua, quod sit ad prox. Comit. meum ad respond' A. B. de placito debiti, &c. Teste, &c. Distring.

Upon this precept of Distringas, the Bailiff must distrain the Def. by his goods in such manner as he attached him, saving that the Attachment (or goods attached) is replevied by two Pledges, but the Distress shall not be delivered by fewer than four Painpernoys or Sureties, Sureties, Or else the Bailiff is to keep the Distress, as he should do the Attachment not replevied. And if the Def. thereupon make default, the Distress not mainprised as aforesaid, The Court shall award the distress to be forfeited, and shall keep the same goods as forfeited, &c. And if the Distress be mainprised, and the Def. maketh default of appearance, the Court shall then award the Def. and his Mainpernoys to be amerced. And in both cases the Def. shall be distrained again to be at the next Court after to answer to the Plt. &c.

And the Entry shall be thus.

I. S. op. se versus C. D. de placito debiti, &c. Et ipse non venit. & ballivus retornavit quod distrinxit eum per unum bovem precii v s. Et maincapt. per E. F. G. I. K. & L. M. Ideo in mia. Et sicut prius distringatur, &c.

And so process shall be made against the Def. by Distress infinite, until he do appear, &c.

But for every default of appearance that the Def. shall make, he is not amerlicable, but distrainable until he come to the Court, whereat when he appeareth he shall find two Pledges to save his default.

Alius distring. & plur' distring.

Alias.

PRæc' est ballivo ibid. sicut al' (vel sicut plur') tibi præceptum fuit, quod distringas, &c. ut supra.

Or these may be made more amply, as before.

Note, that the goods or cattel, attached or distrained in the County Court (whether it be upon a Justicies, or otherwise) shall be forfeited upon the default of appearance by the Def. at the day given him by the Proses; Car autrement serra vaine de fair Attachment ou distress, si nihil inde venerit. Vide antea cap. 32. & 35.

Venire facias Jurator'.

Venir' fac.

PRæceptum est ballivo ibidem, quod Venire fac' 12 probos & legales homines de ballivo suo, quod sint hic ad prox. cur' ad triand' exit' junct' inter A. B. quær' & C. D. defend' de placito debiti, vel familia.

And if a full Jury do not appear, then as many as make default, and be not essoined, shall be amerced, and a Decem tales awarded to summon ten more, as followeth, and the same day given to the first Jury.

At which day as many as make default, and be not essoined, shall be amerced, and then an Octo tales shall be awarded, and after that if need be a Sex tales.

And if there appear a full Jury, then both the parties shall have their challenges lawful to the Jurors: And if the Jury find for the Plaintiff, then then they must give costs of suit and damages against the Def. And in the like manner they shall assess damages, if they find for an adbowant, in a replevin, &c.

Le def. estant atteint en le County Court de trespasss, Ou si in action de Det, Detinue, Covenant, ou tiels, soit trove encounter le def. dunque semble Levari facias issuera al Officer, de levier les damages & costs, &c.

At this day it is used, that if the Def. be summoned, and thereupon maketh default, that presently a Levari facias goeth out, &c. but this seems not warrantable.

The form of a Levari fac'.

PRæceptum est ballivo ibid. quod de bonis & cattallis C. D. levari fac' Levari fac'. 20 s. quos A. B. in hac cur' recuperavit versus eum in placito debiti, vel similia, & pro mis. & custagiis suis 12 d. Ita quod denar' illos habeat hic ad prox. cur', ad reddend. præd. A. B. Teste, &c.

And Mr. Littleton (in his reading upon the Stat. of Westm. 2. Lectur. 15.) held, that by force of a Justicies in the County Court, the Sheriff had power to award a Capias, and also a Capias ad Satisfaciendum; but he made a quære of a Fieri facias. But if the suit in the County be without a Justices, where the trial is only by Ley Gager, there it hath been holden that the plaintiff shall have only a Distringas to have Execution.

And yet by the Stat. of 34 H. cap. 26. the Sheriffs in Wales are enabled upon every Judgment had before them in their Counties or Hundred Courts in every Plaint under 40 s. to award a Capias ad Satisfaciendum against the body, or a Fieri fac. at the plaintiffs choice.

CAP. 112.

Of the Writs of Justices.

By the Stat. of Westm. 2. cap. 13. it is ordained, that the Sheriffs in their Townes, and in other places where they have power to enquire of trespassors by the Kings precept, or by Office, &c. which words, in other places, seemeth to be meant of the County Court, and those words, by the Kings Precept, to be intended when the suit is by a Writ of Justices.

And in this County Court pleas are sometimes holden by the Kings Writ (out of the Chancery) which is called a Justices, or Wicecountiel Writ, for that it doth give special power to the Sheriff to hold Plea in his County Court; And this Writ is for the dispatch of Justice in special causes, wherewith the Sheriff of his own authority cannot deal in his County Court: and is in effect but a Commission, and giveth this authority to the Sheriff by these words: Præcipimus tibi quod loquela Audi, &c. Or Præcipimus tibi quod Justices, &c. (or the like) and endeth in this manner, sc. Ne amplius inde Clamorem audiamus, pro defectu Justiciæ, &c. And then the Writ is not Retornable, but the matter shall be tried and determined in the County Court, before the Sheriff, and that by an Enquest of 12 men, &c. according to the order of the Common Law: And the proceedings therein shall be as in Writs Original of the like nature in the Kings Courts at Westm. &c. Vide Fitz. 85. g. 86. a. & Finch. 117. And the Sheriff is to make the Proces, &c.

And the same Proces shall be in a Justices, as where the suit is there by Plaint, sc. if it be Account, Det., or the like, the Proces shall be Summons, Attachment, and Distress; if Trespass, Attachment, and and Distress: But no Capias in any case. Finch. 117. Vide hic Cap. 31. & 112.

Auxi plusieurs actions dun nature poient estre join en un Justicies, ove several precepts. Finch. 117.

And these writs of Justicies are of two sorts ;

Some to have the Plea to be holden before the Sheriff only.

Some to have it holden before the Sheriff, with the Coroners.

In what cases, or for what matters, a Justicies may be granted, holden, and sued, before the Sheriff alone.

1. Justicies de Accompt may be sued in the County Court against one as Bailiff, that shall occupy, or take the profits of my Land, &c. Fitz. 117. b Finch. 120.

2. Admeasurement de Dower, is Vicountiel (sc. triable in the Sheriffs Court) and shall be sued in the County, &c. and lieth for the Heir, sc. when his Guardian, or himself in his Honage, hath endowed the Wife of his Ancestors of more than she ought to have in Dower, then the Heir at his full age may sue this Writ against the Wife, and by this she shall be admeasured. Fitz. 148. g. Finch. 118.

And here all the Lands which she hath in Dower within the same County shall be admeasured by the Sheriff, and the surplusage taken from her, sc. so much of the Land only shall be taken from her, as exceeds the third part which she is to have in Dower, but she shall have no Land assigned to her in Dower de Novo. Fitz. 148. f. Finch. 118.

Note, if the wife cometh and saith that she is ready to be admeasured, the Plt. shall recover no damage. Regist.

3. Admeasurement de Pasture, is also Vicountiel, and may be sued before the Sheriff in his County ; and being directed to him, shall not be Retournable. Fitz. 125. c. And lieth for a commoner, sc. when another commoner puts on more beasts or cattel upon the common than he ought, be it a common Appendant, or Appurtenant, so it be for a certain number : And here all the commoners shall be admeasured, as well those which have not surcharged, as those which have, and also the Plt. himself (but the Lord shall not be admeasured, Br. view. 5.) Finch. 118.

Upon this writ directed to the Sheriff, he ought to hold Plea thereof, otherwise an Alias, and Pluries, &c. shall go out, whereupon if he sheweth not cause, an Attachment shall go out against him. Fitz. 125. e.

And upon this Writ of Admeasurement, the Plt. is to enter his Plaint in the County before the Sheriff, as he must upon a Replevin sued by Writ before the Sheriff. And thereupon the Sheriff shall make his precept to his Bailiff to warn the Defendant to appear, and if he cometh, and cannot shew cause to the contrary, then the Sheriff shall make Admeasurement : But if the Defendant shall shew cause to the Sheriff why Admeasurement should not be made, then the Sheriff shall make no Admeasurement upon this Writ, but the Plea shall be removed into the common Bank, &c. Vide Fitz. 125. g.

A Writ of Annuity may also be sued in the County Court by a Justicies, vide Fitz. 152. b.

may sue a Writ of Covenant by a Justices in the County Court. Fitz. 145. c.

The Sheriff may break open a mans Castle or House, to make a Replevin, when the Cattel or goods of another, which he hath distrained, be by him conveyed into his house, or Castle, to prevent the owner to have Replevin of his goods: And yet here before the Sheriff (or his Officers) shall break such house, or Castle, they ought first to demand that the cattel, or goods, be delivered them. Co. 5. 93.

At the Common Law if the Tenant had sued a Replevin against his Lord in the County Court, the tenant might have removed the plea into the Court of Common Pleas, and there if the Lord had avowed for his Rent or other services, and the tenant had disclaimed to hold of him, the Lord thereupon should have had a Writ de droit sur Disclaimer; and if it were found that he held of the Lord, the Lord should recover the Land in lieu of the services for such false disclaimer: But yet this mischief was, that if the tenant had perceived that the Lord would avow, &c. the tenant would have disclaimed, and then presently he should have recovered his damages, and the Lord should have been amerced for that by the disclaimer the County Court was ousted of Jurisdiction, for they could not try this Disclaimer, in as much as they were not Judges of the Record; And the Lord himself could not have removed the plea but in special cases, And by reason hereof the Lords were often at great mischief: Again, if the tenant had sued a Replevin in the County Court, and the Lord had there avowed, and then the tenant had disclaimed, there the Lord had no remedy, For a writ of right of Disclaimer he could not have had in so base a Court (quære) And therefore to take these mischiefs, that stat. of Westm. 2. cap 2. hath now ordained, that after such Disclaimer, the Lord may remove his plea into the Kings Court, where upon every plea he shall have his remedy, &c. which Stat. of Westm. 2. is in these words following. Forasmuch as Lords of Fees, distraining their Tenants for services due unto them, were many times grieved, because their Tenants did Replevy the distresses (by Writ or without Writ) And when the Lords at the complaint of their tenants did come (by Attachments) into the County (or other Court, &c.) and did avow the taking of the distress to be good and lawful, by reason that the Tenants did disavow to hold ought of him which took the distress, and abowed it, He that distressned was Amereced, and the Tenants went quit, and punishment cannot be there assigned for such disabowing, &c.) It was therefore by the same Statute ordained, that where such Lords cannot obtain Justice in the Countie, (and such Courts) against their Tenants, as soon as they shall be attached at the sute of their Tenants, a Writ (sc. a Recordare or Pone) shall be granted to them to remove the plea, before the Justices, before whom, and none other, where Justice may be administered, unto such Lords) and the cause shall be put in the Writ, because such a man distressned in his fee for his services and customs to him due, &c. Also because it chanced sometimes that the Tenant after he had replevied his beasts, would sell them away, or drive them far off, whereby return could not be made unto the Lord that distressned, if it were adjudged, and if the Sheriff had returned upon the Writ de Returno habendo, quod averia elongata sunt, &c. then the Lord might have had a Withernam, to have so many beasts of the Tenant, &c. But if the Tenant had no beasts, &c. then the Lords were without remedy, It is therefore provided by the same Statute, That Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, from thenceforth should not only receive of the Plaintiff, pledges for the pursuing of the sute before they make deliberance of the distress or beasts taken: But also pledges for the return of the beasts, if return be awarded; And if any take pledges otherwise, he shall answer for the price of the beasts: and the Lord that distressned shall have his recovery by Writ, that he shall restore or deliver unto him so many beasts or cattel; And if the Bailiff be not able to restore or satisfy, his superior (sc. the high Sheriff, or he which made him Bailiff,) shall restore or pay it: (P. Deputies.

Alſo by another Statute made in the times of King Philip and Queen Mary, for the moze ſpeedy deliverp of Cattel, taken by way of diſtreſs, it is further enacted, That every Sheriff ſhall depute and appoint four Deputies (at the leaſt) in his County, to make Replevies, and deliberance of ſuch diſtreſſes, in ſuch manner and form as the Sheriff may and ought to do.

I & 2 Ph.

So then (although by the Common Law the Sheriff could not make Replevies, oꝝ deliberance of any diſtreſs, without the Kings Writ, as is ſhewed befoze, Dyer 246. yet) now by force of theſe

former Statutes, the high Sheriff himself, the Under-sheriff, or any other of the Sheriffs Deputies, (appointed as aforesaid) upon complaint made to them, or any of them, by any man that hath his beasts or other goods taken, and wrongfully withholden or impounded. And upon pledges found de prosequendo, & de retorno habendo, &c. may without any Writ to them directed, (in all places) make Replevies, and may presently deliver the distress (sc. the beasts, or goods so taken and withholden.) And also the Sheriff may hold plea thereof, and determine the same in the County Court.

Britt. f. 4. But then the Sheriff, &c. is to give day unto both the parties, until the next County Court: At which day the Plaintiff may be essoined if his plaint be entred; But if he make default, then the Defendant may demand Judgment of the Ponsute, and shall have recozn of the distress; And the Plaintiff, and his pledges shall be in misericordia.

But the Defendant may not be essoined at the first day; For if he make default, then the distress shall be awarded to the Plaintiff, And the Defendant in misericordia.

And if both the Plaintiff & Defendant shall appear at the first day (either in person, or by Attorney,) then the Plaintiff ought to count, or put in his Declaration in writing against the Defendant.

Or else the party may have a Writ (sc. a Justicies) (out of the Chancery directed) to the Sheriff; whereupon the Sheriff, or his Bailiff known, and sworn, (after sureties or pledges found, &c.) ought to go to the pound, &c. and to deliver the beasts, or goods, impounded, to the party, and to give day to the parties, ut supra.

But when a man sueth a Replevin by Writ to the Sheriff, he ought presently to enter his plaint before the Sheriff in the next County, Fitz. 78. a.

And if the Bailiff shall return that the party will not suffer the deliverance to be made, the Sheriff (whether it be before him without Writ, or by Writ) may of his own authority award an Attachment, and after a Distringas, until he comes in; and if, (when he cometh in) he be convicted, he shall make a fine to the King before the Sheriff (ut dicitur) and this seems to be by force of the Statute of Marl. cap. 3. But if the beasts, or goods, be in an house, so as the Sheriff or Bailiff cannot come by them; or be driven, or carried into another County, &c. then may the Sheriff take of the goods, or beasts of the Defendant (to the double value) in Withernam: See hic antea Bract. lib. 3.

Fitz. 77. c.

But if the party that took the goods, do claim property in them in the County, then the power of the Sheriff, or his Bailiff ceaseth and determineth, so as they may not Replevy or deliver them, whether it were by Plaint, or by Writ; but the other party ought to sue his Writ De proprietate probanda. But one Defendant may claim property.

Note also that upon property found for the Plaintiff, the Sheriff shall make deliberance, and then also upon sureties found by the Plt' de prosequendo, the Sheriff shall also attach the Defendant to answer as well the King as the party: Fitz. propriet' proband' 3. And then upon the Writ, de proprietate probanda, the Sheriff in his County Court, and before the Coroners, shall Impanel a Jury, to Enquire, (in presentia partium if they will) of the property (sc. to whom the property at the time of the taking was.) And if the property be found in the Deft. the Plt. shall be Amerced by the Sheriff. And if it be found that the Deft. had nothing in the Cattel or Goods, then he shall p'eld damages to the Plt. and shall also by the Justices be committed to prison, there to remain until he hath paid a fine to the King; and the Sheriff may presently Attach the Deft. hic antea titulo Replevin.

Note that in a Proprietate probanda, the Jury are not to Enquire but only to, or in whom the property was at the time of the taking. Fitz. Proprietate probanda 5.

Also if the Defendant claims property, where the trial is (in the County Court) by Pleynt, the Plaintiff may have a Writ de Proprietate probanda to the Sheriff, to try the property; and if thereupon it be found for the Plaintiff, then the Sheriff is to make deliberance; and if it be found for the Defendant, then the Sheriff can no further proceed. Repleg.

If a man sue a Replevin in the County, by Plaint, without Writ, and the Sheriff maketh his precept to the Bailiff to make Replevy, & the Bailiff returneth to the Sheriff at his next County, that he cannot have the view of the Cattel to make deliberance, &c. or that they be Esloigned, Then the Sheriff at the same County County Court ought to enquire thereof by an Enquest (of Office.) And if this be found by Enquest, that the Cattel be Enjoined, (or conveyed away, &c.) then the Sheriff in the same County Court may award, (ex officio) a precept, in the name of a Capias in Withernam, directed to his Bailiff, to take the Beasts of the Defendant, &c. or else the Plaintiff may have a Writ out of the Chancery to this purpose. Fitz. 74. b. c. & le Register 81. 82.

Withernam.

But whether the Beasts of the Defendant, being taken in Withernam, shall be delivered to the Plaintiff, or that the Sheriff shall keep them, &c. may be a question: It appeareth by the words of the Writ (of Withernam out of the Common place) that the Sheriff shall keep them, until the Sheriff can make Replevy and Deliverance to the Plaintiff of his Cattel, and so is the Book, 2 H. 4. Fitz. Wither. 3; that the Sheriff shall keep them: And yet by the use of the Kings Bench they shall be delivered to the Plaintiff, and to have them until his own shall be restored to him again. Fitz. 73. f. & 74. a. b. d. Dyer. 59. & 189. & Finch. 119. & le Na. br. 45.

And therefore where the Sheriff in his County Court shall award a Withernam, quære, if there the Sheriff may not either keep the Cattel himself, or deliver them to the Plaintiff (to keep until, &c.) at his pleasure; And whether the Sheriff or Plaintiff shall have the keeping of them, it seemeth reasonable that the Defendant shall also pay for the keeping of them before he hath his Cattel again.

For the form of this Precept from the Sheriff to the Bailiff, to take the Beasts of the Defendant in Withernam (although in other cases the Sheriffs command to his Bailiff by word only sufficeth, as you may see hic cap. 21.) yet this Precept must be by writing, and ought to be ensealed with the seal of the Sheriffs Office. Vide 22 H. 6. fol. 40.

But the Sheriff upon complaint made to him of Cattel taken, &c. may command his Bailiff by word of mouth, to make Replevy of them; and it is as good, as if it were by a precept in writing; for there a more speedy delivery of the Cattel is required, And perhaps the Sheriff, nor his Bailiff have any thing about them wherewithal to write, &c. Now where the Pleynt in the County Court is of prisel des averes, (sc. of taking and withholding Cattel or other goods,) the Entrie must be made in this manner, or the like following:

And in this Pleynt of prisel des averes, the precept to attach the Defendant must be to this effect following.

The Form of a Replevin.

Replevie.

A.B. miles vicecomes com' præd' ballivo hundred' de H. nec non Jo. Canteb. S. ballivo meo hac vice & eorum utrique, conjunct' & divisim salutem, Quia W. Et pone per vadios & salvos plegios præd. K. W. quod sit ad proximum Comitatum meum apud C. tenend' die, &c. ad respondend' præfato R. D. de pl'ito prædicto, &c.

And if this Replevin be granted by a Deputy, to the Sheriff, then he must set his name to the Replevin, Thus;

Now by force of the former precept of Replevin, the Bailiff must go to the place where the Cattel, &c. whereof the p'pnt is persued be within the Shire, and shall deliver the Cattel to the Plaintiff:

And

And also shall Attach the Defendant to appear at the next County Court, to answer to the Plaintiff, in his Pleint.

This Attachment of the Defendant must be made by the Officer of the Defendants goods; And the goods so attached the Officer may keep in his own possession until the next Court, Or the Officer may suffer the Defendant to replevy the same by two Pledges, &c. in such manner as is before declared, and as he may do in a plea of Debt, or Trespass.

When the Replevin is sued, and the goods delivered, and then the Plaintiff becomes Ponsute in his Pleint, if the Defendant be ready in Court to avow the taking, then shall there be awarded to the Defendant. Retorne des Avers, in this manner following.

Retorne des Avers.

And thereupon the Officer shall deliver to the avowant the first Discrets.

And if the first Repl' be not executed, then the Sheriff or his Deputy, may grant an Alias Replevin and so a Pluries Replevin, vel causam mihi significes; and after totes quoties, if need be.

And if the Bailiff do not deliver the Plaintiff his cattel upon this Alias Replevin nor shew sufficient cause why he did not, then the party may have a pluries Replevin, which must be made Verbatim, as the Alias Replevin was made, only. changing this word Alias into Pluries.

The condition of this present obligation is such, that if the above bounden W. P. do appear at the next County Court to be holden at the Castle of Cambridge, and then and there do prosecute his action with effect against I. C. for wrongful taking and detaining of his catel, viz of one Gelding and three Horses, as is alledged, and do also make return thereof, if return thereof, shall be adjudged by law, and also do save and keep harmless said catel, That then this present Obligation to be void and of force, strength and vertue.

And if in this case the taker of the catel do justifie the taking, as in his Freehold, then the County Court can proceed no further therein; but the cause must be removed from thence by the Kings Writ (out of the Chancery) called a Recordare facias loquelam, directed to the Sheriff, returnable the next term following, either into the Kings Bench, or into the Court of Common Pleas which the party will: and then this Writ of Recordare ought to be openly read and allowed in the said Court, to the end that notice may be given thereof to the Plaintiff in the Replevin, that he may appear at the day of the return thereof, and declare against the taker of his catel, or else the taker will have a Retorno habend^o

Now concerning the authority of this court, & of the Sheriff, &c. therein.

If a man be convicted before the Sheriff and the Coroners (in his County Court) in a Writ of Recaption, the Sheriff may amerce him deeply or grievously, and also may award damages to the party; but the Sheriff can impose no fine in this Court upon any offender, for that no Court can impose any fine, but such Courts as are Courts of Record, whereas the County Court is no Court of Record: Co. 8. 41. & 60. & 11. 43. Fitz. 73. d. old

Et semble per mesme le Statut^r que tiel Amerciements in le County Court serra assere per Pares. Or rather it seemeth now by the Statute of 11 H. 7. cap. 15. that two Justices of Peace shall first view the Extreats of the Amerciements of the Sheriff, and that the same Extreats must be Indented between the said Justices, and the said Sheriff, and sealed with their Seals, befoze that the Sheriff (or his Officers) may levy the same Amerciements.

Also (it seemeth) that if any contempt or disturbance to the Court be made befoze the Sheriff or Steward, in the County Court, they may amerce such Offenders, for such contempt or disturbance. But such Amercement needeth not to be assere: for whereas the Statutes of Magna Charta, c. 14. and of Westm^r 1. c. 6. will, quod nemo amercietur nisi secund^r quantitatem delicti, which cannot be known but by assere, yet it seemeth that the Statutes, and this assere are to be understood for Amercements set or imposed for offences committed or done out of Court, and not of contempts or misdemeanors done or committed in Court, derance thereof, and of the manner and quality of the offence, are the fence; and so such amercement to be in the nature of a fine imposed (by the Sheriff or Steward) upon the offenders: See 10 H.

may distrain throughout all the County: 2 H. 4. Br. Dist. 12. and shall have all such amercements to his own use as it semeth. See Imprison.

But the Sheriff may not imprison one, nor arrest, nor take the in any other suite, Nor for any contempt or offence done in the County Court, as it semeth. Fitz. 132.

Recog.

The Sheriff in his County Court may take a recognisance to pay another a certain sum of money at a certain day, and if it be not paid at the day, the consue may have a Writ de Executione facienda, out of the Chancery to the Sheriff to make Execution thereupon, & to keep the money de bonis & catallis of the Defendant.
*Et in tiels Cases semble que le vicount poet vander les biens le partie, pur payer le

And this is where there is a Plea of Debt depending in the County Court before the Sheriff, between two, either of the parties may there acknowledge a Recognisance (before the Sheriff) to the other party, of any sum of money (as it semeth) and that whether the Plea be there depending by Writ, or without Writ, as Mastor Fitz. held.

Also if a man will come in to the County Court before the Sherriff, and there in Court will acknowledge to owe, or pay a certain sum of money to another person at a certain day, &c. when there is no plaint of action depending there between the parties, it seems by the opinion of M. Fitz. that such recognisance is good, if it be under the sum of forty shillings. Fitz. 133. a. And the party shall have the Kings Writ de Si Recognoscat directed to the Sheriff to make Execution of such a Recognisance. Ibid.

And by this Writ de Si Recognoscat, the Sheriff may distrain until the Cognisor hath made gree to the party for the debt. Na. br. 67.

And yet Mr. Brook, tit. Recog. 16. & 18. semeth to doubt, whether the Sheriff at this day may take a Recog. in his County Court, it being no Court of Record; especially, except the Recog. be taken upon a Plea depending there before the Sheriff by a Writ of Justices, in which case the Sheriff is a Justice by Commission, so that the Justices is a Commission to him, And all Commissioners who have Authority to sit in Justice for the Commonwealth, may take a Recog. as appeareth here before. Cap. 27.

See hic antea fol.

The Knights for the Parliament are to be chosen between the hours of eight and eleven of the Clock in the forenoon, and Sedente Curia; And being so chosen, are also to be published there by the Sheriff.

The names of such Freeholders as are at the Election of Cozoners, and Verderers, ought to be set down in the County Court Book for to certifie such their Election. Coroners & Verderers.

And yet the Cozoners their Election also may be by Vices, or by holding up hands, &c. (as the Knights of the Parliament, whereof see hic antea fol.) and then their names or number cannot be certainly known nor set down. Pl. 126. a.

Also the Sheriff is to minister unto the Cozoners and Verderers, their several Oaths for the due execution of their Offices. Fitz. 163. m. 164. c.

When the Cozoner is chosen, the High-Sheriff of the same County, or his Under-Sheriff, must give him his Oaths, as followeth. The Coroners Oaths.
 First the Sheriff shall give the Cozoner his Oath to the Supremacy.

Then the Sheriff must give the Cozoner his Oath concerning his Office, as followeth.

The Cozoners were anciently Knights. See Register 177. b. & star. Westm. 1. cap. 10.

There be commonly four Cozoners in every County.

The Cozoners are Judges of the Writings, and are to sit with the Sheriff at every County Court, there to give Judgments upon upon the Attorneys (as appeareth before, cap. 110.) And they are to give, and pronounce the Judgment, and to make a short remembrance thereof in their book; But the Coroners are not to make Return of the Attarp, for the custody of the Record it self doth not appertain to the Coroners, but the Sheriff is to have the keeping thereof, and of the Exigent, which is the Sheriffs Warrant to Proclaim the Judgment, and which Record with the Exigent, the Sheriff is to return into the Kings Bench, &c. And the Sheriff shall have Counter Rolls with the Coroners, of all things belonging to the Office of Coroners, Stamf. 64. Fitz. Coron. 186. See hic cap. 100.

27 El. c. 12. These oaths are (by the said Under-sheriff, Bailiffs, and other Officers) to be taken before the Justices of Assize, or one of them, of the same circuit, or before the Custos Rotulorum, or two Justices of the Peace (one of them being of the Quorum) of the same Countie whereof the said Under-sheriff, Bailiff, or other Officer shall be. The other Oath & Test must be taken only in the Courts of Chancery and Kings Bench in Terme time, and at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and not elsewhere.

27 El. c. 12. 27 El. c. 12. If any Under-sheriff, or other person here above mentioned in this

All the several forfeitures before-mentioned, shall or may be recovered in any of the Kings Courts of Record by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in which sure no wager of Law, Escoign, or Protection shall be allowed. 27 El. 12.

Also the Judges of Assize, and Justices of Peace in their open Sessions, may hear and determine the offences aforesaid, upon presentment, information, or indictment, and upon conviction of the offenders may award execution (for to levy the forfeitures) by Fieri facias, Attachment, Capias, or Exigent. 27 El. 12.

Also the Head-officer of the place, if it be a Town-corporate, wherein such Bailiff, or other Under-officer shall be, may take the said Oaths of such officers, before they shall, or may exercise their said offices. 27 El. 12.

Oath of Allegiance.

Also by the Statute made 7 Jac. Regis c. 6. every Officer or Minister of Justice (within which words the Under-sheriff, Bailiff, Sheriffs Clerk, and Deputies seem to be comprehended) is to take the Oath of Allegiance, if they be of the age of 18. years or above, and that it be lawfully tendered to them. 7 Jac. 6.

Not above one year.

No Under-sheriff, nor Sheriffs clerk shall abide or tarry in his Office above one year (except the Under-sheriff, and Officers within London, &c. See infra) upon pain to forfeit two hundred pounds yearly, as long as such person shall occupy such office contrary to the effect of the said Statute; and every man which will may sue for the same. See hic antea fol. 42 E. 3. c. 9. 23 H. 6. c. 8. 6 H. 8. 18.

The mischief

Also every pardon made for such offence shall be void; besides the High-sheriffs Oath seemeth to bind him from having such an Under-sheriff.

The mischief of such Officers continuing long in their Office, or interchanging out of one of the Offices into another, is observed (in the Preamble of another Statute made 1 H. 5. c. 4.) to be, that the Kings Liege-people durst not complain of the Extortions, and oppressions done to them by the Sheriffs-officers (that is to say by Under-sheriffs, Sheriffs clerks, Bailiffs, and Receivers) by reason thereof; and therefore it was by that Statute ordained, That Sheriffs-bailiffs should not be in any such Office by the space of 3. years next following: But quare for the use thereof; for at this day in most places Sheriffs-bailiffs do continue in their said Offices from year to year, for divers years together: And also Under-sheriffs and Sheriffs-clerks in many places also do continue in their said Offices many years together, interchanging from the one into the other; By reason of which continual being & continuing in the said Offices, the Under-sheriffs, Sheriffs-clerks, and Bailiffs, grow so cunning in their several places, as that

And yet the Under-Sheriff, and all other Officers within the City of London, as also the Under-Sheriff, and all other Officers of Sheriffs, within the Shire or Countrey of the Town of Bristow, may continue and occupy their said offices from year to year, without any danger or forfeiture, notwithstanding the former Statutes of 42 E. 3. 9. and 13 H. 6. 8.

23 H. 6. c. 8.

Also such Countreies in which any persons were inheritable to the Office of Sheriff at the time of the making of the said Statute of 23 H. 6. (viz. 25. Febr. Anno Domini 1444.) And for the Bailiffs, it is parcel of the Sheriffs Oath to take no Bailiff, but such as he will answer for. And so for the Goalers or Keepers of the common Goal and Prison of the Countrey, the Sheriffs must put in such Goalers or Keepers for whom they will answer; for if there be an escape of a felon voluntarily suffered by the Goaler, the Sheriff may be indicted of felony for the same as it semeth. And if an escape shall be suffered by the Goaler, or other Officer, of a Prisoner who is in upon an Execution, the Sheriff shall be charged for the whole Debt.

The Under-Sheriff.

Co. 9. 49.

The Under-Sheriff in ancient time was called Seneschallus vice-comitis, and in the statute of Westminster 2. cap. 39. is first called Under-Sheriff, and in the statute of 11 H. 7. cap. 15. he is called Under-Sheriff, or the Shire-Clerk, or the Clerk of the Countrey. Co. 9. 49. See hic cap. 1. & Minsh. verbo Shire-Clerk.

And yet the word Shire-Clerk is sometimes taken to be the Under-Sheriff; and sometimes it is used for a Clerk in the Countrey Court, Deputy to the Under-Sheriff.

These Under-Sheriffs have at this day to them committed by the High-Sheriff the whole, or most part of the exercising and executing of the office of the High-Sheriff, and may be called the Sheriffs general Deputy, (sc. in matters concerning their ministerial office.)

office.) And accordingly by the Book 20 H. 7. the Under-sheriff is ^{20 H. 7. fol. 12. b.} said to be but the High-sheriff's Deputy or Bailiff, and one that useth and occupieth the place or office in the right of the High-sheriff, and doth all things in the name of the High-sheriff.

If it shall come in issue whether he that made the array be Under-sheriff or not, this shall be tried by the Country, and not by examination of the Officer, and the array impannelled and returned by the Under-sheriff in the name of the Sheriff shall bind the Sheriff. ^{8 H. 4: 10. 20. Br. Officer 33.}

And if a Return made by the Under-sheriff be denied, that shall be tried by the Under-sheriff, and the High-sheriff cannot disavow the same, if he confess him to be his Under-sheriff. Co. 9. 31.

If any Under-sheriff make a Return whereupon the Sheriff shall be amerced, there the High-sheriff shall be amerced, for the Return is made expressly in his name. But if it be a false Return whereupon an action of deceit lieth, in that case it may be brought against the Under-sheriff. Dr. & St. 134.

The substance of this Oath, is, for the true, speedy, and indifferent returning of Writs, and Impanelling of Juries, without taking above the fees allowed.

Their Bayliffs of Hundreds.

The Bayliffs of Hundreds, called also Bayliffs Errants, and in our Law, or vulgar Latin called Ballivi Itinerantes (id est going hither and thither in the County to serve or execute Writs, to summon the Miles, the Quarter Sessions, and the like) are made and appointed by the high Sheriff.

And these Bayliffs should be such manner of persons, as do know each mans person, and Land, in the hundred, and their ability to serve upon Enquests, that so they may the better summon, or distress them to appear, &c. when they shall be appointed.

But for that Sheriffs may not let their Bayliffs to farne, therefore when they put in Bayliffs they be but as under bayliffs to the King, and the Sheriff is the high Bayliff, and the other the Sheriffs servants, and therefore he shall answer for them if they offend in their Office. Dr. & St. 136.

14 E. 3. c. 9. Sheriffs shall appoint such Bailiffs for whom they will answer. Bailiffs. Vide hic. And for that the Statute is general, it seemeth that he shall answer as well for an untruth in any such Bayliff, as for an oversight. Dr. & St. fol. 135.

And if they shall commit any act contrary to their said Oaths, they shall loose treble damages, &c.

But special Bayliffs to serve Process, are not to take the same Oaths by force of the said statute of 27. Eliz. Crompt. 76.

14. E. 3. c. 9. The Sheriff shall have in his County but one Bayliff errant only: See the statute of 14 Ed. 3. 9. and quare of the validity of this statute this day. For these bayliffs errants, called in our Law or vulgar Latin Ballivi Itinerantes, (id est going hither and thither in the County to serve Writs, and such like) are the bailiffs of the Hundred; and are made, and appointed by the Sheriff.

These Bailiffs of Hundreds shall be true and credible persons, and shall have sufficient Lands in the same Shire whereof to answer the King and his people, in case that any man shall complain against them, and so that they shall not need to use extortion.

Note also that it is parcel of the Sheriffs oath, to take no bailiffs but such as be true men, and of sufficient estate, and such as he will answer for, and to make them to take their oath for the due execution of their Office.

And these bailiffs should also be such, as do know each mans person, and land, in the Hundred, and their ability to serve upon enquests; That so they may the better summon, or distrain them, &c. to appear when they shall be appointed.

*Counties
let to farm.*

It seemeth that in ancient time all the Counties in England were assessed to a certain farm (sc. were let by the King to every Sheriff at a certain farm) and then all the hundreds and wapentakes in the Sheriffs hands were again by them letten, and were also rated to their farm, which was an occasion of great oppression; whereupon it was first ordained, that the bailiwicks of Hundreds should be leased and bailed by the Sheriff for a reasonable Rent, so that the bailiff need not to use extortion upon the people by reason of too outrageous farm: and after by the statute made 4. E. 3. cap. 15. it was ordained, that Sheriffs should let their Hundreds, for the old farm (and not above) to their bailiffs; and by another statute made 14. E. 3. it was shortly after ordained, that Sheriffs should keep their Hundreds in their own hands, or else should let them upon the old Rent; But since Sheriffs (by the statutes made 23. H. 6. cap. 10. & 5. & 6. Ed. 6. cap. 16. as also by their Oaths) are restrained from letting to farm any of their Counties, or any of their Bailiwicks, Hundreds, or Wapentakes in any manner whatsoever.

No bailiff of any Hundred shall lease his Office to any other in farm or otherwise. Stat. de vic' 9 E. 3.

The Execution of all writs which come to the Sheriff shall be done by the Hundredors; sc. by the bailiffs of hundreds, and such as are known and sworn in the full Counties, and not by others; if it be not by the open default or notorious disturbance of the Hundredors, sc. unless the bailiffs of Hundreds will not, or cannot execute them. And then execution shall be done by other persons met and sworn, see the statute 9 Ed. 2. de vicecomitibus.

No distress shall be taken, but by a Bailiff sworn and known; And if any other shall distrain and be thereof convicted, they shall yield damages to the party grieved, and also be punished to the King.

13 E. 1. 73.

And so by the statute 27 Eliz. cap. 12. No bailiff of any Hundred, nor other person shall take upon them to execute any Process, &c. before they be sworn, see hic antea. fol.

And yet the common experience and practice at this day is, that special special Bailiffs, or other persons (being neither sworn nor known officers) do execute such writs; And such special Bailiffs are often mentioned in our Books, as in 8 Ed. 4. 14. 21 H. 7. 37. Co. 9. 69. Br. Monfrans des fairs 117. And they seem to be the more allowed, for that they many times may and do execute the Kings Process, when such Bailiffs as are known, cannot, in regard that such as are in debt do usually flee from them, &c.

Bailiffs of hundreds shall attend upon the Justices of Assizes, Justices of Goal delivery, and Justices of Peace in every of their Courts and Sessions, (upon warning) See the Statutes 27 H. 8. 24. & 34 H. 8. 26. They shall also duly execute all precepts and warrants to them from the said Justices directed for the ministration of Justice.

Sheriffs, and Bailiffs of fee, shall cause their Counties, and Bailiwicks to be kept, by such as have lands therein.

Bailiffs of fee, are Officers of fee within their jurisdiction or precinct; And for the execution of process there, the Sheriff shall not write or send his precept, to these Bailiffs, as to the Bailiff of a franchise, but as to the Bailiff of guildable; and the Sheriff shall return his answer, as if the Sheriff himself had served the process, 27. CAP. 117.

Bailiffs of Franchises.

Bailiffs of franchises or Liberties, are those that be appointed by Lords within their Liberties, to do such Offices within the Precincts of such Lordships or liberties, as the Bailiffs Esquires do at large abroad within the County.

These Bailiffs of franchises which have Return of Writs, can not arrest a man without a Warrant or Precept to them made by the Sheriff, upon or by force of the Kings Writ in the hands of the Sheriff. Kiel. fol. 86.

All Bailiffs of franchises and Liberties, before they intermeddle with the execution of their Office shall take two corporal Oaths, the one concerning the supremacy, the other for the true exercising of their Office sub pena 40. l. See hic antea.

*Bailiffs of Franchises.
Low ser-ment.*

A Bailiff of a franchise or Liberty is an Officer by himself, and hath not to do with the Sheriff, 21 H. 7. fol. 23. a.

And yet it is a principal part of his Office, duly to execute all Precepts directed to him from the Sheriff; And to make due return thereof to the Sheriff. Crompt. 57.

And if the Bailiff of a franchise, upon the Sheriffs warrant, shall arrest a man, and shall not return the warrant to the Sheriff, the party arrested may have his action of faux imprisonment against the Sheriff. But if the Bailiff shall make his Return to the Sheriff, that he hath arrested the party, and hath delivered him to the Sheriff, and then the Sheriff will not return the Capias to the Court, here no action of false imprisonment will lie against the Bailiff of the franchise, for that he hath executed his warrant and Office well; And the Bailiff of the franchise is to make his return to the Sheriff, and not into the Court. Kiel. 87. Vide hic, cap. 37.

Note, that ſuch Liberties, franchises, Priviledges, and temporal Bailiffs of Liberties shall have sufficient Lands in the places where they be ministers, and in the same County, whereof to answer the King, and his people, if any will complain against them. Low sufficiency.

Restit. 178

If the Lord of a Liberty shall choose any man to be Bailiff of his Liberty, who hath not sufficient lands within the same County, then a writ shall be sent to the Sheriff (of the same County where in such Liberty is) commanding him to discharge or remove such Bailiff, and to choose another Bailiff in his place: Fitz. 164. 4.

And an Alias, Pluries, and an Attachment, lyeth against the Sheriff, if he shall not do according as he was commanded by such a writ.

Bailiffs of Liberties have full power to return the Kings Writs: And every return of any Writ to be made by any Bailiff of any Franchise or Liberty, shall be delivered to the Sheriff, by such Bailiff of Liberty, by Indentures to be made between the Bailiff of the Franchise, by his proper name; and the Sheriff by his proper name: And if any Sheriff shall change the return so delivered him by Indenture, and be thereof convicted (at the sute of the Lord of the Franchise, and at the sute of the party indammaged, &c.) he shall be punished by the King, for his false return, and yield unto the Lord, and to the party double damages, Vide M. 15. c. 3. Abr. daff. 132. Return of Writs, by Ind.

12 E. 2. c. 5.

And the Sheriff ought not to make any other Return, but according to that which the Bailiff of the Liberty shall certify him. Kiel. 89.

Bailiffs of Liberties, that receive the Kings writs, returnable in his Court, shall put their own names to their return; So that the Court may know of whom they take such return, if need be: And if any bailiff leave out his name in his return, he shall be grievously amerced to the Kings use: see hic antea, Return of Writs. Mitter low nofmes.

Bailiffs of Liberties shall impanel and return upon enquests, sufficient persons, and such as be dwelling within their bailiwicks, &c. in cases of Atteints and Riots. Return Enquests.

And by the opinions of Thirning and Markham, the Sheriff ought to be amerced, for the Proclamation is to be made by the Sheriff by the statute of 23 E. 1. c. 35. And then for that the distress with Proclamation, is a thing entire, the Sheriff ought to have entered the franchise, and executed the whole writ himself: But Rikhill and Tirwit held the contrary, Ideo quere. The Bailiff a party.

And yet the bailiff of the Liberty might have made the return in the name of another bailiff, for he might have made another bailiff for that time, by the opinion of Herle ibid. & Fitz. Chal. 2.

But the Defendant himself shall never take benefit of a Liberty; And therefore if the bailiff of a liberty be Defendant in any action, and Process of Capias, or fieri fac. cometh to the Sheriff against the bailiff of the Liberty, the Sheriff shall execute the Process upon him or his goods within the Liberty, for that the Liberty is always for the benefit of him that is a stranger to the action. Co. 5. 92.

And so it seemeth, where the Lord of the Liberty is party to the sute. Vide Flo. 46. Fitz. 155. a.

If any Felon, or other offender against the Kings peace, &c. shall be within any Liberty or franchise, and the Justices of peace, &c. shall direct their warrant or process to the Sheriff for the apprehending of such offender, The Sheriff is to enter such franchise, and to execute the process or warrant, and not to write to the bailiff of the franchise, for that here the King is a party, la 38. 41 A. 17.

Also note that in all cases or actions wheresoever the king is a party, the process always must be with a non omittas propter aliquam libertatem, for none is to serve the Kings Process but his Ministers; And there the Sheriff ought not to write, or send his Precept to the bailiff of the franchise or Liberty, but ought himself to enter, and to execute, and serve the process, otherwise he shall be amerced. And see Fitz. Chall. 129. that the King hath no other Minister than the Sheriff, and where the King is a party, no franchise shall be allowed, &c. Fitz. Prerog. 21. Enquest. 12.

Note that the King gets no franchise against himself. 22. E. 3. fol. 21.

Note also that every writ for the King (or where the King is a party) is always a Non Omittas in Law of it self. 41. Als. 17.

But in other cases where the King is no party, there, if without a Non omittas the Sheriff shall enter a franchise which hath return of writs, to execute any the Kings Process, though the serving of the Process be good, yet he shall be subject to the action of the Lord, &c. And therefore if the Sheriff, or his Officer, taketh one in execution for Debt, within a Liberty, although the execution be good; for that the Sheriff is the immediate Officer of the King and to the Kings Courts, to execute all Process; Yet the Lord of the Liberty or franchise, may have his Action of the Case against the Sheriff, for entering into his Liberty. Fitz. N. Br. 95. b. & 20. H. 7. fol. 7. Finch. fol. 52.

And

And in all Cases, as well upon the default of the Bailiff of the Franchise, as otherwise, it seemeth that as on the one part the Sheriff may (in some Cases) excuse himself, by returning that he hath commanded the Bailiff of the Franchise, &c. So on the other side, although the Sheriff may more safely enter the liberty, cum Warrantum habuerit (sc. upon a Non Omittas propter libertatem directed to him) yet if without a Non Omittas, the Sheriff, or his Officers by his command, shall enter the Franchise, and make execution of the Kings writ, it is good in Law, for that the Sheriff is the immediate officer to the King; and his Courts in such cases: And the only danger is, that the Lord of the Franchise may have his action against the Sheriff, or officer, for entering his Franchise, &c.

Note, that in some case a prisoner sent out of one Shire or County, ought to be received by the Sheriff or Gaoler of another County: And therefore whereas the stat. of West. 2. c. 11. provideth that in case of accounts before Auditors, and arrerages found Arreftent' corpora eorum & per testimonium Auditorum ejusdem compoti, mittantur & liberentur proximæ Goalæ dñi Regis in partibus illis, &c. Thereupon it was holden in 27. Hen. 6 that the Auditors ought to commit the accomptant to the next Gaol, although the next Gaol be in another County, for that they might not vary from the place limited by the stat. And then if the Sheriff, or Gaoler shall refuse to take such a prisoner being delivered to them, and so the prisoner shall escape, &c. the Sheriff or Gaoler are chargeable for the debt, by the same statute of Westminster 2.

The Fees, Allowances, and Vails due to the Sheriffs and their Officers.

Sheriffs and their ministers ought to take no reward, or other thing, for doing of their Office, but only of the King, or that which is appointed for them to take by the statutes (and Laws of this land) and if they do otherwise it is extortion in them: And if any Sheriff, or any of his Officers, &c. shall do any extortion, and be thereof attained (either at the sute of the King, or of the party) he shall peild twice as much as he took, to the party grieved, and besides he shall be punished for the same at the Kings will: or he may be indicted thereof, before the Justices of Gaol deliver, or Justices of Peace, and by them punished, scz. they may be fined to the King: see the statutes 3. E. 1. cap 26. 20. E. 3. cap. 6. & 1. H. 4. cap. 11. Vide Co. L. 368.

Extortior.

Now extortion is thus defined or described.

Extortio est crimen, quando quis Colore Officii extorquet quod non est

Quid. est debitum, vel quod supra debitum, vel ante tempus quod est debitum, Co. 10. 102
Co. 1. L. 368.

Another describes it thus: Extortion is where the Sheriff, Under-sheriff, bailiff, or other officer, by colour of his office, shall take any excessive reward or fee; or shall take more than the Law doth allow him (for the execution of his office;) or shall take any reward, or fee for any matter, cause, or thing, where the Law doth allow no fee at all: P. R. 82.

quod ei debet.* If the Sheriff or any of his officers, (or any other officer, by colour of his office) shall gather, levy, or receive of any person, any amercements, rents, or other duties, which are not due, or more than is due, this is extortion: and so Sir James Altham delivered it in his charge at Cambridge Assizes: Ann. Dom. 1615.

So if by colour of their office they take from any man any money, or valuable thing that is not due. Co. L. 368. So if they shall take any thing for expedition, it is Extortion.

*Money le
Roy.* If any man do levy, and receive money due to the King or for the use, behoof, or service of the King, and do not imploy the same accordingly; or else doth not pay the same money to the King, or his lawful Receiver, he may be indicted of Extortion: see 27. Ass. P. 15. & 17. Br. Fees 10. & 11. See hic cap. 126.

If the Sheriff be to keep his Turn, and shall take of the Suters, or Tenants, any money, or other reward to spare them from appearing there, this is Extortion although his Predecessors have used to take the like. 42. E. 35.

If any bailiff, or other, the Sheriff's officer, shall take any thing of any person, to spare them from appearing at the Assizes, Sessions of the peace, or the like, it is Extortion.

If the Sheriff shall let to farm his County, Hundreds, or any of his Bailiwicks, or any of his Courts, or any part, or profit thereof, sameth to be Extortion, if he taketh any fee or Rent for the same.

Sparing a juror. If any Sheriff, under-sheriff, bailiff of liberty, or any of their officers, shall receive, have, or take by himself or any other, any sum of money, reward, or other profit, directly or indirectly, or do take any promise, make any agreement, or assent to have any sum of money, reward, or other profit, directly or indirectly of any person, for the sparing, not warning, or not returning, of any person to be sworn as a Juror, for the trial of any issue joyned in any of the Courts of the Kings Bench, Common Pleas, or Eschequer, or before any Justices of Assize, it is Extortion, and every Sheriff and other Officer so offending, shall forfeit for every such offence v. l. to the King and Informer, &c. 27 El. c. 6;

*Omit d'ar-
rests, &c.* If the Sheriff, or any of his officers, &c. shall take any money, or other reward, for the omitting of any arrest, or attachment to be made, it is Extortion, and the Sheriff or other officer so offending, shall forfeit for every such offence xl. l. to the King and Informer, &c. 23 H. 6. c. 10

Put more favor. So it is, if the Sheriff or Gaoler, &c. shall take any money or other reward, for shewing ease or favour to any Prisoner or Person arrested: See Br. Fees 6. ibid. 21 H. 7. f. 17.

So if the Sheriff or Gaoler shall detain any Person in prison (after they be discharged by the Court) for meat, drink, or other thing, except for their due fees onely, it is Extortion. 8. E. 4. fol. 18. Br. Fees 15.

Perre fee. And yet upon an action upon the statute of 23. H. 6. c. 10. for Extortion against an Under-sheriff, for taking of twenty pence above his fee, of a Prisoner in his Ward, &c. and upon evidence it ap- 21 H. 7. 16. 17. Pl. 465.

appeared that the Defendant and all Under-sheriffs of the same County, time out of mind, &c. had used to take of every Prisoner taken for suspicion of felony, and in their Ward, &c. twenty pence, when they were acquitted; and this fee they called barmony, or a bar fee: And by the opinion of the Justices this case was out of the statute, for the intent of the statute is, when sheriffs, &c. shall take such sums of money of their Prisoners, to give ease and liberty to their Prisoners, (who are in their Ward) but here when the Prisoner was acquitted, he was no Prisoner, &c. and this fee was at the first assigned by the Court for a bar fee, by their discretion, in consideration of the great charge which the sheriff is at in keeping, carrying, and recarrying his Prisoners, and so keeping many servants, to convey and attend them, for danger of escape; And so it seemeth the sheriff shall have of every Prisoner which is acquitted of felony, xx. s. called a bar fee.

Also where a Gaoler shall convey or carry a Prisoner into the Kings Bench, about a Writ of Error, to reverse an Attalpy, he shall have for his labour by the discretion of the Court, and it is out of the statute.

21 H. 7. 17. Si vicont ou Gaoler prist del prisoner son toge, ou autre garment, ou argent extra son burse, maugre son teste, ceux sont extra casum statuti, nec sont extortion, mes un trespass; pur recovery de que le prisoner peut aver action, & recover le value in damages.

If a man be committed to the Gaol for 2 several felonies, and be after discharged, he shall pay but one fee, for the Gaolers attendance was upon one person: and if the Gaoler shall take any more than one fee, it seemeth to be extortion: see 26. Ass. P. 47. B. Fees. 8.

The Sheriff or Gaoler shall take no fee of the Constable or Town, which shall bring or send a Prisoner to the Gaol for felony. 4 E. 3. Cap. 10.

A servant committed to the Gaol for departing from his Master, or for refusing to serve according to the statute of laborers made 5. Elizab. the Sheriff or Gaoler is to take no fee of him upon his delivery. 5. Eliz. Cap. 4.

34 H. 6. f. 42 If a man that is attainted of trespass do come into the Court, and prayeth to make his fine to the King, and offereth pledges for his fine, if the Gaoler (or other keeper of the prison) do take any fees of him it is Extortion, for that he came in gratis, and out of Ward, and yielded himself to the Court: but if there be process awarded against him for his laid fine, and he taken thereby, then he must pay his fees to the Gaoler, &c. and there it is no Extortion, for that he came in by compulsion, and not willingly, P. R. 9.

24 E. 3. f. 4. Br. fees 18. The Sheriff prescribed to have xl. s. per an of l. s. and his Ancestors for holding his Court at D. for the case of the Defendant and his Tenants, for which sum he distrained, and by the Court it was holden that the Sheriff could not prescribe, for that he is an officer removable yearly, and therefore the taking of that sum was Extortion.

Sheriffs and their officers shall receive all Writs without taking any fee. 2. E. 3. c. 5.

Sheriffs and Gaolers shall receive felons without taking any thing. &c. 4. E. 3. c. 10.

And if Sheriffs, their Officers, or Gaolers shall otherwise do, it seemeth to be Extortion.

23 H. 6. c. 9. l. 1. 495. No Sheriff, Under Sheriff, Bailiff of Franchise, nor any other for Arrest.*

Bailiff, by occasion, or under colour of his office, shall take any other thing, by themselves, or by any other person, to their use, or profit of any person by them arrested, or attached, nor of any other for them, for the omitting of any arrest, or attachment, to be made by their bodies, or of any person by any of them by force or colour of their Office, arrested or attached, for fine, fee, mainprize, letting to bail, or for shewing any case or labour to any such person so arrested, for their reward or profit, but such as hereunder follow.

The fees allowed them by statute are these :

Upon an Arrest, or Attachment.	for the Sheriff.	xx. d.
	for the Bailiff who maketh the Arrest or Attachment.	iiij. d.
	for the Gaoler, if the Prisoner be committed to his Ward.	iiij. d.
	for any Obligation for appearance, if the Prisoner be bailed.	iiij. d.
for any Warrant making.		iiij. d.

And yet the use at this day is, that for any Warrant made upon any Writ, if the Warrant be directed to the ordinary bailiff, or bailiff of the Hundred, then for every name the Sheriff, &c. taketh iiij. d. But if the Warrant be made to a special Bailiff, then they use to take for every name ij. s. whereas there is no fee due to the Sheriff untill the arrest be made.

Also for the Copy of the Warrant, they use to take iiij. d.

Quære, how these two last be warrantable,

If the bailiff of a franchise shall arrest one by a Capias to him directed from the Sheriff, the Bailiff of the franchise shall have but iiij. d. and the Sheriff xx. d. and the Gaoler iiij. d. 23. H. 6. 10. Crompt. 58.

They are to take nothing for the making of any pannel, sub pena 40. pound, and to yield treble damages to the party grieved. 23. H. 6. cap. 10.

But for the Copy of a Pannel they are to take iiij. d.

pannel.*

And yet for the Return of the Pannel they use to take two shillings, but it seemeth to be extortion by the opinions of Master Lamb. fol. 415. and of Master Crompton fol 205. b. and the words of the statute of 23. H. 6. shew as much, the words whereof be thus: The Sheriff, Under-sheriff, Sheriffs-Clerk, Steward, or Bailiff of franchise, servant to the Bailiff, or Coroner, shall not take any thing by colour of their office, by him, nor by any other person to his use, of any person, for the making of any Return, or Pannel. And yet see the Sheriffs Oath. 27. Eliz. cap. 12. that seemeth to allow two shillings for the impannelling or returning of a Jurp, Ideo quære.

Ibidem.

Other Fees belonging also to Sheriffs, or at least claimed and taken by them, as appeareth in Mr. Powel.

First for the Executing of these Writs following, the Sheriff (it seemeth) may take, as he and the parties can agree.

Sc. for the Executing, &c.
 Of a Writ to Enquire of Damages.
 Of a Writ to Enquire of Waste.
 Enquirp upon an Elegit.
 And so it seemeth in all Cases where the Sheriff is to make any Inquisition.
 Also to Execute a Statute.
 Of an Habere facias Seisinam.
 Of an Habere facias Visum.
 A Writ of Right.
 A Writ de Particione facienda.
 For removing the Surcharge of Common, &c.
 The Writ of forcible Entre, or holding with force, where the party is to be Restored.
 For Execution of a Judgment, super breve de Dote.

For these the Sherriff may take, as he and the parties can agree.

The fees for Returns, &c.

Of every Capi Corpus.	iiij.d.
Of a Nihil.	iiij.d.
Of a Non est inventus.	iiij.d.
Of a Proclamation.	xij.d.
Of a Venire facias.	xij.d.
Of an Habeas Corpus.	ij.s.iiij.d.
Of a Distringas.	ij.s.iiij.d.
Of a Recordare.	ij.s.

Of a Distring. nuper vic.	ij.s.
Of Mandavi Ballivo Libertatis.	iiij.d.
Of an Exigent, &c. for every name returned outlawed	iiij.d.
Of Non est inventus, upon an At- tachment out of the Chancery.	ij.s.

And yet the words of the Statute of 23 H. 6. c. 10. are thus, Et que les viscount, Soutbric, Clerk del Viscount, seneschal, ou bailiff del franchise, seruant ou bailiffe, ne Coroner, preigne per colour de son Office, &c. d'ascun person pur le faisour de ascun Retorne, ou Pannel, ascun chose; Et pur le Coppy du Pannel forsque iiij. d. Yet it seemeth that use and custom hath thence allowed them divers fees. See the Statute of 34 H. 8. cap. 26. hic postea.

But Co. L. 368. b. saith, That they cannot take any thing, but where, and so far as the Statutes have allowed to them.

Also for a Replevin by plepnt in the County Court ij.s.iiij.d. then use to take.

For the serving of the same Replevin.

For the allowance of a Superedeas iiij. d. and if it be after the return of the Exigent. xij. d.

If any Sheriff, or any their Officers, shall take any fees, &c. contrary to the said Statute of 23 H. 6. cap. 10. they shall loose to the party grieved his treble damages, and besides shall forfeit forty pound to the King, and Informer, or other party that will sue for the same.

Le forfeiture.

Le forfeiture.

Corporations.

Liberties.

But this former Statute of 29 El. extends not to any fees to be taken for any execution done within any City or Town corporate.

Note, that Bailiffs, Stewards, and other Ministers within Liberties shall have like fees, and like punishments for extortion, as Sheriffs and their Officers have out of Liberties. 27 H. 8. c. 7.

But if the Sheriff shall arrest any man upon a Capias ad Satisfaciendum within a franchise (as he may,) quere in such case whether the Sheriff, or the Bailiff of the franchise shall have the fee; for the former Statute of 29 Eliz. c. 4. speaketh as well of Bailiffs of franchises, as of the Sheriff; And it were a wrong to the Lord and Bailiff of the Liberty, if the Sheriff should have the fee in such case.

The Sheriff or his Officer arresteth one, who at the same time hath (in his purse, &c.) a Superedeas out of the Chancery, which he delivereth to the Officer after the arrest, yet the Officer shall have his fee. 21 H. 6. fol. 20. Fitz. Retor. de vic. 16.

Proclamation.

Their farms.

For making proclamation at the Church doze upon an Exigent, 32 Eliz. 31 &c. the Sheriff is to have 12. d.

Also it seemeth, that there are due or belonging to the Office of a Sheriff (or that Sheriffs have in farm) certain other fees, Annuities, Rents, Farms, Issues, Fines, Amercements, Escheats, Estreats, and other casual Revenues and Profits. See the Book 20 H. 7. f. 12. Tosts case vers. Cromer, and the usual Indentures made between the Sheriff and his Under Sheriff.

Profits in Tonne le

By the Statute made 1 E. 4. c. 2. all presentments and indictments taken by the Sheriffs in their Tonnage, shall be delivered to the Justices of Peace to proceed upon, who after shall estreat all fines and amercements set upon such offenders (as were indicted or presented in the Tonnage) and shall deliver such estreats by indenture (to the present Sheriff, &c.) to the use and profit of him which was Sheriff at the time of the taking of such presentments or indictments. And the said (old) Sheriffs shall have to their own proper use the benefit of all such fines and amercements so estreated.

Quere the certainty what the other profits of the Tonnage are, which the Sheriffs are to have.

Q. Elizabeth during the vacancy of a Sheriffwick, granted (by her letters patents under the great seal) to one, the office of the Clerk of the County Court, withall the fees, &c. during his life, and after a Sheriff was chosen and made of the same County, and upon question made thereof, the Queens grant was adjudged to be void, for that the County Ct, & the entering of all the proceedings therein, are incident to the Sheriffs office, and so of the Sheriffs Cozne; and therefore the Sheriff is to appoint Clerks under him, both in his County Court, and Cozne, such as he will answer for.

In the County Court.

And Law and reason both requires that the Sheriff, who is a publick officer and Minister of Justice, and who hath an office of so great Eminency, confidence, peril and charge, ought to have all rights appertaining to his office, And also ought to be favoured in Law before any private person, &c. Co. 4. 33.

The Sheriff is also to have all Amerciaments assessed or set upon offenders in the County Court. Whereof See hic cap. 115.

The Sheriff is also to have for the Entering of Pleyns, Proses, Pless, and Judgements in the County Court, the fees due and accustomed.

By the statute made añ 34. Their Accompt.

By the Stat. de Scaccario made 51. H. 3. Sheriffs shall come to the proffer (and make their accompts and paym^{ts}) in the Elchequer twice in the year, sc. the moztow after St. Michael, and the moztow after the Uras (oꝛ Octaves) of Easter.

Quere If this coming to the proffer, and making of Accompt in the Elchequer, must not be, oꝛ was not heretofore by the High Sheriff himself personallp, The Sheriff may make his Accompt (oꝛ proffers) by an Atturney; to which purpose there is a Writ in the Register fol. 139. de Attur^{at}. Vicecomitis pro profero faciendo, admittendo. By which Writ also it appeareth, that thet proffers (oꝛ this thei^r Accompt) should be, ad Craftinum Sancti Michaelis, & ad octabas Paschæ, &c.

Also if there be cause the Sheriff may have a Writ (to the Treasurer and Barons) foze the respitting of his Accompt, until some other day oꝛ time. Registr. 139.

And by the stat. of 5. R. 2. cap. 11. The Accompts in the Elchequer shall be more speedilp heard, made, and ingrossed, than they were wont befoze times; Saving that the parcels of the same Accompts be made as fullp as they were wont to be in times past.

No Sheriff shall be charged with any issues to be levied, noꝛ shall levp any befoze they pass out of the Elchequer, by the Estreats of the Justices there to be levped (And by those Estreats everp head shall be charged foze issues forfeited like as foze Amercements) And if any Sheriff will answer foze the issues of any Recognisoz, Pledge, oꝛ Mainpernour by him undertaken and returned (into the Court) which at the time of the return is not able to pay such issues oꝛ ameracements, the Sheriff shall be charged, and shall answer therefore in the Elchequer. And the Sheriff shall shall make Tallies (or Acquittances) to every one, of every sum of money which they shall receive, &c. 27 Ed. 1. cap. 2.

And yet all Fines, Amercements, Issues, Forfeitures, and Penalties whatsoever, arising before the Justices of Peace at their Sessions, are to be estreated by the Clerk of the Peace (out of the Records of the Justices) and to be indented by him, and then to be delivered, one part to the Sheriff to levy the sum there- by, and the other part to be certified to the Barons of the Exchequer; And the Sheriff is accomptable for the same in the Exchequer, upon those Estreats so certified, into the Exchequer. Stat.

14. R. C. 11.

Also upon Process, or Estreats, directed to him out of any o- ther his Majesties Courts, the Sheriff is to levy the Kings Monies, Fines, and Amercements, &c. Wilk. 35.

The time.

But now it seemeth that as well High-Sheriffs, as Under-Sheriffs (of most Shires) in Hillary-Term next after they are out of Office, are sworn to yield up and give a just and true Accompt to the King, and his Officers of the Exchequer, of all such duties, perquisites, and profits whatsoever (happening within the time, or compals of their Office) which are due and belonging to the King, and chargeable upon them to answer for by reason of their Office. See the Statutes 51 H. 3. de Scaccario. Statut' de Rutland 10 E. 1. R. 2. cap. 5. & 5. R. 2. cap. 11. for what things they are accomptable.

It seemeth that Sheriffs may make their Accompts by Attur- ney, or may relpit it by the Kings Writ. See Registr. fol. 139. a. a Writ de Attornato vicecom' pro Profero faciendo admittendo.

*The form of the Oath of a Sheriff for the passing

YOU shall swear that you shall yield unto the Kings Majesty that now is, a true and lawful Accompt of the Issues and Profits of your said Office of Sherivalty in his Majesties Counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon, due unto his Majesty from the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel in the Twentieth year of his Majesties Reign, until the same Feast now last past (which is for one whole year) And in the same Accompt you shall make true answer of all Felons goods, Out-lawed mens goods, Attainted mens goods, Weyffs, Estrayes, and all other profits whatsoever which hath come to your hands, your Under-sheriffs hands, or any of your Bailiffs, Officers, or Ministers hands, by reason of your said Office. And in the same Accompt you shall charge your self with all such sums of Money, as you, your Under-sheriff, or any of your Bailiffs or Officers for you have levied or law- fully might have levied to his Majesties use. And in the same Ac- compt you shall make no Petition, ask no Allowance nor Discharge, but such as shall be good and true. And that you do deliver a true De- claration of the Viscountiells, declaring of whom and where you do receive, and wherefore, all such sums of Money contained in the same. And well and truly behave your self in yielding the same Accompt, as a true Accomptant ought to do without Omission or Concealment. So help you God.

By the Stat. 1 E. 3. stat. 2. cap. 4. The Accompt of Sheriffs and o- ther such Ministers shall be accepted after the points of their oath.

And by the opinion of Blage (one of the Barons of the Exche- quer) Ann. 6. H. 8. the Sheriff is not accomptable for the goods of felons, fugitives, and the like, save in a gross sum for the farm of the profits of the County. Kiel. fol. 173.

Neither is the Sheriff accountable for other the profits of the County, save in a sum in gross. Ut supra ibid.

Now what the profits of the County be. See hic cap. 3.

If any fines or Amercements (called Mulctæ) be let or assessed in any of the Kings Courts upon any man; or any arrearages of Accompts (called Reliqua) of such things as is of Customs, Taxes, Subsidies, Tenths, Quinziesims, and the like, the Sheriff of the Shire doth gather them up, and is accountable in the Exchequer for the same: But for the ordinary Rents of the Kings Lands, and most commonly for the Taxes, Subsidies, Customs, Tenths, and Quinziesims, there be particular Receivers and Collectors, which do gather up, and answer the same into the Exchequer. Smith de Repub. 59.

By the Statute 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 4. every Sheriff by himself his Attorney or Deputy, shall be sworn at his day of prefixion (when he shall answer before the Lord Treasurer, and Barons, &c.) to bring and deliver into the Exchequer, Rolls of parchment of all such particular sums of money which he hath, or might have levied, making mention of what person, of what Lands, and for what cause every of the said sums be levied.

This day of prefixion sameth to be the day in or at which the Sheriff, by his Bond entered in the Exchequer, standeth bound to appear there to account for the charge of his Office.

The Under-Sheriff, or his Deputy, is to attend unto, and to answer all the Opposals in the Courts of Exchequer, Kings Bench, Court of Wards, and other his Majesties Courts, when & where the Sheriff shall be opposed, called or examined; so that the High Sheriff, his Heirs, Executors, &c. and his and their lands & goods may be discharged of and from all fines and amercements.

What other things they shall be accountable for, appeareth in part here before, tit. Franchises, Rents, Farms, Debts, Issues, Amercements, Fines, and Forfeitures: But yet for pour better satisfaction, the experience and course of the Exchequer is to be learned.

The course of the Exchequer is said to be thus, sc. That so soon as a Sheriff hath entered into his account (for issues, amercements, or mean profits for intrusions and alienations without Licence) to mark upon his head, O Ni. which is as much as, Oneratur Nisi habeat sufficientem exonerationem, &c. and presently he is thereby become the Kings Debtor, and a Debt set upon his head: And so soon as the Sheriff is become the Kings Debtor of Record ut supra, presently are the other parties become Debtors to the Sheriff, and the Sheriff in that case shall cause the Debt to be levied against those particular persons by a Constat. Kiel. 187.

But where it is King by Parliament shall pardon all Issues, Amercements, and Intrusions, &c. if the Sheriff after such pardon shall enter into his Account, without taking advantage of the pardon, here he is chargeable to the King by his own folly, and the particular persons are at liberty, and shall have advantage of the pardon, &c. Ibidem.

It seemeth that Sheriffs shall not be accountable but for their own times, and for the year of their Sherifwick only; neither shall they be charged, in or upon their account, with any arrearages or duties due to the King by any of their predecessors, in the said office of Sherifwick. See the Stat. 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 34. But quære if this Statute extend not only in the Sheriffs of Northumberland.

Sheriffs

Sheriffs how they shall be charged upon their Accompt in the Elchequer, with the ancient farms and Rents of the Countiees. See hic cap. 9.

Sheriffs shall not be charged with any other Issues than those for which they shall have Warrant under the Seal of the Elchequer. Hic cap. 11.

In all cases of lands where the Office is found before the Elcheator, there the Elcheator is chargeable: But where the Office is found before Commissioners, there the Sheriff shall be charged upon his Accompt; yet but according to the pearly value which is found by the Office, and no further. Keil. 172. 173.

The manner of their Accompt: See Mr. Wilkensons Book of the Office of a Sheriff, fol. 36. 37.

What allowances they shall have upon their Accompt, see more the Statutes of Rutland, made 10 E. 1. & 4 H. 5. c. 2.

And besides learn the use and course at this day.

All Sheriffs shall have such taples of Edward, & other allowances, as they have heretofore had: And they shall be discharged upon their Accompts in the Elchequer of such sums of money which they cannot leavy. 3 E. 6. 4.

What these Taples be, see D^r. Cowel, verbo Tailles.

By the Statute 5 R. 2. c. 13. if an Accomptant, being Pihilled, will swear that he oweth nothing to the king, he shall be thereupon discharged.

By the Statute 1 H. 4. c. 11. Sheriffs shall have allowance by their Oath, of the Issues of their Countie.

Also by the Statute 4 H. 5. c. 2. Sheriffs shall have allowance upon their Accompts by their Oaths, of things casual, &c. But not of such things as run in pearly Farms, or pearly Demands.

Sheriffs also shall have allowance for the wages of the Justices of Peace at their Quarter-sessions; but the Sheriffs allowance herein is but iij. s. a day apiece for eight Justices: And herein the Sheriff is often wronged by the Clerk of the peace of the same Countie, who receiveth all the Fines, and payeth the wages, and if there be any surplussage, puts it in his own purse, &c. Wilk. 39. Vide hic cap. 90. & 99.

And they shall have allowance for their charges and expences which they sustain by the Justices of Assise dyet, and by other means. 3 E. 6. c. 4. 34 H. 8. 16.

For the ordinary charges of the Sheriffs Accompt, see a particular thereof in Mr. Wilkensons said Book, fol. 38, 39, 40, & 41.

But besides those ordinary charges, the extraordinary fees and charges of passing the Sheriffs Accompts seem to be such, and the business it self so tedious, as it troubleth them all (be they never so skilful therein:) which thing requireth a redress, considering that the Under-Sheriffs, or Officers upon whom this burthen lieth, are thereby not only stripped themselves of almost whatsoever they shall justly or honestly save in their Offices, but are also enforced thereby to extort and wring from the Subjects to make themselves labers.

None of the Sheriffs of the countiees of Surry and Suffex, Essex and Hertford, Somerset and Dorset, Warrwick and Leicester, Nottingham and Derby, Oxon and Berks: (being sometimes joyned) shall pay in any Court of Record, for any duty belonging properly to the Office of a Sheriff, any other fees or charges, than only the one half of the charges and fees which he should have payed if he had been Sheriff of two of the said Shires, as formerly was used, led; And their Charges, and Rewards, &c. shall be divided.

8 Eliz. cap. 16. & 13. Eliz. cap. 22.

Sheriffs having their Quietus est, they, their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, Lands, Tenements, Goods, and Chattels, shall be absolutely discharged of their Accompts, (sc. of all manner of sum or sums of money which they shall have levied, or received, and shall be pretended not to be accounted for, &c.) unless such Sheriff shall be called in question for the same within four years after the time of their account and Quietus est. Statute 21 Jac. Regis. cap. 5.

And every Officer that shall send out any Process, or by whose default any Process shall be sent out contrary to the former Statute, shall for every such offence forfeit to the party grieved forty pounds, and besides pay costs and damages; the same to be recovered in the Kings Bench, or Court of Common Pleas.

Now this Quietus est must be a full discharge out of the Kings Majesties Court of Exchequer, as well of his gran War and Pipe silver, as also for, and upon Acculants Lands, Seisures, and for all other Debts, Duties, and Demands, which are, shall, or may be charged in the said Sheriffs Accompts, or which may be imposed, for or by reason of the said Sheriffs office. And the High Sheriff shall do well to bind his Under-Sheriff, to procure, and deliver to him such a Quietus est, within one year after his Office is expired.

Totting.
Nichiling.

Amongst other things, it seemeth behoveful for Sheriffs or Under-Sheriffs, upon the making of their Accompts, to have a special care what they Tot, & whom they Nichil, that is, that they charge or discharge men orderly, honestly, and with understanding; for if they Tot or charge any thing, though it can never be levied, yet it will not hardly be avoided, but it must be payed; and if it be Nichiled, if it be issues of Juroz, though they be never so bad, and cannot be levied, yet betwix the old Sheriff which returned them, and the new Sheriff which Nichiled them, they must be payed, (by the Statute made 27 E. 1. c. 2.) although it be seven years after, 27 E. 1. if there come no pardon in the mean time. And yet where the old Sheriff returneth a Juro in issues, the next Sheriff cannot, nor may not return the same Juro Nihil, contrary to the former return of his Predecessor, by the Book 19 H. 6. Br. Retorne 49. See hicentea fol. 75.

Liter del

But to prevent this, it behoves all Sheriffs before they take upon them to return any Juroz, to get them a true and perfect booke of all the sufficient freeholders names in the Shire, and especially of all those which dwell in the guildable (howsoever they do of those which are in Liberties, but of both is best, that the one may help the other,) and to return few or none that be mean freeholders in the guildable, lest (by the former recited Statute) they be enforced to pay their issues for them; and this they may bring to pass, either by the help of the Justices of Peace in their several divisions, who may cause the Constables of every particular Town, to bring a true Certificate (of the sufficiency of every freeholder within their several Towns) unto the first Sessions (that shall be holden in that County, &c.) after the election of the new Sheriff, to be to him delivered there; or else the new Sheriff himself may cause his Bailiffs to do this within every of their Hundreds or Divisions; and besides the help of the Subsidy Books will not be a little available hereunto.

W. 36.

This word totting or totted, is a word used of a Debt which the forger opposer, or other officer in the Exchequer noteth for a good debt debt to the King, by wyting this word (Tot) unto it. Minsh.

Also this word Nichilling, or Nichil, is a word set upon a Debt by the forein opposer in the Exchequer, when that it is illeivable, or cannot be levied. Ibid.

So that it seemeth, by Totting is understood Charging; and by Nichiling is understood Discharging of the party indebted, &c.

By the stat. 5. R. 2. Cap. 13. The accompts of Nichil in the Exchequer shall be wholly put out; or if any such shall remain, the Accomptants immediately after their Oath taken in the Exchequer that they owe nothing to the King, they shall be discharged, &c.

And there is an Officer in the Exchequer, called the Clerk of the Nichils, who maketh a Roll of all such sums as are Nichilled by the Sheriffs upon their estreats of green War, and delivereth the same in to the Lord Treasurers Remembrancer his Office, to have execution done upon that for the King. Minsh.

Forein opposer, Forinsecarum Oppositor, is an officer in the Exchequer, to whom all Sheriffs and Bailiffs do repair, by him to be opposed of their green War, and from thence draweth down a charge upon the Sheriffs or Bailiffs, to the Clerk of the Pipe. Minsh. & Termes del Ley. Forin opposer.

Now with this foreign Opposer, the Sheriff must either Tot, Nichil, or set over into Liberties all the debts and sums of money contained in the Summons of the green War, and in the extracts of the peace of the County where he was Sheriff: wherein let him be careful first fully to learn which are good debts, and which are not, and which are within Liberties, and which are not, before he come to his Accompt or Opposals, and then to make his Book of all the charge contained in his Summons and Schedules, accordingly. W. 37.

Green War, this word seemeth to be used for the estreats (of the fines and amercements, &c. delivered to Sheriffs out of the Exchequer, under the seal of that Court, to be levied in the County. Ibid. See the Statutes made 42 E. 3. c. 9. & 7 H. 4. c. 3. Green War.

Clerk of the Pipe is an Officer in the Kings Exchequer, who having all accompts and debts due unto the King delivered, and drawn down out of the Remembrancers Officers, chargeth them down into the great Roll; who also writeth summons to the Sheriff to levy the same debts upon the goods and chattels of the said debtors; and if they have no goods, then doth he draw them down to the Lord Treasurers Remembrancer to write extreats against their Lands. The ancient Revenues of the Crown remaine in charge before him, and he saith the same answered by the Farmers and Sheriffs to the King. He maketh a charge to all Sheriffs of their Summons of the Pipe, and green War, and saith it answered upon their Accompts. He also hath the ingrossing of all Leases of the Kings Lands. Ibidem. Clerk of the Pipe.

Also the two Remembrancers shall be sworn to make every Term a Schedule of the names of every one that is discharged in their Offices, by Judgment or otherwise, of any demands containing their discharge, and shall deliver it to the Clerk of the Pipe the same Term, to the intent that the Clerk of the Pipe shall thereof discharge the said parties in the great Roll. Ibid.

Also the said Clerk of the Pipe shall be sworn, that he from Term to Term shall require the same Schedules, and the same by him so received, he shall discharge the said parties in manner aforesaid: And in the same manner the said Clerk of the Pipe shall certify in writing to the said Remembrancers, the discharge made in his Office, to the intent that a man discharged in one place shall be discharged in all other places of the said Exchequer. 5 R. 2. c. 14.

Remem-

Remembrancers of the Exchequer (Rememoratores) be three Officers or Clerks; one called the Kings Remembrancer, Stat. 35. El. c. 5. And another called the Lord Treasurers Remembrancer, upon whose charge it seemeth to lie, that they put all the Justices of that Court (as the Lord Treasurer, and the Barons) in remembrance of such things as are to be called on, and dealt in the Princes behalf. The third is called the Remembrancer of the first Fruits, concerning whom, see the Statute 37 E. 3. c. 4. & 5: R. 2. Stat. 1. c. 14. & 15.

The Kings Remembrancer entreth in his Office all Recognisances taken before the Barons, for any of the Kings debts, for appearances, or for observing of Orders. He also taketh all Bonds for any of the Kings debts, for appearances, and for observing of Orders, and maketh out Proses upon them for the breach of them. He writeth Proses against the Collectors of Customs, Subsidies, and Fifteens, for their Accompts. All informations upon penal Statutes are entered in his Office; and all matters upon English Bills in the Exchequer Chamber are remaining in his Office. He maketh the Bills of Compositions upon penal Statutes; taketh the statements of debts; maketh a Record of the Certificate delivered to him by the Clerks of the Star-chamber of the fines there set, set, and sendeth them to the Pipe. He yearly (in Crastino Animarum) readeth in open Court the statute for the elections of Sheriffs, and giveth those that chuse them their Oaths. Ibidem.

The Treasurers Remembrancer maketh Proses against all Sheriffs, Escheators, Receivers, and Baplifts for their accompts. He maketh Processe of Fieri facias, and extent, for any debts due to the King, either in the Pipe, or with the Auditors. He maketh Proses for all such Revenue as is due to the King by reason of his Tenures: He maketh a Record, whereby it appeareth whether Sheriffs & other accomptants pay their profits due at Easter and Mich. he maketh another Record, whereby it appeareth whether Sheriffs and other accomptants keep their dapes of prefixion, (or dapes, or times appointed:) All estreats of fines, issues, and amerciaments set in any Courts at Westminster, or at the Mises or Sessions are certified into his Office, and are by him delivered to the Clerk of Estreats to write Proses upon them: he hath also brought into his office all the accompts of Customers, Controllers and other accomptants, to make thereof an Entry of Record. Ibid.

The Remembrancer of the first fruits taketh all Compositions for first fruits and tenths, and maketh Proses against such as pay not the same. Ibid.

The Clerk of the Estreats is also a Clerk belonging to the Exchequer who termly receiveth the Estreats out of the Lord Treasurers Remembrancer his Office, and writeth them out to be levied for the King, he also maketh Schedules for such sums estreated as are to be discharged. Ibid.

The word Profers, is the time appointed for the Accompts of Sheriffs and other officers in the Exchequer, which is twice in the year, (Minsh.) læ stat. de Scaccario. 51. H. 3. hic antea. Or else the word Profers may seem to signifie the Accompt it self, or the profits or things for which they are to Accompt.

Note that if the Sheriff shall seise the goods of one that is outlawed, or for other like cause, and when he maketh his accompt, he doth not accompt for the same, &c. it seemeth the owner of the goods may have an action of Trespass against the Sheriff for such seising or taking of his goods, (and shall recover the goods, or the value thereof in damages) for that the Sheriff must plead that he hath accompted for them: and if he shall not accompt for the same, he shall be laid to be a trespassor ab initio, læ 3. H. 7. 3. b. & 21. H. 7. 23. alio læ 18. E. 4. 23. 7. H. 4. 5. & 14. H. 6. 5.

If the Sheriff (or his officers) shall gather or levy the Kings Rents, Debts, or other duties, and shall not accompt for the same in the Exchequer upon his accompt, the Sheriff is liable both to the King, and to the action of the party, &c. besides the danger of his Oath.

And therefore in an action of Trespass a Sheriff for taking the Plt. Cattel, &c. the Sheriff justified that he distrained for Rent due to the King, and that he had accompted for the same Rent in the Exchequer. Liber Intrac. tit. Trespass. But otherwise it is, if the time be not come, wherein the Sheriff is to accompt.

Note, that the high Sheriff is accomptable (for all things belonging to his Office) to the King; And the Under-Sheriff shall pield an accompt to his high Sheriff. 11. R. 2. fitz. Accompt. 48.

For the better help of Sheriffs, I have here again shortly set down their dangers, &c. that so by their care and deligence they may the better prevent and eschew the same.

C A P. 121.

The Dangers, Forfeitures, and Punishments of Sheriffs, for things done, not done or misdome by them, or by their Officers. Cap 123.

Albeit that the care of our Parliaments hath alwayes ben, that choise should be made of such Persons for this Office of the Sheriff, as should be men of good sufficiency, such as might attend to execute this Office (for the good of the king and his people) and such as needed no Reward for their travel and pains in that behalf (as may appear by the severall statutes here before recited,) yet partly in regard of their great charges by them undergone, as well in their attendance and execution of their places, &c. as also of the great sums of mony wherewith they are charged upon their accompts; and partly in regard that it is not possible that the Sheriffs themselves should do execution of all things belonging to their offices, but that they must use the help of divers and sundry other inferior officers and persons therein; therefore the Laws and Statutes of this Realm have not only rewarded the high Sheriffs themselves, but also their inferior officers with some small allowances, avails, and fees, as may appear here before. And on the other side, for that the negligence, remissness, and misdoing of men, put, and placed so highly in trust, if it should not sometimes be corrected by due chastisement or punishment, it would breed not only too much dulness or carelessness in these chief officers themselves, but also much extortion, oppression, and other wrongs, both to the King and his people, from them, but especially from their inferior officers and ministers. Therefore the Laws and Statutes of this Land have likewise inflicted due punishments and pains, not only upon the high Sheriffs themselves, but also upon their inferior officers; and in many cases upon the high Sheriff himself, for the faults and defects of his under officers; as may partly appear here before throughout this book, and more particularly in this that followeth.

And therefore in some cases the Sheriff, &c. shall be amerced, and in some cases shall pay a fine, or forfeit to the King. In other cases he shall be imprisoned; and in some cases may be indicted as an offendor against the King in the highest degree; and in other cases shall be liable to the action of the party grieved, and chargeable to pay his debt or damages.

Escape.

And first note, that the Sheriff of every County shall have the keeping of, and shall be chargeable, and charged with the common Gaol, and Prison of the same County (where he is Sheriff) and with all the Prisoners therein; and must put in such Gaolers for whom they will answer, by the statutes of 14. E. 3. c. 10. & 19. H. 7. c. 10. Co. 4. 34. And therefore the high Sheriff himself shall be answerable for the escape of a Felon, suffered by his Gaoler, and (by some opinions) may be indicted of felony for the same, if the escape suffered by his Gaoler were voluntary. See the Presidents to this purpose in Lamb. v. v. 5. and in West. M. 1.

De felon.

And yet Sir John Savadge being a Sheriff in fee, was (in 5. M.) indicted in the Kings Bench for the escape of two Felons suffered by himself, felonically & voluntarily, &c. and his office was only seised therefore, &c. as it seemeth in Dyer fol. 151. & Keil. 192.

But yet note that Sir John Savadge was not there put to answer, upon the Indictment by way of Arreignment, but upon a Scire Scire Facias, &c. otherwise if he had been arraigned and found guilty, Judgment of death might have been given against him for that Escape. See Keil. 195. 196.

And though he which hath the custody of the Goal, shall be charged with the escapes of Prisoners, yet if he be not sufficient, then respondeat Superior, sc. the Sheriff from whom the Goaler had the custody of the Goal committed to him. Vide Co. 9. 98.

But the D^y. and Student, cap. 42. maketh this difference, sc. where the escape was by negligence, there the Goaler or Sheriff may be charged therewith; but if it were a wilful Escape in the Goaler and so felony, the Sheriff shall not answer to the felony; but then it seemeth he may be fined to the value of his goods, for that the Escape was voluntary. See Stamf. 35. H.

And indeed such an Escape, though wilfully suffered by the Goaler, or other the Sheriffs Officer, without the Sheriffs knowledge or consent, may seem but a negligent Escape in the Sheriff, and so but fineable in the Sheriff, (or a cause to seize his Office being in fee) and to be felony only in the Goaler or Officer, who voluntarily suffered the Escape. See Crompt. 252. b. Dr. & St. 137 & quere inde.

If the Sheriff shall bail and deliver a prisoner, who is in Prison, or under arrest for felony or suspicion of felony, this is a voluntary Escape, and so seemeth to be felony in the Sheriff; Except where he doth it by virtue of the Kings Writ to him directed for that purpose.

If the Sheriff shall keep a prisoner (which is committed for felony) in his own house, quere if this be not an Escape, for that the Goal is the Kings Prison, and there such as be prisoners for matters concerning the King, ought to be kept. See Crompt. 184.

Where a felon is taken prisoner by the Sheriffs Bailiffs in a Town, and in going to the Goal the prisoner escapeth, the Escape shall be adjudged upon the Sheriff, and not upon the Town. 3 E. 3. Fitz. Cor. 337.

By the Statute of 3 E. 1. cap. 9. if any Sheriff for any cause shall conceal any felon done within their County; or shall not attach or arrest such felons within their County, as they may, they shall be imprisoned for one year, and fined at the Kings pleasure.

Felon nient attach.

If any Sheriff or Goaler shall deny to receive any felon, by the delivery of any Constable or Tithing, or shall take any thing for receiving of such, they shall be fined by the Justices, &c. 4 E. 3. cap. 10.

If a felon be arrested by a Constable, and carried to the Goal of the County, and the Goaler will not receive him, and the Constable lettereth him go, and the Goaler also, and so he escapeth, this is an Escape in the Goaler, for that in such case the Goaler is bound to receive him by the hand of the Constable without any precept of the Justice of the Peace: And quere if it shall not be said to be a voluntary Escape, and so felony in the Goaler.

But otherwise it is if a common person arrests another upon suspicion of felony, there the Goaler is not bound to receive him without a precept of some Justice of Peace. Terms del Ley. tit. Escape.

If one be found in arrearages before Auditors, & the Auditors being the Accomptant to the next Goal, and the Goaler will not receive him, the Auditors may let the Accomptant go at liberty, and notwithstanding the Master or Lord of such Accomptant shall have his action of debt against the Goaler, & if he be not able to answer the d. bt, the Sheriff shall be answerable according to the Statute. Lectur.

Every Sheriff ought to certify in a Writ under the names of all their prisoners which be in their Goal for felony, at every Assizes or Goal-delivery, sub poena s. l. hic 143. 144.

Excy money pur Escape

If the Sheriff, or any other, do take or levy any thing for the escape of any felon, before it be adjudged by the Justices in Eyre, Justices of the Kings Bench, or before some other Justices that have authority to enquire thereof, he shall restore to the party, or to him that payed it, as much as he received, and besides as much to the King. Westm' 1. 4. & 31 E. 3. c. 14. Et hic cap. 14. 3 E. 1. c. 4.

*Escape del

If the Sheriff do suffer any Bailiff, Chamberlain, Servant, Receiver, or other Accomptant to go at Liberty, which is committed to prison by Auditors; or if the Sheriff shall bail, or otherwise deliver them without the consent of their Master, the Sheriff shall answer the whole debt or damage which the Master hath sustained by the said Accomptant. 13 E. 1. c. 11.

So if a Goaler shall suffer any such Bailiff, or other Accomptant which is committed to prison by Auditors, to go at liberty, or to escape, if the Goaler be not able to pay and answer the debt, the Sheriff that committed the custody of the Goal unto him, shall be answerable. Ibid.

And so it seemeth in all cases of Escape, the Goaler or Under-officer who hath the actual possession of the Goal or Office, shall answer for all escapes: But if they have not sufficient wherewithal to answer, respondeat Superior, sc. he which committed or granted the custody of the Goal unto him, shall answer it. Co. 9. 98.

If the Sheriff arrest a man by force of a Capias, awarded to bring him at a certain day returnable, if there the plea shall be discontinued by the death of the King, or by the not coming of the Justices, or by any other means, then the Sheriff may suffer the same person so arrested to go at large (of his own authority) for that that Record is determined: But otherwise it is where the Sheriff hath arrested one by force of a Capias ad satisfact', for here the Record always remains. Kiel. 2.

And if a man be taken in Execution upon a Capias ad satisfact', and is committed to the Goal, and the Sheriff suffereth him to make an Escape, the Sheriff is chargeable for the whole Debt, hic fol. 8 50. 56. (Uncore s'il le vic. ne retourne le breise, le Plt. poet aver novel Execution vers le Dettor; & pur ceo le vic. poet forbear de Retorne ceo; & de compound ove le Plt. Co. 3. 52.)

So if his Under-sheriff, or any of his Bailiffs having taken one in Execution, suffereth the prisoner to escape; or if the prisoner of his own wrong breaketh away, or if the prisoner be rescued by strangers: in these cases the Sheriff himself shall be charged for the escape, and shall be chargeable to pay the whole debt: For the act or default of their Under-sheriffs, Deputies, or Bailiffs, shall charge the Sheriff himself. See the Stat. 1 R. 2. c. 12. & 7 H. 4. c. 4. Fitz. 93. c. & Br. Officer 24. & 33. & hic anrea fol.

And it is no good return for the Sheriff, quod mandavit ballivo itineranti, que respondit que il arrest le partie, & rescomest fait, for this was the arrest of the Sheriff himself: And if the arrest were upon a Capias ad satisfaciend', or Capias utlagatum after Judgment, and that a Rescous be made upon the arrest, whereby the party arrested escapes, the Sheriff himself shall be charged for the escape, &c. except it were by the Kings enemies: but if it had been by Bailiff of a franchise, the return had been good, and there a Non omittas should have gone out. Dyer 241.

Note, that in case of such a Rescous, the Sheriff must take his remedy remedy by action of the Case, against them which made the Fel-lous (Dyer. 241.) and they many times little worth, and so the Sheriffs remedy in such case is very easie.

A man attained of Felony and imprisoned for it, brings an action of debt against him, and hath Judgment and Execution against A. and after A. got his pardon, and the Gaoler suffered him to go at large, whereupon C. brought an action of Debt against the Sheriff for the escape, and it was judged maintain-able: so that notwithstanding that A. were attained, yet he was also in Execution for the Debt. This was one Crofts case, and so adjudged in the Exchequer tempore Eliz. Rñs.

Now what other acts shall be said to be an escape, which shall charge the Sheriff.

204.b.

The Sheriff or his Officers, have one in execution for debt, and after carrieth the prisoner into another County to talk and take order with his creditors, this is an Escape. Vide Dyer. 296.

Crom.
206.a.

The Sheriff, &c. having one in execution for debt, takes bonds of the prisoner, and of divers others, to pay the said debt or sum at a certain day, to the Sheriffs son, or other friend, and then lets the prisoner go at large, this is an Escape.

The Sheriff upon a Capias ad satisfac' returneth a Cepi corpus, but hath not the body at the day, &c. he is chargeable for an Escape, hic 69. 82.

So if upon a Fieri fac' he returneth Fieri Feci, but hath not the mony at the day, he is chargeable for the mony, hic 69.

The Sheriff (or his Officers) arresteth one upon a Capias ad

The Sheriff, &c. hath one in execution for debt, and then licenseth the prisoner to go at liberty for a time, and then to return, who returneth accordingly at his day, yet this is an Escape. Co.

If the Sheriff, &c. shall suffer the prisoner (which is in upon an execution) to go at large, although it be by bail, or mainprise, or by basket (sc. with a keeper) before the prisoner hath agreed for his debt, this is an Escape: for such prisoners ought to be kept in salva & arcta custodia. See the statutes 1. Rich. 2. cap. 12. & 7.
Hen. 4. cap. 4. & Co. 3. 43. 44. & Plo. 36. 37.

See Dyer. fol. 278. where a man being in execution for debt in the Marshalsey, was suffered by Gawdy Deputy of the Prison (under the Duke of N. Marshal of England) to go into Norff.

ed again to the Prison at the day assigned, the plt. brought his action of debt against Gawdy, upon this escape, and it was adjudged against Gawdy, and the plt. recovered, &c.

Note, that by Law, a prisoner who is in upon an Execution, ought not to be suffered to go at large or at his liberty, neither within the prison, nor without the prison, although it be with his keeper. And anno 24. H. 8. in the Star-Chamber, all the keepers of Prisons in London were enjoined upon pain of 100. l. not to suffer any of their prisoners to go at liberty, within or without the Prison, Dyer. 249.

But

But if a Prisoner who is in upon an execution, shall of his own head and wrong go at liberty, and after shall return again, and shall yield himself Prisoner, or shall be taken again by the Sheriff or Officer upon fresh lute (before any action be brought by the Plaintiff against the escape) this is no escape. And so if one in execution for debt, shall of his own wrong escape into another County, and the Sheriff or his Officers shall there take him again upon fresh lute, and before any action brought, &c. this is no Escape.

If one in execution for debt, be set at large by the act of any of the Kings Courts, (sc. by the Kings writ from out of any of the Kings Courts) this is no Escape which shall charge the Sheriff, except it be in some special cases. See 38. E. 3. fol. 8. & 2. E. 4. 8. Crompt. 215. & hic fol. 58.

See the case of a Burgess of the Parliament delivered by a Writ of Privilege, &c. Dyer, fol. 60. & hic cap. 21.

So if the Sheriff or Gaoler shall suffer his prisoner who is condemned in arrerages before Auditors, to escape, or shall deliver him upon a Writ de Homine repleg' or otherwise without assent of his Master, the Sheriff or his Gaoler shall pay the Debt, hic cap. 21. & Dr. & St. 134.

If any Sheriff, &c. shall enter into their books, any complaints (for debt, trespass, or covenant, &c.) in any mans name, not being present at the Court, either in his own person, or by his sufficient and honest Attorney or Deputy: 11 H. 7. c. 15.

Or shall enter any more complaints, than the Plaintiff suppoeth that he hath cause of action for:

Or if the Sheriff shall suffer the Plaintiff to enter more than one complaint, for one trespass, debt, contract, or cause:

Or if the Sheriff shall not cause the Plaintiff to find pledges to pursue his said complaint, sc. such persons as are known there in that County:

Or if the bailiff of the Hundred shall make default in Warning, or Executing any Warrant against any Defendant in the Sheriffs Court:

Or if the bailiffs, or other person shall gather the Sheriffs Amerciements (or Shire Amerciements) without a book or estreats Indented between the Sheriff, & two Justices of Peace, &c.

Or if the bailiffs, or gatherers of the Sheriffs Amerciements shall take, or gather more money than is forfeited and contained in such Estreats.

Every Sheriff, bailiff, and other officer, offending in the premises, and being thereof lawfully convicted, &c. shall forfeit to the King forty shillings for every such default.

If any Sheriff, or any other, shall bail, or let any go at large by by surety, that is notailable, if he be Sheriff, or Officer of the fee, Bailment. he shall lose his fee and Office for ever! and if they be not Officers of the fee, whosoever they be, they shall be fined by the Justices of Goal delivery. 3 E. 1. c. 15. 27 E. 1. c. 3. If any Sheriff, &c. shall detain, or shall not bail or deliver a Prisoner that isailable, after that the Prisoner hath offered sufficient surety, he shall be grievously amerced to the King, by the statute 3 Ed. 1. c. 15. And by the former statute of 23 H. 6. he shall lose treble damage to the party, and forty pound to the King and in former.

And if any Sheriff, &c. shall take any reward for the deliverance of any such as areailable, he shall pay double to the prisoner, and shall be in the mercy of the King.

If the Sheriff will not obey a lawful Superseas, but will arrest the party, &c. an action of faux imprisonment lieth, &c.

So if the Sheriff, (or other Officer) hath taken the party before the Superseas came to his hands, and then will not deliver him.

Sheriffs, and their Officers are also punishable for extortion Extortion in taking any fees more than their due, see hic fol.

And if they take any fees, &c. contrary to the stat. of 23 H. 6. they shall lose to the party grieved his treble damages, and besides shall forfeit forty pound to the King, &c. Ibid.

Note that this Extortion in Sheriffs and other Officers is the greater offence, in that it is not only contrary to their Oaths, and so perjury in them, but also it is a kind of Robbery committed by them, by colour of their Office, and as a great loss to the Kings subjects (by them so wronged) as to steal their goods from them.

If an Officer cometh to a man, and telleth him that he is outlawed, when the Officer knoweth that he is not outlawed, and by colour thereof the Officer taketh his goods, this is felony, by the opinion of Mr. Cock in his Reading.

So if the Sheriffs officer shall levy any duty for the King without warrant. Ibidem.

And yet there seemeth a difference where the Officer hath authority by reason or colour of his office, and exceeds his authority, there it is but extortion and fineable; as where the Sheriff or officer hath a precept to levy xx. pound of the goods of I. S. and he levieth lx. pound, this is extortion: But where he hath no Authority it shall not there be intended that he doth that by colour of his office, but in such case it is felony in the officer. Ibid.

And again this difference may be taken, sc. where the officer without Warrant or Authority shall levy any duty for the King, and shall after account for the same in the Exchequer, or otherwise pay the same to the Kings use, there the officer seemeth chargable but as a Trespasser; but if he shall convert the same to his own private, or proper use, there it is felony.

Sheriffs ought to array their Pannels for the Assises, six days before, &c. sub poena forty pound. Just.

Also they shall deliver Copies indented of such pannels as they return for Trials, to each party demanding the same, upon pain of forty pound. See hic cap. 85.

If the Sheriff shall not return Pannels, as they be reformed by the Justices, they shall forfeit twenty pound. hic ibid.

If any Sheriff, or any of his Officers, shall return upon any Juror, any of their officers or servants, they shall lose to the party grieved treble damages, and shall also forfeit forty pound to the King and Informer. 23 H. 6. c. 10. hic cap. 85.

If any Sheriff &c. shall return upon any Juror, any person that is decrepit, or diseased; or such as dwell out of the County; or men insufficient, or laborers, &c. they shall yield damages to the party grieved, and be amerced to the King: See hic cap. 85.

If any Sheriff shall return upon any Juror, any persons suspected and of evil fame, and be thereof convicted, they shall be punished by the Judges of the Waste, &c. 20 E. 3. c. 6.

If any Sheriff, &c. shall take any reward to spare any Juror, or for not warning, or not returning of any person to be sworn as a Juror, &c. they shall forfeit five pound to the King and informer, 27 Eliz. c. 6.

If any Sheriff, &c. shall return any Juror without a true addition of his dwelling, &c. he shall forfeit five marks to the King, and five marks to the party grieved. 27 Eliz. c. 7. vide hic c. 85.

They shall forfeit twenty shillings for every hundreder, if six be not returned, &c. hic cap. 85.

They shall forfeit five pound, if they take any reward, &c. to spare any Juror, hic cap. 86.

They shall forfeit twenty pound for not returning sufficient Jurors to enquire of Riots, hic cap. 87.

17. 11.

If any Sheriff, &c. shall levy any issues without warrant, &c. he shall yield treble damages to the party grieved, and be fined to the King, hic cap. 90.

If the Sheriff, &c. shall return issues upon one who is not sufficient, he himself shall be charged therewith, see hic cap.

If the Sheriff, &c. shall return any Juror, or any issues upon any Juror, &c. who was not lawfully summoned, &c. he shall lose to the Juror double so much as the issues lost by such Juror, &c. hic cap. 90.

If the Sheriff, &c. shall not return due issues upon every Juror, the Sheriff shall forfeit five pound in some cases, and in some cases twenty pound, and in other forty pound, hic Return of Issues.

If the Sheriff, &c. shall levy any issues, other than of such persons as of right are chargeable, he shall forfeit five marks to the King, and five marks to the party, hic cap.

If the Sheriff, &c. shall return too small issues upon the Defendant; or shall return no issues, he shall be amerced, &c. Fitz. Amercement 3. Br. 86.

If any High Sheriff shall exercise his Office before he hath taken his Oaths, &c. he shall be fined in the Star Chamber, and be imprisoned, &c. hic fol.

If any Under Sheriff, or other the Sheriffs Officers, &c. shall exercise their offices, before they have taken their oaths, &c. they shall forfeit forty pound, &c. to the King and Informer, hic fol. 175.

If any Under Sheriff, or other Sheriffs Officers, &c. shall do or commit any act or thing contrary to their oaths, they shall lose to the party grieved treble damages. 27 Eliz. c. 12. hic 175.

If the High Sheriff shall not perform his Oath concerning his his office, it seemeth he is fyncable in the Star-Chamber. See hic fol.

If any Sheriff shall let or farm his County, or any of his Bailiwick, he shall forfeit forty pound to the King and informer, &c. 73 H. 6. c. 10. fol. Besides his danger to be punished in the Star-Chamber for perjury. Their Office

If any Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Sheriff's Clerk, shall abide in their Office above one year, they shall forfeit to the King and informer two hundred pound, hic fol.

If any Sheriff or Under-Sheriff, which hath been so by one whole year, shall be in that place again within three years next ensuing, they shall forfeit, &c. two hundred pound.

If the Sheriff be not resident within his County, he is punishable, except he hath the Kings Licence to that purpose.

If the Sheriff shall not appoint Deputies in every Court at Westminster, before he return any writ, he shall forfeit forty pound to the King, &c. and treble damages to the party grieved. hic fol.

If he shall not appoint four Deputies (at the least) in his County to make Alepuries, he shall forfeit to the King, for every month, &c. five pound, hic fol.

If he shall not put in sufficient sureties (by Recognisance) in the Eschequer, &c. before he exerciseth any part of his Office he shall forfeit one hundred pound. See hic fol.

If he shall neglect to execute his office, by reason of resistance; or shall return that he could not execute the Kings Process for resistance, he shall be amerced, hic fol. 19. 136.

If the Sheriff shall not enter a Franchise to execute the Kings Process, where there is default in the Bailiff of the Franchise, the Sheriff shall lose to the party grieved double damages. See hic fol.

If the Sheriff shall not in every behalf execute the Kings Process or other Warrant directed to him, he shall be punished. As If the Sheriff shall remove a force, and shall not imprison the Offenders, here for not performing all which he is commanded by the writ or precept, he shall be punished. Crompt. 73.

If the Sheriff shall serve part of the Process, viz. he shall distress certain Jurores, and shall command the Bailiff of the Franchise, to distress the other, he shall be amerced, for the commandment was entire. 19 H. 6. fol. 38. Vide hic cap. 39.

If the Sheriff shall do more than he is commanded by the Kings Writ, he is also punishable. Crompt. 74. & 162.

As if the Sheriff shall remove a force upon the writ of Northampton, and shall put the party (put out) in possession again, he shall be therefore punished in the Star-Chamber; for he had no authority by the writ but only to remove the force. ibid.

or shall not show the Process of the Eschequer, for the leaping of the Kings debt, upon demand.

or shall not deliver the distresses, the party offering sufficient sureties, &c. before the return of the writ:

Dyer 61. Crompt. Author des Courts 9. 10.

And yet if one that is outlawed shall be of the Parliament House, and a Capias utlagatum be sued out against him, and delivered to the Sheriff, he may safely arrest him thereupon; for this writ is, quod non Omittas propter aliquam libertatem, so that the party outlawed cannot be discharged thereof by any liberty or privilege (for he which is out of the Law, and out of the protection of the Law, cannot have the Privilege of the Law.) But a person privileged by being of the House, cannot be arrested by a writ or upon a writ of execution, or the like. Per Anderson & Periam Justices Ter. Hill. 31 Eliz.

So where the Sheriff shall do a thing by the commandment of the Justices he is excusable. Fitz. Aulse 373.

The abuses practised by some Sheriff, Under-sheriffs, and Bailiffs.

Sheriffs have obtained often times upon their accompts, outrageous allowance, under pretence of the Kings works and businesses. Stat. 51. H. 3. Accompts ⁴ They have (for reward, prayer, fear, or affinity) concealed Felons: Or have neglected to attach them. 3. E. 1. c. 9. Felons.

They have procured Prisoners to become approvers, &c. to appeal harmlesse and guiltlesse people of felonies; thereby either to get ransom of such appealed persons, for fear of imprisonment; Or else out of malice, or other cause: See the statute 13. E. 1. cap. 12. & 1. E. 3. cap. 7.

They have feigned persons to be indicted of felonies or other Trespases in their Courts, and have imprisoned them, and have exacted money from them, by colour thereof. 13. E. 1. cap. 13. Feigned Indictments.

They have procured Commissions and general Writs, and by colour thereof have made, and taken divers Enguests, and indicted people at their will, And then have taken fine and ransom of them to their own use, & so delivered the persons indicted, not bringing them before the Kings Justices, &c. 28. E. 3. cap. 9.

They have solicited and procured lites in the County Courts, compelling thereby poor men, &c. to follow their Courts, untill they have made fine with them at their wills. 13. E. 1. cap. 36. In their Courts.

^{11 H. 7. c. 15.} They have used to enter in their books more plaints than the plaintiff supposed he had cause of action for in their County Courts.

And also more plaints than one for one debt, trespass, contract; or cause, to the vexation of the subjects.

^{Ibid.} Also many times in plaints entered before them in their Counties, the defendants are never attached, summoned, or warned, and so for want of knowledge of such lites against them the defendants are unjustly punished and vexed.

S I I

They

They have used to enter plaints in their said Courts, in the names of persons that were dead.

At this day they use in their said Court, that if the Def. be summoned, and thereupon maketh default of appearance presently to grant out a Levari facias, to levy the Damages, and Costs, &c. whereas they should continue the Process against the Def. untill he appear, sc. a Distress infinite (hic cap. 12.)

And the Levari fac' ought not to be granted out untill the matter be found and adjudged against the Def. and not upon his default.

Also upon the Levari fac' the Sheriff or his Baptiliffs do use to sell the goods so levied, whereas the Execution in this Court is only to distress the goods of the Def. and to put and keep them in pound, &c. untill the debt be satisfied. hic cap. 12.

They have taken fines of the parties, for not pleading well, et. Fitz. 270. 52. H. 3. 11.

Bailment.

They have bailed persons not bailable, whereby notable felons and Offenders have escaped.

They have kept and detained in prison persons bailable, only to grieve or vex them, Or else to gain and get money of them. 3. E. 1. cap. 15.

They have sent strangers to take distresses (whereas none but Baptiliffs sworn and known ought to take distresses) thereby grieving their neighbors, and exacting money of them thereby. 13. E. 1. c. 37.

Jurys.

They return men upon Juries, which are decrepit, diseased, and dwelling out of the County;

And sometimes they return an unreasonable number; hic fol. 122.

And usually they return men of the poorest and meanest sort, least able to discern the causes in question, and most unable to bear the charges of attendance, sparing, and letting the rich men, and most able and sufficient freeholders to abide at home; and all this they do to get money and bribes.

And whereas in any Issue joyned for the tryal of any matter above 40. s. the Jurors ought to have land, &c. to the yearly value of 40. s. whereof four must have lands, &c. to that value in that County; The Sheriff notwithstanding (if they favour not the Plaintiff) will return such Jurors as shall not have 40. s. in the Shire; or else such as shall not have 40. s. in the Hundred; or such as are Cofins to the Def. or Plaintiff; or within the Distress of the Def. and Plt. And these are great mischiefs; for the party can not have process against other Jurors; Nor he can not challenge any for the causes aforesaid, until the Jury do appear.

They often return upon Juries, persons suspect, and of evil fame; and some times persons nominated to them; taking gifts and rewards for such purpose.

They have returned upon Juries their Officers, and servants.

Their Bailiffs often times do warn men to appear upon Juries, without any Warrant from the Sheriff : And this they usually do to such as will not lend to, or meet at, their feasts, or otherwise bribe them.

Sometimes also they summon or warn men to appear upon Juries, and yet do not return their names.

They are slack in arraping their Pannels ; or delibering Copies thereof.

They extort and take undue fees. See the Stat. 23 H. 6. 8 9. & 11.

7 H. 15. c. 7 They levy more than is contained in their Estreats. 11 H. 7. c. 15. Extortion.

They levy Issues double, sc. the same Issues of divers persons, being of one name, &c. 27 Eliz. 7.

They levy the same issues, fines and amercements, of the same men two or three times. 7. H. 4. cap. 3.

They receive the Kings debts, but discharge not the debtors.

Under-sheriffs, (and other Sheriffs Officers) usually practise as Attorneys.

They also continue in their places many years together: both which are contrary to the Laws; And besides by reason thereof the Kings subjects dare not pursue them, nor complain of their extortions and oppressions.

Arrest.

They Arrest men sometimes without any Warrant or Process.

Sometimes they make Warrants, &c. without any Original.

They wilfully omit to arrest one when they may.

After arrest, (for bribes) they shew favour; Or wilfully suffer the party to escape.

Upon a Capias utlagatum, if they take the defendant, they often take money of him, and so let him go again, when they have also formerly taken money of the Plaintiff to take the Defendant.

The like they will do, when they have taken one upon a Capias ad satisfac^o or other execution, &c.

And so both the King, and the subjects are thereby much wronged.

They are slack in Returning of Outlawries, concealing the same.

The Bailiffs do often gather up divers duties upon the Under-sheriffs Warrants directed to them; and do purse up the same; so as the same duties are many times demanded again of the parties, in another Sheriffs time: And therefore it shall be safest for the parties, not to pay such duties to the Bailiffs, but to the Under-sheriff himself, and to get his acquittance upon the payment thereof.

Lastly, the King is many times much deprived and wronged between these Under-sheriffs, and the Bailiffs, of all his waifs, strays, felons goods, outlaws goods, amercements, fines, and other profits due to the King; which many times are by them either taken up and implored to their own use, Or secretly compounded for, but never accounted for.

But for the manifold wrongs, slights, extortions, oppressions, and other abuses practised, especially by some Under-sheriffs and Bailiffs, I must confess my reading title, and my experience less able to discover them: And if any well experienced Under-sheriff (out of his love to the common good of the Country) would put his helping hand, not only to the further discovery of the foul abuses practised in his kind, but also to the further perfecting of this whole Book, it would be gratum opus.

READER.

READER,

SINCE the time wherein the Learned and Judicious Michael Dalton Esq; Collected that laborious Treatise, Intituled Officium Vicecomitum, several Acts of Parliament have been made (whereby Sheriffs are either enjoined the performance of new Matters, or eased in something wherein before they were burthened,) and divers Expositions, Resolutions, and Judgments, have been given in the several Courts of Kings Bench, Common Bench, and Exchequer, by the grave and Learned Judges of the same Courts, upon divers Statutes, Cases, and Questions in Law, concerning the Office and Duty of Sheriffs and their Officers. I have endeavoured to Collect them together out of the many Volumns of the Law, and put them under proper Titles, for the ease, benefit, and profit of the Gentry of this Land (on whom the burthen of this Office lieth;) but especially of the immediate High-Sheriffs, and Under-Sheriffs; who by their diligent perusal, and careful observation of the whole Matter of this and the former Treatise, may be directed to run through their several Offices without hazard to themselves, or oppression of the People.

The

To the Reader.

The new Matters are added by way of Supplement: And to the end the Matters in the whole Book may be easily and speedily found out (many of the useful Matters in the foregoing part being either difficult to find, or wholly omitted out of the old Table) I have compiled a new Table thereunto, & have added therein the Matters comprised in this Supplement, putting both together under one and the same respective proper Titles. And for distinction, whereby the Matter in this Supplement may be known from the rest, I have put this Mark (*) to it throughout the Table. Such as it is I commend to thy Reading and Practise, and leave to thy favourable Construction, presuming that as well this, as what Mr. Dalton hath before Written, may tend to thy use and benefit, and the publick good; which is all I desire.

Farewell.

SECT. I.

*Some Observations of the Sheriffs Oath.

The first Exception.

The new Additions which were objected against.

The second Exception.

The third Exception.

The fourth Exception.

SIR Edward Coke late Lord Chief Justice of the Kings Bench, and removed from his place, being made Sheriff of the County of Buckingham, had ad delinimus potestatem to take his Oath, annexed to a Schedule; To which he took exceptions: For that there were more Additions to the said Oath, than was in the ancient Oath set down in the Register, and afterwards, confirmed and appointed by the Statute of 18 Ed. 2. He therefore conceived there ought not to be such Additions, unless by like authority of Parliament. Cr. Car. fo. 25. Sir Edward Cokes case.

The Additions were; first, That he should seek to suppress all Errors and Heresies, commonly called Lollardism, and should be assistant to the Commissaries and Ordinary in Church-matters; which part of the Oath was added by reason of the Statutes of 5 R. 2. and 2 H. 4. cap. 15. whereby it is appointed, that the same should be taken by the Sheriff, especially for those two causes: But he thereto Excepted, for that those Statutes are repealed by the Statutes of primo Edwardi sexti, and primo Eliz. and therefore ought not to be taken. 18 E. 3. 5 R. 2. 2 H. 4. cap 15. 1 E. 6. 1 Eliz.

The second Addition was, That he should return reasonable Issue; whereto he excepted, because it is appointed by the Statute, and penalties imposed for not performing it, therefore it ought not to be upon Oath. The third Addition was, That he should return all Juries, of the nearest and sufficientest persons; whereto he excepted, because that part of the Oath is not appointed by any Statute, and it is against common practice, that he himself should return Juries, it being commonly done by the Under-Sheriff, who is also appointed by the Statute to be sworn. The fourth Addition was, That he should cause the Statute of Winton, and the Statutes against Rogues and Vagabonds, to be put in execution;

tion; whereto he excepted, because the Statute of Winton is altered, and the Statutes against Rogues and Vagabonds are appointed to be executed by the Justices of the Peace, and not by the Sheriff. Upon these Exceptions the Lord Keeper assembled all the Justices to confer with them about the same; as touching the first point, they conceived it was fit to be omitted out of the Oath, because it is appointed by Statutes which are repealed, where the Oath ought to be amended. and were intended against the Religion now professed and established, which before was condemned for Heresie, and is now held for the true Religion. For the second Addition, they conceived it convenient, and for the service of the King and Subjects; and the greater part of them were of opinion, That an Oath in this The answer to the second Exception. and the other points, may be well enjoined by the King, and order of State, without Parliament; and it may be well imposed upon the Sheriff to take, being for publique benefit, and execution of the Laws. For the third Addition, it is not so straitly to be intended, that he himself should return Juries, but it ought to be intended according to the construction of Law, That he himself, by himself or Under-sheriff, should return the Juries, which is a sufficient performance; for the Law saith, Qui per alium facit per seipsum facit. For the fourth Addition, it rests upon the former reasons, That this Oath being appointed and continued divers years, by direction of the State, although without the express Authority of any Statute-Law, yet may be well continued for the publique benefit, in repressing such persons; And although Authority be given to Justices of the Peace, to put those Statutes in execution, yet it doth not take away the Sheriffs Right, who is the Publique Conservator. And so they delivered their opinions to the Lord Keeper at his house at Reading.

Error, to reverse a fine in Chester: The error assigned was, because the Writ of Covenant was directed to the Coroners, with this clause in the end of the Writ: Quia prædictus Joh. Dove Miles, est Vicecomes Comitatus Cestrie, fiat executio brevis prædict. per Coronator. Ita quod Vicecomes non se intromittat; whereas the Writ ought to have been directed to the Sheriff, &c. And this was divers times argued, and much insisted upon by those who argued at the Bar for the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error: And first they laid that if the Sheriff had been the sole party to the fine, yet the Writ ought to have been directed unto him, because it is but a Summons, and the Sheriff may summon himself; Also it is not returned, that he is Sheriff and cannot summon himself; and the course of Law is, that the Writ shall be directed to the Sheriff, and not unto any other, when it may be done without prejudice: And that the Writ is abated when it is directed to the Coroners, &c. vide 18 H. 8. 3. 9 H. 6. 12. The second reason, because that the Sheriff is not the sole party, but others are joyned with him, &c. But all the Court resolved, that it was not Error, for if the Writ be directed to the Sheriff, and he is party, it is doubted in the Books, if the Sheriff as Plaintiff may execute a Writ for himself; And therefore it were good to avoid the doubt, to take a Writ directed to the Coroners, as well where the Sheriff is Plaintiff as Defendant, upon surmise thereof in Chancery at the time of suing the Writ: And it is the general course, to award the Writ to the Coroners, to avoid the doubt of delay; for if he be Plaintiff, and makes not such surmise, the Defendant will take exceptions, in abatement of the Writ; and so if he be Defendant, he may peradventure plead in abatement of the Writ, and cause him to have a new Writ: But when it is awarded to the Coroners, if the Defendant would have excepted against it, as peradventure he might in some cases, yet when he appears and accepts thereof, and comes and levies a fine thereupon, he never afterwards shall assign for Error, that the Writ ought not to have been directed to the Coroners, especially upon this amicable Writ, to make assurance, &c. Wherefore all the Court agreed, that he never should assign it for Error, &c. and the fine was affirmed.

Where Covenants between Sheriff and Under-sheriff, shall bind, and where not.

Pal. 11 Jac. Rot.
346. Norton against Simmes,
Hobart fo. 12,
13, 14.

Sir Daniel Norton kt. late Sheriff of Hampshire, brought an Action upon an Obligation of one hundred pounds, against Richard Simmes, for performance of Covenants, whereof the effect was; That whereas Sir Daniel Norton had made Bryan Chamberlain his Under-sheriff at his will, the same Chamberlain by Indenture did Covenant with the Sheriff, to discharge and save him harmless of all escapes of prisoners, that should be arrested by him, or any Bailiff or Officers appointed by him; and another Covenant was, That he would not execute any Extent, Liberate, Elegit, or any other Execution, for any sum, above the sum of twenty pounds, before he had first made known to the said Sheriff, the nature and quality of the said Writ; and if any such Execution were above twenty pounds, then he should not execute it without the special warrant of the said Sir Daniel Norton, the High-sheriff: And there were also divers other Covenants; and the Defendant pleaded, that Chamberlain the Under-sheriff had performed all the Covenants; whereupon the Plaintiff replied, That one White, Anno 44. Eliz. had recovered in the Common Pleas 203 pounds debt, against one Feilder, and that he had gotten 52 pounds thereof, by an Execution of Fieri facias, in the said County of Southampton, and died, and that Frances White his Executrix, had sued a Scire facias against the said Feilder, for the residue, sc. 151 pounds, and had Judgment, and took out a Capias ad satisfaciendum, and delivered it to the said Chamberlain, who arrested him by force thereof; and so he was in Execution, in the custody of the said Sheriff, for the said Debt, and afterwards escaped out of the custody of the said Sheriff. Whereupon the Defendant demurred; and the whole Court upon publick argument, gave Judgment for the Plaintiff; and in this case these points were resolved:

23 H. 6.

First, That this case was not within the Statute of 23 H. 6. both because it was not a Bond made by, or in the behalf of a prisoner, as Beaufages case is, as also because the Statute is not pleaded, being a special Law; and also because it was not directly pleaded, that Norton was High-sheriff, or Chamberlain Under-sheriff, but only by way of recital in the Indenture which was pleaded.

case, in Co.

It was also resolved, that the Sheriff might grant his Under-sheriff, to hold at his will only; for it was in his choice, to make or not to make an Under-sheriff, or to exercise it himself; That an Under-sheriff is in effect but the Sheriffs Deputy, and therefore according to the nature of a Deputation, he must be removable as an Agent is, so that if the Sheriff should make him irrevocable, yet he may revoke him, there is neither Common Law nor Statute Law that makes him irrevocable, he is but in the nature of a general Bailiff errant to the Sheriff, and the whole whole Shire, as others are over the Hundred; his Oath appointed by the Stat. of 27 Eliz. is, That he should bear himself well for so long as he shall continue in the Office: It is necessary both for the publick service, and for the indemnity of the High-Sheriff, that he be removeable by the High-Sheriff.

27 Eliz.

He may make an arrest.

Yet it is true, that Under-Sheriffs have been long in use, and experience proves, that many Sheriffs cannot well execute it themselves; so this point was resolved, that he was a perfect Under-Sheriff, and so the arrest well made by him, and so an escape upon it.

Where the power of the Under-Sheriff cannot be abridged.

Next it was resolved, that a Sheriff in making an Under-Sheriff, did implicitly give him power to execute all the ordinary Offices of the Sheriff himself, that might be transferred by the Law, as serving of Process, and Executions, and the like; but he could not deal in a Writ of Redisseisin, because in that the Sheriff is a Judge, nor in that case of the Writ of Waste, where the Sheriff is commanded to go to the place wasted, because it is personal unto the Sheriff himself; hence it follows, that if a Sheriff will make an Under-Sheriff, provided that he shall not serve Executions above twenty pounds, without his special warrant, this proviso will be void; for though he may chuse not to make an Under-Sheriff at all, or may make him at his will, and so remove him wholly, yet he cannot leave him an Under-Sheriff, and abridge his power, no more than the King may in case of the Sheriff himself: But it was said, that the case there was not so; That the restraint of Executions above twenty pounds, grew not on the part of the Sheriff, but on the part of the Under-Sheriff, by his Covenant, which might stand for good notwithstanding the repugnancy to his Office: But notwithstanding that objection, the Covenant was holden void, as being against Law and Justice; for since by being made Under-Sheriff, he is liable by Law to execute all Process, without another's special warrant, for that is to delay or delay Justice, so this being a Covenant against Law, and being in the negative, needed no answer at all, as being void, and no Covenant in Law: And though it were not void, yet the general Plea of performance of all Covenants, will serve in the case of a negative Covenant.

Not to serve Executions above 20 l. is a void Proviso.Negative Covenant against Law, needeth not to be answered.Where one Covenant is void in Law, the Bond for performance thereof may be good, as to other Covenants. The Sheriff takes a Bond contrary to the Stat. and for a just Debt, it is void for both.

But it was resolved, though this Covenant were void in Law, yet the Bond was good for the rest of the Covenants agreeable to Law; And a difference was taken between a Bond made void by Statute, and by Common Law; for upon the Statute of 23 H. 6. if a Sheriff will take a Bond, for a point against that Law, and also for a due debt, the whole Bond is void, for the letter of the Statute is so, and the Statute is a strict Law; but the Common Law doth divide according to common reason, and having made that void that is against Law, letteth the rest stand, as the 14 H. 8. fo. 15. is.

Hereof it followeth, That if the Covenant for discharge of Escapes (ut supra) were good in Law, and broken, that then the Plaintiff ought to have Judgment: and it was agreed, that if a man will take a Bond to be saved harmless of suffering one to have escaped, or for enlarging of him out of prison, against the Law, that these Bonds are void: And so are the cases of Dive and Manning in Plo. and the case of Thower and Whetstone, Mich. 2 & 3 Phil. & Mar. Dyer 118. and so is the case of 2 H. 4. fo. 9. for the Withernam.

But this case is cleau otherwise, and was resolved by the whole Court, to be lawfull for the Sheriff to take Bond of his Under-Sheriff, to discharge and save him harmless of escapes upon arrests made by himself; for since he transfers his Authority unto him, it is reason to take security of him, to perform all things justly & faithfully to himself & others; and there is nothing done or intended against Law, for there is no lawfull permission of any to escape already done, or to be done; As in the other case, where the fault is committed by the party, that takes the Bond upon confidence of that security; But here the best performance of the Covenant is, that no escape be suffered; And the next, that if any be suffered, that then he satisfie the party so, that the Sheriff may be at no loss. It was also resolved, that the Sheriff in this case, was not bound either to give notice to the Under-Sheriff of the escape, or to make any request for discharge, for the Covenant hath no such thing, but binds him to discharge at his peril; And Hobert Chief Justice was of opinion, that if the covenant had not been against Law, for the Executions above twenty pounds, and that the Bar had been insufficient, because it did not plead specially to that negative Covenant, that yet if the replication were naught, and assigned no sufficient breach, the Plaintiff could not have had Judgment; for though the action were well brought upon the Obligation alone, yet when it appeareth that the condition was for performance of Covenants, now there can be no cause of action without some Covenant broken: And observe well Tilly and Woodlyes case. 7 E. 4. for this purpose, that if it doth appear to that Court, that the Plaintiff hath no cause of action, he shall never have Judgment, though he had a verdict for him, against one of the Defendants.

A Bond to save the Sheriff harmless from escapes, is good.

where the tender-Sheriff covenants to save harmless from escapes, there he must take notice of all escapes at his peril. If the bar is insufficient, and the Repl. were naught, yet (as this case was) although the Declaration was good, the Plaintiff shall never recover.

And herewith agreeth Smalman's case in Leonard; a Capias upon an Original writ delivered to the New Sheriff of Warr. against Lane, at the suit of the Plaintiff, and the Sheriff informed the Court, Execution executed by the Old Sheriff.

The Old Sheriff to deliver his prisoners to his successor.

Court, that before the Cap. directed to him, Lane was taken in Execution by the Old Sheriff, and that the Old Sheriff had imprisoned him in his house, and there he remained; And thereupon he prayed the advice of the Court, what return to make upon this matter, because Lane was never in his possession, but all the other Prisoners were delivered to him by the Old Sheriff; And it was the opinion of the whole Court, that by the Law the old Sheriff ought to deliver the body of him who is in his custody, by view to the New Sheriff, and from that time the Law shall adjudge such Prisoner to be in the custody of the New Sheriff, and not before.

Where the New Sheriff is chargeable upon an arrest by the Old Sheriff. Return.

But where the Old Sheriff arrests a man, and afterwards returns a languidus in prisona, and afterwards in exitu ab officio delivers him to the New Sheriff charged with the arrest, and then the New Sheriff suffers him to escape; here the New Sheriff is only chargeable with the escape; and although the Old Sheriff returned a languidus in prisona, yet that is not material to the Plaintiff, he remaining always in prison, and that return was only to excuse the bringing of the Prisoner at the day.

If the old Sheriff keep goods in his hands, what remedy.

The Sheriff seized goods upon a Fi. fa. and upon a Venditioni exponas he returned non invenit emptores, then his Office determined, and he still detained the goods in his hands; And by Doderidge and Jones, (ceteris absentibus) the Plaintiff hath no other remedy against the Old Sheriff, but to have issues returned upon him.

And where for the benefit of the party.

That clause for the benefit of the party is, that the Sheriff under colour of his Office should not oppress the party, to make him any other manner of Obligation, than what is prescribed in the before-mentioned Statute.

This Statute amongst other things hath these notable branches.

Plowdens Com.

1. A command and authority for a Sheriff, &c. to let prisoners to bail
2. What prisoners are notailable; both which are made in affirmance of the Common Law.
3. The Purview is only in the third branch, and that is, to avoid Obligations taken in other forms than what are expressed in the Statute.

What the Common Law was before this Statute.

Before the making of this Statute, the inconvenience was such, that when a man was in execution, the Sheriff would take upon him to let him at large taking a Bond from him to save him harmless, and those Bonds which they took, were generally treble the sum in which the parties were condemned, which proved very prejudicial both to the Plaintiff and Defendant, for the Plaintiff's only remedy was to sue the Sheriff for an escape, and was put to great costs and trouble in his prosecution, and when he recovered, he recovered no more than his debt with ordinary costs, and was kept out of his money a year or two, by these contrivances and practices which were too frequently used by Sheriffs, before the making of this Statute, and they were sometimes so tired out with the continual trouble and charge which doth inseparably attend an action in that nature, that they did oftentimes sit down with half their debts, rather than undergo the trouble of prosecuting.

Plow. Com 67. b.

The inconvenience.

And

And on the other side, the Sheriffs were sure to be saved harmless by the security which they had taken from their prisoners, and by this means their behavior had safe conduct: to prevent which grand abuses, this Statute was made. Upon reasonable Sureties: The word Sureties being in the plural number, the question was, whether an Obligation taken by the Sheriff with but one surety were good or no; on the Defendants part it was alledged, that the plural number cannot be satisfied with the singular number, because it is against the very words of the Stat. but it was resolved by the whole Court that the Bond was not void, for the words, upon reasonable sureties of sufficient persons, are added for the security of the Sheriff, and therefore if he will take but one surety, it is at his peril, for he shall be amerced if the defendant doth not appear, and therefore the statute makes not the Bond void in such case, for the branch which prescribes the form, requires that the Bond shall be made to the Sheriff, by the name of his office, &c. that the prisoners shall appear, in which clause no mention is made of the sureties; so that the intent of the Stat. was, that this was at the peril of the Sheriff, to leave it to his own discretion to take one, two, or more securities, as he thought fit.

Of Persons having sufficient within the County, &c. Although the words of the Statute here are, Having sufficient, &c. yet although the surety or sureties have not sufficient within the same County, the Bond is good enough, for the words of the Stat. as to this point are more for counsel or direction to the Sheriff, than for restraint or precept to him: also this clause is made for the benefit and advantage of Sheriffs, for if the defendant cannot procure two sufficient sureties, having sufficient within the same County, the Sheriff is not bound to let him to bail; and this exposition agrees with the ancient Rule, Quilibet potest renunciari juri, pro se introducit. And according to this resolution it was afterwards resolved, that a Bond taken by the Sheriff of one which was not an inhabitant in the County, nor had any estate there, was good, notwithstanding the words of the statute for the reasons aforesaid; and also for that the Stat. doth not make void any Bonds, but such only which are made in other form, in oppression of the people: so likewise where the defendant pleaded, that the plaintiff took the Bond of him and a stranger, which stranger had nothing in the County, nor did not there inhabit, upon a demurrer to the plea it was ruled according to the former resolutions in every particular.

All which circumstances being duly observed, although the Bond be something variant in other circumstances, it is not material, but Bonds made for the Sheriff's profit in oppression of the people, are made void by this Statute. Upon a Cap. in placito debiti for 320 l. the Sheriff took a Bond but for 100 l. all which matter being discovered in pleading by the Defendant, the Plaintiff thereupon demurred, and it was objected, 1. That the Bond was void, because the Condition was only ad respond. in placito debiti generally, which is uncertain, for it may as well be in an Annuity, &c. Also the sum ought to be shewn in the Condition, that the Defendant may have Consensus what to answer to, but the Court overruled them in it, and said that it was well enough. A second exception was because the Bond is for 100 l. being for an appearance only, whereas it hath been adjudged a 40 l. Bond is sufficient, and therefore the taking of a greater Bond is extortion, and void within the Statute, for if the Sheriff should have such an unlimited power, he might take a Bond of 1000 l. and so oppress the Subject; but the Court were of a contrary opinion likewise as to this Objection, for the Stat. being general, doth not restrain him to any sum or any Sureties, for he may take one or two or more Sureties according to his discretion, and when it is only for the appearance of the party, he may take what sum he pleareth to force the party to appear: and although a Bond of 40 l. is sufficient to excuse him for an Escape, because by the Statute he is forced to let him to bail, yet non sequitur that he should be restrained from taking a Bond with a greater penalty. Also Bonds taken by Sheriffs, &c. ought to be certain and true Latin, for where the Sheriff took an Obligation for appearance in quadragent. libris, whereas it should have been quadragint. for this very reason a Nil cap. per Billam was awarded.

If it be good in substance, though not in some circumstances, yet within the Stat.

By colour of their Offices. If the Sheriff arrest a man in his own County, and afterwards carries him into another County, and there detains him until he hath given him a Bond for appearance, this Bond is out of the Statute, but the proper and only remedy which the Defendant hath to avoid this Obligation, is to plead per Dures to it. So likewise if a Process comes to the Sheriff, to take the body, &c. which the Sheriff doth accordingly, and takes an Obligation for appearance, but by Law the Process was not any Warrant to the Sheriff to take the body, (it issuing out of a Court which had no authority to grant it) here this Bond was taken by Dures, and so avoidable by the award of the Court, although it was alledged that the Sheriff took it colore officii.

Oxon.) the Defendant did not appear, whereupon this Bond was such, and the Defendant pleaded generally, non est fact. and all this matter being found by special verdict, it was upon long debate adjudged for the Plaintiff, because the Defendant had not made use of those advantages which he might have had; for he should have craved Oyer of the Bond, and if it had appeared to have been the bond of the Sheriff, taken by him as Sheriff, this would then have made it void; but the pleading non est fact. and taking no notice of the statute, (which he ought to have pleaded, being no general Law) the Court shall suppose that this Bond was taken by him as B. Upon condition written, that the Prisoner shall appear at the day contained in the said Writ, &c. as is before observed upon the word Bond: one of the essential parts of this Statute is, that the Bond therein prescribed, must be with condition to appear at the day contained in the Writ, &c. and that all Bonds taken in other form shall be void; although Sheriffs are not tied up precisely to the words in the statute, so that the Conditions be good as to the matter and substance thereof, it sufficeth: And herewith agree the case of Seckford vers. And it was moved, that this Bond was void: First, because this word personally was put into the Condition, which was more than the stat. required; but as to this the Justices were all of opinion, that the bond was good enough. Secondly, the condition went further, viz. and there to answer; which was likewise more than the statute required; and as to this point Wray Chief Justice put a difference, where the words are there to answer, the Bond is well enough, but if the words had been appear and answer, then the Condition had been void, for it may be the Plaintiff will never declare against him; but Gaudy and Ayloff Justices were of opinion, that the Bond was void; so likewise where the Condition of the Bond was, that if the said R. pear in the Chancery at Westm. ubicunque fuerit, and so it is impossible for him to appear at Westm. and at another place at the same time. Thirdly, the Bond varies from the Statute in some things, and enjoins more than the Statute requires in other things: and by Rolls and Jermyn, here is a material variance in the Bond, which makes it void, for neither the Kings Bench nor Chancery are first Courts, and therefore the Defendant ought not to be precisely bound to appear at Westm. and then the adding of ubicunque, &c. is a fatal fault, and for this reason a nil capiat was awarded to be entered.

Where the Bond is deficient, and where it enjoins more than is required.

The Statute saith, that the condition must be for the Defendants appearance at the day of the return of the writ. I have met but with one case to this purpose, which I will here give you an account of, it being a case in the point. In an action of debt upon a Sheriffs Bond, the Defendant sets forth the condition, which was, that he should appear die Sabbati, &c. to which he pleads, that the Writ by which he was taken was returnable die Veneris, &c. and then sets forth the Statute; the Plaintiff replies, that the Writ was returnable die Sabbati, &c. and not die Veneris, &c. the Defendant rejoins and maintains his Bar, and traverses with an absque hoc, that it was returnable die Sabbati, &c. and to this the Plaintiff demures: The first Exception which was shewn was, that the Defendant was concluded to say, that the Writ was returnable die Veneris, &c. because the condition of the Bond had concluded him; But the Court was against this Exception, for the Statute makes all Bonds taken by Sheriffs void, if not according to the Statute, notwithstanding the recital in the condition, otherwise the Statute would be of little force. Secondly, it was moved, that the Rejoinder was not good, because the Defendant ought to maintain his Bar, and conclude, Et de hoc pon. se super patriam, &c. there being a negative and affirmative before, by the Bar and Replication: But Twifden and Wyndham Justices were of opinion, that the Rejoinder was good enough, because it was material to enquire, whether there was any writ returnable die Sabbati, for the Defendant in his Bar says, that he was taken by Writ returnable die Veneris, which being different from the condition of the Bond, both not warrant it; and the Plaintiff in his Replication says, that he was taken by the same Writ mentioned in the condition, so that if he had said no more, there had been only two affirmatives; and his allegation that there was no false writ, being not material to the issue, the Defendant made a good Traverse in his Rejoinder, and according to these opinions it was afterwards adjudged.

The Bond was to appear die Sabbati, and the Writ was to appear die Veneris.

And all Bonds in other manner and form, taken by colour of their Offices, shall be void: This Act, as hath been before observed, hath abridged the Common Law, as to Bonds taken by Officers, and tyed them to a strict form; but this caution must always be observed, that this being a particular Act in a generality it ought to be pleaded when any Bond is to be avoided, otherwise the Court cannot take notice of it; and although the Statute speaks generally of all Bonds made in other form, &c. yet it is to be intended of the matter of the Bonds, as to the Sheriff: These words, by colour of his Office, are general words, and extend to other Bonds taken colore officii, as well as to those taken of persons in their ward; for where the Sheriff upon the executing of an

It is likewise to be observed, that although the Statute here makes mention of Bonds, &c. only, yet promises made against the intent of this Statute, come likewise under the lash of it; and so it was adjudged, Mich. 32 El. where the Plaintiff declared, that he had taken the body of one H. in Execution, by warrant directed to him as Special Bailiff; the Defendant as well in consideration that the Plaintiff would permit him to go at large, as of 2 s. paid in hand, promised to pay the Plaintiff all the Money in which H. was condemned; and it was moved, that this consideration was void, being contrary to 23 H. 6. and although it be joyned with another consideration, yet it being void as to part, shall be void in all: So likewise where J. S. promised A. Gaoler, that if he would let a Prisoner which he had then in his custody go at large, that then he would pay him so much money, for the breach of which an action was afterwards brought, and a verdict thereupon had, but Judgment was staid by the opinion of the whole Court.

Sheriffs Fees.

S E C T. I.

What Fees Sheriffs may lawfully take, and how to be recovered.

29 El. c. 4.

BY the Statute of 29 El. cap. 4. ^{What Fees Sheriffs, &c. may take upon executing Executions.} It is enacted and directed, That upon Extents and Executions, the Sheriff shall or may take twelve pence of and for every Twenty shillings, where the sum exceeds not one hundred pounds; and six pence of and for every Twenty shillings being over and above the said sum of one hundred pounds; Provided, that this ^{Not to extend to Corporations.} Act shall not extend to any Fees to be taken for any Execution to be had within any City, or Town-Corporate.

Walden vers.
Vesleys Latch
Rep. 19.

Upon this Statute several Questions have been raised:

1. Whether Debt lies for the Sheriff for his fees? and it hath been adjudged that it doth; for when a Statute doth not express what remedy shall be had for a fee, or forfeiture, &c. in such Cases Debt lies for the same. ^{1 Quest. Whether Debt lies for the Sheriff upon this Stat.}
2. The second Question upon this Statute is this: The Sheriff makes a warrant to the Bailiff of a Liberty, to make Execution, whether the Sheriff or the Bailiff shall have the fee, because the Statute says, that the party which makes the Execution shall have the fee. ^{2 Quest. Who shall have the Fee, whether Sheriff or Bailiff.}
- Also, if the old Sheriff makes an Extent, and afterwards the new Sheriff makes the Liberate, what Sheriff shall have the fee, and which of these Sheriffs shall be said to make Execution? ^{Whether the old or new Sheriff shall have it.}
3. The third Question hath been, (whereas the Statute says, That the Sheriff shall have 12 d. in every 20 s. where the Debt exceeds not 100 l. and 6 d. for every 20 s. where it is above 100 l.) whether the intent of this Statute is, that if the Debt be 140 l. the Sheriff shall have for the 100 l. 12 d. in the pound, and 6 d. in the the pound for the 40 l. or but 6 d. in the pound for the whole 140 l.? ^{3 Quest. How much he shall have if it exceeds 100 l.}

Latch 17.

Also, whereas the Proviso in the said Statute says, That these fees shall not be taken, for any Executions had in any Town-Corporate, and the Sheriff enters into a Corporation, and executes an Execution, whether he shall have the fee, or whether this clause extends only to Executions upon Judgments in inferior Corporations? ^{If he enter a Corporation what Fees he shall have.}

Debt lyes by the Sheriff for his fees for executing an Extent.

As to the first point: Trin. 36 Eliz. in Com. B. Debt was brought by the Sheriff of London, for fees for executing a Cap. ad sat. for 12 d. in the pound for the first 100 l. and 6 d. in the pound for the residue, and it was demurred unto by the Defendant; and the only cause insisted upon was, whether this Action lyes or no, there being no action given by the Statute? but the Court held, that it did well lye, sed adjournatur. And afterwards in Mich. 8. Car. the same action was brought, and upon a Writ of Error Judgment was affirmed: So likewise where the Defendant promised, that in consideration that the Sheriff would execute an Execution for him, he would pay him so much, &c. (which was allowed by the Statute for him to take) and Glanvill Justice was of opinion, that this was a void consideration, because at the Common Law a Sheriff ought not to take any fees, but it was Extortion; and this Statute is made only to discharge a Sheriff from Extortion, if he take only such fees as the Statute allows him to take; but the Statute gives him not any remedy for them, for he ought to execute the Writ at his peril, otherwise he shall be punished, and it is no excuse for him to say, that the party would not pay him his fees: But all the other Justices held it to be a good consideration, because the Execution was made at his request, and to be a benefit to him; and by the words of the Statute, the Sheriff may lawfully take his fees, and consequently a promise to have them paid: But it hath likewise been adjudged, that where the Sheriff took a Bond for the payment of his fees, to which Bond the Defendant had pleaded the Statute of 23 H. 6. that he had thereby avoided it; for the Court conceived, although he might take such fees as were allowed by the Statute; yet he might not take a Bond for them, for under colour thereof he might so have double fees.

So likewise an action upon a promise for fees is maintainable.

*Fees.
Extortion.*

Excused from Extortion.

The Sheriff may lawfully take his Fees.

He must not take a Bond for them.

What fees Bailiffs of Liberties shall have.

Whether the old or new Sheriff shall have the fees.

Where the Sheriff is to have 12 d. in 20 s. and where 6 d.

Escape.

*Sheriff.
Corporation.*

As to the second point, constant practice ever since the making of the Statute hath been, that the Bailiff of the Franchise shall have the fees: the reasons may be, first, because the Statute says, that he that executes the Execution, shall have the fee: and, secondly, although I find this point moved in Latch 52. yet I find it not stirred in any other Book; from which this conclusion may be drawn, that the practice being so to this day, and no authority to contradict it, then consequently the Law is so likewise.

But as to the other point it hath been adjudged, that if the old Sheriff makes an Extent, and before the Liberate a new Sheriff is chosen, here the new Sheriff shall have the fees appointed by the Statute, and not the old Sheriff.

As to the third point, viz. What fees, &c. It was alledged and argued by the Plaintiffs Counsel, to the first branch, that the Sheriff shall have 12 d. in every 20 s. for the 100 l. and 6 d. for every 20 s. above 100 l. because the greater the sum is, the greater is the Sheriff's labour and hazard, for fear of escape; and it would be contrary to reason, that his wages should be less for 180 l. than for 100 l.

To the second branch he argued, that the Sheriff shall have his fees notwithstanding the Probilo, 1. Because no man will deny, that if the Sheriff takes a prisoner near the walls of the Town, but that he shall have his fee, therefore there is no reason to the contrary, when he takes a prisoner within the walls.

And doubtless the Proviso is to be intended of Executions, made upon Judgments given in inferior Courts in Corporations, for it is not reason, that the Bailiff or Sheriff should have so large fees for taking a Prisoner which perhaps may live the next day to him, as he shall have for travelling about the County to take Prisoners: If the Law were not so, then doubtless these two great inconveniences would follow;

The Proviso extends only to Executions upon Judgments given in inferior Courts.

1. The Sheriff having no fee, would be very slow in making Executions, where the party lived in a Corporation, and so Justice, and the execution of Justice, which is much favoured in Law, and is fructus & effectus Legis, would be very much delayed.

The inconvenience, if it should be otherwise.

2. If this constitution should not be made, Corporations would become an Asylum and refuge for decayed persons.

Latch 52.

And accordingly Judgment was afterwards given by the whole Court for the Sheriff Plaintiff. But Doderidge Justice said, where a City is also a County, there if the Bailiff or Sheriff makes Execution, perchance he shall not take the fees limited by the Statute. Jones Justice, it will be a question, if an Execution issue out of the County, to take a Prisoner in a City, and the Sheriff makes his mandate to the Bailiff, whether he shall have the fees by the Statute: but if the Town be also a County, there the Sheriff upon Execution out of this Court ought to have his fees.

Goods are bound by the Teste of Execution.

Upon an action of Trover for goods, the Defendant pleaded a Recovery, and a Fieri Facias thereupon directed to the sheriff who had seized the goods, and delivered them to him in satisfaction of his Execution; whereupon the Plaintiff demurred, and it was resolved that the sheriff cannot deliver goods to a Plaintiff, (upon a Fieri facias) in satisfaction of his Debt, for the sheriff by the Writ is to levy the Debt, and to return his Writ to the Court, that they may adjudge whether Execution is well made or no.

Entailed Lands in the hands of the Heir, are not extendible neither by Statute nor Elegit.

What the Sheriff must do when a Superfedeas is sent to him.

Dy. 98.

A Fieri Facias came to the Sheriff, to levy goods, who returned, that he had taken goods in his hands to the value of part of the Debt, and that they remained in his hands, pro defectu emptorum, and that before the Return of the Writ, there came a Superfedeas upon a Writ of Error to him, which Writ he returned annexed to the Fieri Facias. It was the opinion of the Court, that notwithstanding the property was not altered, yet a Venditioni exponas should be awarded.

After goods are taken in Execution (although they are not sold) a Superfedeas comes too late.

Mich 15. Car. in B. R. Marsh 54.

It was agreed by the Court, that the shewing of a Writ of Error to the Sheriff, was a sufficient Superfedeas of the Execution.

The shewing of the writ of Error to the Sheriff, is a Superfedeas in Law.

Price ver. Alington, Cr. El. 918.

In an Action of false Imprisonment, the Case was thus, One Recovers in debt, and had a Ca. Sa. delivered to the Sheriff, who made a warrant to his Bailiff to do Execution, afterwards and before the Ca. Sa. executed, a Superfedeas was delivered to the Sheriff, but the Bailiff having no notice of the Superfedeas, executed the Ca. Sa. The whole Court were of opinion, that this was not false Imprisonment in the Bailiff, he not having notice of the Superfedeas.

A Superfedeas comes too late to the Bailiff, if it come after he hath taken the body, although the Sheriff had it before.

Fr. 39: El. Goldf. 96.

Withers ver. Henly, Bulstr. 3. Rep. 96, 97. see the same case in Cr. Jac. 97.

If a Capias comes to take the body, and before it is executed, a Superfedeas comes, there the Sheriff must discharge him, but if he is first taken, and then a Superfedeas comes, the Sheriff must at the Return of his Writ return the body, together with the Superfedeas.

If a Superfedeas comes to the Officer before the writ executed, it is time enough, but if afterwards, how to return it.

But if a man is taken in Execution, and the Plaintiff at whose suit he is taken comes to the Sheriff, and tells him, that he hath released the prisoner, and therefore he should deliver him out of prison, and the Sheriff doth not so, but still keeps him, here an Action of false Imprisonment lies against the Sheriff.

Mrs. Bowes case, Helyes Rep. 30.

A Superfedeas was prayed, because the Sheriff by virtue of a Bill of Middlesex, had arrested a man in London, but the Court would not grant it, because a Superfedeas never issues out but when a Writ erroneously emanavit, but the remedy in this case is, to bring an Action of false Imprisonment.

And to keep the prisoner afterwards is false imprisonment. No Superfedeas shall be granted where an arrest is made in London, by virtue of a Bill of Middlesex.

King ver. Hill, Cr. Jac 43. Yelv. 57.

SECT. 6.

Where the Sheriff shall discharge himself by returning a Rescous, and where not, and when well returned.

Rescous is a Return to a Fieri Fa.

The Sheriff took goods upon a Fieri Facias, and at the return of the Writ returned a Rescous, the Court held the Return to be void, for it is of goods, of which no Rescous can be, and he ought to raise posse Comitatus.

Sheriff of Surry vers. Adderton, Hertley 145

But upon a mean Process it is a good Return, and the reason why.

But upon an Arrest upon a mean Process, where a Rescous was made, and an Escape brought against the Sheriff, the Sheriff pleaded the whole matter, and after divers Arguments it was adjudged for the Sheriff, for the Arrest being but upon mean Process, and not upon Execution, the Sheriff is not bound to take Posse Com. with him, and therefore to such a Process Rescous is a good Return; but if the prisoner had been once in the Goal, the Sheriff ought at his peril to keep him, and a Rescous from thence is no excuse for him. So likewise if a prisoner is taken upon a Ca. Sa. or a Cap. Utlagat. after Judgment, then Rescous is no Return, for the Sheriff at his peril ought to keep his prisoners in Execution.

May vers. Proby, & al. Cr. Jac. 419. & Hodges, & Marks, Cr. Jac. 485, 486. but Waldow vers. Lambert in Cr. El. & contra.

M. 14. Car. B. Reg. Rolls, tit. Return, 457.

The Sheriff should return the place where the Rescous was made.

And it was resolved, 1. That this Arrest without shewing the Warrant, and without telling at whose suit it, until the other demanded it, was legal. 2. To Return that the Lat. was returnable upon a day which is not dies Juridicus, no good Return. Escape. Wherefore the party was returned.

A Latitat was directed to the Sheriff of London, to take the body of J. S. the Writ was returnable die Jovis, &c. which was All-Saints day; the Sheriff took the party, and returned, that because the Writ was returnable upon a day which was not dies Juridicus, he suffered the party to go at large: It was holden by the Court, that the Return was insufficient, for the Writ was good, and the detaining of the party by virtue thereof was lawfull, although he could not have the party there at the said day, wherefore the Sheriff was compelled to bring the party into Court, which afterwards he did accordingly.

In an action of debt against the heir, if the Defendant pleads that nothing descended to him but one house in D. and thereupon Judgment is given for the Plaintiff, & quia ignorat. of what value the house was, there issued out a Writ to the Sheriff, to enquire of the value, and also to make Execution. The Sheriff hereupon returned, that it was sold by the Defendant before the Writ came to him, and adjudged no Return, because it doth not stand with the Judgment, but in an action of debt against an Executor, the Defendant confesseth the action, whereupon a Fi. Fa. issued out, here the Sheriff may return a nulla bona, for this well stands with the Judgment, because he confesseth only the action, not that he hath goods.

Upon a Writ of Error brought, it was assigned for Error, that the Defendant was not summoned at the Church-door, according to the Statute of 31 El. cap. 3. and that by reason of his default a grand Cape was awarded, and Judgement given against him, and so he lost his land by default, and indeed the Sheriff returned him summoned at the Church-door: And it was thereupon demurred, whether he should have this averment or no, or should be put only to have his action on the Case against the Sheriff; Gawdy Justice was of opinion, that it was error, and might well be assigned, but all the other Justices e contra, for that the Common Law if the Sheriff had returned the party summoned, where he was not, and thereupon a grand Cape was awarded, there was not any remedy but a Writ of Disceit, for the Judges ought to credit the Officers, and it is not any Error in them to award a grand Cape: So here, for as much as it is of Record before them, that the party was summoned according to the statute, they are bound to award a grand Cape; and it is not error, and this statute doth not intend to give other remedy than was at the Common Law for the Tenant; but Popham Chief Justice conceived, that the party might have a Writ of Disceit, if the Proclamation of Summons was not made according to the Statute, because he is not summoned according to Law; but Gawdy and Clench Justices, e contra, because it is a good summons by the Summoners upon the Land.

ing to the said president of the Lady Willoughby: but because in that case the Lady was a Widow, and so such a course might well be observed; but here she is a Feme-Covert, who ought to habit with her Husband, they would not take such a course with her but left her with her Husband, he entering into a recognisance, that she should not remove from the house wherein they then inhabited, and that one or two of the women returned by the Sheriff, should see her every day, and that two or three of them should be present at her travail; for it was said, that this issue might well be said to be the Child of the first Husband, and should inherit his land, so as if there were any false or supposititious Birth, the Coſin and Heir might be disinherited: Wherefore a writ was accordingly awarded to the Sheriff of Surrey, to cause her to be seen every day until her delivery, by two at least of the said women returned by him, and that three of them or more should be present with her at her delivery, so as no falsehood might be in the Birth.

And upon this return Brampton Serjeant took divers Exceptions: first, for the Forreist of Deane, there is not any Parish named wherein it lyes; sed non allocatur, for a Forreist is certain enough of it self. And he doth not shew here, that he is Lord of the Waste, and hath right to improve it: But Noy the Kings Attorneyp, who devised this Writ, said, that it sufficeth in a Writ, to shew the grief breviter, and if there be not any such person as may inclose, it ought to be shewn on the other side. Thirddly, it was objected, that this Inclosure is not shewn to be with the Kings License, and then it is without Warrant: But hereto was answered, that it ought to come in by Plea after appearance, and not by way of exception: It was also moved by Noy, that they had no day in Court, because the Writ and the Inquisition were returned the last Term, and they then not appearing and pleading, they shall not be received to come in by way of exception in this manner: And he shewed a Record, Trin. 15. Escape.

SECT. 1.

Where the Sheriff shall be chargeable therewith, and where the Bailiff; and what shall be adjudged an Escape, and how the Sheriff may discharge himself by act in Law, &c,

First, Where the Sheriff shall be chargeable for Escapes, and where the Bailiff, &c.

A Serjeant takes a prisoner taken upon a plaint to Escape, he only is chargeable.

If a plaint is leyed in the Sheriffs Court in London, and thereupon a Serjeant at Mace takes the Defendant, and in carrying of him towards the Compter, the Prisoner Escapes, here the Serjeant only is lable to an action for this Escape, and not the Sheriff: because the prisoner not being within the walls of the Compter, was never in the

Dunverf. Pary Mich. 13 Car. in B.R. Rolls tit. Escape 806

The Sheriff is Judge, not an Officer of that Court, though Goalier of the Compter.

Sheriffs custody: The Sheriff is the Judge of that Court, and not a Ministerial Officer to execute Process there; but he is Goalier of the Compter, and ought to answer for all Prisoners there.

Yet it is otherwise upon an arrest upon a Lat. for if an Escape is suffered, there the Sheriff is chargeable.

But if a Serjeant at Mace arrest a man by virtue of a Warrant issuing out upon a Latitat, and afterwards suffers him to Escape, before he brings him to the Compter; here in this case an action lyes against the Sheriff only for this Escape, because he was in the custody of the Sheriff presently upon this arrest; and the Sheriff is the Officer of the Court of Kings Bench, and not the Serjeant.

Ibidem.

Where a Bailiff errant is chargeable.

Where an Under-sheriff is chargeable.

Yet for a Bailiff insufficient return, the Sheriff is chargeable.

If J. S. puts his own name in a warrant, and suffers an Escape, the Sheriff is not chargeable therewith.

But if a Bailiff Itinerant take a man in Execution, and he suffer him to Escape, an action lyeth against the Bailiff himself; so likewise it is in case of an Under-sheriff: for it may be the High-sheriff knew nothing of the matter, because the Writ was delivered to the Under-sheriff and he took a fee for it, and therefore it is reasonable that he should be punished: But if a Return made by a Bailiff be insufficient, there the High-sheriff shall be amerced.

Per Snares Justice, Int. Marsh & Astrey, Leon. 2 part. 145.

But if the Sheriff directs his Warrant to his Bailiff, and afterwards J. S. puts in his own name, as Special Bailiff, and thereupon arrests the Defendant, who Escapes; here J. S. shall be only chargeable, and not the Sheriff, because the Defendant was never in the Sheriffs custody, but only in the custody of J. S.

Brown vers. Adams, Cr. El. 745.

What

What shall be an Escape in the Sheriff or Gaoler, &c.

Frosts case,
9 R. 89.

If the Sheriff hath one in his custody, against whom one B. hath a Judgment, if B. while the party is in the Sheriff's custody, bring a Ca. Sa. to the Sheriff, and desire him to detain him by virtue thereof and the Sheriff refuses, but suffers him to go at large; It was held by the Court, that it was an Escape in Law, for which an action well lyes.

It is an Escape for the Sheriff, not to charge a prisoner in Execution, after an Execution delivered to him.

Norgates case,
Tr. 13 Jac. per
Cook Rolls tit.
Escape 810.

A man recovers against two jointly, and takes both of them in Execution, and afterwards one of them is suffered to Escape: The Sheriff is liable to an action for this Escape, though the other continue in prison, & the whole Debt shall be recovered against the Sheriff.

A Judgment is had against two, one of them Escapes, the Sheriff shall pay the whole Debt.

Dr. Sutcliffe
vers. Sir Geo.
Reynell, Tr.
13 Jac. Rolls
tit. Escape 810.

So likewise where a man recovers against a man and his wife, and takes them both in Execution, and the wife Escapes; the Sheriff shall be charged with this Escape, and the whole Debt shall be recovered against him, though the husband continue in prison.

Judgment against husband and wife, they are both taken, the wife Escapes; the Sheriff shall pay the whole Debt.

The Sheriff of Essex his case,
Hob. 202.

If a Prisoner is willingly let out of prison by the Sheriff or Gaoler, and afterwards of his own accord, comes into the prison again, yet this is an Escape in Law, for which the Sheriff is chargeable: For the prisoners rendering of himself again, hath not purged the Escape.

For a prisoner to be let out of prison, although he return again, is an Escape.

What liberty a Prisoner in Execution may have upon a Hab. Corp.

Mich. 14 Car.
Cr. Car. 14.
Balden vers.
Temple, Mic.
15 Jac. Hob.
Rep. 202.

Although when a Hab. Corp. is granted for a prisoner in Execution, it is not justifiable for the Marshall by colour thereof, to let the Prisoner go at large with his keeper in the vacation or Term time until the appointed time when he is to return to prison; for the prisoner keeper shall have only a convenient time to bring the Prisoner in Court and to carry him back to prison again; and if they shall let him go at large any longer time than is convenient, at is an Escape.

Upon a Hab. Corp. in the vacation, the Sheriff must not let the Prisoner go at large, without his keeper. What time the Sheriff is allowed to bring in his Prisoners.

Nota, the Court is to judge how long time is convenient to bring a Prisoner before them, and how long time is sufficient to return him again.

Cr. Car. 466.

So likewise afterwards in Tr. 12 Car. it was held by all the Judges and Barons, that an Hab. Corp. was an ancient and legal Writ, yet under colour thereof, the Warden of the Fleet, nor Marshall, &c. ought not to suffer Prisoners to go at large; for such permission is an abuse of the Writ, and an Escape in the prison keeper: which resolution, the Book saith, the Kings approved very well of, and command it to be observed.

36. Oyer 166.

Per Cook Chief Justice, Prisoners sub custodia, are not to go out of the prison by bail & halston, unless it be by commandment of the King, or of the Kings Writs, or by agreement of the parties, and not otherwise; and such kind of liberty given them by their keeper, without any such former warrant is clearly an Escape in Law.

Prisoners in Execution must not stir out of the Prison without a Hab. Corp.

It

How the prisoner is punishable for an Escape.

It was resolved by the whole Court, That although a Prisoner depart from prison with his Keepers licence, yet it is an offence as well punishable in the Prisoner, as in the Keeper: And Calthorp made this difference betwixt breach of Prison, and Escape; the first is against the Gaolers will, the other is with his consent, but in both cases the Prisoner is punishable; whereunto the whole Court agreed.

Sir Miles Hobbert, and Sir Will. Strouds case, Cr. Car. 209.

Escape is a gainst a sworn Deputy-Marshal.

A Deputy-Marshal who was sworn in open Court, licenced a Prisoner charged in Execution, to go into the Country with a Keeper; and it was adjudged, that although he was but Under-Marshal, yet he was chargable, and the action well brought.

Gawdyes case, Dyer 278.

Where Fresh suit shall be well made, and how the Sheriff shall be discharged thereby.

Where fresh suit is a good plea.

Debt was brought against the Marshal, for suffering a Prisoner in Execution to Escape; he pleaded, that the Prisoner broke prison and escaped, and he freshly pursued her, and took her again in fresh suit; and to this plea the Plaintiff demurred: And the Court held, that this was not any plea, because by the action here brought, a voluntary permission re ad largum is implied, which is neither denied nor traversed; and if the Sheriff voluntarily permits a Prisoner to go at large, he cannot re-take him; and so this refusal as is alledged being after the action brought, is no plea.

Whitcing vers. Sir Geo. Reynell, Cr. Jac. 657, 658.

Debt against the Sheriff for the Escape of a Prisoner in Execution; the Defendant pleads, that the Prisoner escaped the 16th. of Dec. and that he freshly pursued him, and re-took him the 17th. of Dec. and retained him in Execution again; and thereupon it was demurred, and objected, that this was no excuse; but per Curiam the Sheriff is not liable to this action, for here the Sheriff used his endeavour, and took him again upon fresh suit, although that in the night or otherwise he might lose the sight of him. But if before he be re-taken, an action is brought against the Sheriff for the Escape, then the re-taking of him afterwards shall not avoid the Plaintiffs action, although the re-taking be upon fresh suit.

Grills vers. Ridgeway, Cr. El. 439. Tr. 2. Car. Ro. 1179. B. R. Harvey vers. Sir Geo. Reynell, accord. Trin. 13: Car. Ro. 1107. In B. R. Burford vers. Somes & Gayer, accord.

The Gaoler makes fresh suit so soon as he hath notice of the Escape, and good enough.

If a Prisoner escape out of prison by the negligence of the Keeper and is absent by a day and a night; and the Keeper doth not know this, but afterwards when he hath notice of this Escape, he makes fresh suit and re-takes the Prisoner, this is a good fresh suit, and shall excuse him.

M. h. 10 Car. B. R. Hinton vers. Sir Jo. Lenthall, Rolls tit. Escape 809

So likewise where a prisoner escaped at nine of the clock at night and was re-taken the next day immediately after notice, (viz.) at five of the clock in the morning, upon fresh pursuit: Et per Curiam this is a good fresh pursuit.

Elton vers. Sir Jo. Lenthall, Tr. 10 Car. in Br. Ro. 627. Rolls tit. Escape 809. Stones case, Go. b. M. 8 Car.

Refusal upon fresh suit, a quarter of a year after the Escape.

A Prisoner in Execution, by practice procured an Hab. Corp. to be removed before Cooke Chief Justice, at the Mises in Lent, and then he escaped, and afterwards in Easter Term following, the Bailiff re-took him, and thereupon he brought an action of false imprisonment: And the Court was of opinion, that the fresh suit made was good, although he re-took him the next Term after the Escape, if enquiry were made after him: And by consequence it was adjudged, that the action of false imprisonment did not lie against the Bailiff.

A man be taken upon a Cap. Utl. after Judgment; he is in Execution for the party, and if he Escape, although that he was taken at the Kings suit, yet the party hath such an interest in his body, that he shall have an Escape against the Sheriff.

When a Prisoner is taken by an erroneous Process.

There is a diversity between collateral things executory, and executed; for if a man is taken in Execution upon an erroneous Judgment, and Escapes, and afterwards the Judgment is reversed by Writ of Error, the action for the Escape is gen.; for he may plead nul tiel Record, because without Record the action is not maintainable, but until the erroneous Judgment or Execution is reversed by Writ of Error, the Sheriff or Gaoler shall not take advantage thereof, for there he cannot plead nul tiel Record, because until it is reversed by the award of the Court, it remains in force, although it be manifest Error: But if the Plaintiff brings an Escape against the Sheriff, and hath Judgment and Execution thereupon, and afterwards the first Judgment is reversed, yet because that this Judgment upon this collateral thing is executed, it shall remain in force notwithstanding the reversal of the first Judgment.

Burton vers.
Eyre, Cr. Jac.
288, 289.

So likewise it hath been adjudged, where a Testat Ca. sa. was directed to the Chancellor of Lancaster, that he should command the Sheriff to take the body of the Defendant, ad satisfaciend. &c. Ita quod predict. cancellarius haberet corpus def. &c. And thereupon the Chancellor commanded the Sheriff, that he should take the Defendant, ita quod the Sheriff should have him coram Iusticiariis, &c. And then the Sheriff arrested the Defendant, and afterwards permitted him to Escape, for which Escape the Plaintiff brought his action, and had a verdict: And it was moved in arrest of Judgment, that the Precept directed by the Chancellor to the Sheriff, was not warranted by the Writ directed to him, for it varies from the command; for it ought to have been, that the Sheriff should have the body of the Prisoner before the Chancellor, ita quod he shall have him before the Judges; and the Warrant is that the Sheriff himself should have him before the Justices: Sed non allocatur; for per Curiam, although there be Error in the Process, the Sheriff cannot take advantage thereof, but having suffered him to Escape, he is answerable to the party.

Ognell vers.
Baston, Cr. El.
164, 165.

Likewise upon a Recogn. in Chancery, 2. sci. sa. being issued out and returned, several Questions did arise:

1. The first Question was, whether a Ca. sa. lay or no.
2. The second Question was, admitting the Ca. sa. was not grantable, whether it be void, or only erroneous, so as the party must avoid it either by Audita querela, or Error.
3. The third Question, a Prisoner is in prison for suspicion of Felony, whether or no he may be charged in Execution by virtue of a Ca. sa.

As to all these points the Court resolved:

1. That

The Plaintiff may bring an Escape against the Sheriff, where the Defendant was taken upon a Ca. Utl. after Judgment, and Escaped. where a Prisoner is taken upon an erroneous Judgment, and Escapes, yet the Sheriff is chargeable.

Nul tiel Record a good plea for the Sheriff. Sheriff shall not take advantage of Error in Process. If after the original Judgment is reversed, before a Judgment had against the Sheriff, the Sheriff is discharged; but if another Judgment is recovered against the Sheriff, before the first Judgment is reversed, then he is still chargeable.

2. To the second Question, it was resolved, admitting the Ca. Sa. lay not, yet it is not void, but erroneous; and this the Sheriff shall not dispute, nor take advantage of; for it was a good warrant for him to take the body, and false imprisonment lyeth not against him therefore.
